Song Index 1733

Preface

A while ago, I got a mail from a guy down in Germany. It said:

Should you be interested, I have converted some of your html tabs to LaTeX, because I created my own Dylan songbook and wanted it to look as good as could be.

There were also some pdf files of a couple of songs. To be honest, I didn't think much about it – I didn't really see how a LaTeX version of 'some of the tabs' would ever be useful for me. LaTeX – that wildly complicated markup language which claimed to produce the most beautiful output, typographically, but at the cost of a steep learning curve, and a default output which makes everything look like something from a mathematical journal (because they are all made in LaTeX).

I answered back, politely, I think (I hope). The reply I got in return mentioned something about making a whole book that one could take to the local copyshop and get bound.

I still wasn't too impressed; I already had such a file – Adobe Acrobat could make the whole site into a big PDF file in a whiz, so why should I consider this anything special?

Well, in the end, I did, and I do, with ever greater thrill, joy, and inspiration, and the project, from which you are now reading this, has not only turned dylanchords.com into a beautiful book, it has also become a story of friendship, intellectual stimulation, and inspiration to learn, which has – among other things – led me (slowly, slowly) to pick up my programming attempts where I left them in college, after I had made a semi-functional version of Minesweeper with 8×12 squares in Basic (remember? the programming language which the school authorities in the eighties thought that everyone needed to learn, now that the computer age was coming); in the end, it also led me to finally ditching Windows in favour of Linux, something I should have done a long time ago.

What Seal can do

But first things first.

This book – I quickly learned that it was not simply a matter of stuffing all the tab files into a PDF file and that was that. For instance, print out some pages from the tab files on the net and try to play from that, and you will sooner or later – sooner, I'd guess – run into tab systems which are divided in the middle, or verses which have the chords on one page and the lyrics on the next.

Then turn to page ... – no, wait: any page – in this book, and you will find everything to be where it should be. Page breaks break pages, not songs.

If you're reading this directly from a PDF file, you will also be able to use the index and the table of contents as a link page – quite handy for a 1500+ pages book, and nothing that my Adobe-generated PDF dump could ever dream of.

And new additions to the site? Changes, revisions? No problem – they are incorporated directly the next time you run the program (as long as you have the updated files, of course).

You want just a booklet with the songs from Empire Burlesque instead of the whole book? Sure, make some small changes to one file, and you have your 'Love Songs from the Eighties' hit parade collection in your hand.

And last but not least: it looks good. There are details which distinguish a professionally printed page from what you dump from Your Average Word Processor to your printer. Some of them are considerable (such as fonts: if Your Average Word Processor is called MS Word, your font will by default be Times New Roman or Arial – bad choices, whichever way you look at it), other are more subtle and will most likely not be noticed by anyone without a special interest or a trained eye. Yet, I happen to think that they are important, not only for the typography freaks who delight in the perfect curve of a Garamond 'n' and who take it as a personal insult if page margins aren't proportioned according to the Golden Section. But in an age when most reading is done either from computer screens or from printouts from browsers or MS Word, where not a thought has been given to the visual appearance, I see it as the responsibility of anyone who produces text to make sure they are appealing; to counteract the print world's equivalent to elevator muzak. It is my firm belief that good typography will not save the world, but that bad typography ruins it just a little. Seal counteracts this – not bad for a piece of guitar-strummer's helper software, eh?

All this and more is done magically by Heinrich Küttler's creation, Seal. Here's what it does, as seen from a layman's perspective: it takes all the files from whatever version of Dylanchords you have got; turns it all into LaTeX files, where hyphenations, page breaks, fonts, layout, and what not is taken care of; generates an index from this; and outputs it to PDF or postscript. And voilà – you have a book in your hands, which rivals any chord book you can buy, both in terms of layout quality, and of usability and versatility.

In order for it to work, there was a whole lot that had to be done with the files on the site. When I started making the site in 1997, I didn't know much about html, and I used software which knew even less. Over the years, this had resulted in a jumble of files, some of which were ok, many of which were horrible, and none of which were valid files, in any definition of html.

But Heiner had put together a script which did away with the worst out-growths, and from there, I could clean out the rest. In May 2005 the files were good enough to replace the old ones. Thus, Seal turned out to have benefits beyond the use of Seal itself.

That is just about all I can tell you about it; for the technical details, ask Heiner. What I know is: it works!

What you can do

What you can do? Well, you can do anything you can with any other pdf file, such as: print it out or send it to your friends, but that's not what I was going to say. The contents is released under the Creative Commons (CC) licence. This means that you are free – and encouraged:

- to copy, distribute, display, and perform the work
- to make derivative works
 - as long as you:
- attribute the work in the manner specified by the author or licensor, and
- don't use it for commercial purposes.
- If you alter, transform, or build upon this work, you may distribute the resulting work only under a license identical to this one.

In other words: just like the dylanchords site, the contents is distributed freely, available for anyone who wants to play some good music, and – hopefully – learn something along the way. The conditions are that the attribution is retained, that you don't make any money from it (I don't count the free beer you get, playing from it in your local pub), and that if you use it in a "derivative work", e.g. include it in teaching material or make your own book, this new work should also be made publicly available under the same conditions.

The intention is to make sure the material is and will remain freely available, but without abandoning all control. That is why the CC licence is also labeled "Some Rights Reserved". It is not a complete "copyleft".

It goes without saying that this applies only to the parts of the contents which is in some way or another my "intellectual property" – the introductions and instructions, of course, but even the chord charts fall under this category, even though Bob Dylan, as the copyright holder of the original work, has the right to decide about their publication. The same, naturally, goes for the lyrics (where my contribution is more modest: correcting some errors in the published versions, and, probably, adding some new ones).

I've been hesitant to put a CC banner on the site before because of this – I wouldn't want to postulate a publishing licence for Dylan's work – but I now feel more confident and justified, both because the context is different, and because I now know more about the legal issues involved.

For me, this is a way of responding to the statement "Everybody must give something back for something they get". Working this closely with Dylan's music over the years has given me tremendously much: a deeper insight in one of the most remarkable musicians in modern Western culture; a peek into the musical universe populated by the likes of Dock Boggs, Woody Guthrie, heck, even Hank Williams, which I would otherwise never have touched but which has been opened up with Dylan as a guide; some great friends; some html skills; and an opportunity to tune my ear (and my guitar). This is my way of paying back.

Roadmaps for the Soul

General principles

Just a few words about the principles that (mostly) have been followed in making the tabs on this site.

First of all: this is a guitar site, not a “chord” site. The ideal “readers” I have in mind are the average (or average-to-good-to-very-good) guitar players, playing for their own enjoyment (let’s not talk about the neighbours – just love them). That means on the one hand that I transcribe the songs into what is convenient to play on a guitar, not necessarily into what is actually sounding – in other words: I use the capo, just like Bob Dylan himself. Just because a song happens to be played in the key of Eb major, doesn’t mean that it has to be tabbed in that key, when it is actually played in “C major” with a capo on the third fret.

2. A corollary of this is that my aim is not just giving the chords of a song, but also to figure out as exactly as possible what is being played in the version up for study.

3. On the other hand there is the problem of the “piano songs” and the “full band songs”. Whereas Dylan prefers (or preferred; things have changed) the keys of C major and G major on the guitar, he delights in odd, awkward keys with lots of black keys, especially C \sharp major (or D \flat major), when he’s at the piano. In these cases it is of course impossible to reproduce exactly what is being played. I still use a capo (of course). In the “full band songs” – especially in later years – Dylan usually just plays the chords, in any position, usually with barre chords somewhere up on the neck.

This means that there are three main types of tabs/chord-files on this site, corresponding with three kinds of arrangements: (1) The solo acoustic songs, or songs where the guitar work is of some prominence. Here exactness is a goal. (2) Then there is the big group of songs where no particular instrument is prominent, least of all Dylan’s guitar. Here the aim of the tabs is to present an approximation of what is going on in the song, rather than figuring out exactly what Dylan is playing (which in these cases is quite uninteresting, actually). (3) The piano songs constitute a sub-division of this group.

Many of the tabs are of rare live songs. I presume that anyone who would want to use the tabs already knows what the songs sound like. Therefore, more specific performance indications, apart from the fingerings, are considered unnecessary.

Chords and Chord Names

Chords and scales – a little theory and some terms. A chord is a selection of tones which are perceived as a unity and not just as several notes sounding at the same time. It gets its special character to a large extent thanks to the place the tones have in the tonal system, which, slightly simplified, means the hierarchical system of relationships between the relevant tones of a song or a style in general. In C major, the tone c is more central than a, which again is more central than f sharp.

It is customary to arrange the available tones in a scale, a “ladder”, and to refer to them according to their position in the scale. The keynote is called “prime”, the tone above it “second”, the next “third”, etc. Thus, the tones in a C major scale would be called:

The most weighty tones in the scale are the prime (or unison), the fifth, and the third (in C major: c, g and e). Then follow the remaining tones in the main scale (d, f, a, and b), and lastly the tones that are extraneous to the scale: the semi-tones (f sharp, e flat, etc.)

I mention the fifth before the third, but they are important in different ways. The fifth is stable, a loyal companion to the prime, always there, not without its conflicts, but they are always resolved, and always in favour of the prime – somewhat like a good old (or bad old, depending on the perspective) patriarchal marriage. In fact, one might consider all music within the western musical tradition (until the late nineteenth century in the art-music tradition, and until this day in the popular traditions) as nothing more than a play with the balance between these two scale steps.

As I said, the fifth is always there. When you strike a string, it will vibrate in many different ways. The whole string will swing and produce the loudest tone. But all the possible equal divisions of the string will also swing, and produce overtones. The difference in sound between different instruments is caused by different constellations of overtones – which are strong and which are not. The division of the string in two (at the twelfth fret) will sound an octave higher, i.e. with a tone of the same pitch class, which will strengthen the basic tone further. But the division in three, at the seventh fret, will produce the fifth. (Exercise: strike a bass string while touching it at the seventh fret, but without pressing it down. Then play the open string, and you should be able to hear the fifth in the full tone of the open string.) Thus, If you play a c, you will also hear a g.

The third is a different matter. Where the fifth gives support and reinforcement, the third adds character. It is unstable, at times nervously shimmering, other times over-earthly sonorous. It can not be defined as easily as the fifth. It lies two divisions above the fifth in the series of overtones (you can isolate it on a string by touching it, without pressing the finger down, at the fourth fret; this will divide the string in five) and therefore sounds less strongly than the fifth. Furthermore, it exhibits a peculiarity of the tonal system which has plagued theoreticians since the days of Pythagoras: if one stacks four fifths on top of each other – c-g, g-d, d-a and a-e – one might think that one gets to the same e as when one divides a string in five, but one doesn't – one gets to a tone that lies considerably higher (c. a quarter of a semi-tone, which is quite a lot). This is not really a problem, but an opportunity: tension is the mother of all development, and the third is as tense as it gets.

The most significant difference between the fifth and the third, though, is that, whereas there is only one fifth, there are two possible places for the third. Both c-e and c-e flat are thirds, but one is major, the other minor. The third is the interval which decides the most fundamental character of a chord: whether it is major or minor. C-e-g is a C major chord, c-e flat-g is C minor. The same distinction can be drawn on the second, sixth, and seventh steps, whereas the prime, the fifth, and the fourth can only be (violently!) augmented or diminished.

For “losers, cheaters, six-string abusers” (ain't we all...). The tabs present what is being played, by trained and proficient musicians (yes, I'm counting in Dylan). On the one hand Dylan is an ideal artist for a beginner, since he always uses quite simple and logical chord shapes, and licks and tricks that let him get maximum effect from minimum effort. Still, the beginner may run into problems, with strange chord names, barre chords etc. Here's just a few cheats.

(1) All chords, basically, go back to the three fundamental chords in a key (in C: C, G and F) and their minor relatives (Am, Em, Dm). Most frequent are the variations to the dominant chord, i.e. the chord on the fifth step above the key note (G in this example), where the variations are different ways of creating and sustaining tension before the return to the key note. That means that “strange” chord names can often be replaced by the simple chord without all the fuzz behind it (Gb+, E7-10, Dm7-5, Cadd9 become Gb, E, Dm, C). This does not happen without loss: the “fuzz” is there for some reason (e.g. the E7-10 is the quintessential blues chord, which is minor and major at the same time; it is an E chord, but the plain E does not get the same effect), but functionally the plain chord will usually do the job adequately.

(2) Chords can be replaced with their relatives. When I was nine, before I had the finger strength to play barre chords, I discovered that I could replace most F chords with Dm or Am – one of those would usually work. Now I know that the reason why it works is that they both share two out of three chord tones with F, which often is enough. I don't recommend this method, however (unless you're nine). It is cheating, and the only person you're fooling, in the long run, is yourself.

(3) Some songs are consistently noted with chords like Ab, Eb, Bb etc. That is because they are played with those chords, as barre chords, and in those cases I've seen no reason to introduce a capo. The easiest way to avoid those barre chords, is to drop all the bs, and play E, B, A instead. This only works if all chords have a b attached to them, though. Other chords you'll have to transpose based on the thorough knowledge of the outline of the fretboard that you've gained, e.g. from the figure below.

Chord short-hand. I usually present the chords used in the song, unless it should be obvious (someone who doesn't know how to play a C major chord probably doesn't have anything to do in here anyway...). Chords are presented with one number for each string, beginning with the lowest (6th) string. An open string is 0, a finger on the 3rd fret is 3 etc. An unused string is marked by 'x', and strings that are disregarded are marked '-'. Thus C major looks like this: x32010, and the recurring fill in "Blood in my Eyes" like this: x32010 -53--- -64--- -75---

Bass notes. I prefer to write the chords with the key note as the lowest bass note in the chord. Thus, even though C major can be played 032010 or 332010 (and often should be), either of the tones on the 6th string will disturb the "C-majority" of the chord, and is better left out, unless they are explicitly wanted, e.g. in a running bass progression.

A chord with a bass note other than the keynote is indicated with a slash between the chord name and the bass note: C/g is a C major chord with G as the lowest tone: 332010.

The slash and the bass note can be used alone to indicate a bass progression against a sustained chord: C /b /a /g (x32010 - x22010 - x02010 - 332010).

I usually use lower-case letters for these bass tones, because it looks less ugly.

Chord names. In general I use the following system (exemplified with C chords throughout): Major chords: C. Minor chords: Cm. The following table explains the additional symbols and chord types. All the examples are variants of C. Third = the third note of the scale from the key note, fifth = the fifth note of the scale, etc. Since there are only seven different steps in the scale, the second is the same as the ninth, the fourth is the same as the eleventh etc. In chord names one will usually use the higher of these, except where the basic triad is altered; e.g. C9 and not C2 (but Csus4 and Cm7-5). The reason for this is that all chords are considered as stacks of thirds over the keynote. The simplest chords consist of the first two thirds, so C = c-e-g. All the more "sophisticated" chords are considered as extensions of the basic chord with selections from the stack of thirds above it: c-e-g continues B♭-d-f-a, which are the 7th, the 9th, the 11th and the 13th. The convention is that a single number (e.g. 11) indicates how far up the stack goes, denoting the last member of the stack, not just a single tone: C11 consists of the all the tones in the stack, up to the eleventh, thus: c-e-g-b♭-d-f.

C⁷ ^{(minor) seventh}
x32310

The minor seventh is added to the root chord. Note that "minor" here refers to the tone on the seventh step (which can be both major and minor: B♭ and B), not to the chord itself i.e., it is a chord with a minor seventh, not a minor chord with a seventh – cf. the "m7" chord below. Note also that "7" alone always refers to the minor seventh. If the major seventh is used, it has to be specified with "maj7". The "minor" is usually left out of the name.

Cmaj7 major seventh
x32000

The major seventh is added to the root chord. Whereas the seventh chord usually has a dominant function, i.e. is used to lead back to the chord five steps lower (C7→F), the major seventh is rather a colouring of the chord, without this “driving” effect.

Cm7 x35343

The (minor) seventh is added to the minor chord. Cf. the “7” chord above.

The fifth of the m7 chord is lowered by a semitone.

C9 ninth
x32330

The ninth and the seventh are added to the root chord.

C+ augmented
x32110

The fifth is raised by a semitone (half step=one fret)

Co diminished
x34242

A stack of minor thirds. Since all the intervals in the chord are equal, any of the tones can function as root. Thus: Co=E♭o=F♯o=Ao. Hence, there only exists three different dim chords.

C11 eleventh
x33333

The seventh, ninth and eleventh are added to the root chord. Since these three tones make up the chord on the tone one step below the root (for C: B♭), this chord usually functions as a conflation of these two chords.

C6 sixth
x35555

The sixth is added to the root chord.

Csus4 suspended fourth
x33010

The third is temporarily “suspended”: raised to the fourth, and left there hanging in wait for a resolution back to the root chord. Thus, in a true sus₄ chord, the third is not included. If that were the case, the chord would be called add₁₁ or add₄. Note: the chord Cmsus₄ is identical to Csus₄ and might for this reason be considered redundant. But whereas the sounds are identical, the functions are not: the name indicates that this is in fact a Cm chord, it’s just a little indisposed at the moment.

Csus₂ x30010

Same as the previous, only that the third “hangs” below, on the second.

C₇₋₁₀ x3234x

The blues chord par excellence. Since it contains both the major and the minor third, the chord corresponds to the ambiguity of the third step in the blues scale. This chord is usually called 7+9 (or 7#9), but since the extra tone really functions as a low third (=tenth) and not a raised second, I prefer the name 7-10 (the raised ninth and the lowered tenth are of course the same tone on the guitar, although they are functionally different. Subtleties, subtleties!).

Caddx

Any added tone that does not fall within the stack of thirds upon which the rest of the system is based. A special case is chords containing tones which do belong to the stack, but not all the members below it. E.g., in the chord c-e-g-d (x32030), the d is the ninth, but since the seventh (b^b) is missing, the chord must be called Cadd₉ and not C₉. Note the difference between Cadd₉, which is a full C with an added d, and Csus₂, which is a plain C major chord where the third is temporarily suspended downwards to d.

C-x/C+x

Lowers/raises a scale step by a semitone (one fret). E.g. Cm₇₋₅ and C₇₊₁₃. Note: “+” does not mean that the 13th is added, but that it is raised.

C₅ ^{“Power chord”} x355xx

A chord containing only the prime (the root) and the fifth. In other words: a chord without the third. Since the third is the tone that defines whether a chord is major or minor, the “power chord” is neutral in this respect.

C(iii) x35553

A chord in the third position, i.e. fingered so that it begins on the third fret. Thus, the quality of the chord is not changed, only its sonority. (I have not been quite consistent concerning this notation, mostly due to the fact that the parentheses are space-consuming.)

These additions to the chord names can be combined in just about any way you like: Cmmaj9, Cadd9add13, Cm7-5, etc. Heck, you could even write Cmaj7add7 (x32303)

I usually also prefer simple names to “exact” names. A chord like 3x3211 should perhaps (but not necessarily) be called G11, but I prefer to call it F/g, since that more immediately says what is to be played (and because it retains the ambiguity inherent in the chord, between the subdominant and the dominant, which is so central to Dylan’s tonal language). See Blood in my Eyes for a more extreme case. (I’m beginning to change my mind on this, though. In the more recent tabs, you’ll see G11 more often than F/g).

Approximated chord names are written like “G6” (x33000) or F#m7’ (202200) for brevity.

Any chord can be fingered in many different ways. “C” does not “mean” x32010 – that is just the simplest and usually most convenient way to finger it. To get from chord name to a chord, you have to know where the tones are positioned on the fretboard. The tones are distributed on the strings as follows (e’ is the lightest string, E is the darkest):

e' || -f' - | -f#'| -g' - | -g#'| -a' | -
b  || -c' - | -c#'| -d' - | -d#'| -e' | -
g  || -g#- | -a-- | -bb- | -b-- | -c' | - etc.
d  || -d#- | -e-- | -f-- | -f#- | -g- | -
A  || -Bb- | -B-- | -c-- | -c#- | -d- | -

To find a chord like Am/f# (the most important chord in Trying to Get to Heaven), start with the basic chord (Am) and search out the bass tone (f#) on one of the darkest strings, where it can be played. In this case there are two possibilities: on the 4th string:

b  || -c' - | -c#'| -d' - | -d#'| -e' |
g  || -g#- | -a-- | -bb- | -b-- | -c' |
d  || -d#- | (e) - | -f-- | -f#- | -g- |
A  || -Bb- | -B-- | -c-- | -c#- | -d- |
E  || -F-- | -F#- | -G-- | -G#- | -A- |

or on the 6th:

e' || -f' - | -f#'| -g' - | -g#'| -a' |
b  || -c' - | -c#'| -d' - | -d#'| -e' |
g  || -g#- | -a-- | -bb- | -b-- | -c' |
d  || -d#- | -e-- | -f-- | -f#- | -g- |
A  || -Bb- | -B-- | -c-- | -c#- | -d- |
E  || -F-- | -F#- | -G-- | -G#- | -A- |

The second fingering is probably the best one, since it produces a fuller chord, and since you can use all the strings – unless the higher sound is precisely what you want, in which case the first fingering is better. In that case, xx4555 is a third alternative. It even has the advantage of having the key note (A) on the highest string, thus emphasising it.

In the same way we can find the fingering for the chord Bm7-5. First find the tones: Bm = b, d, f#. Add the 7th (a) and lower the 5th (f# → f), and we have the tones b, d, f and a.

b  | | -c' - | -c#' | -d' - | -d#' | -e' | -
g  | | -g#- | -a-- | -bb- | -b-- | -c' | - etc.
d  | | -d#- | -e-- | -f-- | -f#- | -g- | -
A  | | -Bb- | -B-- | -c-- | -c#- | -d- | -

We probably want the key note (b) in the bass, which in practice leaves us with the alternatives x2323x or x2x231. A third possibility is xx(3)435. (Note: Am/f# and Bm7-5 are actually chords of the same type. Am/f# is the same chord as F#m7-5. Try it!)

Reading Tab

The principles I've followed in the tabs have varied a little over the years, but the following points apply, as a rule, to all files:

The rhythm is indicated above the tab, with dots for each beat and : for the heavier beats:

: . . . : . . .

In the cases where an even finer subdivision is needed, a comma is used:

As far as possible I let the tabs be a graphical image of the rhythms, so that two spaces are of equal duration anywhere in the tab. That way one can easily differentiate between the triple time feel of this example

|-0---0-----|
|-0---0(0---0-0---0-0---0)-|
|-2---2-3---3-4---4-5---5--|
|-3---3-5---5-6---6-7---7--|

and the square rhythms of this (both from Blood in My Eyes):

|-0--0-(0--0--0--0--0)--|
|-2--2-3--3-4--4-5--5--|
|3--3-5--5-6--6-7--7-|

Repeats are indicated as in the previous example, or as written-out instructions (“x3”)

Sometimes I’ve indicated rhythms also in the “chords” part of the files. Then the bars are indicated, and the main pulse within each bar. I’m sorry to say that I haven’t followed any consistent system to denote subdivisions of the beat, but I’ve often joined such chords together with a hyphen:

The last bar might be tabbed:

      : . . .
|-0---0-0-0-----|
|-0---2-0-0-----|
|-1---2-1-1-----|
|-2---2-2-2-----|
|-2-----2-----|

Open/alternate tunings

For some of the songs, Dylan uses alternate or open tunings. An open tuning is a tuning where all the strings are tuned to a chord, whereas alternate tunings are altered in some other way.

Open tunings

There were tuned instruments before the guitar’s ancestors. They were usually tuned in open fifths, usually with drone strings and one or two melody strings. The baroque lute was tuned to an open d minor chord (with additional bass strings). The main advantage of the fourths/third tuning that we use, is the possibility of creating simple fingering patterns for many different chords in the same position.

An obvious consequence of open tunings is that playing is more limited to the key to which the open strings are tuned. The benefits are quite simple chord shapes, at least for the basic chords, which makes it easier to do fancy things on top of those chords; furthermore, unless one produces the other chords by simply putting a barre across all the strings, there will usually be open, sounding strings in all chords, thus giving a handy set of fancy-chords-with-very-long-names.

The most common open tunings (and the only ones encountered in Dylan's production) are open D, open E, open G, and (in two songs) open A.

Open D and E are basically the same tuning, only one tone apart. Open E gives a brighter sound, which may be preferable, but it has the nasty side-effect of also producing the sharp sound of a broken string more often, and of putting extra strain on the neck of the guitar, so it is recommended to tune to open D and use a capo on the 2nd fret. Open D/E is encountered in a number of the songs on Freewheelin', and the entire Blood on the Tracks was originally recorded in this tuning. For a more thorough presentation of Dylan's use of the open D/E tuning, I refer to my introductory notes on Blood on the Tracks.

Songs in open D/E tuning

Open G is the most common slide guitar tuning, popular among delta blues players. Since Dylan was an old delta blues player himself early in his career, you'll find a few songs in this tuning. The only song on this site, though, is I Was Young When I Left Home.

Open A. Two songs uses a completely different tuning: the Freewheelin' outtake Wichita and One too many mornings.

Alternate tunings

Again, there are really only three different tunings to keep track of in Dylan's catalogue: drop D, drop C and double drop D (to my knowledge he's never played "drop dead"). They all involve the 6th and deepest string: in drop D, the 6th string is tuned one step down, and in drop C, two steps. In double drop D both the 1st and the 6th strings are tuned down to D.

E A d g b e'
Standard tuning

D A d g b e'
Drop D

C A d g b e'
Drop C

D A d g b d'
Double drop D

All these tunings have their own distinct sets of chords, always centering around the deepest bass tone. An example is the chord G. In drop D tuning, the central chord is D (000232). Thus the natural way to finger G is 020033. In drop C, on the other hand, the central chord is C (032010), and the most comfortable version of G is 220001. This is a G7 chord, and this is consequently the only tuning in which Dylan consistently uses the dominant 7th chord, which he usually shuns. Another instructive example is Desolation Row, where drop C is used on the album, drop D in the live shows of 1965/66.

The three tunings had their periods. Double drop D is a thing of the early days. Since the third in the D chord (on the first string) is gone, it's a perfect tuning for modal, folksy songs like Ballad of Hollis Brown or John Brown, or blues tunes like Rocks And Gravel, Motherless Children, West Texas and Quit Your Low Down Ways. Drop D is also favoured in the early days. It is not as insistently a D-ish tuning as double drop D – it is more versatile, used both as a folksy, modal tuning as in Barbara Allen or Masters of War, and as a way of varying the sound of standard three-chord songs like Mr Tambourine Man. Drop C is the favoured tuning in 1965/66, both solo, with Robbie in hotel rooms, and with the band on stage. It gives a very forceful foundation, thanks to the doubled C in the bottom.

The merit of all these tunings is the fuller sound they produce. This may be a need felt by a solo acoustic act, but in a band, there is a bass player to fulfill that function. Double drop D disappeared very early, and there are no drop C songs after the 1966 tour. But on two songs he has been faithful to drop D, throughout his career: It's alright ma and A Hard Rain's A-Gonna Fall.

Fingering

The F word. Uh, chord. You will not get far in the world of Dylan songs if you can't finger it. In general, what one can say about the F chord applies to all chords where you need to finger all the strings. There are four ways:

Songs in Double Drop D tuning

Down the Highway	Rocks And Gravel
Ballad of Hollis	Motherless Children
Brown	West Texas
John Brown	Quit Your Low Down Ways

Songs in Drop D tuning

Gospel Plow	I Rode Out One Morning
See That My Grave is Kept Clean	James Alley Blues
Fixin' to Die	Mr Tambourine Man
Long Ago, Far Away	It's Alright Ma
Masters of War	Desolation Row
A Hard Rain's A-Gonna Fall	Tell me Momma
Handsome Molly	House Carpenter
Cuckoo Is A Pretty Bird	Broke Down Engine
Barbara Allen

Songs in Drop C tuning

The Two Sisters (1960)	Absolutely Sweet Marie
It's All Over Now, Baby Blue	Just Like a Woman
Love Minus Zero/No Limit	I Wanna Be Your Lover
Desolation Row	Farewell Angelina
4th Time Around	On A Rainy Afternoon/Does She Need Me?
Sad-Eyed Lady of the Lowlands	What Kind Of Friend Is This?

Barre chords. This requires a strong index finger, but, perhaps even more, a relaxed hand: you should not press too hard either. Your hand should know (from experience) just how hard you have to press to make all the strings sound clean, but without straining you hand.

Use your thumb. Any classical guitar teacher would kill me for saying this (and then he would kill you for following my advice), but in a sense, while they shoot me through the head, they are also shooting themselves in the foot. The reason for the classical guitarists' "thumb always below the middle of the neck" rule is to ensure economy of means: a maximum flexibility with a minimum of physical effort, but if you don't need to play chords like 243115, which you don't (it can be done, though...), the most economical thing is to use the thumb. The switch between C=332010 and F=133211 is much, much easier and smoother with the thumb-F than with the barre-F. Again, you don't have to push very hard to get the sound you need. (Besides, there is no way on earth you are ever going to look as cool as Keith Richards if you only play barre chords.)

Use only some strings, and/or open strings. You don't always have to finger all six strings. If you play with an emphasis on the bass, you can do with 133xxx, or if you need the full chord or a brighter sound, xx3211 is perfectly acceptable. In the latter case, you can even play x03211, since a is part of the F chord. A similar case is B flat, a terrible chord to finger the ordinary way (x13331), but much more playable as xx0331 or x5333x.

This is not limited to "standard" barre chords; a chord like A benefits strongly from a barre treatment (with or without the first string), both because it is easier, and because you can then easily switch to D/a=x04232. A half barre on the middle strings (A=x02220 with the index finger bent at the last joint) is a handy technique to have acquired.

Cheat. Try some closely related chords instead, like D minor or A minor, or allow some open strings (x03210, e.g.).

G major. This chord should be fingered with the middle, ring, and little fingers. This leaves the index finger free to do other things, or to move in position for the C chord which is very likely to follow, at least in Dylan's idiom. This is particularly true of the embellishing figure G – C/g – G (320003 – 3x2013 – 320003) which you will find all over Dylan's output. Watch Joan Baez do that with the "index-middle-ring-finger G" in Renaldo & Clara (or is it the Hard Rain TV special?), then go and rehearse the "pinky G" instead (I cringe everytime I watch that sequence) (she's cute, though).

And again, cheating can be a good thing. You may not need the first string: 32000x is perfectly legitimate, and should it happen to sound anyway (320000), no big harm is done – you're just playing G6 instead. . .

Dampening. Sometimes you have to dampen some strings. To play G11=3x3211 you need both the sixth string, which is the only g in there, and all the others, but you don't want the a on the fifth string. You have to mute it with the ring finger.

F6 is an even trickier chord. It has to be played 13x231, because you need both the c and the d. Again, the ring finger does the muting. (Another alternative is to play xx3535).

"How on earth. . . am I supposed to play 355443 from 'In the Garden'?" Answer: you're not. You pick some of the strings, perhaps different strings each time. It's a bit mean of me to write a chord like that, but my intentions are good.

Incidentally (and you are never going to need this for playing Dylan), 243115, which I mentioned above, can be played with a "twisted barre", with an index finger that covers both the two 1s (second and third string) and the 2 on the sixth string. The chord can be called F#m maj9-5. (Exercise 1: find out why. Exercise 2: find other names for it. ["Gerald" is not a legitimate answer.]

Fingerpicking

Although he doesn't use it much these days, many of the old songs use what I call "standard fingerpicking". I don't know if there is such a thing, but here is what I mean, as an example. (Chords: G and C. 'h' in the second measure means hammer-on)

G	C/g
-3-----	-----3-----	ring finger
-----0-----	-0h1-----	middle finger
-----0-----0-	-----0-----0-	index finger
-----0-----0---	-----2-----2---	thumb
-----	-----	(thumb)
-3-----3-----	-3-----3-----	thumb

The variations are of course unlimited, but the main principle is as rock solid as the thumb ought to be: The thumb alternates between the bass strings, and the other fingers fill in.

For examples of different patterns, more or less fully written out, see the following songs:

- Girl of the North Country
(several versions, fully written out)
- Boots of Spanish Leather (same song, musically speaking)
- Percy's Song
- Don't Think Twice, It's All Right
(basically simple, if it wasn't for all the little details...)
- Suze (The Cough Song)
- Cocaine Blues
- Barbara Allen
("tricky licks" department)
- Rocks and Gravel
- Seven Curses
(quite similar to Rocks and Gravel)
- Buckets of Rain
(open E tuning)
- Tomorrow is a Long Time
(standard and open E tuning)

Harp Keys

Christer Svensson has compiled a list of the keys of all the Dylan songs featuring a harp on the official albums. Very impressive work! I haven't double-checked it, but it seems right.

General remarks

Below is a list of the harp keys used on Dylan's albums. If the harp key is the same as the guitar or piano or backing group (this is known as first position), I'll just write the key name. If he's playing in second (also known as cross) position, or if the song is in a minor key and he's playing in fourth position, I'll give you the real key first and then the harp key, divided by a slash. E.g. G means the song is in the key of G using a G harp. G/C means the song is in the key of G using a C harp in second aka crossed position. Eminor/G means the song is in the key of E minor using a G harp in 4th position. Blues players sometimes use 3rd position, C harp in the key of D for example. I don't think I've heard Dylan use 3rd position, though.

So you'll use a G harp in 2nd position for playing in D if you want a bluesy sound. Rita May is one example. You can use the G harp in 4th position to play in E minor. That's the way he recorded Sara. Hurricane is also 4th position, A minor on a C harp. In 1st position the key note is in holes 1, 4, 7 and 10, all blow notes. In 2nd position the key note is in hole 2 draw, and holes 3, 6 and 9 blow. In 4th position the key note is in holes 6 and 10, both draw..

These are the relationships between harp and backing for second and fourth positions:

Harp	G	A \flat	A	B \flat	B	C	D \flat	D	E \flat	E	F	F \sharp
2nd pos	D	E \flat	E	F	F \sharp	G	A \flat	A	B \flat	B	C	D \flat
3rd pos	E	F	F \sharp	G	A \flat	A	D \flat	B	C	D \flat	D	E \flat

Well, I don't know why I love you like I do
Nobody in the world can get along with you
You got the ways of a devil sleeping in a lion's den
I come home last night you wouldn't even let me in.
Oh sometimes you're as sweet as anybody want to be
Oh when you get the crazy notion of jumping all over me
Well, you give me the blues, I guess you're satisfied
When you give me the blues I wanna lay down and die.

I helped you when you had no shoes on your feet, pretty mama
I helped you when you had no food to eat
Now you're that kind of woman that just don't understand
You're taking all my money and give it to another man.
Well, you're that kind of woman makes a man lose his brains
You're that kind of woman drives me insane
Well, you give me the blues, I guess you're satisfied

Wintertime in New York town
The wind blowing snow around
Walk around with nowhere to go
Somebody could freeze right to the bone
I froze right to the bone
New York Times said it was the coldest winter in seventeen years
I didn't feel so cold then.

I swung on to my old guitar
Grabbed hold of a subway car
And after a rocking, reeling, rolling ride
I landed up on the downtown side:
Greenwich Village.

I walked down there and ended up
In one of them coffee-houses on the block
Got on the stage to sing and play
Man there said: "Come back some other day
You sound like a hillbilly
We want folksingers here.

Well, I got a harmonica job begun to play
Blowing my lungs out for a dollar a day
I blowed inside out and upside down
The man there said he loved my sound
He was raving about he loved my sound
Dollar a day's worth.

After weeks and weeks of hanging around
I finally got a job in New York town
In a bigger place, bigger money too

Even joined the Union and paid my dues.

Now, a very great man once said
That some people rob you with a fountain pen
It don't take too long to find out
Just what he was talking about
A lot of people don't have much food on their table
But they got a lot of forks and knives
And they gotta cut something.

So one morning when the sun was warm
I rambled out of New York town
Pulled my cap down over my eyes
And heated out for the western skies
So long New York
Howdy, East Orange.

In My Time of Dyin'

Sung by Bob Dylan on the self-titled album (1961)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

The song is basically just a finger-picking/bottleneck exercise over a sustained chord in Open D/E tuning. It's all in the singing... :-)

Open D tuning (D-A-d-f#-a-d')/Capo 4th fret or (preferably, since the 12th fret is easier to hit then) Open E tuning (E-B-e-g#-b-e')/capo 2nd fret.

Below is the intro and the first verse tabbed the way it is played. All the slide figures are played with the bottleneck, but if you haven't emptied your bottle yet, the fingers will have to do.

The lick that is played here and there in the intro and between lines eventually settles into a more fixed form:

Well, in my time of dying don't want nobody to mourn
All I want for you to do is take my body home
Well, well, well, so I can die easy
Well, well, well
Well, well, well, so I can die easy
Jesus gonna make up, Jesus gonna make up
Jesus gonna make up my dying bed.

Well, meet me Jesus, meet me, meet me in the middle of the air
If these wings should fail to me,
Lord, won't you meet me with another pair?
Well, well, well, so I can die easy
Well, well, well
Well, well, well, so I can die easy
Jesus gonna make up, Jesus gonna make up
Jesus gonna make up my dying bed.

Lord, in my time of dying don't want nobody to cry
All I want you to do is take me when I die
Well, well, well, so I can die easy
Well, well, well
Well, well, well, so I can die easy
Jesus gonna make up, Jesus gonna make up
Jesus gonna make up my dying bed.

Man of Constant Sorrow

First published in 1913 by the blind Richard Burnett. Also recorded by the Stanley Brothers and others.

Played by Bob Dylan on Bob Dylan (1962), and released in a live version (from the TV show "Folk Songs & More Folk Songs", March 1963) on No direction home (2005)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

I am a man of constant sorrow
/b D G /c-b D/a
I've seen trouble all my days
 G C
I'll say goodbye to Colorado
 D G
Where I was born and partly raised.

Your mother says I'm a stranger
My face you'll never see no more
But there's one promise, darling:
I'll see you on God's golden shore.

Through this open world I'm about to ramble
Through ice and snows, sleet and rain
I'm about to ride that morning railroad
Perhaps I'll die on that train.

I'm going back to Colorado
The place that I started from
If I had known how bad you'd treat me honey
I never would have come.

Version from spring tour 2002

For the spring tour 2002, Dylan brought out this song again, and played it in a version that is basically the same as the version from Oh Brother, where art thou? (which again is based on Ralph Stanley's version), crossed with the start/stop arrangement of Cold Irons Bound.

The bracketed lines are sung in three-part harmony with Larry and Charlie.

The tab is based on the version from Stockholm, Apr 5, 2002. I have a vague recollection of seeing him play it in C (chords: C, F and G) in Oslo two days later, but I may be wrong – I had other things on my mind. Anyway, F is the key of the version in the film, so Bob may have copied that too (can that man never come up with an original thought...?) (just kidding) (in case you wondered).

F . . . F . . . Bb . . .
I am a man of constant sorrow
 C . . . F
I've seen trouble all my days
F . . . F . . . Bb . . .
I'll bid farewell to old Kentucky

. C F
 The place where I . . . was born and raised.

 [The place where he . . . was born and raised.]

Through this whole world I'm bound to ramble
 Through ice and snow, sleet and rain
 I'm about to ride that morning railroad
 Perhaps I'll die on that train.
 [Perhaps he'll die on that train.]

Your friends say that I'm a stranger
 My face you'll never see no more
 But there's one promise, one promise that is given:
 We'll meet again on that golden shore.
 [We'll meet again on that golden shore.]

For six long years I've been in trouble
 Nor pleasure here on earth I find
 For I'm bound to ride that morning railroad
 Perhaps I'll die on that train
 [perhaps he'll die on this train.]

I am a man of constant sorrow
 I've seen trouble all my days
 I'll bid farewell to old Kentucky
 The place that I was born and raised.
 [The place where he was born and raised.]
 [The place where he was born and raised.]
 [The place where he was born and raised.]

The Soggy Bottom Boys version:

I am a man of constant sorrow
 I've seen trouble all my days
 I bid farewell to old Kentucky
 The place where I was born and raised
 (The place where he was born and raised)

For six long years I've been in trouble
 No pleasure here on earth I found
 For in this world I'm bound to ramble
 I have no friends to help me down
 (He has no friends to help him down)

It's fare thee well my old true lover
 I never expect to see you again
 For I'm bound to ride that northern railroad
 Perhaps I'll die upon this train
 (Perhaps he'll die upon this train)

You can bury me in some deep valley
 For many years where I may lay
 And you may learn to love another

While I am sleepin' in my grave
(While he is sleepin' in his grave)

Maybe your friends think I'm just a stranger
My face you never will see no more
But there is one promise that is given
I'll meet you on God's golden shore
(He'll meet you on God's golden shore)

Album version

One verse intro (w/harp)

*I've been around this whole country
But I never yet found Fennario.*

G
Well, as we marched down, as we marched down
D
Well, as we marched down to Fennario'
G C
Well, our captain fell in love with a lady like a dove
D G
the name that she had was Pretty Peggy-O

Well, what will your mother say, what will your mother say
What will your mother say, Pretty Peggy-O
What will your mother say to know you're going away
You're never, never, never coming back-io ?

Come a-running down your stairs
Come a-running down your stairs
Come a-running down your stairs, Pretty Peggy-O
Come a-running down your stairs
Combing back your yellow hair
You're the prettiest darned girl I ever seen-io.

The lieutenant he has gone
The lieutenant he has gone
The lieutenant he has gone, Pretty Peggy-O
The lieutenant he has gone, long gone
He's a-riding down in Texas with the rodeo.

Well, our captain he is dead, our captain he is dead
Our captain he is dead, Pretty Peggy-O
Well, our captain he is dead, died for a maid
He's buried somewhere in Louisiana-O.

Live version (Albany, NY April 18 1998)

D Em F#m
As we marched out, to Fennario

G D G
Well, our captain fell in love with a lady like a dove

And he called her by name Pretty Peggy-0

Would you marry me, Pretty Peggy-0
Would you marry me, Pretty Peggy-0
Would you marry me, your cities I will free,
Free all the ladies in the are-o.

I would marry you, sweet William-o.
I would marry you, sweet William-o.
I would marry you, but your guineas are too few.
I'm afraid my mama would be so angry-o.

What would your mama think, Pretty Peggy-0
What would your mama think, Pretty Peggy-0
what would your mama think if she could hear my guineas clink see me marching out ahead of my soldiers-o?

If ever I return, Pretty Peggy-0
If ever I return, Pretty Peggy-0
If ever I return, your cities I will burn
Destroy all the ladies in the area-o

Come tripping down the stairs, Pretty Peggy-0
Come tripping down the stairs, Pretty Peggy-0
Come tripping down the stairs, come and make your yellow hair
Bid your last farewell to sweet William-0.

Highway 51 Blues

Recorded by Bob Dylan on Bob Dylan (1961)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Played in Open D/E tuning. The song is played in E, so either tune in open E or (recommended) in open D with a capo on the 2nd fret. The basic chords are:

E 000000

A 020120

B x02100

The most dominant riff that goes through the whole song, or rather: wherever there is an E chord, is (it is mainly played on the bass strings, but of course it doesn't matter if more strings are sounding):

|-0-----|-----|
|-0-----|-----|
|-0-----|-----|
|-0-----|-3--0-5--0-3-----|
|-0-----|-3--0-5--0-3-----|
|-0-----|-3--0-5--0-3-----|

The verses end with a different lick:

      : . . . . :
|-----|-----|
|-----|-----|
|-----|-----|
|-3--0-----|-----|
|-----3p0-----|-----|
|-----3--|-0-----|

There are other riffs, but they are all mainly variations on the same theme: open strings and strings stopped on the 3rd fret. One might even use one's own imagination. . .

Highway 51 runs right by my baby's door
A                                E
Highway 51 runs right by my baby's door
      B
If I don't get the girl I'm loving
                        E
Won't go down to Highway 51 no more.

Well, I know that highway like I know my hand
Yes, I know that highway like I know the back of my hand Running from up Wisconsin way down to no man's land.

Well, if I should die before my time should come
And if I should die before my time should come

Won't you bury my body
out on the Highway 51.

Highway 51 runs right by my baby's door
I said, Highway 51 runs right by my baby's door
If I don't get the girl I'm loving
Won't go down to Highway 51 no more.

Mary, Mark and Luke and John,
All these prophets so good and gone,
Keep-a your hand on that plow, hold on,
Oh, Lord, Oh, Lord,
Keep-a your hand on that plow, hold on.

I never been to heaven, but I've been told,
Streets up there are line with gold,
Keep-a your hand on that plow, hold on,
Oh, Lord, Oh, Lord,
Keep-a your hand on that plow, hold on.

Dig my grave with a bloody spade,
See that my digger gets well paid,
Keep-a your hand on that plow, hold on,
Oh, Lord, Oh, Lord,
Keep-a your hand on that plow, hold on.

That gospel line gets mighty hot,

But just hang on with all you got,
Keep-a your hand on that plow, hold on,
Oh, Lord, Oh, Lord,
Keep-a your hand on that plow, hold on.

When I get to the glory land,
Gonna play in the glory land,
Keep-a your hand on that plow, hold on,
Oh, Lord, Oh, Lord,
Keep-a your hand on that plow, hold on.

Baby, Let Me Follow You Down

(trad./Eric Von Schmidt)

Released by Bob Dylan on Bob Dylan (1962) and on Biograph (1985), and in a live version on Live 1966 (1998)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Album version

Capo 2nd fret (sounding key A major)

Chords (The F is played with a hammer-on from the open 6th string):

Eb/g 3xx343
G/b 7xx787
D/a 5xx775 or x0x775
C/e 000553
D/f# 200232
C/g 332010

He doesn't always get the descent ("I'll do anything...") right – sometimes it seems he just sends the thumb away to some bass string (sometimes both the E and the A). Especially the G/b – it is generally so blurred that it's apparent that he's fingering something – most logically the 7th fret with the thumb – but the b rarely sounds, and at times he just plays an E on the open 6th string.

The tab of the intro below is fairly accurate, which does not mean that it should be slavishly copied; the basic features are the steady thumb and the triple feel of the treble strings, in some variation or another. Between the chords in the descent (mm. 3-5), the last upbeat of each chord is struck while in transition from one chord to the next, hence they are either muted (indicated with "x") or open strings.

 Ric is a blues guitar player.
 I met him one day in the green pastures of Harvard University.*

Can I come home with you, baby can I come home with you?
 Yes I'll do anything in this godalmighty world
 If you just let me come home with you.

Baby let me follow you down, baby let me follow you down
 Well I'll do anything in this godalmighty world
 If you just let me follow you down.

Yes I'll do anything in this godalmighty world
 If you just let me follow you down.

Additional verses (from Witmark demo):

I'll buy you a diamond ring, I'll buy you a wedding gown
 Yes I'll do anything in this godalmighty world
 If you just let me follow you down.

I just want you to understand, baby please understand,
 Well I'll do anything in this godalmighty world
 if you just let me be your man.

Live 1966 version

Differences from the above:

- Capo 2nd fret (Dylan's guitar anyway. Robbie may be playing without a capo)
- The F has much more of a Dm about it (sounds better as an Em or a G6 (320000) without a capo – but it's probably Garth on the organ)
- The Eb/g is played as a straight Eb (F without capo)
- The subtleties of the bass line ... well, what's a bass player there for anyway?

G          F      C          Eb
Baby let me follow you down, baby let me follow you down

G D C D
Well I'll do anything in this godalmighty world
 C D G
If you just let me follow you down.

I'll buy you a diamond ring, I'll buy you a wedding gown
Well I'll do anything in this godalmighty world
If you just let me follow you down.

Can I come home with you, baby can I come home with you?
Yes I'll do anything in this godalmighty world
If you just let me come home with you.

I'll buy you a broken twine, honey, just for you to climb
I'll do anything in this godalmighty world
if you just once drive me out of my mind

I'll buy you a serpent skirt,
I'll buy you a velvet shirt
I'll do anything in this godalmighty world
if you just don't make me hurt.

Baby let me follow you down, baby let me follow you down
Well I'll do anything in this godalmighty world
If you just let me follow you down.

House of the Rising Sun

(Bob Dylan/trad., arr. "borrowed" – along with some records – from Dave Van Ronk)

Played by Bob Dylan on Bob Dylan (1962)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Album version

Intro: (* = slide up on the sixth string). Interlude between verses something of the same as the intro.

Am . C/g . |D/f# . F . |Am . E . *|Am . . .

Am C/g D/f# F
 There is a house down in New Orleans
 Am C/g E
 they call the rising sun
 Am C/g D/f# F
 And it's been the ruin of many a poor girl
 Am E Am
 and me, oh God, I'm one.

My mother was a tailor,
 she sowed these new blue jeans
 My sweetheart was a gambler, Lord, down in New Orleans.

Now the only thing a gambler needs is a suitcase and a trunk
 And the only time when he's satisfied is when he's on a drunk.

He fills his glasses up to the brim and he'll pass the cards around
 And the only pleasure he gets out of life is rambling from town to town.

Oh tell my baby sister
 not to do what I have done
 But shun that house in New Orleans
 they call the rising sun.

Well with one foot on the platform and the other foot on the train
 I'm going back to New Orleans
 to wear that ball and chain.

I'm going back to New Orleans,
 my race is almost run
 I'm going back to end my life down in the rising sun.

There is a house in New Orleans
 they call the rising sun
 And it's been the ruin of many a poor girl
 and me, oh God, I'm one.

12 April 1963 (Fourth McKenzie Tape)

Drop D tuning (D-a-d-g-b-e'), guitar tuned a half step down.

Quite energetic playing on this one, despite the extreme simplicity. Most of the song is reduced to an alternating thumb between the two d-strings, with occasional turns to an f or c in the bass. But when he raises the energy level in the fifth verse, he really gets going.

The turns to f (indicated with "/f" in the tab) are either played with the full "/f figure" (see below), or just with the bass tone as in the fourth measure of the intro.

The a (third string, second fret) in the second measure of the /f-figure is probably just hammered on or sounded when the chord changes, without necessarily having to be thought about at all. It could also be picked with the index finger, but that disrupts the rhythm pattern a bit.

C

I was born in Dixie in a boomer shack

G C

Just a little shanty by the railroad track

Freight train was it taught me how to cry

G C

hummin' of the driver was my lullaby

I got the freight train blues

D G

Oh Lord mama, I got them in the bottom of my rambling shoes

C F

And when the whistle blows I gotta go baby, don't you know

C G C

Well, it looks like I'm never gonna lose the freight train blues.

Well, my daddy was a fireman and my old ma here,

She was the only daughter of an engineer

My sweetheart loved a brakeman and it ain't no joke

It's a shame the way she keeps a good man broke

I got the freight train blues

Oh Lord mama, I got them in the bottom of my rambling shoes

And when the whistle blows I gotta go oh mama, don't you know

Well, it looks like I'm never gonna lose the freight train blues.

Well, the only thing that makes me laugh again

Is a southbound whistle on a southbound train

Every place I wanna go

I never can go, because you know

I got the freight train blues

Oh Lord mama, I got them in the bottom of my rambling shoes.

Hey hey Woody Guthrie I wrote you a song
About a funny old world that's coming along
Seems sick and it's hungry, it's tired and it's torn
It looks like it's dying and it's hardly been born.

Hey Woody Guthrie but I know that you know
All the things that I'm saying and a many times more
I'm singing you this song but I can't sing enough

'Cause there's not many men that've done the things that you've done.

Here's to Cisco and Sonny and Leadbelly too
 And to all the good people that travelled with you
 Here's to the hearts and the hands of the men
 That come with the dust and are gone with the wind.

I'm leaving tomorrow but I could leave today
 Somewhere down the road someday
 The very last thing that I'd want to do
 Is to say I've been hitting some hard travelling too.

There's just one last favor I'll ask of you
See that my grave is kept clean.

Version from the Third McKenzie Tape (1962)

After singing one verse of this version, Dylan breaks off and says, "I don't play it like that anymore". Notice the extra beat in the measures with the intro figure, which breaks up the steady thumb movement. It takes some concentration or some practice to get it right.

Introductory notes

Eyolf Østrem

Ah, but what can I say...! This is the album that is responsible for my addiction to Dylan (and not because I bought it when it was released). It is not the one I play most regularly, but whenever I pick it out, I ask myself why I don't do it more often.

Several of the songs are part of the daily routine, of course. Don't Think Twice, Masters of War, Hard Rain, Girl of the North Country, not to mention Blowin' in the Wind – I do believe I hear at least one of these every day. Half an album of songs, almost 40 years old, by a then folk singer, that still hold their ground in the repertory of a man who has for 35 of those years been a rock artist – that's in itself a brand of quality. And the rest of the songs ain't so bad either.

What this album first of all shows (and which was confirmed by Good As I Been To You) is what an accomplished guitar player Dylan was – and still is, when he wants to. There is some really nice guitar work on some of these tracks: the finger-picking on Don't Think Twice and Talkin' WW3 Blues, the free-rhythmical blues à la Big Joe Williams of Down the Highway, the lyricism of Corrina Corrina, and the persistent, rhythmical hammering-on of Masters of War. None of it is really (really) difficult – he gets as much effect as possible from techniques that are actually quite simple (once you master them). This is not to say that he's a cheater (those who have access to "Hero Blues", an outtake from the Freewheelin' sessions, can hear for themselves that Dylan anno 1963 had a quite good control of his instrument).

A contributing element is the use of altered or open tunings. Three of the songs on Freewheelin' are in open D (I shall be Free, Corrina Corrina, and Oxford Town) and three in Dropped D tuning (Masters of War, Down the Highway, and Hard Rain). Several of the outtakes also use such tunings. It is noteworthy that the playing style in these songs differs considerably from the style of the Blood on the Tracks songs, which were also originally played in open D tuning. It is said that it was Joni Mitchell who inspired and/or taught him to use open D tuning, and although he apparently knew it even ten years earlier, he didn't use the same style and technique then.

A striking unifying feature of the playing style of Freewheelin' is the many second-inversion chords, i.e. chords with the fifth in the bass, such as D/a (x00232), which is so prominent in Blowin' In The Wind. Another (I think related) feature is the many ways he uses to avoid the dominant, such as the turn C – Gadd4/b – G in Blowin' in the Wind and Bob dylan's Dream, about which I intend to write a little piece some day.

Girl from the North Country

Words and music Bob Dylan, with inspiration from Martin Carthy's arrangement of the traditional Scarborough Fair

Released on Freewheelin' (1963) and in different versions on Nashville Skyline (1969) and Real Live (1984)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Chords (Freewheelin' version):

G 320003
C/g 3x2013
Em9 05403x
D7/f# 20021x
Em 022000

(Nashville skyline version:)

G 320003
Bm 224432
C x32010

(Real Live and most other live renditions:)

G 320003
C/g 3x2013
"D" x54030
C x32010
Em 022000

The theoretically inclined may note the interesting change that the third chord has undergone, mainly because of the change in what follows.

The chords are the same as for Boots of Spanish Leather.

She once was a true love of mine.

Well, if you go when the snowflakes storm,
When the rivers freeze and summer ends,
Please see if she's wearing a coat so warm,
To keep her from the howlin' winds.

Please see for me if her hair hangs long,
If it rolls and flows all down her breast.
Please see for me if her hair hangs long,
That's the way I remember her best.

I'm a-wonderin' if she remembers me at all.
Many times I've often prayed
In the darkness of my night,
In the brightness of my day.

So if you're travelin' in the north country fair,
Where the winds hit heavy on the borderline,
Remember me to one who lives there.
She once was a true love of mine.

30th Anniversary Celebration version (1991)

As the Real Live version (with the same emphatical C/g-G at the end of lines). In some verses the Em is played xx5450.

Ends with the following scale figure (the a in parentheses is accidental...):

  C/g          G

Düsseldorf, Nov 8, 2003

New version, which is a cross between Ring Them Bells and Friend of the Devil (and, for that matter, One Too Many Mornings)

Capo 1st fret

As so often: what is actually played by all the individual instruments would be impossible to put into a single guitar. What is important in this version is the bass and the chord sequence. An outline of these is presented below. Some of the chords might be played differently, such as the E/g#, which is more correctly played 420100 (instead of 420000, which gives a much more muddy sound), and the last line, which could be played:

C Am Dm/f . | C/e C/g C . |

Masters of War

Words and music Bob Dylan

Released on Freewheelin' (1963) and Biograph (1985) and in live versions on Real Live (1984) and on No direction home (2005)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

The source of the melody is the folk tune Nottamun Town (Roger McGuinn's did this)

Capo 3rd fret (sounding key F minor, but it is tuned a bit low on the record)

Dropped D tuning (DADgbe')

Chords:

Cadd2 030030
Dm/f 003230 or 003030
G/b 020030

Occasionally the G/b chord is inserted in the return from Cadd2 to Dm.
At *) a Cadd2 is inserted in some of the verses.

Intro and recurring rhythmical pattern:

You that hide behind desks
Cadd2
I just want you to know
Dm
I can see through your masks

You that never done nothin'
But build to destroy
You play with my world
Like it's your little toy
You put a gun in my hand

And you hide from my eyes
 And you turn and run farther
 When the fast bullets fly

Like Judas of old
 You lie and deceive
 A world war can be won
 You want me to believe
 But I see through your eyes
 And I see through your brain
 Like I see through the water
 That runs down my drain

You fasten the triggers
 For the others to fire
 Then you set back and watch
 When the death count gets higher
 You hide in your mansion
 As young people's blood
 Flows out of their bodies
 And is buried in the mud

You've thrown the worst fear
 That can ever be hurled
 Fear to bring children
 Into the world
 For threatening my baby
 Unborn and unnamed

Dm/f

You ain't worth the blood
 Cadd2 Dm
 That runs in your veins

How much do I know
 To talk out of turn
 You might say that I'm young
 You might say I'm unlearned
 But there's one thing I know
 Though I'm younger than you

Cadd2

Even Jesus would never
 G/b Dm
 Forgive what you do

Let me ask you one question
 Is your money that good
 Will it buy you forgiveness
 Do you think that it could
 I think you will find
 When your death takes its toll
 All the money you made
 Will never buy back your soul

And I hope that you die
 And your death'll come soon
 I will follow your casket
 In the pale afternoon

And I'll watch while you're lowered
Down to your deathbed

Dm/f

And I'll stand o'er your grave

Cadd2 Dm

'Til I'm sure that you're dead

(riff)

She's in some far-off land.

Well, your streets are gettin' empty,

Lord, your highway's gettin' filled.

And your streets are gettin' empty

And your highway's gettin' filled.

Well, the way I love that woman,

I swear it's bound to get me killed.

Well, I been gamblin' so long,
Lord, I ain't got much more to lose.
Yes, I been gamblin' so long,
Lord, I ain't got much more to lose.
Right now I'm havin' trouble,
Please don't take away my highway shoes.

Well, I'm bound to get lucky, baby,
Or I'm bound to die tryin'.
Yes, I'm a-bound to get lucky, baby,
Lord, Lord I'm a-bound to die tryin'.
Well, meet me in the middle of the ocean
And we'll leave this ol' highway behind.

Well, the ocean took my baby,
My baby stole my heart from me.
Yes, the ocean took my baby,
My baby took my heart from me.
She packed it all up in a suitcase,
Lord, she took it away to Italy, Italy.

So, I'm a-walkin' down your highway
Just as far as my poor eyes can see.
Yes, I'm a-walkin' down your highway
Just as far as my eyes can see.
From the Golden Gate Bridge
All the way to the Statue of Liberty.

Oh, what did you see, my blue-eyed son?
Oh, what did you see, my darling young one?
I saw a newborn baby with wild wolves all around it
I saw a highway of diamonds with nobody on it,
I saw a black branch with blood that kept drippin',
I saw a room full of men with their hammers a-bleedin',
I saw a white ladder all covered with water,
I saw ten thousand talkers whose tongues were all broken,

And it's a hard rain's a-gonna fall.

And what did you hear, my blue-eyed son?
 And what did you hear, my darling young one?
 I heard the sound of a thunder, it roared out a warnin',
 Heard the roar of a wave that could drown the whole world,
 Heard one hundred drummers whose hands were a-blazin',
 Heard ten thousand whisperin' and nobody listenin',
 Heard one person starve, I heard many people laughin',
 Heard the song of a poet who died in the gutter,
 Heard the sound of a clown who cried in the alley,
 And it's a hard, and it's a hard, it's a hard, it's a hard,
 And it's a hard rain's a-gonna fall.

Oh, who did you meet, my blue-eyed son?
 Who did you meet, my darling young one?
 I met a young child beside a dead pony,
 I met a white man who walked a black dog,
 I met a young woman whose body was burning,
 I met a young girl, she gave me a rainbow,
 I met one man who was wounded in love,
 I met another man who was wounded with hatred,
 And it's a hard, it's a hard, it's a hard, it's a hard,
 It's a hard rain's a-gonna fall.

Oh, what'll you do now, my blue-eyed son?
 Oh, what'll you do now, my darling young one?
 I'm a-goin' back out 'fore the rain starts a-fallin',
 I'll walk to the depths of the deepest black forest,
 Where the people are many and their hands are all empty,
 Where the pellets of poison are flooding their waters,
 Where the home in the valley meets the damp dirty prison,
 Where the executioner's face is always well hidden,
 Where hunger is ugly, where souls are forgotten,
 Where black is the color, where none is the number,
 And I'll tell it and think it and speak it and breathe it,
 And reflect it from the mountain so all souls can see it,
 Then I'll stand on the ocean until I start sinkin',
 But I'll know my song well before I start singin',
 And it's a hard, it's a hard, it's a hard, it's a hard,
 It's a hard rain's a-gonna fall.

 C G Am /g F C

An' it ain't no use in turnin' on your light, babe
 That light I never knowed
 An' it ain't no use in turnin' on your light, babe
 I'm on the dark side of the road
 Still I wish there was somethin' you would do or say
 To try and make me change my mind and stay
 We never did too much talkin' anyway
 But don't think twice, it's all right

So it ain't no use in callin' out my name, gal
 Like you never did before
 An' it ain't no use in callin' out my name, gal
 I can't hear you any more
 I'm a-thinkin' and a-wond'rin' walkin' down the road
 I once loved a woman, a child I'm told
 I give her my heart but she wanted my soul
 But don't think twice, it's all right

So long, honey babe *)
 Where I'm bound, I can't tell
 Goodbye is too good a word, gal
 So I'll just say fare thee well
 I ain't sayin' you treated me unkind
 You could have done better but I don't mind
 You just kinda wasted my precious time
 But don't think twice, it's all right

*) "I'm walking down that long and lonesome road" in most live versions ever since.

Gaslight III version (1962)

Well, it ain't no use to sit and wonder why, babe
 [hm]
 An' it ain't no use to sit and wonder why, babe
 If'n you don't know by now
 When the rooster crows at the break of dawn
 Look out your window and I'll be travellin' on You're the reason I'll be gone

Don't think twice, 'cause it's all right

So it ain't no use in callin' out my name, gal
[a-ia] like before
An' it ain't no use in callin' out my name, gal
I can't hear you any more
I wish there was somethin' you would do or say
To try and make me change my mind and stay
We never did too much talkin' anyway
But don't think twice, 'cause it's all right

Well it ain't no use in turnin' on your lights, babe
Lights I never knowed
An' it ain't no use in burnin' your lamp, babe
I'm on the dark side of the road
Well, it's lonesome travellin' down the lonesome road
I once loved a woman, a child I'm told
I give her my heart but she wanted my soul
But don't think twice, 'cause it's all right

So I'm ramblin' all by myself babe.
This time, maybe more
And I can't use nobody else, babe
Whatever you claimed before.
I ain't sayin' you treated me unkind
You could have done better but I don't mind
You just wasted my precious time
But don't think twice, 'cause it's all right.

Live 1964 version

Same as the album version, except:

- The beginning of the first verse goes:

Well, there ain't no use to sit and wonder why, babe
It don't matter anyhow.
And there ain't no use to sit and wonder why, babe
It don't matter anyhow.

- Between the verses, the G-G6-G7 figure is played (320003 – 32200x – 32300x)
- In the third verse, the second to last line is played:

C E Am /g F
I gave her my heart but she wanted my soul

- The last verse begins: "So I'm walkin' down that long, lonesome road, babe"

Before the Flood version (1974)

Basically the same as the album version, with the following changes:

- No fingerpicking – energetic strumming instead.
- No capo – played in key of C.
- Between each verse he stays on a Csus4-chord (x33010).
- The first verse goes (as in most live renditions):

Well, it ain't no use to sit and wonder why, babe
Iff'n you don't know by now.
And it ain't no use to sit and wonder why, babe
It don't matter anyhow.

(the lyrics from bobblyan.com are:

It ain't no use to sit and wonder why, babe
It don't matter, anyhow
An' it ain't no use to sit and wonder why, babe
If you don't know by now)

- And in the last verse, the first line is (as in the official lyrics):

I'm walkin' down that long, lonesome road, babe

Budokan version (1978)

Neat reggae version.

Well, it ain't no use to sit and wonder why, babe
Iff'n you don't know by now
An' it ain't no use to sit and wonder why, babe
It don't matter anyhow
When your rooster crows at the break of dawn
Look out your window and I'll be gone
You're the reason I'm trav'lin' on
Don't think twice, it's all right, babe
Don't think twice, it's all right

Current (2001) live version

Here's the fingerpicking that is played (not by Dylan himself) these days. Tabbed from various fall shows 2001.

Capo 5th fret (so it's still C major).

Bob Dylan's Dream

Words and music Bob Dylan
Released on Freewheelin' (1963)
Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

G

 G Am
While riding on a train goin' west,
 C/g D/f#
I fell asleep for to take my rest.
C /b G C/g G
I dreamed a dream that made me sad,
 D C /b G
Concerning myself and the first few friends I had.

With half-damp eyes I stared to the room
Where my friends and I spent many an afternoon,
Where we together weathered many a storm,
Laughin' and singin' till the early hours of the morn.

By the old wooden stove where our hats was hung,
Our words was told, our songs was sung,
Where we longed for nothin' and were satisfied
Jokin' and talkin' about the world outside.

With hungry hearts through the heat and cold,
We never much thought we could get very old.
We thought we could sit forever in fun
And our chances really was a million to one.

As easy it was to tell black from white,
It was all that easy to tell wrong from right.
And our choices they was few and the thought never hit
That the one road we traveled would ever shatter and split.

How many a year has passed and gone,
And many a gamble has been lost and won,
And many a road taken by many a first friend,
And each one I've never seen again.

I wish, I wish, I wish in vain,
That we could sit simply in that room again.
Ten thousand dollars at the drop of a hat,
I'd give it all gladly if our lives could be like that.

Some time ago a crazy dream came to me,
D          /f#
I dreamt I was walkin' into World War Three,

I went to the doctor the very next day

      /f# G          /a /b
He said it was a bad dream.

I wouldn't worry 'bout it none, though,

(/b) D

/f# G

They were my own dreams and they're only in my head.

I said, "Hold it, Doc, a World War passed through my brain."

He said, "Nurse, get your pad, the boy's insane,"

He grabbed my arm, I said "Ouch!"

As I landed on the psychiatric couch,

He said, "Tell me about it."

Well, the whole thing started at 3 o'clock fast,

It was all over by quarter past.

I was down in the sewer with some little lover

When I peeked out from a manhole cover

Wondering who turned the lights on us.

Well, I got up and walked around

up and down the lonesome town.

I stood a-wondering which way to go,

I lit a cigarette on a parking meter

And walked on down the road.

It was a normal day.

Well, I rung the fallout shelter bell

And I leaned my head and I gave a yell,

"Give me a string bean, I'm a hungry man."

A shotgun fired and away I ran.

I don't blame them too much though,

they didn't know me.

Down at the corner by a hot-dog stand

I seen a man,

I said, "Howdy friend, I guess there's just us two."

He screamed a bit and away he flew.

Thought I was a Communist.

Well, I spied me a girl and before she could leave,

I said: "Let's go and play Adam and Eve."

I took her by the hand and my heart it was thumpin'

When she said, "Hey man, you crazy or sumpin',

You see what happened last time they started."

Well, I seen a Cadillac window uptown

And there was nobody aroun',

I got into the driver's seat

And I drove 42nd Street

In my Cadillac.

Good car to drive after a war.

Well, I remember seein' some ad,

So I turned on my Conelrad.

But I didn't pay my Con Ed bill,

So the radio didn't work so well.

Turned on my record player -

It was Rock-A-Day Johnny singin',

"Tell Your Ma, Tell Your Pa,

Our Loves Are Gonna Grow Ooh-wah, Ooh-wah."

I was feelin' kinda lonesome and blue,
I needed somebody to talk to.
So I called up the operator of time
Just to hear a voice of some kind.
"When you hear the beep
It will be three o'clock,"
She said that for over an hour
And I hung it up.

Well, the doctor interrupted me just about then,
Sayin, "Hey I've been havin' the same old dreams,
But mine was a little different you see.
I dreamt that the only person left after the war was me.
I didn't see you around."

Well, now time passed and now it seems
Everybody's having them dreams.
Everybody sees themselves walkin' around with no one else.
Half of the people can be part right all of the time, and some of the people can be all right part of the time,
but all of the people can't be all right all of the time.
I think Abraham Lincoln said that.
"I'll let you be in my dreams if I can be in yours,"
I said that.

Live 1964 version

One time a crazy dream came to me,
I dreamt I was walkin' in World War Three,
I went to the doctor the very next day
To see what kinda words he had to say.
He said it was a bad dream.

I said, "Hold it, Doc, a World War passed through my brain."
He said, "Nurse, get your pad, the boy's obviously insane,"
He grabbed my arm, I said "Ouch!"
As I landed on the psychiatric couch,
He said, "Tell me about it, your dream."

Well, the whole thing started at 3 o'clock fast,
It was all over by a quarter past.
I was down in the sewer with some little lover
When I peeked out through a manhole cover
Wondering who turned the lights on.

Well, I got up and I walked around
up and down the lonesome town.
Just a-wondering which way to go,
I lit a cigarette on a parking meter
And walked on down the road.
It was a normal day.

Well, I rung me a fallout shelter bell
And I leaned my head and I gave a big yell,
"Give me a TV dinner, I'm a hungry man."
A shotgun fired and away I ran.
I don't blame them much, though,
they didn't know me.

Down the corner by the hot-dog stand
I seen another man,
I said, "Howdy friend, I guess there's just us two."
He screamed, down the road he flew.
Thought I was a Communist.

Well, I grabbed me a girl before she could leave,
I said: "Let's go play Adam and Eve."
I took her by the hand and my heart was thumpin'
she said, "Hey man, are you crazy or sumpin'?"
You see what happened last time they started."

Well, I remember seein' some newspaper ad,
So I turned on my Conelrad.
But I didn't pay my Con Ed bill,
So the radio didn't work so well.
I turned on the record player -
It was Martha and the Van Dellas,
Talkin' about leader of the pack

I seen me a Cadillac window uptown
there was nobody aroun',
I got into the driver's seat
And I drove down 42nd Street
In my Cadillac.
Good car to drive after a war.

By that time I was feelin' blue,
I needed somebody to talk to.
So I called up the operator of time
Just to hear a voice of some kind.
She said, "When you hear the beep
It will be three o'clock."
She said that for over an hour
And I hung up.

Well, the doctor interrupted me just about then,
Sayin, "I've been havin' the same old dreams,
But mine's different, don't you see.
I dreamt the only person left after the war was me.
I didn't see you around.
And nobody looks like you."

Time passed and now it seems
Everybody's having them dreams.
Everybody sees themselves
walkin' around with no one else.
Well, some of the people couldn't be part right all of the time,
all the people couldn't be some right part of the time, part of the people couldn't be some right all of the time

but all of the people can't be all right all of the time.
Carl Sandburg said that.
"I'll let you be in my dream if I can be in your dream,"
I said that.

Corrina, Corrina

Trad., arr. Bob Dylan
 Released on Freewheelin' (1963)
 Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

The tab is based on the outtake without the band, where Dylan's guitar can be heard more clearly (the lyrics are from the album version, though; apologies for the inconsistency). It may not fit the album version exactly, but it ought to be good enough to give an idea about the playing style. It is played in open D tuning (D-A-d-f♯-a-d') (Thanks to Jeff Kokosinsky for notifying me). The outtake version is in F♯ major, but the album version is in F major, so the capo would be at the 3rd fret.

The second guitar seems to be playing with a capo in the 5th fret in standard tuning, over chords from the C – F – G group.

Honey, just allow me one more chance

To ride your aeroplane.

Honey, just allow me one more chance

To ride your passenger train.

Well, I've been lookin' all over

For a gal like you,

I can't find nobody

So you'll have to do.

Just-a one kind favor I ask you,

'Low me just-a one more chance.

Honey, just allow me one more chance

To get along with you.

Honey, just allow me one more chance,

Ah'll do anything with you.
Well, lookin' for a woman
That ain't got no man,
Is just lookin' for a needle
That is lost in the sand.
Just-a one kind favor I ask you,
'Low me just-a one more chance.

[1 verse harmonica solo]

It's just-a one kind favor I ask you,
'Low me just-a one more chance.

Til she started peelin' off her onion gook,

D G D

Took off her wig, said, "How do I look?"

G D G D G D G D

I's high flyin'. . . bare-naked . . .

G D A

Out the window!

Well, sometimes I might get drunk,
Walk like a duck and smell like a skunk.
Don't hurt me none, don't hurt my pride
'Cause I got my little lady right by my side.
She's a-tryin' to hide
pretendin' she don't know me

I's out there paintin' on the old woodshed
When a can a black paint it fell on my head.
I went down to scrub and rub
But I had to sit in back of the tub.
Cost a quarter half price

Well, my telephone rang it would not stop,
It's President Kennedy callin' me up.
He said, "My friend, Bob, what do we need to make the country grow?"
I said, "My friend, John, Brigitte Bardot, Anita Ekberg, Sophia Loren."
Country will grow

Well, I got a woman five feet short,
She yells and hollers and screams and snorts.
She tickles my nose, pats me on my head,
rolls me over and kicks me out of bed.
She's a man eater meat grinder bad loser

Oh, there ain't no use in me workin' all the time,
I got a woman who works herself blind.
Works up to her bridges, up to her neck,
writes me letters and sends me checks.
She's a humdinger
Folk singer

Late one day in the middle of the week,
Eyes were closed I was half asleep.
I chased me a woman up the hill,
Right in the middle of an air raid drill.
I jumped a fallout shelter
I jumped a string bean
I jumped a TV dinner
I jumped a shot gun

Now, the man on the stand he wants my vote,
He's a-runnin' for office on the ballot note.
He's out there preachin' in front of the steeple,
Tellin' me he loves all kinds-a people.
He's eatin' bagels
He's eatin' pizza
He's eatin' chitlins

Oh, I sat me down on a television floor,
I flip the channel to number four.
Out of the shower comes a football man
With a bottle of oil in his hand.
Greasy kid stuff.
What I want to know, Mr. Football Man, is What do you do about Willy Mays and Martin Luther King, Olatunji

Well, the funniest woman I ever seen
Was the great-granddaughter of Mr. Clean.
She takes about fifteen baths a day,
Wants me to grow a mustache on my face.
She's insane!

Well, ask me why I'm drunk alla time,
It levels my head and eases my mind.
I just walk along and stroll and sing,
I see better days and I do better things.
I catch dinosaurs
I make love to Elizabeth Taylor . . .
Catch hell from Richard Burton!

Alternate studio version (Oct 1963)

Released as a bonus track on the limited edition of "Love and Theft" (2001).

This version combines two well-known Dylan features, the G-G6-G7 figure and the high capo position, in a song that's usually played in G.

Capo 5th fret (sounding key F major)

The "G-G6-G7" figure in its two versions:

Alternative for the last line (3rd verse):

C . . | F C G | G G6 G7| C

Lyrically the only change is that he sings "vibrate your walls" instead of "rattle your walls" in the third verse.

Live version from Drammenshallen, July 10, 1981

This is a very special version, not only because it was on the first bootleg I ever got, or because it was a one-off opener during that tour, or because of the delightful error in the second verse, or because it was played not far from where I stayed at the time (not that I had the slightest idea, just a kid acting smart at the time) – but for all these reasons taken together.

Ballad of Hollis Brown

Released on The Times They Are A-changin' (1964)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Double dropped D tuning (D-A-d-g-b-d, i.e. tune the 1st and the 6th strings down one whole step).
Capo 1st fret (sounding key Eb minor)

Intro (same strumming pattern throughout the song):

Hollis Brown

He lived on the outside of town

With his wife and five children

And his cabin broken down

You looked for work and money
And you walked a rugged mile
You looked for work and money
And you walked a rugged mile
Your children are so hungry
That they don't know how to smile

Your baby's eyes look crazy
They're a-tuggin' at your sleeve
Your baby's eyes look crazy
They're a-tuggin' at your sleeve
You walk the floor and wonder why
With every breath you breathe

[Additional verse in the Gaslight version:
There's bedbugs on your baby's bed
There's chinchies on your wife
There's bedbugs on your baby's bed
There's chinchies on your wife
Gangerene snuck in your side,
It's a-cuttin' you like a knife.]

The rats have got your flour
Bad blood it got your mare
The rats have got your flour
Bad blood it got your mare
If there's anyone that knows
Is there anyone that cares?

You prayed to the Lord above
Oh please send you a friend
You prayed to the Lord above
Oh please send you a friend
Your empty pockets tell yuh
That you ain't a-got no friend

Your babies are crying louder now
It's pounding on your brain
Your babies are crying louder now
It's pounding on your brain
Your wife's screams are stabbin' you like the dirty drivin' rain

Your grass it is turning black
There's no water in your well
Your grass is turning black
There's no water in your well
You spent your last lone dollar
On seven shotgun shells

Way out in the wilderness
A cold coyote calls
Way out in the wilderness
A cold coyote calls
Your eyes fix on the shotgun
That's hangin' on the wall

Your brain is a-bleedin'
And your legs can't seem to stand
Your brain is a-bleedin'
And your legs can't seem to stand
Your eyes fix on the shotgun
That you're holdin' in your hand

There's seven breezes a-blowin'
All around the cabin door
There's seven breezes a-blowin'
All around the cabin door
Seven shots ring out
Like the ocean's pounding roar

There's seven people dead
On a South Dakota farm
There's seven people dead
On a South Dakota farm
Somewhere in the distance
There's seven new people born.

The Gaslight II version (late oct 1962) is basically the same as the above (with the extra verse), only not as persistently regular (the bass pattern changes more, and more unpredictably), and with the capo on the 5th fret.

With God on Our Side

Words and Music Bob Dylan (but strongly based on Dominic Behan's The Patriot Game)

Released on The Times They Are A-Changin' (1963) and in live versions on Unplugged (1995) and Live 1964 (2004)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Album version

The * denotes the G – G6 – G7 figure that Dylan is so fond of:

G 320003

G6 322003 or 3x2003

G7 323003 or 3x3003

It can be replaced by just a G chord.

C (First measure harp only) |F |Em |G * |C

Oh the history books tell it
 They tell it so well
 The cavalries charged
 The Indians fell
 The cavalries charged
 The Indians died
 Oh the country was young
 With God on its side.

The Spanish-American
 War had its day
 And the Civil War too
 Was soon laid away
 And the names of the heroes
 I's made to memorize
 With guns in their hands
 And God on their side.

The First World War, boys
It came and it went
The reason for fighting
I never did get *)
But I learned to accept it
Accept it with pride
For you don't count the dead
When God's on your side.

The Second World War
Came to an end
We forgave the Germans
And then we were friends
Though they murdered six million
In the ovens they fried
The Germans now too
Have God on their side.

I've learned to hate the Russians
All through my whole life
If another war comes
It's them we must fight
To hate them and fear them
To run and to hide
And accept it all bravely
With God on my side.

But now we got weapons
Of chemical dust
If fire them we're forced to
Then fire them we must
One push of the button
And a shot the world wide
And you never ask questions
When God's on your side.

Through many dark hours
I've been thinkin' about this
That Jesus Christ
Was betrayed by a kiss
But I can't think for you
You'll have to decide
Whether Judas Iscariot
Had God on his side.

So now as I'm leavin'
I'm weary as Hell
The confusion I'm feelin'
Ain't no tongue can tell
The words fill my head
And then fall to the floor
That if God's on our side
He'll stop the next war.

*) The official lyrics have (as a rather silly attempt at producing a better rhyme than the original):

It closed out its fate
The reason for fighting
I never got straight

Unplugged version

Basically the same as above, only slightly simplified.

One Too Many Mornings

Words and music Bob Dylan

Released on The Times They Are A-changin' (1964) and in live versions on Live 1966 (1998) and Hard Rain (1976)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

The song is played in open A tuning: E-A-c \sharp -e-a-c \sharp ' (tune down the fourth string a semitone and the three highest strings to the same tones as the three lowest; this is the tuning that was used for Wichita Blues, with the exception of the highest string), and with a capo on the 3rd fret (sounding key C major).

If you're not comfortable with open tunings, it is of course possible to play it in standard tuning, either with ordinary chord shapes, or with the chords suggested below, which come close to the sound of the open A version.

From the crossroads of my doorstep,
My eyes start to fade.

And I turn my head back to the room
 Where my love and I have laid.
 And I gaze back to the street
 the sidewalk and the sign.
 And I'm one too many mornings
 And a thousand miles behind.

It's a restless, hungry feeling
 That don't mean no one no good.
 When everything I'm saying,
 You can say it just as good.
 You are right from your side,
 And I am right from mine.
 We're both just one too many mornings
 And a thousand miles behind.

Come...

Am
Come gather 'round friends
G
And I'll tell you a tale
Am G Am
Of when the red iron ore pits ran a-plenty.

But the cardboard filled windows
G
And old men on the benches
Am G Am
Tell you now that the whole town is empty.

In the north end of town,
My own children are grown
But I was raised on the other.
In the wee hours of youth,
My mother took sick
And I was brought up by my brother.

The iron ore poured
As the years passed the door,
The drag lines an' the shovels they was a-humming.
'Til one day my brother
Failed to come home
The same as my father before him.

Well a long winter's wait,
From the window I watched.
My friends they couldn't have been kinder.
And my schooling was cut
As I quit in the spring
To marry John Thomas, a miner.

Oh the years passed again
And the givin' was good,
With the lunch bucket filled every season.

What with three babies born,
The work was cut down
To a half-a-day shift with no reason.

Then the shaft was soon shut
And more work was cut,
And the fire in the air, it felt frozen.
'Til a man come to speak
And he said, in one week
That number eleven was closin'.

They complained in the East,
They are paying too high.
They say that your ore ain't worth digging.
That it's much cheaper down
In the South American towns
Where the miners work almost for nothing.

So the mining gates locked
And the red iron rotted
And the room smelled heavy from drinking.
When the sad, silent song
Made the hour twice as long
As I waited for the sun to go sinking.

I lived by the window
As he talked to himself,
This silence of tongues it was building.
Till one morning's wake,
The bed it was bare,
And I's left alone with three children.

The summer is gone,
The ground's turning cold,
The stores one by one they're a-foldin'.
My children will go
As soon as they grow.
Well, there ain't nothing here now to hold them.

Only a Pawn in Their Game

Released on The Times They Are A-changin' (1964)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Capo 2nd fret (sounding key A major)

The figure C /b /a G which at every transition from C to G through the whole song, is played:

Verses 3-5 are played as the second verse, with the Bm' chord x04430 in the first line

G          C /b /a G          C          /b /a G
A bullet from the back of a bush took Medgar Evers' blood.
G          C          /b D/a

G /b C D C /b G
He's only a pawn in their game.

G          Bm' Am          C          G
A South politician preaches to the poor white man,
G          C          /b D
"You got more than the blacks, don't complain.
/c /b G          C          /b /a G C G
You're better than them, you been born with white skin," they explain.
And the Negro's name
Is used it is plain
For the politician's gain
As he rises to fame
And the poor white remains
On the caboose of the train
But it ain't him to blame
He's only a pawn in their game.

The deputy sheriffs, the soldiers, the governors get paid,
 And the marshals and cops get the same,
 But the poor white man's used in the hands of them all like a tool.

He's taught in his school
From the start by the rule
That the laws are with him
To protect his white skin
To keep up his hate
So he never thinks straight
'Bout the shape that he's in
But it ain't him to blame
He's only a pawn in their game.

From the poverty shacks, he looks from the cracks to the tracks,
And the hoof beats pound in his brain.
And he's taught how to walk in a pack
Shoot in the back
With his fist in a clinch
To hang and to lynch
To hide 'neath the hood
To kill with no pain
Like a dog on a chain
He ain't got no name
But it ain't him to blame
He's only a pawn in their game.

Today, Medgar Evers was buried from the bullet he caught.
They lowered him down as a king.
/c /b G C G C
But when the shadowy sun sets on the one
That fired the gun
He'll see by his grave
On the stone that remains
Carved next to his name
His epitaph plain:
Only a pawn in their game.

These seem to be the chords on the album version:

G 320003
 C/g 3x2013
 Em9 05403x
 D7/F# 20021x
 Em 022000

but note that in all recent live renditions, he plays:

G 320003
 C/g 3x2013
 "D" x54030
 C x32010
 Em 022000

The theoretically inclined may note the interesting change that the third chord has undergone, mainly because of the change in what follows.

The chords are the same as for Girl From the North Country.

      Em9      D7/f#   G   C/g   G
From the place that I'll be landing?

No, there's nothing you can send me my own true love.
 There's nothing I'm a-wishin' to be ownin'.
 Just a-carry yourself back to me unspoiled
 from across that lonesome ocean.

Ah, but I just though you might want something fine made of silver or of golden either from the mountains of Madrid or the coast of Barcelona.

But if I had the stars from the darkest night
 and the diamonds from the deepest ocean,
 I'd foresake them all for your sweet kiss,
 for that's all I'm wishin' to be ownin'

But I might be gone a long old time,
 and it's only that I'm askin'.
 Is there something I can send you to remember me by,
 To make your time more easy passin'?

Oh how can, how can you ask me again?
 It only brings me sorrow.
 The same thing I would want today
 I would want again tomorrow.

Oh I got a letter on a lonesome day.
 It was from her ship a'sailin'.
 Sayin' "I don't know when I'll be comin' back again.
 It depends on how I'm a-feelin'."

If you my love must think that a'way
 I'm sure your mind is a'roamin'.
 I'm sure your thoughts are not with me
 but with the country to where you're goin'.

So take heed, take heed of the Western winds.
 Take heed of the stormy weather.

And yes, there's something you can send back to me:
Spanish Boots of Spanish Leather.

And they'll know that it's for real,
The hour that the ship comes in.
Then they'll raise their hands,
Sayin' we'll meet all your demands,
But we'll shout from the bow your days are numbered.
And like Pharaoh's tribe,
They'll be drowned in the tide,
And like Goliath, they'll be conquered.

The Lonesome Death of Hattie Carroll

Words and music Bob Dylan

Released on The Times They Are A-changin' (1964) and on Biograph (1985) and in live versions on Live 1975 (2002) and Live 1964 (2004)

Capo 4th fret (sounding key E major). Live 1975: no capo

In most live renditions, he ends each phrase of the verse with a G chord.

The place marked with *) is often embellished with the following figure:

  F           G *)           C
Now ain't the time for your tears.

William Zanzinger, who at twenty-four years
Owns a tobacco farm of six hundred acres
With rich wealthy parents who provide and protect him
And high office relations in the politics of Maryland,
Reacted to his deed with a shrug of his shoulders
And swear words and sneering, and his tongue it was a-snarling,
And in a matter of minutes on bail was out walking.
But you who philosophize disgrace and criticize fears,
Take the rag away from your face.
Now ain't the time for your tears.

Hattie Carroll was a maid in the kitchen.
She was fifty-one years old and gave birth to ten children
Who carried the dishes and took out the garbage

And never sat once at the head of the table
And didn't even talk to the people at the table
Who just cleaned up all the food from the table
And emptied the ashtrays on a whole other level,
Got killed by a blow, lay slain by a cane
That sailed through the air and came down through the room,
Doomed and determined to destroy all the gentle.
And she never done nothing to William Zanzinger.
And you who philosophize disgrace and criticize all fears,
Take the rag away from your face.
Now ain't the time for your tears.

In the courtroom of honor, the judge pounded his gavel
To show that all's equal and that the courts are on the level
And that the strings in the books ain't pulled and persuaded
And that even the nobles get properly handled
Once that the cops have chased after and caught 'em
And that the ladder of law has no top and no bottom,
Stared at the person who killed for no reason
Who just happened to be feelin' that way without warnin'.
And he spoke through his cloak, most deep and distinguished,
And handed out strongly, for penalty and repentance,
William Zanzinger with a six-month sentence.
Oh, but you who philosophize disgrace and criticize all fears,
Bury the rag deep in your face
For now's the time for your tears.

Restless Farewell

Written by Bob Dylan (but heavily based on the trad. The Parting Glass)

Released on The Times They Are A-changin' (1964)

Tabbed by Andrew Mullins

Album version

Capo at 4th fret

Played with no strict time, very freely. Also played freely are the strings strummed or picked for each chord, varying from chord to chord and verse to verse. Occasionally some chords are left out, played with a different root, notes hammered etc.

Harmonica played cross harp (blues style) – use key of A

[harmonica break: F C G G6 G7 C C/g]

Oh every girl that ever I've touched
I did not do it harmfully
And every girl that ever I've hurt
I did not do it knowingly
But to remain as friends, you need the time
To make amends and stay behind
And since my feet are now fast
And point away from the past
I'll bid farewell and be down the line

Oh every foe that ever I faced
The cause was there before we came
And every cause that ever I fought
I fought it full without regret or shame
But the dark does die as the curtain is drawn
And somebody's eyes must meet the dawn
And if I see the day I'd only have to stay
So I'll bid farewell in the night and be gone

Oh every thought that strung a knot in my mind
I might go insane if it couldn't be sprung
But it's not to stand naked under unknown (unknowin'?) eyes
It's for myself and my friends my stories are sung
But the time ain't tall if on time you depend
And no word is possessed by no special friend
And though the line is cut it ain't quite the end
I'll just bid farewell till we meet again

Oh a false clock tries to tick out my time
To disgrace, distract and bother me
And the dirt of gossip blows into my face
And the dust of rumors covers me
But if the arrow is straight and the point is slick
It can pierce through the dust no matter how thick
So I'll make my stand and remain as I am
And bid farewell and not give a damn

Introductory Remarks

Eyolf Østrem

Another Side Of Bob Dylan was recorded during one glorious, nightly session on June 9 1964, over a bottle of Beaujolais – and it shows... The album may be a “rich, complex album” and a proof of his “genius”, as Paul Williams and Paul Cable have it, but – for once – Clinton Heylin may have given the most adequate description, as “a typical Dylan session – flashes of sheer brilliance, improvisational flair, songs coming together and falling apart (in fairly equal measure) – in the studio” (Heylin: Dylan Behind Closed Doors, the Recording Sessions [1960–1994]). In other words: he can’t be all right all the time.

In several of the songs, most notably in Ballad in Plain D and My Back Pages, it is evident that Dylan hasn’t really learnt the chord changes properly before he started recording. In these two songs it is difficult to find two verses that are played in the same way. There are lots of temporary solutions. True enough, the variations work out quite well, but it would be over-indulgent to call them planned...

Apart from this, it is interesting to note how a few guitaristic specialties recur in song after song. One is the use of the chord changes C/d – G/d (xx0553 – xx0433), as in All I Really Want To Do, slightly varied in I Don’t Believe You, and most beautifully in Chimes of Freedom. Another is the progression xx0430 - xx0210 – 320003 which occurs both in All I Really Want To Do and in Spanish Harlem Incident. And the most persistent of these “tricks” is the figure G-G6-G7 found in To Ramona, My Back Pages, I Don’t Believe You and Ballad in Plain D. Add to this that all of the songs (except, of course, the piano song Black Crow Blues) are played in G or C, with an occasional capo, and you have an album which is quite simple, guitaristically speaking.

Then there is the genius, of course.

Spanish Harlem Incident

Words and music Bob Dylan

Released on Another Side of Bob Dylan (1964), and in a live version on Live 1964 (2004)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Album version

The little figure that sets off the intro is used here and there where there is a transition from G to C. In the third verse the xxx330 chord formation (called G' in the chord table) is used for the Gs that start each line in the first part of the verse.

The strumming through the rest of the intro is of course only an approximation, as to which strings sound at which particular moment.

Chords:

C/d xx0553

G/d xx0433

G' xxx330

the C/d chord marked with a * is basically the same, only that the A string is sounding:

G G/d

Far between sundown's finish an' midnight's broken toll
G/d C/d G/d D G C/g G
We ducked inside the doorway as thunder went crashing
G/d D G/d C/d G
As majestic bells of bolts struck shadows in the sounds
G/d C/d G/d D G C/g G
Seeming to be the chimes of freedom flashing
D G C/g G
Flashing for the warriors whose strength is not to fight
C G Am D
Flashing for the refugees of the unarmed road of flight
G D G C
An' for each an' ev'ry underdog soldier in the night
G C *) D G C/g G *) first verse:
An' we gazed upon the chimes of freedom flashing. D starts here

Through the city's melted furnace, unexpectedly we watched
With faces hidden as the walls were tightening
As the echo of the wedding bells before the blowin' rain
Dissolved into the bells of the lightning
Tolling for the rebel, tolling for the rake
Tolling for the luckless, the abandoned an' forsaked
Tolling for the outcast, burnin' constantly at stake
An' we gazed upon the chimes of freedom flashing.

Through the mad mystic hammering of the wild ripping hail
The sky cracked its poems in naked wonder
That the clinging of the church bells blew far into the breeze
Leaving only bells of lightning and its thunder
Striking for the gentle, striking for the kind
Striking for the guardians and protectors of the mind
And the poet and the painter far behind his rightful time
And we gazed upon the chimes of freedom flashing.

In the wild cathedral evening the rain unraveled tales
For the disrobed faceless forms of no position

I was shadow-boxing earlier in the day
I figured I was ready for Cassius Clay
I said "Fee, fie, fo, fum, Cassius Clay here I come
26, 27, 28, 29, I'm gonna make your face look just like mine
Five, four, three, two, one, Cassius Clay you'd better run
99, 100 101, 102, your ma won't even recognize you
14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, gonna knock him clean right out of his spleen.

Well, I don't know, but I've been told
The streets in heaven are lined with gold
I ask you how things could get much worse
If the Russians happen to get up there first
Wowee! pretty scary!

Now, I'm liberal, but to a degree
I want ev'rybody to be free
But if you think that I'll let Barry Goldwater
Move in next door and marry my daughter
You must think I'm crazy!
I wouldn't let him do it for all the farms in Cuba.

Well, I set my monkey on the log
And ordered him to do the Dog
He wagged his tail and shook his head
And he went and did the Cat instead
He's a weird monkey, very funky.

I sat with my high-heeled sneakers on Waiting to play tennis in the noonday sun
I had my white shorts rolled up past my waist
And my wig-hat falling in my face
But they wouldn't let me on the tennis court.

I gotta woman, she's so mean
She sticks my boots in the washing machine
Sticks me with buckshot when I'm nude
Puts bubblegum in my food
She's funny, wants my money, calls me honey.

Now I gotta friend who spends his life
Stabbing my picture with a bowie-knife
Dreams of strangling me with a scarf
When my name comes up he pretends to barf
I've got a million friends !

Now they asked me to read a poem
At the sorority sister's home
I got knocked down and my head was swimmin'
I wound up with the Dean of Women
Yippee ! I'm a poet, and I know it
Hope I don't blow it.

I'm gonna grow my hair down to my feet so strange
So I look like a walking mountain range
And I'm gonna ride into Omaha on a horse
Out to the country club and the golf course
Carry the New York Times, shoot a few holes, blow their minds.

You're probably wondering by now
Just what this song is all about
What's probably got you baffled more
What this thing here is for It's nothing
It's something I learned over in England

Nothing to win and nothing to lose
From fixtures and forces and friends
Your sorrow does stem
That hype you and type you
Making you feel
That you gotta be just like them.

I'd forever talk to you
But soon my words
They would turn into a meaningless ring
For deep in my heart
I know there is no help I can bring Everything passes
Everything changes
Just do what you think you should do
And someday, maybe
Who knows, baby
I'll come and be cryin' to you.

      G
I pounded on a farmhouse Lookin' for a place to stay

I was mighty, mighty tired, I had come a long, long way
      C
I said, "Hey, hey, in there Is there anybody home ?
      G
I was standin' on the steps, Feelin' most alone
      D
Well, out comes a farmer He must have thought that I was nuts
      G
He immediately looked at me and stuck a gun into my guts

I fell down to my bended knees
Saying, "I dig farmers, don't shoot me please"
He cocked his rifle and began to shout
"You're that travelin' salesman that I have heard about?"
I said, "No! No! No! I'm a doctor and it's true
I'm a clean-cut kid and I been to college too".

Then in comes his daughter whose name was Rita
She looked like she stepped out of La Dolce Vita
I immediately tried to cool it with her dad
And told him what a nice, pretty farm he had
He said, "What do doctors know about farms, pray tell?"
I said, "I was born at the bottom of a wishing well".

Well, by the dirt 'neath my nails I guess he knew I wouldn't lie
He said "I guess, you're tired." He said it kinda sly
I said, "Yes, ten thousand miles today I drove"
He said, "I got a bed for you, underneath the stove
Just one condition, You can go to sleep right now:
That you don't touch my daughter and in the morning, milk the cows".

I was sleepin' like a rat when I heard something jerkin'
There stood Rita lookin' just like Tony Perkins

She said, "Would you like to take a shower? I'll show you up to the door"
I said, "Oh, no, no, I've been through this movie before
I knew I had to split, but I didn't know how
When she said, "Would you like to take that shower now?"

Well, I couldn't leave unless the old man chased me out
'Cause I'd already promised that I'd milk his cows
I had to say something to strike him very weird
So I yelled: "I like Fidel Castro and his beard"
Rita looked offended, but she got out of the way
As he came charging down the stairs Sayin', "What's that I heard you say?"

I said, "I like Fidel Castro! I think you heard me right"
And I ducked as he swung At me with all his might Rita mumbled something 'Bout her mother on the hill
As his fist hit the icebox He said he's going to kill me If I don't get out of the door In two seconds flat
"Your unpatriotic Rotten doctor Commie rat".

Well, he threw a Reader's Digest at my head and I did run
I did a somersault as I seen him get his gun
And chrashed through the window at a hundred miles an hour
And landed fully blast in his garden flowers
Rita said, "Come back" as he started to load
The sun was comin' up and I was runnin' down the road.

Well, I don't figure I'll be back there for a spell
Even though Rita moved away and got a job in a motel
He still waits for me, constant, on the sly
He wants to turn me in to the FBI
Me, I romp and stomp, thankful as I romp
 G C G
Without freedom of speech I might be in the swamp.

Words and music Bob Dylan

Released on Another Side Of Bob Dylan (1964) and Greatest Hits II (1971)

Most G's are played with a small figure (G – G6 – G7) going up to G7:

G 320003

G6 322003

This is noted with a *).

He didn't seem to spend too much time rehearsing this song before he went into the studio (the whole album was recorded in one evening/night session) – he gets the first verse all wrong in the chords, and he struggles a lot with the final lines of each verse. I've written out the chords for the first two verses and in the following verses deviations from the second verse.

She acts like we never met.

It's all new to me
Like some mystery
It could even be like a myth
But it's hard to think on
That she's the same one
That last night I was with
From darkness, dreams are deserted
Am I still dreamin' yet?

I wish she'd unlock
Her voice once and talk
'Stead of acting like we never met

If she ain't feelin' well
Then why don't she tell
'Stead of turnin' her back to my face
Without any doubt
She seems too far out
For me to return to or chase
Though her skirt it swayed as the guitar played
Her mouth was watery and wet
But now something has changed
For she ain't the same
She just acts like we never have met.

If I didn't have to guess
I'd gladly confess
To anything I might've tried
If I was with her too long
Or have done something wrong
I wish she'd tell me what it is, I'll run and hide
Though the night ran swirling and whirling
I remember her whispering yet
But evidently she don't evidently she won't
She just acts like we never have met.

I'm leavin' today
I'll be on my way
Of this I can't say very much
But if you want me to
I can be just like you
And pretend that we never have touched
And if anybody asks me: "Is it easy to forget?"
I say, "It's easily done
You just pick anyone
And pretend that you never have met."

Live 1964 version

The main difference from the album version is the long guitar intro, which is once interrupted: "Oh God! [strumming] Here's the second verse of it", and later: "Does anybody know the first verse of this song?"

The other main difference is that the parts of the following verses have been mixed:

If she ain't feelin' well
Then why don't she tell
'Stead of turnin' her back to my face
Without any doubt
She seems too far out
For me to return to or chase
Though the night ran swirling and whirling
I remember her whispering yet

But evidently she don't
And evidently she won't
She just acts like we never have met.

If I didn't have to guess
I'd gladly confess
To anything I might've tried
If I was with her too long
Or have done something wrong
I wish she'd tell me what it is, I'll run and hide
Though her skirt it swayed as the guitar played
Her mouth was watery and wet
But now something has changed
For she ain't the same
She just acts like we never have met.

Ballad in Plain D

Words and music Bob Dylan

Released on Another Side Of Bob Dylan (1964)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Probably Dylan's most misnamed song, since it's not really in plain D, but in plain C with a capo on the 2nd fret (which of course turns it into D, but hardly "plain", from a guitar perspective, anyway)

The F chord at the end of lines 1 and 3 is sometimes played, sometimes not – it's just an embellishment, really.

What is played C/g-G7 in the last line of the first verse, is in most subsequent verses replaced with a G-G6-G7 turn.

Other deviations from the chords of the first verse are noted.

Chords:

G 320003
 G6 322003
 G7 323003
 C/g 332010
 Bb/d xx0331 (in some verses he plays x00331, probably an error but quite nice)

G-G7 C Am C/g (F) C
 I once loved a girl, her skin it was bronze
 Am Bb/d F
 With the innocence of a lamb, she was gentle like a fawn
 C Am C/g (F) C
 I courted her proudly, but now she is gone
 C/g G7 C G G6 G7
 Gone as the season she's taken.

In a young summer's youth, I stole her away
 From her mother and sister, though close did they stay
 Each one of them suffering from the failures of their day
 With strings of guilt they tried hard to guide us.

Of the two sisters, I loved the young
 Am C/g F
 With sensitive instincts, she was the creative one
 The constant scapegoat, she was easily undone
 By the jealousy of others around her.

For her parasite sister, I had no respect
 C Am C/g F
 Bound by her boredom, her pride to protect Countless visions of the other she'd reflect
 As a crutch for her scenes and her society.

Myself, for what I did, I cannot be excused
 The changes I was going through can't even be used

For the lies that I told her in hopes not to lose
The could-be dream-lover of my lifetime.

C Am C/g F C
With unseen consciousness, I possessed in my grip
A magnificent mantelpiece, though its heart being chipped
Noticing not that I'd already slipped
To a sin of love's false security.

C Am F C
From silhouetted anger to manufactured peace
Answers of emptiness, voice vacancies
Till the tombstones of damage read me no question but, "Please
What's wrong and what's exactly the matter?"

And so it did happen, like it could have been foreseen
C Am Bb F
The timeless explosion of fantasy's dream
At the peak of the night, the king and the queen
Tumbled all down into pieces.

C Am F C
"The tragic figure" her sister did shout
"Leave her alone, God damn you, get out"
C Am (Dm) F C
And I in my armor, turning about
And nailing her in the ruins of her pettiness.

Beneath a bare light bulb the plaster did pound
Her sister and I in a screaming battleground
And she in between, the victim of sound
Soon shattered as a child to the shadows.

C Am C
All is gone, all is gone, admit it, take flight
I gagged in contradiction, tears blinding my sight
My mind it was mangled, I ran into the night
Leaving all of love's ashes behind me.

C Am F C
The wind knocks my window, the room it is wet
The words to say I'm sorry, I haven't found yet
C Am F C
I think of her often and hope whoever she's met
Will be fully aware of how precious she is.

Subterranean Homesick Blues

Words and music Bob Dylan

Released on Bringing It All Back Home (1965), Greatest Hits (1967) and Biograph (1985), and in an alternate version on The Bootleg Series 1-3 (1991)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

In the early solo version on The Bootleg Series, Dylan's guitar is capoed on the 5th fret. That's probably how it is played on the Bringing it All Back Home version too.

Album version

Johnny's in the basement

Mixing up the medicine

I'm on the pavement

Thinking about the government

The man in the trench coat

Badge out, laid off

Says he's got a bad cough

Wants to get it paid off

Look out kid

It's somethin' you did

A

God knows when

But you're doin' it again

You better duck down the alley way

Lookin' for a new friend

The man in the coon-skin cap

In the big pen

Wants eleven dollar bills

You only got ten

Maggie comes fleet foot

Face full of black soot

Talkin' that the heat put

Plants in the bed but

The phone's tapped anyway

Maggie says that many say

They must bust in early May
Orders from the D. A.
Look out kid
Don't matter what you did
Walk on your tip toes
Don't try "No Doz"
Better stay away from those
That carry around a fire hose
Keep a clean nose
Watch the plain clothes
You don't need a weather man
To know which way the wind blows

Get sick, get well
Hang around a ink well
Ring bell, hard to tell
If anything is goin' to sell
Try hard, get barred
Get back, write braille
Get jailed, jump bail
Join the army, if you fail
Look out kid
You're gonna get hit
By losers, cheaters
Six-time users *)
Hangin' 'round the theaters
Girl by the whirlpool
Lookin' for a new fool
Don't follow leaders
Watch the parkin' meters

Ah get born, keep warm
Short pants, romance, learn to dance
Get dressed, get blessed
Try to be a success
Please her, please him, buy gifts
Don't steal, don't lift
Twenty years of schoolin'
And they put you on the day shift
Look out kid
They keep it all hid
Better jump down a manhole
Light yourself a candle
Don't wear sandals
Try to avoid the scandals
Don't wanna be a bum
You better chew gum
The pump don't work
'Cause the vandals took the handles

Maggie's Farm

Words and music Bob Dylan

Released on Bringing It All Back Home (1965) and Greatest Hits II (1971), and in live versions on Hard Rain (1976), Budokan (1978), Real Live (1984), and No Direction Home (2005)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Capo 3rd fret (sounding key G major)

The "E" chord contains a whole lot of gravel – some Em, some Esus4, some E7, and probably a whole lot more.

The National Guard stands around his door.
Ah, I ain't gonna work for Maggie's pa no more.

I ain't gonna work for Maggie's ma no more.
No, I ain't gonna work for Maggie's ma no more.
Well, she talks to all the servants
About man and God and law.
Everybody says
She's the brains behind pa.
She's sixty-eight, but she says she's fifty-four.
I ain't gonna work for Maggie's ma no more.

I ain't gonna work on Maggie's farm no more.
No, I ain't gonna work on Maggie's farm no more.
Well, I try my best
To be just like I am,
But everybody wants you
To be just like them.
They say "sing while you slave," and I just get bored.
I ain't gonna work on Maggie's farm no more.

*) At this point, Dylan does something of the kind that only he can do, something different in each verse: he just seems to strike something chord-like, which really doesn't make sense, but which becomes quite right in the context of the performance – it's part of that which characterizes the performance, defines it.

Love Minus Zero/No Limit

Words and music Bob Dylan

Released on Bringing It All Back Home (1965) and on Budokan (1978), and in a live version on Live 1975 (2002)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Album Version

Dylan's guitar is in dropped C tuning (C-A-d-g-b-e') with a capo on the 4th fret (sounding key E major) and with the following chords:

C      032010
G(7)   220001
F      003211 or 033211
Dm     x00231

Since Dylan's guitar isn't the most prominent one, I've given the plain chords (without the G7), played by the other main guitar.

The main accompaniment goes something like this, with a strong separation between bass downstrokes and treble upstrokes, and an emphasis on the middle string for the G F part (the downstroke on the G on the last beat of the second measure is somewhat undetermined: could be a hint of the bass strings, could be the middle strings):

      C              G F              C              G F
      : . . . : . . . : . . . : . . .

In the dime stores and bus stations,
People talk of situations,

Read books, repeat quotations,
Draw conclusions on the wall.
Some speak of the future,
My love she speaks softly,
She knows there's no success like failure
And that failure's no success at all.

The cloak and dagger dangles,
Madams light the candles.
In ceremonies of the horsemen,
Even the pawn must hold a grudge.
Statues made of match sticks,
Crumble into one another,
My love winks, she does not bother,
She knows too much to argue or to judge.

The bridge at midnight trembles,
The country doctor rambles,
Bankers' nieces seek perfection,
Expecting all the gifts that wise men bring.
The wind howls like a hammer,
The night blows cold and rainy,
My love she's like some raven
At my window with a broken wing.

And you tell me Santa Claus

The milkman comes in

He's wearing a derby hat

Then you ask why I don't live here

Honey, how come you have to ask me that?

Well, I asked for something to eat

I'm hungry as a hog

So I get brown rice, seaweed

And a dirty hot dog

I've got a hole

Where my stomach disappeared

Then you ask why I don't live here

Honey, I gotta think you're really weird.

Your grandpa's cane

It turns into a sword

Your grandma prays to pictures

That are pasted on a board

Everything inside my pockets

Your uncle steals

Then you ask why I don't live here

Honey, I can't believe that you're for real.

Well, there's fist fights in the kitchen

They're enough to make me cry

The mailman comes in

Even he's gotta take a side
Even the butler
He's got something to prove
Then you ask why I don't live here
Honey, how come you don't move?

 I was riding on the Mayflower
 When I thought I spied some land
 I yelled for Captain Arab
 I have yuh understand
 Who came running to the deck
 Said, "Boys, forget the whale

 We sang that melody

 Like all tough sailors do
 When they are far away at sea
 "I think I'll call it America"
 I said as we hit land
 I took a deep breath
 I fell down, I could not stand
 Captain Arab he started
 Writing up some deeds
 He said, "Let's set up a fort
 And start buying the place with beads"
 Just then this cop comes down the street
 Crazy as a loon
 He throw us all in jail
 For carryin' harpoons
 Ah me I busted out

Don't even ask me how
I went to get some help
I walked by a Guernsey cow
Who directed me down
To the Bowery slums
Where people carried signs around
Saying, "Ban the bums"
I jumped right into line
Sayin', "I hope that I'm not late"
When I realized I hadn't eaten
For five days straight

I went into a restaurant
Lookin' for the cook
I told them I was the editor
Of a famous etiquette book
The waitress he was handsome
He wore a powder blue cape
I ordered some suzette, I said
"Could you please make that crepe"
Just then the whole kitchen exploded
From boilin' fat
Food was flying everywhere
And I left without my hat

Now, I didn't mean to be nosy
But I went into a bank
To get some bail for Arab
And all the boys back in the tank
They asked me for some collateral
And I pulled down my pants
They threw me in the alley
When up comes this girl from France
Who invited me to her house
I went, but she had a friend
Who knocked me out
And robbed my boots
And I was on the street again

Well, I rapped upon a house
With the U.S. flag upon display
I said, "Could you help me out
I got some friends down the way"
The man says, "Get out of here
I'll tear you limb from limb"
I said, "You know they refused Jesus, too"
He said, "You're not Him
Get out of here before I break your bones
I ain't your pop"
I decided to have him arrested
And I went looking for a cop

I ran right outside
And I hopped inside a cab
I went out the other door
This Englishman said, "Fab"
As he saw me leap a hot dog stand

And a chariot that stood
Parked across from a building
Advertising brotherhood
I ran right through the front door
Like a hobo sailor does
But it was just a funeral parlor
And the man asked me who I was

I repeated that my friends
Were all in jail, with a sigh
He gave me his card
He said, "Call me if they die"
I shook his hand and said goodbye
Ran out to the street
When a bowling ball came down the road
And knocked me off my feet
A pay phone was ringing
It just about blew my mind
When I picked it up and said hello
This foot came through the line

Well, by this time I was fed up
At tryin' to make a stab
At bringin' back any help
For my friends and Captain Arab
I decided to nip a coin
Like either heads or tails
Would let me know if I should go
Back to ship or back to jail
So I hocked my sailor suit
And I got a coin to flip
It came up tails
It rhymed with sails
So I made it back to the ship

Well, I got back and took
The parkin' ticket off the mast
I was ripping it to shreds
When this coastguard boat went past
They asked me my name
And I said, "Captain Kidd"
They believed me but
They wanted to know
What exactly that I did
I said for the Pope of Eruke
I was employed
They let me go right away
They were very paranoid

Well, the last I heard of Arab
He was stuck on a whale
That was married to the deputy Sheriff of the jail
But the funniest thing was
When I was leavin' the bay
I saw three ships a-sailin'
They were all heading my way

I asked the captain what his name was
And how come he didn't drive a truck
He said his name was Columbus
I just said, "Good luck."

 And the ancient empty street's too dead for dreaming.

Hey! Mr. Tambourine Man, play a song for me,
 I'm not sleepy and there is no place I'm going to.
 Hey! Mr. Tambourine Man, play a song for me,
 In the jingle jangle morning I'll come followin' you.

Take me on a trip upon your magic swirlin' ship,
My senses have been stripped, my hands can't feel to grip,
My toes too numb to step, wait only for my boot heels
To be wanderin'.
I'm ready to go anywhere, I'm ready for to fade
Into my own parade, cast your dancing spell my way,
I promise to go under it.

Hey! Mr. Tambourine Man, play a song for me,
I'm not sleepy and there is no place I'm going to.
Hey! Mr. Tambourine Man, play a song for me,
In the jingle jangle morning I'll come followin' you.

Though you might hear laughin', spinnin', swingin' madly across the sun,
It's not aimed at anyone, it's just escapin' on the run
And but for the sky there are no fences facin'.
And if you hear vague traces of skippin' reels of rhyme
To your tambourine in time, it's just a ragged clown behind,
I wouldn't pay it any mind, it's just a shadow you're Seein' that he's chasing.

Hey! Mr. Tambourine Man, play a song for me,
I'm not sleepy and there is no place I'm going to.
Hey! Mr. Tambourine Man, play a song for me,
In the jingle jangle morning I'll come followin' you.

Then take me disappearin' through the smoke rings of my mind,
Down the foggy ruins of time, far past the frozen leaves,
The haunted, frightened trees, out to the windy beach,
Far from the twisted reach of crazy sorrow.
Yes, to dance beneath the diamond sky with one hand waving free,
Silhouetted by the sea, circled by the circus sands,
With all memory and fate driven deep beneath the waves,
Let me forget about today until tomorrow.

Hey! Mr. Tambourine Man, play a song for me,
I'm not sleepy and there is no place I'm going to.
Hey! Mr. Tambourine Man, play a song for me,
In the jingle jangle morning I'll come followin' you.

Gates of Eden

Words and music Bob Dylan

Released on Bringing It All Back Home (1965), and in a live version on Live 1964 (2004)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Chords:

G 320003 or 320033 (before Cadd9)
 C/g 3x2013
 Bm' x04430
 Bb' xx3330 or x03330
 Cadd9 x32033

The exact chord progression of the last two lines varies somewhat from verse to verse, but the version in verse 4 is the default for the rest of the song.

G

 G Dm
 Of war and peace the truth just twists
 F C G C/g G
 Its curfew gull it glides
 G Dm
 Upon four-legged forest clouds
 F C G C/g G
 The cowboy angel rides
 G Bm' Am G
 With his candle lit into the sun
 G Bm' C D
 Though its glow is waxed in black
 G Bm' Am G C/g
 All except when 'neath the trees of Eden

The lamppost stands with folded arms
 Its iron claws attached
 To curbs 'neath holes where babies wail
 Though it shadows metal badge
 All and all can only fall
 Bm' Am C D
 With a crashing but meaningless blow
 G Bb' C G
 No sound ever comes from the Gates of Eden

The savage soldier sticks his head in sand
 And then complains
 Unto the shoeless hunter who's gone deaf
 But still remains
 Upon the beach where hound dogs bay
 At ships with tattooed sails
 G Cadd9 G
 Heading for the Gates of Eden

With a time-rusted compass blade
Aladdin and his lamp
Sits with Utopian hermit monks
Side saddle on the Golden Calf
And on their promises of paradise
Am C D
You will not hear a laugh
G Bb' C G
All except inside the Gates of Eden

Relationships of ownership
They whisper in the wings
To those condemned to act accordingly
And wait for succeeding kings
And I try to harmonize with songs
The lonesome sparrow sings
There are no kings inside the Gates of Eden

The motorcycle black madonna
Two-wheeled gypsy queen
And her silver-studded phantom cause
The gray flannel dwarf to scream
As he weeps to wicked birds of prey
Who pick up on his bread crumb sins
And there are no sins inside the Gates of Eden

The kingdoms of Experience
In the precious wind they rot
While paupers change possessions
Each one wishing for what the other has got
And the princess and the prince
Discuss what's real and what is not
It doesn't matter inside the Gates of Eden

The foreign sun, it squints upon
A bed that is never mine
As friends and other strangers
From their fates try to resign
Leaving men wholly, totally free
To do anything they wish to do but die
And there are no trials inside the Gates of Eden

At dawn my lover comes to me
And tells me of her dreams
With no attempts to shovel the glimpse
Into the ditch of what each one means
At times I think there are no words
But these to tell what's true
And there are no truths outside the Gates of Eden

Occasionally the following figure (or some variation of it) is played between verses or lines, replacing the G – C/g – G turn (only the changes are noted, and the F must be played with the thumb in order for the little figure to be playable):

    G                      F                      D

And the D in the penultimate line is often played in the same manner:

There is no sense in trying.

Pointed threats, they bluff with scorn

Suicide remarks are torn

From the fool's gold mouthpiece

The hollow horn plays wasted words

Proves to warn

That he not busy being born

Is busy dying.

Temptation's page flies out the door
You follow, find yourself at war
Watch waterfalls of pity roar
You feel to moan but unlike before
You discover
That you'd just be
One more person crying.

 D A
So don't fear if you hear
 D G/b
A foreign sound to your ear
D A G/b A D
It's alright, Ma, I'm only sighing.

As some warn victory, some downfall
Private reasons great or small
Can be seen in the eyes of those that call
To make all that should be killed to crawl
While others say don't hate nothing at all Except hatred.

Disillusioned words like bullets bark
As human gods aim for their mark
Made everything from toy guns that spark
To flesh-colored Christs that glow in the dark
It's easy to see without looking too far
That not much
Is really sacred.

While preachers preach of evil fates
Teachers teach that knowledge waits
Can lead to hundred-dollar plates
Goodness hides behind its gates
But even the president of the United States
Sometimes must have
To stand naked.

 An' though the rules of the road have been lodged
 It's only people's games that you got to dodge
 And it's alright, Ma, I can make it.

Advertising signs that con you
Into thinking you're the one
That can do what's never been done
That can win what's never been won
Meantime life outside goes on
All around you.

You lose yourself, you reappear
You suddenly find you got nothing to fear
Alone you stand with nobody near
When a trembling distant voice, unclear
Startles your sleeping ears to hear
That somebody thinks
They really found you.

A question in your nerves is lit
Yet you know there is no answer fit to satisfy
Insure you not to quit
To keep it in your mind and not fergit
That it is not he or she or them or it
That you belong to.

Although the masters make the rules
For the wise men and the fools
I got nothing, Ma, to live up to.

For them that must obey authority
That they do not respect in any degree
Who despise their jobs, their destinies
Speak jealously of them that are free
Cultivate their flowers to be Nothing more than something
They invest in.

While some on principles baptized
To strict party platform ties
Social clubs in drag disguise
Outsiders they can freely criticize
Tell nothing except who to idolize
And then say God bless him.

While one who sings with his tongue on fire
Gargles in the rat race choir
Bent out of shape from society's pliers
Cares not to come up any higher
But rather get you down in the hole
That he's in.

But I mean no harm nor put fault
On anyone that lives in a vault
But it's alright, Ma, if I can't please him.

Old lady judges watch people in pairs
Limited in sex, they dare
To push fake morals, insult and stare
While money doesn't talk, it swears
Obscenity, who really cares Propaganda, all is phony.

While them that defend what they cannot see
With a killer's pride, security
It blows the minds most bitterly
For them that think death's honesty
Won't fall upon them naturally
Life sometimes
Must get lonely.

My eyes collide head-on with stuffed graveyards
False gods, I scuff
At pettiness which plays so rough
Walk upside-down inside handcuffs

Kick my legs to crash it off
Say okay, I have had enough
What else can you show me?

And if my thought-dreams could be seen
They'd probably put my head in a guillotine
But it's alright, Ma, it's life, and life only.

Before the Flood version

Same as above, except that the fourth verse is omitted, and that the audience is more noisy after the second.

Budokan version

It's hard to tell if there is an A major involved in the A minor as well. There probably is.

You've gone to the finest school all right, Miss Lonely
But you know you only used to get juiced in it
And nobody has ever taught you how to live on the street
And now you find out you're gonna have to get used to it
You said you'd never compromise
With the mystery tramp, but now you realize
He's not selling any alibis
As you stare into the vacuum of his eyes
And say do you want to make a deal?

How does it feel

How does it feel
 To be on your own
 With no direction home
 Like a complete unknown
 Like a rolling stone?

You never turned around to see the frowns on the jugglers and the clowns
 When they all come down and did tricks for you
 You never understood that it ain't no good
 You shouldn't let other people get your kicks for you
 You used to ride on the chrome horse with your diplomat
 Who carried on his shoulder a Siamese cat
 Ain't it hard when you discover that
 He really wasn't where it's at
 After he took from you everything he could steal.

How does it feel
 How does it feel
 To be on your own
 With no direction home
 Like a complete unknown
 Like a rolling stone?

Princess on the steeple and all the pretty people
 They're drinkin', thinkin' that they got it made
 Exchanging all precious gifts
 But you'd better take your diamond ring, you'd better pawn it babe
 You used to be so amused
 At Napoleon in rags and the language that he used
 Go to him now, he calls you, you can't refuse
 When you ain't got nothing, you got nothing to lose
 You're invisible now, you got no secrets to conceal.

How does it feel
 How does it feel
 To be on your own

Well, John the Baptist after torturing a thief
Looks up at his hero the Commander-in-Chief Saying, "Tell me great hero, but please make it brief
Is there a hole for me to get sick in?"

The Commander-in-Chief answers him while chasing a fly
Saying, "Death to all those who would whimper and cry"
And dropping a bar bell he points to the sky
Saying, "The sun's not yellow it's chicken"

The king of the Philistines his soldiers to save
Puts jawbones on their tombstones and flatters their graves
Puts the pied pipers in prison and fattens the slaves
Then sends them out to the jungle

Gypsy Davey with a blowtorch he burns out their camps
With his faithful slave Pedro behind him he tramps
With a fantastic collection of stamps
To win friends and influence his uncle

Mama's in the fact'ry

Daddy's in the alley
He's lookin' for food
I'm in trouble
With the tombstone blues

The geometry of innocent flesh on the bone
Causes Galileo's math book to get thrown
At Delilah who's sitting worthlessly alone
But the tears on her cheeks are from laughter

Now I wish I could give Brother Bill his great thrill
I would set him in chains at the top of the hill
Then send out for some pillars and Cecil B. DeMille
He could die happily ever after

Tuba players now rehearse around the flagpole
And the National Bank at a profit sells road maps for the soul
To the old folks home and the college

It Takes a Lot to Laugh, It Takes a Train to Cry

Words and music Bob Dylan

Released on Highway 61 Revisited (1965), in different studio versions on The Bootleg Series 1-3 (1991) and No Direction Home (2005), and in a live version on Live 1975 (2002)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Original album version

Capo 1st fret (original key Ab major)

The G – C/g – G (320003 – 3x2013 – 320003) pattern goes through the whole song. One could play just a sustained G as well. The change of this pattern that I've indicated in lines 2 and 4 is mainly to get an approximation to what the second guitar plays there. Likewise, in the last line there seems to be very little activity – maybe there should be just a G all through it.

In later years, the song has been played as a slow, electric blues.

Intro and recurring riff:

No Direction Home version

Well, I ride on a mailtrain, mama,
Can't buy no thrill.
I've been up all night, baby,
Leanin' on the window sill.
But if I die
On top of the hill
And if I don't make it,
You know my baby will.

Ah, don't the sun look good, baby,
Coming down through the trees?
Don't the ghost child look good, mama,
Sittin' on this mad-man's knee?
Don't the moon look good
Goin' down over the sea?
Don't my gal look fine
When she's runnin' after me?

Well I just been to the baggage room where the engineer he's been tossed
Oh, I stamped on 40 compasses,
God knows what they cost
Well, I wanna be your lover, baby,
I don't wanna be your boss.
And I can't help it
if this train gets lost.

Bootleg Series version

Uptempo electric blues with Dylan at the piano (presumably – it sounds like him, and none of the guitars do). The most appropriate way to play it on a guitar would be with a capo on the 4th fret (or with barré chords), as in the following tab.

The accompaniment figure would then be:

      E           E6           E7           E6
|-----|-----|-----|-----|
|-----|-----|-----|-----|
|-----|-----|-----|-----|
|-----|-----|-----|-----|
|-2-----2-----4-----4-----|-5-----5-----4-----4-----|
|-0-----0-----0-----0-----|-0-----0-----0-----0-----|

The solo guitar plays this little lick at the end of each two-bar period (during the E-E6-E7-E6, that is):

      (E6)           (E)
      .           .           :           .
-----|-----|
-----|-----|
-----|-----|
---b8r6---4-----|-----|
-----6---4---|-6-----|

(b8r6 means that the string is struck in bent position, two semitones, as if played on the 8th fret, then released to normal position, on the 6th fret).

      E           E6           E7           E6
Well, I ride on a mailtrain, baby,

Ballad of a Thin Man

Words and music Bob Dylan

Released on Highway 61 Revisited (1965) and in live versions on Before the Flood (1974), At Budokan (1978), Real Live (1984), Live 1966 (1998), and No direction home (2005).

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Piano song, original key B minor. Here's a guitar version in Am, which is what he usually plays these days. The Dm can be played x03230, which makes the transition between Am and Dm quite smooth. I'm quite certain I've heard him play that himself, just can't remember where/when.

The chords of the initial descending bass line can be played with a sustained Am and a descending bass, or as in the more elaborate Budokan version (see below).

In the second verse (at least) there is a "d" sounding in the F of the last line, which would make it an F6 or a Dm/f.

The intro then goes like this:

      Am          Dm Am
      :          . .
----||-----0---0-0---0-----||---

Or in a rhythm from the Never-Ending Tour (1995; in 1998 he's back to the version above):

      Am          Dm Am   Dm          Am

Most live versions are faithful to the album version. The variations (apart from the placement of the capo – usually 1st or 2nd fret or no capo) occur in two places: the "what you will say when you get home" line, where most versions incorporate the intro figure, and the end of the bridge ("tax deductible charity organizations"), where at least Real Live strongly emphasizes the chromatic bass line G-G♯-A.

God says, "Out on Highway 61."

Well Georgia Sam he had a bloody nose
Welfare Department they wouldn't give him no clothes
He asked poor Howard where can I go
Howard said there's only one place I know
Sam said tell me quick man I got to run
Ol' Howard just pointed with his gun
And said that way down on Highway 61.

Well Mack the Finger said to Louie the King
I got forty red white and blue shoe strings
And a thousand telephones that don't ring
Do you know where I can get rid of these things
And Louie the King said let me think for a minute son
And he said yes I think it can be easily done
Just take everything down to Highway 61.

Now the fifth daughter on the twelfth night
Told the first father that things weren't right
My complexion she said is much too white
He said come here and step into the light he says hmm you're right
Let me tell the second mother this has been done
But the second mother was with the seventh son
And they were both out on Highway 61.

Now the rovin' gambler he was very bored
He was tryin' to create a next world war
He found a promoter who nearly fell off the floor
He said I never engaged in this kind of thing before
But yes I think it can be very easily done
We'll just put some bleachers out in the sun
And have it on Highway 61.

Sweet Melinda
The peasants call her the goddess of gloom
She speaks good English
And she invites you up into her room
And you're so kind
And careful not to go to her too soon
And she takes your voice
And leaves you howling at the moon

Up on Housing Project Hill

It's either fortune or fame
You must pick up one or the other
Though neither of them are to be what they claim
If you're lookin' to get silly
You better go back to from where you came
Because the cops don't need you
And man they expect the same

Now all the authorities
They just stand around and boast
How they blackmailed the sergeant-at-arms
Into leaving his post
And picking up Angel who
Just arrived here from the coast
Who looked so fine at first
But left looking just like a ghost

I started out on burgundy
But soon hit the harder stuff
Everybody said they'd stand behind me
When the game got rough
But the joke was on me
There was nobody even there to call my bluff
I'm going back to New York City
I do believe I've had enough

From Desolation Row

Cinderella, she seems so easy
"It takes one to know one," she smiles
And puts her hands in her back pockets
Bette Davis style
And in comes Romeo, he's moaning
"You Belong to Me I Believe"
And someone says, "You're in the wrong place, my friend
You better leave"
And the only sound that's left
After the ambulances go
Is Cinderella sweeping up
On Desolation Row

Now the moon is almost hidden
The stars are beginning to hide
The fortunetelling lady
Has even taken all her things inside
All except for Cain and Abel
And the hunchback of Notre Dame
Everybody is making love
Or else expecting rain
And the Good Samaritan, he's dressing
He's getting ready for the show
He's going to the carnival tonight
On Desolation Row

Now Ophelia, she's 'neath the window
For her I feel so afraid
On her twenty-second birthday
She already is an old maid
To her, death is quite romantic
She wears an iron vest
Her profession's her religion
Her sin is her lifelessness
And though her eyes are fixed upon
Noah's great rainbow
She spends her time peeking
Into Desolation Row

Einstein, disguised as Robin Hood
With his memories in a trunk
Passed this way an hour ago
With his friend, a jealous monk
He looked so immaculately frightful
As he bummed a cigarette
Then he went off sniffing drainpipes
And reciting the alphabet
Now you would not think to look at him
But he was famous long ago
For playing the electric violin
On Desolation Row

Dr. Filth, he keeps his world
Inside of a leather cup

But all his sexless patients
They're trying to blow it up
Now his nurse, some local loser
She's in charge of the cyanide hole
And she also keeps the cards that read
"Have Mercy on His Soul"
They all play on penny whistles
You can hear them blow
If you lean your head out far enough
From Desolation Row

Across the street they've nailed the curtains
They're getting ready for the feast
The Phantom of the Opera
A perfect image of a priest
They're spoonfeeding Casanova
To get him to feel more assured
Then they'll kill him with self-confidence
After poisoning him with words
And the Phantom's shouting to skinny girls
"Get Outa Here If You Don't Know
Casanova is just being punished for going
To Desolation Row"

Now at midnight all the agents
And the superhuman crew
Come out and round up everyone
That knows more than they do
Then they bring them to the factory
Where the heart-attack machine
Is strapped across their shoulders
And then the kerosene
Is brought down from the castles
By insurance men who go
Check to see that nobody is escaping
To Desolation Row

Praise be to Nero's Neptune
The Titanic sails at dawn
And everybody's shouting
"Which Side Are You On?"
And Ezra Pound and T. S. Eliot
Fighting in the captain's tower
While calypso singers laugh at them
And fishermen hold flowers
Between the windows of the sea
Where lovely mermaids flow
And nobody has to think too much
About Desolation Row

Yes, I received your letter yesterday
(About the time the door knob broke)
When you asked how I was doing
Was that some kind of joke?
All these people that you mention
Yes, I know them, they're quite lame
I had to rearrange their faces

And give them all another name
 Right now I can't read too good
 Don't send me no more letters no
 Not unless you mail them
 From Desolation Row

No Direction Home version

Basically the same as the Live 1966 version below, with some lyric changes – most notably in the Casanova verse, where the Phantom of the Opera is spoonfeeding him "the boiled guts of birds / then he'll torture him with self confidence / and poison him with words" – and with the distinctive descent d-c-b in the electric guitar (written here as if played by the acoustic guitar):

Then they'll stone you and then they'll come back again.

They'll stone you when you're riding in your car.

They'll stone you when you're playing your guitar.

Yes, but I would not feel so all alone,

Everybody must get stoned.

Well, they'll stone you when you walk all alone.
 They'll stone you when you are walking home.
 They'll stone you and then say you are brave.
 They'll stone you when you are set down in your grave.
 But I would not feel so all alone,
 Everybody must get stoned.

Unplugged version

Played in E without a capo. The descending riffs are played with the chord shapes xxx434, xxx323, xxx212, 022100, and correspondingly on the other scale steps (see tab above).
 The lyrics correspond more to what he sings these days. The three verses seem to be there mostly as an excuse for long 12-bar blues jams. Methinks he likes that...

They'll stone ya when you're trying to be so good,
 They'll stone ya just like they said they would.
 Stone ya and they'll say that it's the end.
 stone you, they'll be back again.
 I would not feel so all alone,
 Everybody must get stoned.

Stone ya when you're at the breakfast table.
 Stone ya when you are young and able.
 Stone ya and they'll say, "good luck."
 Stone ya just like you got hit by a truck.
 I would not feel so all alone,
 Everybody must get stoned.

They'll stone you and they'll be back for more
 Stone you and then they'll close the door stone you and say that it's the end.
 stone you and they'll be back again.
 I would not feel so all alone,
 Everybody must get stoned.

Visions of Johanna

Words and music Bob Dylan

Released on Blonde on Blonde (1966) and in live versions on Biograph (1985) and on Live 1966 (1998)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Below is the album version. The Live 1966 version is identical, save for the G/b in the last line, which is played as a straight G. (In live versions from the never ending tour, this chord is played as a G6 chord: 320000)

Capo 2nd fret (sounding key A major)

G C/g G

G
Ain't it just like the night
C D G C/g G
to play tricks when you're tryin' to be so quiet?

G
We sit here stranded,
C D G
though we're all doin' our best to deny it

And Louise holds a handful of rain,
G C/g G
temptin' you to defy it

C G
Lights flicker from the opposite loft
C G
In this room the heat pipes just cough
C G
The country music station plays soft

But there's nothing, really nothing to turn off
G C D G
Just Louise and her lover so entwined
C G/b D G
And these visions of Johanna that conquer my mind

In the empty lot where the ladies play blindman's bluff with the key chain
And the all-night girls
they whisper of escapades out on the "D" train
We can hear the night watchman click his flashlight
Ask himself if it's him or them that's really insane
Louise, she's all right, she's just near She's delicate and seems like the mirror 1)
But she just makes it all too concise and too clear
That Johanna's not here
The ghost of 'lectricity howls in the bones of her face
Where these visions of Johanna have now taken my place

Now, little boy lost,
he takes himself so seriously

He brags of his misery,
he likes to live dangerously
And when bringing her name up
He speaks of a farewell kiss to me 2)
He's sure got a lotta gall to be so useless and all Muttering small talk at the wall while I'm in the hall
How can I explain?
Oh, it's so hard to get on
And these visions of Johanna,
they kept me up past the dawn

Inside the museums,
Infinity goes up on trial
Voices echo this is what salvation must be like after a while
But Mona Lisa musta had the highway blues
You can tell by the way she smiles
See the primitive wallflower freeze
When the jelly-faced women all sneeze
Hear the one with the mustache say, "Jeeze
I can't find my knees"
Oh, jewels and binoculars hang from the head of the mule
But these visions of Johanna, they make it all seem so cruel

The peddler now speaks 3)
to the countess who's pretending to care for him Sayin', "Name me someone that's not a parasite and I'll go out and say a prayer for him"
But like Louise always says
"Ya can't look at much, can ya man?"
As she, herself, prepares for him
And Madonna, she still has not showed
We see this empty cage now corrode
Where her cape of the stage once had flowed
The fiddler, he now steps to the road
He writes ev'rything's been returned which was owed
On the back of the fish truck that loads
While my conscience explodes
The harmonicas play the skeleton keys and the rain
And these visions of Johanna
are now all that remain

Textual variants in the No Direction Home version:

- 1) Like silk, she seems like the mirror
- 2) ... of her farewell ...
- 3) Last verse:

The fiddler now plays
for the countess who's pretending to care for him
He says, "Name me someone that's not a parasite and I'll say a prayer for him"

But like Louise says
"Ya can't look at much, can ya man"
As she, herself, prepares for him
Madonna, she still has not showed
We see the empty cage now corrode
Where her cape of the stage once had flowed
The peddler, he now steps to the road ev'rything's gone which was owed he examines the nightingale's code
Still written on the fish truck that loads my conscience explodes
The harmonicas play the skeleton keys and the rain
And these visions of Johanna are all that remain

But, sooner or later, one of us must know
You just did what you're supposed to do
Sooner or later, one of us must know
That I really did try to get close to you

I couldn't see when it started snowin'
Your voice was all that I heard
I couldn't see where we were goin'
But you said you knew an' I took your word
And then you told me later, as I apologized
That you were just kiddin' me, you weren't really from the farm
An' I told you, as you clawed out my eyes
That I never really meant to do you any harm

But, sooner or later, one of us must know
You just did what you're supposed to do
Sooner or later, one of us must know
That I really did try to get close to you

Capo 5th fret (sounding key F major). I can't guarantee that this is what he's playing, but it's the most convenient key, especially if you want to retain that characteristic little turn that goes through the whole song, which can be played with all the important chords in C major:

      C              Em              Am              G

On the album, this lick is played one octave higher (noted relative to capo, although it can of course be played without a capo):

 Honey, I want you.

The drunken politician leaps
 Upon the street where mothers weep
 And the saviors who are fast asleep,
 They wait for you.
 And I wait for them to interrupt
 Me drinkin' from my broken cup
 And ask me to
 Open up the gate for you.
 I want you, I want you,
 I want you so bad,
 Honey, I want you.

 'Cause I don't think about it.

Well, I return to the Queen of Spades
 And talk with my chambermaid.
 She knows that I'm not afraid
 To look at her.
 She is good to me
 And there's nothing she doesn't see.
 She knows where I'd like to be
 But it doesn't matter.
 I want you, I want you,
 I want you so bad,
 Honey, I want you.

Now your dancing child with his Chinese suit,
 He spoke to me, I took his flute.
 No, I wasn't very cute to him,

Well, Shakespeare, he's in the alley
With his pointed shoes and his bells,
Speaking to some French girl,
Who says she knows me well.
And I would send a message
To find out if she's talked,

But the post office has been stolen
And the mailbox is locked.
Oh, Mama, can this really be the end,
To be stuck inside of Mobile
With the Memphis blues again.

Mona tried to tell me
To stay away from the train line.
She said that all the railroad men
Just drink up your blood like wine.
An' I said, "Oh, I didn't know that,
But then again, there's only one I've met
An' he just smoked my eyelids
An' punched my cigarette."
Oh, Mama, can this really be the end,
To be stuck inside of Mobile
With the Memphis blues again.

Grandpa died last week
And now he's buried in the rocks,
But everybody still talks about
How badly they were shocked.
But me, I expected it to happen,
I knew he'd lost control
When he built a fire on Main Street
And shot it full of holes.
Oh, Mama, can this really be the end,
To be stuck inside of Mobile
With the Memphis blues again.

Now the senator came down here
Showing ev'ryone his gun,
Handing out free tickets
To the wedding of his son.
An' me, I nearly got busted
An' wouldn't it be my luck
To get caught without a ticket
And be discovered beneath a truck.
Oh, Mama, can this really be the end,
To be stuck inside of Mobile
With the Memphis blues again.

Now the preacher looked so baffled
When I asked him why he dressed
With twenty pounds of headlines
Stapled to his chest.
But he cursed me when I proved it to him,
Then I whispered, "Not even you can hide.
You see, you're just like me,
I hope you're satisfied."
Oh, Mama, can this really be the end,
To be stuck inside of Mobile
With the Memphis blues again.

Now the rainman gave me two cures,
Then he said, "Jump right in."

The one was Texas medicine,
The other was just railroad gin.
An' like a fool I mixed them
An' it strangled up my mind,
An' now people just get uglier
An' I have no sense of time.
Oh, Mama, can this really be the end,
To be stuck inside of Mobile
With the Memphis blues again.

When Ruthie says come see her
In her honky-tonk lagoon,
Where I can watch her waltz for free
'Neath her Panamanian moon.
An' I say, "Aw come on now,
You must know about my debutante."
An' she says, "Your debutante just knows what you need
But I know what you want."
Oh, Mama, can this really be the end,
To be stuck inside of Mobile
With the Memphis blues again.

Now the bricks lay on Grand Street
Where the neon madmen climb.
They all fall there so perfectly,
It all seems so well timed.
An' here I sit so patiently
Waiting to find out what price
You have to pay to get out of Going through all these things twice.
Oh, Mama, can this really be the end,
To be stuck inside of Mobile
With the Memphis blues again.

Well, if you wanna see the sun rise
Honey, I know where
We'll go out and see it sometime
We'll both just sit there and stare
Me with my belt
Wrapped around my head
And you just sittin' there
In your brand new leopard-skin pill-box hat

Well, I asked the doctor if I could see you
It's bad for your health, he said
Yes, I disobeyed his orders
I came to see you

You know, I don't mind him cheatin' on me
 But I sure wish he'd take that off his head
 Your brand new leopard-skin pill-box hat

Well, I see you got a new boyfriend
 You know, I never seen him before
 Well, I saw him
 Makin' love to you
 You forgot to close the garage door
 You might think he loves you for your money
 But I know what he really loves you for
 It's your brand new leopard-skin pill-box hat

You might think he loves you for your money
But that ain't true, I know what he really loves you for:
Your brand new leopard-skin pill-box hat

Well I don't drink whiskey, no, I don't drink gin
But I'm so dirty honey, I've been working all day in the coal bin
Right now I wanna see you, honey, will you let me in?
Your brand new leopard-skin pill-box hat

Well, can I be your chauffeur, honey, can I be your chauffeur?
Well, you can ride with me, honey I'll be your chauffeur
just as long as you stay in the car -
if you get out and start to walk, you just might topple over
in your brand new leopard-skin pill-box hat

Blonde on Blonde version

Bob seems to be playing with a capo on the 4th fret, and more or less the same chords as above. The 2nd guitar plays without a capo, using the following pattern (w/variations):

  E                   A    B7       E

"Bangla Desh concert" version (Aug 1, 1971)

The special feat of this version is the use of the F9/a (x03213) chord shape, together with the C = x32013 shape.

Capo 4th fret (sounding key E major)

Budokan version

One guitar plays with a capo on the 4th fret, the other (Dylan's) is uncapoed.

This is played by Dylan between the verses:

Uncapoed:

Absolutely Sweet Marie

Words and music Bob Dylan
Released on Blonde on Blonde (1966)
Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

I have a slight suspicion that Dylan plays in dropped C tuning with a capo on the 2nd fret – it is clearly played with a capo, and the third chord (A, or G with the capo) is played as seventh chord, and he hardly ever does that except in that tuning. It's not much to go by, and it doesn't really matter, so I'll let it fall.

Anyway, the basic riff is much easier to play in D, so I'll leave the tab in the sounding key.

Basic riff:

D

G          D          A
Sometimes it gets so hard, you see
          D          G          A          D          Bm
I'm just sitting here beating on my trumpet
          F#m          D          A

          G          A          D
But where are you tonight, sweet Marie?

Well, I waited for you when I was half sick
Yes, I waited for you when you hated me
Well, I waited for you inside of the frozen traffic
When you knew I had some other place to be
Now, where are you tonight, sweet Marie?

          Bb
Well, anybody can be
just like me, obviously
          Bb
But then, now again,
          D          A
not too many can be like you, fortunately.

Well, six white horses that you did promise

Were fin'lly delivered down to the penitentiary
But to live outside the law, you must be honest
I know you always say that you agree
But where are you tonight, sweet Marie?

Well, I don't know how it happened
But the river-boat captain, he knows my fate
But ev'rybody else, even yourself
They're just gonna have to wait.

Well, I got the fever down in my pockets
The Persian drunkard, he follows me
Yes, I can take him to your house but I can't unlock it
You see, you forgot to leave me with the key
Oh, where are you tonight, sweet Marie?

Now, I been in jail when all my mail showed
That a man can't give his address out to bad company
And now I stand here lookin' at your yellow railroad
In the ruins of your balcony
Wond'ring where you are tonight, sweet Marie.

Words and music Bob Dylan

Released on Blonde on Blonde (1966) and in a live version on Live 1966 (1998)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Capo 4th fret (sounding key E major)

And you might as well tune down the E string two steps, to get the dropped C tuning that he uses on Live 1966 (C-A-d-g-b-e').

The versions are quite similar, apart from (1) the little riff running through the album version, and (2) the basic chord alternation, which in the album version is C – F, and on Live 1966 C – Csus4. (it actually sounds like that's what Dylan is playing in the album version as well, but the little riff clearly alternates between C and F, so that's the predominant sound anyway).

I stood there and hummed,
I tapped on her drum and asked her how come.
And she buttoned her boot,
And straightened her suit,
Then she said, "Don't get cute."
So I forced my hands in my pockets
And felt with my thumbs,
And gallantly handed her
My very last piece of gum.

She threw me outside,
I stood in the dirt where ev'ryone walked.
And after finding I'd Forgotten my shirt,
I went back and knocked.
I waited in the hallway, she went to get it,
And I tried to make sense
Out of that picture of you in your wheelchair
That leaned up against . . .

Her Jamaican rum
And when she did come, I asked her for some.
She said, "No, dear."
I said, "Your words aren't clear,
You'd better spit out your gum."
She screamed till her face got so red
Then she fell on the floor,
And I covered her up and then
Thought I'd go look through her drawer.

And, when I was through
I filled up my shoe
And brought it to you.
And you, you took me in,
You loved me then
You didn't waste time.
And I, I never took much,
I never asked for your crutch.
Now don't ask for mine.

The recurring riff here is much more of a harp riff than a guitar riff, but it is playable on a guitar too, of course.

The harp lick (cross harp, harp key D major) is noted under the guitar tab (all notes are draw unless noted by a +. ' and " = bend one and two half steps down, respectively).

The first guitar figure in the intro is used for the first measures of the subsequent verses.

Sad-Eyed Lady of the Lowlands

Words and music Bob Dylan
Released on Blonde on Blonde (1966)
Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Capo 2nd fret (sounding key D major)

Album version

Bob plays in dropped C tuning (C-A-d-g-b-e') with quite simple chords, like he does on the Denver Hotel Tape (March 13, 1966) (See below). That accounts for some of the blurriness of the keys, since the two versions occasionally clash. Two versions follow: the first basically shows what the other instruments do, the second what Bob Dylan does.

The easiest way to play the G7sus4 G7 G7sus2 G7 figure would be:

Introductory remarks

Eyolf Østrem

There are three general remarks to be made about this album. One is the consistent use of the capo. Several of the songs (John Wesley Harding, All Along the Watchtower, The Ballad of Frankie Lee and Judas Priest, As I went out one morning, I pity the poor immigrant), are played with the capo around the 5th fret, which produces the high, ringing guitar sound that is so typical of this album (if it's successful is another question: it also creates a very thin, open sound-scape, with the bass and the guitar far removed from each other and from the drums – they all stand very much alone; maybe he should have gone back to the studio and added some tracks with the Band as he originally planned).

The other is the very simple chord progressions in many of the songs (The Ballad of Frankie Lee and Judas Priest, The Drifter's Escape, The Wicked Messenger, not to mention All Along the Watchtower). That these songs nevertheless stand out as some of the most effective on the album is a testimony of Dylan's superb singing on this album.

His harmonica work is also outstanding. A year of wild touring with the Band may have come close to killing him, but his harp playing certainly became more expressive – and this is the only album where it shows directly, IMHO.

One song stands out – in the negative sense: the title track. It was what kept me from buying the record for several years.

"Depart from me this moment,"
I told her with my voice.
Said she, "But I don't wish to,"
Said I, "But you have no choice."
"I beg you, sir," she pleaded
From the corners of her mouth,
"I will secretly accept you
And together we'll fly south."

Just then Tom Paine, himself,
Came running from across the field,
Shouting at this lovely girl
And commanding her to yield.
And as she was letting go her grip,
Up Tom Paine did run,
"I'm sorry, sir," he said to me,
"I'm sorry for what she's done."

Capo 5th fret (sounding key F major)

The F in the final line is perhaps (and could definitely be) played as an Fmaj7: x33210, which comes very smoothly from the preceding C/g: 332010.

The C/b in the penultimate line is probably a x20010 chord rather than the "correct" x22010.

 But go on your way accordingly
 And know you're not alone."

[Harmonica verse]

I dreamed I saw St. Augustine,

The Ballad of Frankie Lee and Judas Priest

Words and music Bob Dylan

Released on John Wesley Harding (1967)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Capo 5th fret (sounding key C major)

The same four-chord progression premeates the whole song, played twice as an intro:

G Bm Am G

That's about all there is to it.

G Bm
Well, Frankie Lee and Judas Priest,
Am G
They were the best of friends.
Bm
So when Frankie Lee needed money one day,
Am G
Judas quickly pulled out a roll of tens
Bm
And placed them on a footstool
Just above the plotted plain,
G Bm
Sayin', "Take your pick, Frankie Boy,
Am G
My loss will be your gain."

Well, Frankie Lee, he sat right down
And put his fingers to his chin,
But with the cold eyes of Judas on him,
His head began to spin.
"Would ya please not stare at me like that," he said,
"It's just my foolish pride,
But sometimes a man must be alone
And this is no place to hide."

Well, Judas, he just winked and said,
"All right, I'll leave you here,
But you'd better hurry up and choose
Which of those bills you want,
Before they all disappear."
"I'm gonna start my pickin' right now,
Just tell me where you'll be."

Judas pointed down the road
And said, "Eternity!"
"Eternity?" said Frankie Lee,
With a voice as cold as ice.
"That's right," said Judas Priest, "Eternity,
Though you might call it 'Paradise.'"

"I don't call it anything,"

Said Frankie Lee with a smile.
"All right," said Judas Priest,
"I'll see you after a while."

Well, Frankie Lee, he sat back down,
Feelin' low and mean,
When just then a passing stranger
Burst upon the scene,
Saying, "Are you Frankie Lee, the gambler,
Whose father is deceased?
Well, if you are,
There's a fellow callin' you down the road
And they say his name is Priest."

"Oh, yes, he is my friend,"
Said Frankie Lee in fright,
"I do recall him very well,
In fact, he just left my sight."
"Yes, that's the one," said the stranger,
As quiet as a mouse,
"Well, my message is, he's down the road, Stranded in a house."

Well, Frankie Lee, he panicked,
He dropped ev'rything and ran
Until he came up to the spot
Where Judas Priest did stand.
"What kind of house is this," he said,
"Where I have come to roam?"
"It's not a house," said Judas Priest,
"It's not a house . . . it's a home."

Well, Frankie Lee, he trembled,
He soon lost all control
Over ev'rything which he had made
While the mission bells did toll.
He just stood there staring
At that big house as bright as any sun,
With four and twenty windows
And a woman's face in ev'ry one.

Well, up the stairs ran Frankie Lee
With a soulful, bounding leap,
And, foaming at the mouth,
He began to make his midnight creep.
For sixteen nights and days he raved,
But on the seventeenth he burst
Into the arms of Judas Priest,
Which is where he died of thirst.

No one tried to say a thing
When they took him out in jest,
Except, of course, the little neighbor boy
Who carried him to rest.
And he just walked along, alone,
With his guilt so well concealed,
And muttered underneath his breath,

"Nothing is revealed."

Well, the moral of the story,
The moral of this song,
Is simply that one should never be
Where one does not belong.
So when you see your neighbor carryin' somethin',
Help him with his load,
And don't go mistaking Paradise
For that home across the road.

Drifter's Escape

Words and music Bob Dylan

"O'h, help me in my weakness,"
  C/g      G      *
I heard the drifter say,
  G
As they carried him from the courtroom
  C/g      G      *
And were taking him away.
  G
"My trip hasn't been a pleasant one
  C/g      *
And my time it isn't long,

And I still do not know
  C/g      G
What it was that I've done wrong."

Well, the judge, he cast his robe aside,
A tear came to his eye,
"You fail to understand," he said,
"Why must you even try?"
Outside, the crowd was stirring,
You could hear it from the door.
Inside, the judge was stepping down,
While the jury cried for more.

"O'h, stop that cursed jury,"
Cried the attendant and the nurse,
"The trial was bad enough,
But this is ten times worse."
Just then a bolt of lightning
Struck the courthouse out of shape,
And while ev'rybody knelt to pray
The drifter did escape.

Dear Landlord

Words and music Bob Dylan

Released on John Wesley Harding (1967) and on Biograph (1985)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Read my article about this song, The propelling harmony of "Dear Landlord"

A "piano song" which, for a change, adapts well to the guitar.

The only not obvious chord is the "Gm/Bb" (to be played correctly: 655333, but permissibly x13333) in the penultimate line, which could be a plain Bb as well.

[Intro:]

Dear landlord,

C Dm C Gm/Bb

And I do hope you receive it well,

F/a Gm Dm F G

Dependin' on the way you feel that you live.

Dear landlord,

Please heed these words that I speak.

I know you've suffered much,

But in this you are not so unique.

All of us, at times, we might work too hard

To have it too fast and too much,

And anyone can fill his life up

With things he can see but he just cannot touch.

Dear landlord,

Please don't dismiss my case.

I'm not about to argue,

I'm not about to move to no other place.

Now, each of us has his own special gift

And you know this was meant to be true,

And if you don't underestimate me,

I won't underestimate you.

I Am A Lonesome Hobo

Words and music Bob Dylan

Released on John Wesley Harding (1967)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

The only troublesome chord is the very first chord of the intro. Its function is that of a G minor. The guitar plays xx3331 (or even a full Bb: x13331). The g, which is actually the key note of the chord, is only heard in the bass figure (d f g f g). On a solo guitar I would play it xxx031, which combines the "best" of the two instruments, although it does not capture the ambiguity between Gm7 and Bb6 of the album. You can't have it all. And besides, it's only one measure of music anyway.

Occasionally he sneaks in a G – C/g – G ornamentation at the line endings.

Intro: Gm7 F C G

G

I am a lonesome hobo

Without family or friends,

Where another man's life might begin,

That's exactly where mine ends.

I have tried my hand at bribery,

Blackmail and deceit,

And I've served time for ev'rything

'Cept beggin' on the street.

Well, once I was rather prosperous,
 There was nothing I did lack.
 I had fourteen-karat gold in my mouth
 And silk upon my back.
 But I did not trust my brother,
 I carried him to blame,
 Which led me to my fatal doom,
 To wander off in shame.

Kind ladies and kind gentlemen,
 Soon I will be gone,
 But let me just warn you all,
 Before I do pass on;
 Stay free from petty jealousies,
 Live by no man's code,
 And hold your judgment for yourself
 Lest you wind up on this road.

One more night, the moon is shinin' bright
And the wind blows high above the tree.
Oh, I miss that woman so,
I didn't mean to see her go,
But tonight no light will shine on me.

Introductory remarks

Eyolf Østrem

“What is this shit?!” wrote Greil Marcus in his Rolling Stone review of this album, and there is something to that question. There are only three possible explanations to the mix of the blatant sentimentality of I forgot more (and a bunch of others), the ludicrous chord changes of “In search of Little Sadie”, the duet between the old, nasal Dylan and the new country-crooner Dylan in “The Boxer”, which is fun on the first hearing, but gets quite dull already on the second (and I don’t know what happens after the second hearing), and – the best of them all – “All the tired horses”, which brilliantly captures the mood of this album.

Either it was, as Dylan himself has explained, conceived as a collection of country standards, maybe inspired by the sessions with Johnny Cash in 1969. This would imply that it’s a serious effort. If so, it’s the best proof that his muse was silent at the moment (as Paul Williams asks: if the tracks that ended up on Self Portrait and Dylan were just warm-ups for the band, then where are the real tracks?).

Or it was, as Dylan himself has also explained, an attempt to shake off the annoying role of icon and voice of a generation that he felt he was being forced into and kept locked up in – a big “fuck you” to everyone caring to take it as a provocation. But why then the effort? There are more sessions for these albums (counting also New Morning) than for any other Dylan album. And why the inclusion of tracks that are actually quite enjoyable, among the shit?

Or was it, perhaps, an ironic kick in the butt to the country idiom, and a clever, multi-level analysis of sentimentality and of his own music-making, where the packaging adds to the wit of the music?

I wish I could say that the third alternative is the correct answer, but I can’t. What I can say is that Dylan was experimenting with his singing style, not only in the direction of country, but also a blues style which sounds new (and actually quite fresh!) in his oeuvre. They also seem to be having a good time, at least on some of the tracks (whereas others sound very uninspired). It is an amusing album, but not a good one. . .

Postscript:

Having lived with this album for a couple of days now, while tabbing it, I have quite reluctantly reached the conclusion (“insight” is too strong a word) that the most interesting songs on the album are “In search of little Sadie” (heard in conjunction with “Little Sadie”, of course) and All the Tired Horses. They both stretch some limits that aren’t usually touched upon. What’s interesting about the “Search for little Sadie”, is that it’s a stylized search – it sounds like (and is probably meant to sound like) Dylan sitting at home, searching for a melody, trying out things, discarding them on the way, and picking up the next thing to try out. But it isn’t: it’s a planned progression through various stages, planned so as to sound erratic. At times it is genuinely erratic, of course, but only on the surface level: the chromatic progression of chords in the first half leads Dylan to melodic goals he can’t have foreseen (which is evident from the recording – lots of sliding-up-to the last note of a phrase, to make it fit the chord). But the course through the song is orderly enough to be labeled “planned”. This ambiguity puts the aesthetics both of improvised and of pre-planned music (which is to say: the entire history of Western Classical Music) under scrutiny, by using the one to nullify the other. What remains, may be crap, but at least it's interesting crap (oh my, I'm turning into a garbologist!)

Wigwam stretches limits too, but mostly those of patience.

Postscript II: I couldn't resist to put up this note, posted at r.m.d:

Hello-

Just picked this one up this afternoon. I have the following to say: That is $11.99 and 74 minutes of my life that I'm never getting back.

The lyrics differ quite substantially from the official lyrics. Thanks to UltimoDraq for the actual sung lyrics.

Am G
I'm old Tom Moore from the bummer's shore
Am G Am
In the good old golden days.
G
They call me a bummer and a gin sot, too

But what cares I for praise
C Am
I wander around from town to town
C Am
Just like a roving sign,

And all the people all say "There goes Tom Moore
G Am
in the days of '49.

F C
In the days of old, in the days of gold
F C
How oftentimes I repine
F C
For the days of old when we dug up the gold
Am
In the days of '49.

Our comrades they all loved me well
Jolly saucy crew
A few hard cases I will recall
Though they all were brave and true
Whatever the pick, they never would flinch
They never would fret or whine
F C
Like good old bricks, they stood the kicks
[n.c.] Am
In the Days of 49

There was New York Jake, the butcher's boy
He was always getting tight
And every time that he'd get full he was sporting for a fight
Then Jake rampaged against a knife in the hands of old Bob Sign
And over Jake they held a wake
in the days of 49.

Am G
There was Poker Bill, one of the boys
Am G
Who was always in a game
Am G
Whether he lost or whether he won
Am G Am
To him it was always the same
He would ante up and draw his cards
And would go a hatfull blind
In a game with death Bill lost his breath in the days of 49 [oh my goodness!]

There was ragshag Bill from Buffalo
I never will forget
He would roar all day, and he'd roar all night
And I guess he's roaring yet
One day he fell in a prospect hole
In a roaring bad design
And in that hole, he roared out his soul
In the days of 49

Oh the comrades all that I've had
There's none that's left to boast
And I'm left alone in my misery
Like some old poor wandering ghost
And I pass by from town to town
They call me the ramblin' sign
There goes Tom Moore of bumper's shore
In the days of 49

Additional verse, not sung by Dylan:

There was poor old Jess, the old lame cuss
He never would relent
Her never was known to miss a drink
Or ever spend a cent.
At length old Jess like all the rest
Who never would decline,
In all his bloom went up the flume
In the days of '49.

In the early morning rain with a dollar in my hand
And an aching in my heart and my pockets full of sand
I'm a long way from home and I miss my love one so
In the early morning rain with nowhere to go.

G C

Out on runway number nine big 707 set to go
I'm stuck here on the ground where the cold winds blow
The liquor tasted good and the women all are fast
There she goes my friend, she's rolling down at last.

G C Dm G C

Hear the mighty engines roar, see the silver bird on high
She's away and westward bound far above the clouds she'll fly
Where the morning rain don't fall and the sun always shines
She'll be flying over my home in about three hours' time.

G C Dm G C

This old airport's got me down, it's no earthly good to me
'Cause I'm stuck here on the ground cold and drunk as I might be
You can't hop a jetplane like you can a freight train
So I'd best be on my way in the early morning rain.

[n.c.] C Am

Blue moon you saw me standing alone

Dm G C Am

Without a dream in my heart

Dm G C Am Dm G

Without a love of my own.

Blue moon you knew just what I was there for

You heard me saying a prayer for Someone I really could care for.

Dm G C Am

Then suddenly there appeared before me

Dm G C

The only one my arms could ever hold

Fm Bb Eb

I heard someone whisper, "Please adore me"

G D G

And when I looked my moon had turned to gold.

Blue moon now I am no longer alone

Without a dream in my heart

Without a love of my own

Without a love of my own.

I took some comfort there.

Then I'm laying out my winter clothes
And wishing I was gone Going on
Where the New York city winters
Aren't bleeding me
Am
Leading me
G
Going home.

In the clearing stands a boxer
And a fighter by his trade
And he carries the reminders
Of every glove that laid him down
And cut him till he cried out
In his anger and his shame
"I'm leaving, I am leaving"
But the fighter still remains

Wigwam

Another instrumental from the hand of Bob Dylan, released, as the climactical culmination of Self Portrait (1970)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem, as the final proof that he's out of his mind.

To be played with pompousness and sensitivity (and a slight triple feel).

Introductory Remarks

Eyolf Østrem

New Morning has been haunting me ever since I bought it. This must be Dylan's most stylistically varied album ever (possibly topped by Love and Theft), but I still can't decide whether it belongs in the "weak" category together with Self Portrait, or if it is a glorious testimony to the sprezzatura that only Dylan can handle without collapsing completely.

I've had heated discussions with a friend of mine about "The Man In Me" – is it a good song? an exuberant jubilation of the bliss of true love? a rare moment in Dylan's catalogue of a love song with no hint whatsoever of uncertainty, bitterness, pain? No! it's just too sweet; things that are too good to be true usually aren't. It's like "Sara" or "Wedding Song", another couple of songs that I just can't take seriously. What they have, though, is an intrinsic seriousness which commands some kind of respect: only Dylan can say "I love you more than blood" and get away with it.

And what does "The Man in Me" have ?

"La la la la." Not quite the same.

In the same category come "If Not For You" ("I'd be sad and blue" or "I wouldn't have a clue / If not for you" – c'mon Bob, you can rhyme better than that!), and, to some extent, "New Morning" and "Winterlude". But they aren't too bad after all: Winterlude has this corny, guy-on-the-sleeve-of-Nashville-Skyline-ish, country dude thing going on, and if such a down-to-earth guy "thinks you're fine", what is there to complain about? And "New Morning" has these wonderful snapshots of situations which may be just reminiscences of random glimpses, but which may also be filled with meaning ("Rabbit runnin' down across the road / Underneath the bridge where the water flowed through", "Automobile comin' into style / Comin' down the road for a country mile or two"), and they are introduced with a shade of desperation in the insistent questions: "Can't you hear...?" ("You really can't hear it? Don't you remember? But... that was an important moment! I thought we shared it... Don't you love me anymore?") Besides, the song is forever redeemed by the treatment it got in 1991 – when someone goes through something like that, you just have to care for them ...

The three songs that really got to me and made me think of it as a great album after all, were "If Dogs Run Free", "Three Angels" and "Father of Night". I'm not positive that the scat singing in "Dogs..." is great, but I know it makes me smile. And the choir on the other two... heavenly! In fact, if Dylan ever wrote a heavenly line of music, it's the two bars of dirty-winged angels' song between the verses in "Father of Night", or the very end of "Three Angels".

If Not for You

Words and music Bob Dylan

Released on New Morning (1970), Greatest Hits II (1971) and Biograph (1985), and in an earlier version (w/George Harrison) on The Bootleg Series 1-3 (1991)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Album version

This one is more tricky than it seems at first. The tricky thing is actually the E chord. It sounds like it is (or rather: it's definitely) played in the fourth position, with the prominent $g\sharp$ on the 1st string (4th fret), as if there was a capo on the fourth fret, but the $G\sharp m'$ and $F\sharp m'$ chords are definitely played:

$G\sharp m'$ 466400 (use the thumb for these two,
 $F\sharp m'$ 244200 otherwise it won't work)

So that rules out the capo. That would suggest these chords:

E 076454 (barre)
 B 799877
 A 577655

Which may be a bit awkward to play, but that would be more than enough compensated by the thrill of playing exactly as it was done then, right...?

One can of course use any variety of these chords, or even a capo on the fourth fret, with the chords C, G, F, Em Dm.

Day of the Locusts

Words and music Bob Dylan
Released on New Morning (1970)
Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Piano song, lots of b's. Best played with a capo on the 1st fret (Original key A \flat major).
It's all just one chord sequence that is repeated for each line.

G C /b Am /g
Oh, the benches were stained with tears and perspiration,
The birdies were flying from tree to tree.
There was little to say, there was no conversation
As I stepped to the stage to pick up my degree.

And the locusts sang off in the distance,
Yeah, the locusts sang such a sweet melody.
Oh, the locusts sang off in the distance,
Yeah, the locusts sang and they were singing for me.

I glanced into the chamber where the judges were talking,
Darkness was everywhere, it smelled like a tomb.
I was ready to leave, I was already walkin',
But the next time I looked there was light in the room.

Outside ' of the gates the trucks were unloadin',
The weather was hot, nearly 90 degrees.
The man standin' next to me, his head was exploding,
Well, I was prayin' the pieces wouldn't fall on me.

I put down my robe, picked up my diploma,
Took hold of my sweetheart and away we did drive,
Straight for the hills, the black hills of Dakota,
Sure was glad to get out of there alive.

And the locusts sang, well, it give me a chill,
Yeah, the locusts sang such a sweet melody.
And the locusts sang with a high whinin' trill
Yeah, the locusts sang and they was singing for me,

Went to See the Gypsy

Words and music Bob Dylan

Released on New Morning (1970)

If Dogs Run Free

Words and music Bob Dylan

Released on New Morning (1970), and debuted live during the fall 2000 tour.

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Album version

Dylan goes Jazz!

Here follows first a tab of the bass part in the first instrumental verse, with chord suggestions above. Since the song is basically defined by a bass progression with chromatic alterations, and heavily colorated chords above that, the indicated chords are not what is being played – it's a synthesis of what may have been played by some or the other of the musicians, or rather: a simplified picture of what may have been in their heads while playing. It works, sort of, but especially at the end of the second and third lines below, the chords are definitely suggestions only.

 If dogs run free.

If dogs run free, then what must be,
 Must be, and that is all.
 True love can make a blade of grass
 Stand up straight and tall.
 In harmony with the cosmic sea,
 True love needs no company,
 It can cure the soul, it can make it whole,
 If dogs run free.

2000 live version

The chords below are a distillation and a synthetization of the sounds I hear (at times very vaguely), as chords, licks, bass tones etc. in four different live renditions of this song from the late 2000 shows. Priority has been given to chord formations that are actually, audibly played (as opposed to those that can be pieced together from a bass note here, a lick there, and an unpredictable – but delightful – tone from Dylan's guitar, but which are never actually played as such). The bass line is from Münster, Oct 1, 2000 – other nights it was similar but different.

New Morning

Words and music Bob Dylan

Released on New Morning (1970)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Very little Bob-guitar on this one. He just plays the A's and D's, and when the going get rough – i.e. the second line, where there are some more chords – the rough gets going: Dylan stops playing.

It can be played quite comfortably, though, with the following chords:

A 577655
 D 557775
 C#m/g# 446654 (or Amaj7 x06650)
 A7/g x05650 (the g is not really in the bass here, but it works)

 On this new morning with you.

 On this new morning, new morning
 On this new morning with you.

So happy just to be alive
Underneath the sky of blue
On this new morning, new morning
On this new morning with you.

I accidentally tabbed this one with my guitar tuned down one half tone – and that happens to work quite well.

[turnaround]

Come on down to my ship, honey, ride on deck,
 We'll fly over the ocean just like you suspect.
 One more weekend, one more weekend with you.
 One more weekend, one more weekend'll do.

D
 We'll fly the night away,
 C
 Hang out the whole next day,
 B E7
 Things will be okay, You wait and see.
 We'll go someplace unknown,
 C
 Leave all the children home,
 B E7
 Honey, why not go alone Just you and me.

Comin' and goin' like a rabbit in the wood,
 I'm happy just to see you, yeah, lookin' so gappy.
 One more weekend, one more weekend with you,
 One more weekend, one more weekend'll do (yes, you will!).

Like a needle in a haystack, I'm gonna find you yet,
 You're the sweetest gone mama that this boy's ever gonna get.
 One more weekend, one more weekend with you,
 One more weekend, one more weekend'll do.

Three Angels

Words and music Bob Dylan
Released on New Morning (1970)
Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

F
Three angels up above the street,
C
Each one playing a horn,
Dm
Dressed in green robes with wings that stick out,
G F# F
They've been there since Christmas morn.

The wildest cat from Montana passes by in a flash,
Then a lady in a bright orange dress,
One U-Haul trailer, a truck with no wheels,
The Tenth Avenue bus going west.

The dogs and pigeons fly up and they flutter around,
A man with a badge skips by,
Three fellas crawlin' on their way back to work,
Nobody stops to ask why.

The bakery truck stops outside of that fence
Where the angels stand high on their poles,
The driver peeks out, trying to find one face
In this concrete world full of souls.

F
The angels play on their horns all day,
C
The whole earth in progression seems to pass by.
Dm
But does anyone hear the music they play,
Ab Bb C
Does anyone even try?

Father of Night

Words and music Bob Dylan
Released on New Morning (1970)
Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Piano song, hence lots of black keys. It is playable on a guitar too, but a more guitaristic key would be A (capo 3rd fret). I include a version like that at the end.

Who shapeth the cloud up in the sky,
Father of time, Father of dreams,
Father, who turneth the rivers and streams.

Father of grain, Father of wheat,
Father of cold and Father of heat,
Father of air and Father of trees,
Who dwells in our hearts and our memories,
Father of minutes, Father of days,
Father of whom we most solemnly praise.

Billy

Words and music Bob Dylan

Released on the soundtrack album Pat Garret & Billy The Kid (1973)

Tabbed and transcribed by Eyolf Østrem

Billy 1

Several verses instrumental intro

 G C/g G
There's guns across the river aimin' at ya
G C/g G
Lawman on your trail, he'd like to catch ya
C G
Bounty hunters, too, they'd like to get ya
D G
Billy, they don't like you to be so free.

Campin' out all night on the veranda
Dealin' cards 'til dawn in the hacienda
Up to Boot Hill they'd like to send ya
Billy, don't you turn your back on me.

Playin' around with some sweet señorita
Into her dark hallway she will lead ya
To the shadows of the mesa she will greet ya
Billy, you're so far away from home.

Billy 4

As above, but capo 2nd fret (sounding key A major)

There's guns across the river, like to pound you
Lawman on your trail like to surround you
Bounty hunters dancin' all around you
Billy, they don't like you to be so free.

Campin' out all night on the veranda
Walkin' the streets down by the hacienda
Up to Boot Hill they'd like to send ya
Billy, don't you turn your back on me.

There's mirrors inside the minds of crazy faces
Bullet holes and rifles in their cases
There's always one more notch and four more aces
Billy, and you're playin' all alone.

Playin' around with some sweet señorita
Into her dark chamber she will greet ya
In the shadows of the mesa she will lead ya
Billy, and you're goin' all alone.

They say that Pat Garrett's got your number
So sleep with one eye open when you wonder
If every little sound just might be thunder
Thunder from the barrel of his gun.

There's always another stranger sneakin' glances
Some trigger-happy fool willin' to take chances
And some old whore from San Pedro to make advances
Advances on your spirit and your soul.

The businessmen from Taos want you to go down
So they've hired Mister Garrett to force you to slow down.
Billy, don't it make ya feel so low-down
To be hunted by the man who was your friend?

So hang on to your woman if you got one
Remember in El Paso, once, you shot one.
Up in Santa Fe you bought one
Billy, you been runnin' for so long.

Gypsy queens will play your grand finale
Way down in some Tularosa alley,
Maybe in the Rio Pecos valley
Billy, you're so far away from home.
Billy, you're so far away from home.
Billy, you're so far away from home.

Billy 7

Spend the night with some sweet señorita
Into her dark hallway she will lead ya
In some lonesome shadow she might greet ya
Billy, you're so doggone far away from home.

They say that Pat Garrett's got your number
Sleep with one eye open when you slumber
Every little sound just might be thunder
Thunder from the barrel of his gun.

Maybe you will find yourself tomorrow
Drinkin' in some bar to hide your sorrow
Spendin' the time that you borrow
Figuring a way to get back home.

BD: Was that any good?

Producer: Pretty good, Bob. What happened, you hit the mike twice, I guess when you were movin' around out there, and we had a couple of clunks on it.

BD: Hm. That's too bad.

"Turkey II or Tom Turkey"

Capo 2nd fret

Loong intro, playing around with the following riff, first without any sense of rhythm whatsoever:

|-----3---
|--0-1---3--5--3---1--0--0---
|-----0---
|--0-2---3--5--3---2--0--0---
|-----2---
|-----3---

then eventually settling into this rhythm:

: . . . : . . .
|-----|-----|
|--0-1---3-----|5---3---1-0-----|
|-----|-----|
|--0-2---3-----5-|-----3---2-0-----|
|-----|-----|
|-----|-----|

Before segueing into this strumming pattern:

  G      C/g      G7'      Am7
: . . . : . . .
|-3-3---3-3-----|---0---0-0-0-0-0-|
|-0-0---0-1-----|---3---3-1-1-1-1-|
|-0-0---0-0-----|---0---0-0-0-0-0-|
|-0-0---0-2-----|-3-----3-2-2-2-2-|
|-2-2---2-0-----|-0-----0-0-0-0-0-|
|-3-3---3-3-----|-----|

or some variation of it, frequently with a prominent place for the open A string from the middle of the first bar.

This pattern is the background for the sung verses as well:

  G      C/g      G7'  Am7  G      C/g  G7' Am7
The businessmen from Taos want you to go down
      G      C/g      G7'      Am7  G      C/g G7' Am7
So they've hired Mister Garrett to force you to slow down.
C              G      C/g  G7' Am7
Billy, don't it make ya feel so low-down
      D              C      G
To be hunted by the man who was your friend?

So hang on to your woman if you got one
Remember in El Paso, once, you shot one.
Way up in Santa Fe you bought one
Billy, don't it make you feel so bad?

Knockin' on Heaven's Door

Words and music Bob Dylan

Released on Pat Garret & Billy The Kid (1973) and on Biograph (1985), and in live versions on Before the Flood (1974), At Budokan (1978), Dylan and the Dead (1988), MTV Unplugged (1995), and Live 1975 (2002)

Tabbed and transcribed by Eyolf Østrem

The challenge with this song is not the chords, which are quite simple, actually, but the lyrics, which change quite a lot, almost from show to show, with improvised new lines about what brings him to the door, knockin'.

The Am7 is played as a simple Am in most versions.

Unplugged version same as below, but with a capo on the 2nd fret (on Jackson's guitar; Dylan fumbles around with an occasional lick on an uncapoed guitar).

In many live versions, the last line of the refrain is "Just like so many times before" (thanks to Wayne Hampton for reminding me).

| : G . D . Am7 . . . | G . D . C . . . : |

G D Am7
Mama, take this badge off of me
G D C
I can't use it anymore.
G D Am7
It's gettin' dark, too dark to see
G D C
I feel like I'm knockin' on heaven's door.

Knock, knock, knockin' on heaven's door
Knock, knock, knockin' on heaven's door
Knock, knock, knockin' on heaven's door
Knock, knock, knockin' on heaven's door

Mama, put my guns in the ground
I can't shoot them anymore.
That long black cloud is comin' down
I feel like I'm knockin' on heaven's door.

Knock, knock, knockin' on heaven's door
Knock, knock, knockin' on heaven's door
Knock, knock, knockin' on heaven's door
Knock, knock, knockin' on heaven's door

Live version, 2001

The most stable chord sequence in the world (maybe with the exception of "All Along the Watchtower") has been changed!

| E . B . | F#m . . . | E . B . | A . . . |

E B F#m
Mama, take this badge off of me
E B A
I can't use it anymore.
A E(/g#) B
It's gettin' dark, too dark to see
C#m B A
I feel like I'm knockin' on heaven's door.

Live 1975 version

The chords are the same as above.

Mama wipe the blood off of my face
I can't see through it anymore
I need someone to talk to, and a new hiding place
I feel like I'm looking at heaven's door

[Roger McGuinn:]

Mama I can hear that thunder roar
Echoin' down from God's distant shore
I can hear 'em callin' for my soul
Feel I'm knockin' on heaven's door

Alternative outtake verses from the Burbank sessions, Feb 1973

Take #1:

Mama, put my guns in the ground
I don't need them anymore.
long black train is comin' round
I feel like I'm knockin' on heaven's door.

Mama, take this badge off of me
I don't need it anymore.
It's gettin' dark, too dark to see
I feel I'm knockin' on heaven's door.

Mama, put my guns in the ground
I can't shoot them anymore.
that long black train is comin' round
I'm knockin' up on heaven's door

Take #2:

"Ok, let's do it without the vocal. It's the last time I work for anybody though, on a movie. With music."

Various live lyric changes

Mama wipe the blood from my face
I'm sick and tired of the war
Got a lone black feelin', and it's hard to trace
Feel like I'm knockin' on heaven's door
(1974, various locations, incl. the version on Before the Flood.
This verse is inserted between the two verses on the original album)

Mama take these bells out of my ears
I can't hear them anymore
They're bringin' me down and givin' me tears
Feel like I'm knockin' on heaven's door

Roger McGuinn's verse:
Mama I can hear that thunder roar
Echoin' down from God's distant shore
I can hear it callin' for my soul
Feel I'm knockin' on heaven's door
(Waterbury CT, 751111)

Mama wipe the blood off of my face
I can't see through it anymore
I need someone to talk to, and a new hiding place
I feel like I'm knocking on heaven's door
(Boston, 751121)

Mama take these tears out of my eyes
I can't see through them anymore
Just for once, I'd like to see the sunrise
Feel like I'm knockin' on heaven's door
(MSG, "Night of the Hurricane", 751208)

Mama take this badge off of me
I can't feel it anymore
It's getting dark, too dark to see
Feel like I'm knockin' on heaven's door
(New Orleans, 760503, Fort Worth 760516)

Mama tow my barge down to sea
Pull it down from shore to shore
Two brown eyes are lookin' at me
Feel like I'm knockin' on heaven's door.

Goin' down by that road
Feelin' down and more and more
Take the train by [...]
Feel like I'm knockin' on heaven's door.
(Earl's Court, London 810628)

[...] on this scene
fallin' down like to the floor
Two brown eyes are looking at me
Feel like I'm knockin' on heaven's door
(Earl's Court, London 810629)

Mama take me above all that misery
Let it fall down to the floor
Two brown eyes are looking at me
Feel like I'm knockin' on heaven's door
(Drammen, Norway, 810710)

Mama take this [front part away]
I just don't want it anymore
Aah, when I get in front of something it's too much to pay
Yeah, Feel like I'm knockin' on heaven's door

Mama take my boat [out of the sea]

Let it fall down to the floor
Two brown eyes are looking at me
Feel like I'm knockin' on heaven's door.
(Avignon, 810725)

Mama wipe the blod from my face
I just can't see trough it any more
Sometimes you feel so damn out of place
And I feel like I'm knockin' on-a heavens door
(Bristol Connecticut, Lake Compounce 4 Sep, 1988. Submitted by Patrik Winquist)

The sun is setting down
On this ill-forgotten town
Two riders are coming down
Bury my heart in this ground
(Unknown date and location, submitted by Chris Barrett)

Dylan (A fool such as I)

Released November 16, 1973

- 401 LILY OF THE WEST
- 402 CAN'T HELP FALLING IN LOVE
- 403 SARAH JANE
- 404 MR. BOJANGLES
- 405 THE BALLAD OF IRA HAYES
- 407 MARY ANN
- 408 BIG YELLOW TAXI
- 409 A FOOL SUCH AS I
- 411 SPANISH IS THE LOVING TONGUE

An album put together out of leftovers from the sessions for Self Portrait and New Morning (not necessarily the best leftovers either), behind Dylan's back, maybe as some kind of revenge from Columbia, after Dylan had signed with David Geffen's new Asylum label. An official bootleg album, if you like.

Apparently this one is hard to find these days. Maybe it doesn't matter ...

 (And the name she bore was Flora, the Lily of the West.)

I courted lovely Flora, some pleasure for to find,
 But she turned unto another man, which sore distressed my mind.
 She robbed me of my liberty, deprived me off my rest --
 Then go, my lovely Flora, the Lily of the West.

(Then go, my lovely Flora, the Lily of the West.)

'Way down in yonder shady grove, a man of high degree
 Conversing with my Flora there, which seemed so strange to me.
 And the answer that she gave to him, it sore did me opress
 I was betrayed by Flora, the Lily of the West.

(I was betrayed by Flora, the Lily of the West.)

I stepped up to my rival, dagger in my hand.
 I seized him by the collar, and boldly made him stand.
 Being mad by desperation, I pierced him through the breast
 All this for lovely Flora, the Lily of the West.

(All this for lovely Flora, the Lily of the West.)

I had to stand my trial, I had to make my plea;
 They placed me in the witness box, and then commenced on me.
 Although she swore my life away, deprived me of my rest
 Still I love my faithless Flora, the Lily of the West.

(Still I love my faithless Flora, the Lily of the West.)

dance

I met him in a cell in New Orleans
I was down and out
He looked to me to be the eyes of age
As he spoke right out
He talked of life, he talked of life
laughed and slapped his leg a step

He said the name Bojangles then he danced a lick
All across the cell
He grabbed his pants for a better stance
Oh he jumped so high and clicked his heels
He let go laugh, he let go laugh
Shook back his clothes all around

He danced for those at minstrel shows and county fairs
Throughout the south
Spoke with tears of fifteen years How his dog 'n him had just travelled all about
And his dog up and died, he up and died and after twenty years he still grieves

He said I dance now at every chance in honky tonks
For drinks and tips
But most of the time I spend behind these county bars
Cause I drinks a bit
He shook his head, and then he shook his head
I heard someone ask him: "Please"

He won't answer anymore,
Not the whiskey-drinking Indian
Or the Marine who went to war.

Now, Ira returned a hero, celebrated throughout the land
He was wined and speeched and honored, everybody shook his hand.
But he was just a Pima Indian - no money, no crops, no chance -
And at home nobody cared what Ira'd done, and when do the Indians dance?

Call him drunken Ira Hayes
He won't answer anymore,
Not the whiskey-drinking Indian
Or the Marine who went to war.
Call him drunken Ira Hayes
He won't answer anymore,
Not the whiskey-drinking Indian
Or the Marine who went to war.

Then Ira started drinking hard, jail was often his home.
They let him raise the flag there and lower it like you'd throw a dog a bone.
He died drunk early one morning, alone in the land he'd fought to save.
Two inches of water in a lonely ditch was the grave for Ira Hayes.

Call him drunken Ira Hayes
He won't answer anymore,
Not the whiskey-drinking Indian
Or the Marine who went to war.
Call him drunken Ira Hayes
He won't answer anymore,
Not the whiskey-drinking Indian
Or the Marine who went to war.

Yes, call him drunken Ira Hayes, but his land is still as dry,
And his ghost is lying thirsty In the ditch where Ira died.

Call him drunken Ira Hayes
He won't answer anymore,
Not the whiskey-drinking Indian
Or the Marine who went to war.

Mi amor, Mi corazn

Raise those laughing eyes of hers.

Oh, how the hours would go a-flyin!
All too soon I'd hear her sighin'
G Bm Am7
In her sweet and quiet tone
"Mi amor, mi corazon."

But I had to fly one time
All 'cause of a stupid gamblin' fight,
And so we said a swift goodbye
On that dark, unlucky night.

How oftentimes to me she's clingin'
 And in my ears the hoofbeats ringin',
 As I galloped north alone
 "Adios, mi corazon."

G Bm Am7
 Haven't seen her since that night,
 I can't cross the line, you know.
 G Bm Am7
 She was Mex and I was white;
 Like as not it's better so.

G D Am7 G C/g G
 Still I've always kind of missed her
 Since that last wild night I kissed her;
 G Bm Am7
 I broke her heart, lost my own
 "Adios, mi corazon."

Additional verses, not sung by Dylan on this occasion:

Moonlight on the patio,
 Old señora nodding near,
 Me and Juana talking low
 So the Madre couldn't hear.
 Oh, how the hours would go a-flyin!
 And too soon i'd hear her sighin'
 In her little sorry tone
 "Adios, mi corazon."

Outtake version

Recorded June 2, 1970 (New Morning sessions)

One of the most beautiful tracks Dylan has ever recorded, and certainly the best version of this song, ever, with superbly loose piano playing.

The rhythm is at times a bit... eccentric – don't expect the rigours of the barlines to coincide with the phrasing.

It is played in A \flat major, so the best option on a guitar is to put a capo on the first fret and play in G. The chord that I have called Bm seems at times to be played Bm7+5 (x2403x), at times even as a G/b.

On a Night Like This

Words and music Bob Dylan (from Planet Waves (1974) and Biograph (1985))

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Capo 1st fret (original key F major, which is of course playable, but I prefer the capoed version because of the Am/F# chord)

E A E

On a night like this

So glad you came around,

Hold on to me so tight

And heat up some coffee grounds.

We got much to talk about

And much to reminisce,

It sure is right

On a night like this.

On a night like this

So glad you've come to stay
Hold on to me, pretty miss
Say you'll never go away to stray.

Run your fingers down my spine
Bring me a touch of bliss

It sure feels right
On a night like this.

On a night like this

I can't get any sleep,
The air is so cold outside
And the snow's so deep.
Build a fire, throw on logs
And listen to it hiss
And let it burn, burn, burn, burn
On a night like this.

Put your body next to mine

And keep me company,

There is plenty a room for all,

So please don't elbow me.

E

Let the four winds blow
Around this old cabin door,
If I'm not too far off
I think we did this once before.
There's more frost on the window glass
With each new tender kiss,
But it sure feels right
On a night like this.

Lyric variations, live versions

Lakeland 1976

I've just reached a place
Where the willow don't bend.
There's no more to be said
It's the top of the end.
I'm going,
I'm going,
I'm gone.

I've been right on the edge playing it cool
Now I just got to go
Before I break the rules (?)

I've been leaning on you for just too long and it's not (good?) for you
it's not making me strong, so...

Grandma said, "Boy, go and follow your heart
And you'll be fine at the end of the line.
All that's gold isn't meant to shine.
Don't you and your one dream ever part."

I'm in love with you baby
but you got to understand that you got to be free
so let go of my hand

Grandma said...

Fort Worth 1976

There's not much more to be said
It's the top of the end.
I'm going,
I'm going,
I'm gone.

I'm in love with you baby
but you got to understand

that you want to be free,
so let go of my hand

I've been sleeping on the road with my head in the dust
Now I just got to go before it's all diamonds and rust

Papa said: Son go and follow you heart
You'll be fine at the end of the line
All that's gold wasn't meant to shine
Don't you and your life-long dream ever part

I've just reached a place before I can hardly see
And I'll just be too long so (...) take it what you see

 Can I blow a little smoke on you?

Dark Beauty
 Won't you move it on over and make some room?
 It's my duty
 to bring you down to the field where the flowers bloom.
 Ashes in the furnace, dust on the rise,
 You came through it all the way, flyin' through the skies.

Dark Beauty
 With that long night's journey in your eyes.

Sweet Goddess
 Born of a blinding light and a changing wind,
 Now, don't be modest,
 you know who you are and where you've been.
 Jack the Cowboy went up north
 He's buried in your past.
 The Lone Wolf went out drinking
 That was over pretty fast.

Sweet Goddess
 Your perfect stranger's comin' in at last.

Silver Angel
 With the badge of the lonesome road sewed in your sleeve,
 I'd be grateful if this golden ring you would receive.
 Today on the countryside it was a-hotter than a crotch,
 I stood alone upon the ridge and all I did was watch.

Sweet Goddess
 It must be time to carve another notch.

I'm crestfallen
 The world of illusion is at my door,
 I ain't a-haulin'
 any of my lambs to the marketplace anymore.

The prison walls are crumblin', there is no end in sight,
I've gained some recognition but I lost my appetite.
Dark Beauty
Meet me at the border late tonight.

The song could equally well be played with C chords and a capo on the 4th fret. Such a version is appended at the end.

The intro is played rather freely (which is a nice way of saying that they aren't exactly tight...) – and with both a bass and a guitar. The tab below is just a suggestion of an approximation.

Thought I'd shaken the wonder and the phantoms of my youth
 Rainy days on the Great Lakes, walking the hills of old Duluth
 There was me and Danny Lopez, cold eyes, black night and then there was Ruth Something there is about you that brings back a long forgotten truth.

Suddenly I found you and the spirit in me sings
 Don't have to look no further, you're the soul of many things
 I could say that I'd be faithful, I could say it in one sweet, easy breath
 But to you that would be cruelty and to me it surely would be death.

Something there is about you that moves with style and grace
 I was in a whirlwind, now I am in some better place
 My hand's on the sabre and you've picked up on the baton
 Something there is about you that I can't quite put my finger on.

There are...

There are those who worship loneliness, I'm not one of them
 In this age of fiberglass I'm searching for a gem
 The crystall ball upon the wall hasn't shown me nothing yet
 I've paid the price of solitude but at least I'm out of debt.

I can't recall a useful thing you ever did for me
 'Cept pat me on the back one time when I was on my knees
 We stared into each other's eyes 'till one of us would break
 No use to apologize, what difference would it make ?

So sing your praise of progress and of the Doom Machine
 The naked truth is still taboo whenever it can be seen
 Lady Luck who shines on me, will tell you where I'm at
 I hate myself for loving you but I should get over that.

Wedding Song

Written during the recording sessions, recorded Dylan sans band—sans much rehearsal too, one might add. Especially the third line was difficult to get right, and as soon as he finds a version he's comfortable with, he plays a harp verse, and forgets how he did that line. I've given the chords for this line for each verse. Likewise, after the second harp break, he forgets that the last chord of the first line should be D major, not D minor. In the last verse he corrects his mistake. The harp solos are unimitable – don't even try.

Introductory Notes

Eyolf Østrem

Blood on the Tracks is Dylan's best album.

Others may tell you that Blonde on Blonde, Highway 61 Revisited or even Desire is his best album, but they're wrong, and when pressed (up against the wall, and in the presence of a .44, if necessary), they will eventually agree.

Blood on the Tracks is also Dylan's best album in its released form.

Others may tell you that had he not tinkered with the songs, but left them alone as they were recorded in September 1974, it would have been a far better album, and that the songs that were rewritten and re-recorded over Christmas, with local Minnesotan musicians brought together by Dylan's brother David, are inferior, both textually and musically, to the intensively emotional New York versions.

They're wrong even here, although they're closer to the truth this time. In a one-to-one comparison between the two versions, the New York versions may get the upper hand (the one undisputable exception is "If You See Her, Say Hello", but even "Lily, Rosemary and the Jack of Hearts" is better in the Minnesota version). But even if we were to define the New York versions of "Tangled up in Blue", "Idiot Wind" and "You're a Big Girl Now" as perfection, the Minnesota versions are close enough to this level, musically, and the extra qualities they add to their New Yorkean counterparts (the rhythmical drive of "Tangled", the angered bite of "Idiot Wind", the softness of "Big Girl"), more than make up for the lyric changes. In the case of "Idiot Wind", these are generally to the better.

But single songs is one thing – an album is another. And this is the real reason why the re-designed album was a good idea. Let's compare them: On the one hand you have an album that starts with the cross-continental tour (de force) of the never-surpassed masterpiece "Tangled up in Blue", coast to coast, north to south, performed with the same restless, unhesitant intensity that the lyrics reveal – revolution in the air, indeed; continues with the sleepy drama of "Simple Twist" and the bitter-sweet tenderness of "You're a Big Girl Now" (which one of these two is Dylan's best song?), the rage of "Idiot Wind", seemingly mellowed by the lyricism of "You're Gonna Make Me Lonesome" ("seemingly" because the lyricism of the lazy river and the crimson hair can only heighten the pain brought about by the inevitable loss of all this – this must be the best song of the album); then exquisite blues; hilarious Western movie script; loving recollection of things past, placed in a distant future; salvation myth; and Zen in a bucket: all in all a kaleidoscopic reflection of love & loss in 10 movements.

On the other hand, you have 10 songs, all quite slow, mostly staying in the emotional range between sadness and bitterness, all in the same open tuning, played with the same three or four chords, where the constant ringing of the open e' and b strings will drive you crazy after a while.

I know which album I prefer.

That said, the most interesting musical remarks concern the New York versions. This is of course mainly owing precisely to the open tuning. The biographies (i.e. Heylin) say that Dylan had learned the open D/E tuning from Joni Mitchell (I'll refer to it as "open E" hereafter). This can't be all true, since

Dylan used this tuning extensively during the recording of Freewheelin'. He does use it in a quite different way, though.

The center of gravity in the open-tuning Blood on the Tracks songs, is the root chord E=054000 (or 054300). It may seem odd to use a chord like this, when you have the same chord on the open strings – after all, that's the whole point of open tuning, isn't it?

Well, not quite. Beginners – like the Dylan of Freewheelin' – may find the 000000 chord convenient. But a more proficient and mature player like 1974-Dylan, realizes that it has a series of disadvantages compared to 054000. First, an open string is like a binary number: it's either on or off, and beyond that, there is really nothing much you can do about it, whereas a skilled instrumentalist has a far greater control of the tone quality once there is a finger on the string. Second, the uncontrolled sounding 000000 has a 5th between the two lowest string, which will easily produce a “muffled” sound. This is avoided through the 054000 root, which instead gives the same full, doubled bass tone as in the “Dropped C tuning” that Dylan was so fond of in the 60s. Third, in the 054000 chord, the tone of the third string (g♯) is doubled on the fourth string. This shimmering, doubled tone is essential to the sound of the album. This is the “third”, the tone which decides whether a chord is minor or major. Here it is major, emphatically so. Odd, maybe, for an album so full of sadness, but effective all the same. Fourth, one should not underestimate the value of having somewhere to place one's fingers. Besides, fingering a chord also means holding the guitar still. . .

So much for 054000 (did I say that I like that chord quite a lot?). the other main chords also have their special characteristics. The A is fingered 020120. The attentive ones (and/or those with training in music theory) will notice that although it is an A chord, the tone A is nowhere near the bass, where it should properly be, to establish the key of the chord. Not until the third string is there an A. Instead, the chord is dominated by the tone E, on strings 1, 4 and 6. And, in fact, this A in this tuning is most of all an embellishing variant of the main E sonority. This is precisely the same function as the C chord has in Dylan's most cherished figure: G-C/g-G (320003-3x2013-320003). This “embellished E” character is emphasized by the alternative fingering 020100, where the open b string adds yet another tone from the E major chord. In “Buckets of Rain”, where the 5th string is not used, it is impossible to decide whether the chord 0x0100 should be regarded as an A or as an Esus4.

Even the B is different: x02120 is its standard form, and where the A was merely a variant of E, this B is merely a variant of A. This conflation of A and B (or in general, and more technical, terms: the subdominant and the dominant) has a name: it's called B₁₁, and is basically an A chord paired with a B in the bass. This is a very frequent chord, especially in Dylan's production after Blood on the Tracks. Part of the explanation is that 11th chords are central in the gospel tradition, which Dylan dived into shortly afterwards, but it is not either impossible that he discovered its sweetness through the use of this B chord. It is a quite rare guest in his songs prior to Blood on the Tracks.

When Dylan wants a “real” B sound, as in the outtake “Up to Me” he uses the barre 777777.

Two more figures should be mentioned:

E B(iii) A	G#m/	E Emaj7 B	A	E
-0---0---0-		-(0)--0---0---0---(0)-
-0---0---0-		-(0)--4---2---2---(0)-
-0---0---1-	and	-(0)--3---1-or-1---(0)-
-4---2---0-		-(4)--4---2---0---(4)-
-5---4---2-		-(5)-----2---(5)-

Although they go in opposite directions (E-B-A and G#m/B-A-E), they are closely related, tonally. Look at the 4th string: that's what it's all about. Both figures are realizations of the basic progression g#-f#-e (try it!), but this progression is given different functions through different harmonizations. In the first figure, g# is home base and e is part of the contrasting sonority A (see Up to Me). In the second this is reversed: here g# belongs to the contrasting "B-area" (G#m and B are closely related), and e brings resolution to the phrase by landing on the tonic (see You're a big girl now). (I doubt that Dylan is aware of this, but it's a neat little twin-figure all the same).

These few elements account for most of the songs on the album. Some of the songs stand out by employing other effects. The second figure above is prominent in Idiot Wind, but here it is supplemented by the effect of the contrast between A major and A minor, through the chord Am=x05450 (note also the wonderful economy of means in the progression xx4340-xx2120-x05450). The same major/minor A can be found in Simple Twist of Fate, whereas Meet Me in the Morning holds this debate in the area of the tonic E itself, in the blues manner.

(Did I mention that this is a tremendous album?)

She was married when they first met,
Soon to be divorced.
He helped her out of a jam, I guess,
But he used a little too much force.
They drove that car as far as we could
Abandoned it out West
Split up on a dark sad night
Both agreeing it was best.
She turned around to look at him
As he was walkin' away
she said: "This can't be the end, . . . this ain't the end,
We'll meet on another day, on the avenue," We'll meet again some day . . .
Tangled up in blue.

He had a job in the old north woods
Working as a cook for a spell
But he never did like it all that much
And one day the ax just fell.
Well, he drifted down to L.A.
Where he reckoned to try his luck
Workin' for a while on an airplane plant,
Loading cargo onto a truck
But all the while he was alone
The past was close behind,
He seen a lot of women
But she never escaped his mind, and he just grew
Tangled up in blue.

She was workin' in a topless place
And I stopped in for a beer,
I just kept looking' at the side of her face
In the spotlight so clear.
And later on, as the crowd thinned out
I's about to do the same,
She was standing there in back of my chair
Said to me, "What's your name?"
I muttered somethin' underneath my breath,
She studied the lines on my face.
I must admit I felt a little uneasy
When she bent down to tie the laces of my shoe,
Tangled up in blue.

She lit a burner on the stove and offered me a pipe
"I thought you'd never say hello," she said
"You look like the silent type."
Then she opened up a book of poems
And handed it to me
Written by an Italian poet
From the thirteenth century.
And every one of them words rang true
And glowed like burnin' coal
Pourin' off of every page

Like it was written in my soul from me to you,
Tangled up in blue.

He was always in a hurry,
too busy or too stoned,
And everything that she ever planned,
just a-had to be postponed.
She thought they were successful,
She thought they were blessed,
with objects and material things,
but I never was impressed.
And when it all came crashing down,
I became withdrawn,
The only thing I knew how to do
Was to keep on keepin' on
Like a bird that flew
Tangled up in blue.

He thought . . .

So now I'm goin' back again,
I got to get to her somehow.
All the people we used to know
They're an illusion to me now.
Some are mathematicians
Some are doctors' wives.
Don't know how it all got started,
I don't know what they're doin' with their lives.
But me, I'm still on the road
Headin' for another joint
We always did feel the same,
We just saw it from a different point of view,
Tangled up in blue.

She was married when they first met,
 to a man four times her age.
 He left her penniless, in the state of regret,
 it was time to bust out of the cage.
 They drove that car as far as they could,
 abandoned it out west.
 splitting up on a dark, sad night,
 both agreeing that it was best.
 And she turned around to look at him
 as he was walking away.
 She said I wish I could tell you all the things that I never learned how to say.
 He said thats alright babe I love you too,
 but we were tangled up in blue.

He had a steady job and a pretty face,
 and everything seemed to fit.
 One day he could just feel the waste,
 he put it all down and split.
 And he headed down to New Orleans,
 where they treated him like a boy.
 He nearly went mad in Baton Rouge,
 he nearly drowned in Delacroix.
 And all the time he was alone,
 the past was close behind.
 he had one too many lovers then,
 and none of them were too refined,
 all except for you,
 but you were tangled up in blue.

She was working in the blinding light,

and I stopped in for a drink.
I just kept looking at her face so white,
I didn't know what to think.
Later on as the crowd thinned out,
I was getting ready to leave.
She was standing there, beside my chair,
saying "What's that you got up your sleeve?"
I said "nothing baby, and thats for sure"
She leaned down into my face.
I could feel the heat and the pulse of her as she bent down to tie the laces of my shoe,
Tangled up in blue.

I lived with them on Montague street
in a basement down the stairs.
There was snow all winter and no heat, revolution was in the air.
Then one day all his slaves ran free,
and something inside of him died.
The only thing I could do was be me,
and get on that train and ride.
And when it all came crashing down,
I was already south.
I didn't know whether the world was flat or round,
I had the worst taste in my mouth,
that I ever knew,
Tangled up in blue.

Now I'm going back again,
maybe tomorrow, maybe next year.
I've got to find someone among the women and men whose destiny is unclear.
Some are ministers of illusion,
some are masters of the trade.
All under strong delusion,
all of their beds unmade.
Me I'm heading toward the sun,
trying to stay out of the joints.
We always did love the very same one.
We just saw her from a different point of view,
Tangled up in blue.

Current acoustic version (1997-)

Since Larry Campbell joined the band in 1997, Tangled has been played as an acoustic song, with Larry playing the intro below. Larry's guitar is played with a capo on the 2nd fret, Bob's guitar is uncapoed. The chords are more or less those of the Blood on the Tracks version above.

of a blind man at the gate
And forgot about a simple twist of fate.

He woke up, the room was bare
He didn't see her anywhere.
He told himself he didn't care,
pushed the window open wide,
Felt an emptiness inside to which he just could not relate
Brought on by a simple twist of fate.

He hears the ticking of the clocks
And walks along with a parrot that talks,
Hunts her down by the waterfront docks
where the sailers all come in.
Maybe she'll pick him out again,
how long must he wait
Once more for a simple twist of fate.

People tell me it's a sin
To know and feel too much within.
I still believe she was my twin,
but I lost the ring.
She was born in spring,
but I was born too late
Blame it on a simple twist of fate.

Lyric variations

These are the default lyrics for live versions of this song from 1975 until today, with some of the numerous variations indicated in the right column. For more substantial variations that were used only at a specific time, the year has been indicated.

They sat together in the park
As the evening sky grew dark,
She looked at him and felt a spark
tingle to her bones.
'Twas then she felt alone
and wished that she'd gone straight
And watched out for a simple twist of fate.

They walked along by the old canal
A little confused, I remember well
And stopped into a river front hotel with a neon burnin' bright.

He [she] felt the heat of the night hit him [her] like a freight train
Moving down with a simple twist of fate.

[renovated/cheap/little hotel]
[threw his wide-brimmed hat on the bed (1981)]
[/with a neon burning dim,
he looked at her and she looked at him with that look that can manipulate brought on by a simple twist of fate (1980)]

A saxophone someplace softly played
As she was walkin' on by the arcade.
She heard a melody rise and fade

and the sun was coming up,
 She dropped a coin into the cup
 of a blind man at the gate
 And forgot about that simple twist of fate.

He woke up, and she was gone
 He didn't see nothing but the dawn.
 Got out of bed and put his shoes back on, [clothes/wide-brimmed hat (1981)]
 pushed back the blinds,
 Found a note she'd left behind but he just could not relate [/concentrate on] to anything 'cept that simple twist of fate. [/to which he just could not relate,
 all about that simple twist of fate]

He hears the ticking of the clocks
 hunts for her through the city blocks [Looks for her everywhere he walks (1988)]
 [people hear him humming as he walks (1997)]

Even down by the waterfront docks where the sailers all roll in.
 Maybe he'll see [spot] her once again,
 how long must he wait
 One more time for a simple twist of fate.

People tell me it's a crime
 To know too much * for too long a time. [think of her/remember her]
 She should have caught me in my prime,
 She would have stayed with me.
 Instead of going off to sea,
 and leaving me to meditate
 upon that simple twist of fate.

1984 version

The lyrics kept changing from night to night. Here are two takes on it, one from Paris (Jul 1), with variants from Brussels (Jun 7), Gothenburg (Jun 9) and Wembley (Jul 7), the other from Barcelona (posted to r.m.d by Arthur Jarosinski).

If you have any suggestions for the blanks in the lyrics below, I'd be more than happy to receive them.

They sat together in the park
 As the evening sky grew dark,
 She looked at him and felt a spark
 tingle to her bones.
 'Twas then she felt alone
 and wished that she'd gone straight
 And watched out for a simple twist of fate.

They walked along by the old canal
 Down Waterfront Street, by the tolling bell stopped into the Grand Hotel where the desk clerks dressed in white.
 With a face as black as night
 he said: "Check-out time's at eight".

Brussels: All by the cathedral bell
Wembley: Rio Grande Hotel
Gothenburg and Brussels: Saint Claire Hotel

All a part of that simple twist of fate.

Additional verse in Gothenburg and Brussels: She was walking by the street parade
[...] but underpaid
The sun is bursting through a beat-up shade
Where he's waking up, etc.
(as the standard version in the next verse)

He woke up, and the room was thick
Something there inside was making him sick.
He heard her bootheels in the hallway click,
The sun was coming up
She dropped a coin into the cup
of a blind man at the gate
And forgot about that simple twist of fate.

Brussels: Something inside this room was making him sick
[...]
Hears those bootheels in the hallway click
Bursts the window open wide
Then throws it all up outside
You know it just could not wait.
All the time for that simple twist of fate.

[Head out to wind] and the rain and snow [Didn't leave from far, where] the chilly winds blow
He said: "I've taught you all you know,
now, don't bother me no more.
You know where to find the door.
Go on before it's too late and forget about that simple twist of fate."

Wembley: He's walkin' out through the city streets
look into the eyes of the people he meets
And late in time, you know, [he tries and greets]
[he waited all I can do]
He said: "I'm leaving my heart with you"
Take good care of it, be on your freight"
All about that simple twist of fate.

People tell me it's a crime
To remember her for too long of a time.
She should have caught me in my prime,
She would have stayed with me.
Instead of going back off to sea,
and leaving me to meditate
all on that simple twist of fate.

28 June 1984 Barcelona

As transcribed by Arthur Jarosinski, with suggestions from Eben Hensby incorporated.

They sat together in the park
As the evening sky got dark
She looked at him and felt a spark
Tingle to her bone
'Twas then she felt alone
And wished that she'd gone straight
And watched out for a simple twist of fate

They walked along by the old canal
Down Waterfront Street by the bell
Stopped into the Riverfront hotel
The desk clerk dressed in white
With a face as black as night
He said, "Check out time's at eight"
Remember now 'bout that simple twist of fate

We could have avoided this little simple twist of fate

Now he hears the ticking of the clocks
And he hunts for her through the city blocks
Even down there at the waterfront docks
Where the sailors all row in
Maybe he'll see her once again
How long must he wait
One more time, one more time for a simple twist of fate

People tell me it's a sin
That it's wrong, it's wicked and it's too far down in
I let her get under my skin
Under my skin too late
I had another date
A date that couldn't wait
Blame it on a simple twist of fate

Rolling Thunder Revue live version (1976)

Tabbed from Fort Worth, TX May 16, 1976; the Hard Rain version from Fort Collins a week later is virtually identical.

Two guitars are prominent: Dylan's and Steven Soles' (according to Trev Gibb, who got this information from David Mansfield)

1st guitar: Capo 4th fret (sounding key: E major); 2nd guitar no capo

Chords (some of these suggestions incorporate the tones in the bass and other instruments as well):

Cmaj7 There are many alternatives for this one:
x35500 gives the b-c clash that is clearly audible, at least in the intro;
xx5453 is an option, together with G11=3231, if the bass plays the bottom c;
032000 gives the "Em" feeling, and 332000 or x32000 is a more straightforward Cmaj7
xxx987 This is the high ringing guitar in the intro and the first lines of the verses G11 3x0211. Mute the 5th string with the ring finger - it's not that tricky.
Can also be played as a Dm or a Dm7 (xx0211, xx0231, xx3231 [with Cmaj7=xx5453])
xxx765 (goes with xxx987)

E A E A

I threw the I-Ching yesterday, it said there might be some thunder at the well.
Peace and quiet's been avoiding me for so long it seems like living hell.
There's a lone soldier on the hill, watchin' falling raindrops pour.
You'd never know it to look at him, but at the final shot he won the war
After losin' every battle.

I woke up on the roadside, day dreamin' about the way things sometimes are
Hoofbeats pounding in my head at break-neck speed and making me see stars.
You hurt the ones that I love best and cover up the truth with lies.
One day you'll be in the ditch, flies buzzin' around your eyes,
Blood on your saddle.

Idiot wind, blowing through the flowers on your tomb,
Blowing through the curtains in your room.
Idiot wind, blowing every time you move your teeth,
You're an idiot, babe.
It's a wonder that you still know how to breathe.

It was gravity which pulled us in and destiny which broke us apart
You tamed the lion in my cage but it just wasn't enough to change my heart.
Now everything's a little upside down, as a matter of fact the wheels have stopped,
What's good is bad, what's bad is good, you'll find out when you reach the top
You're on the bottom.

I noticed at the ceremony, that you left all your bags behind
The driver came in after you left, he gave them all to me, and then he resigned.
The priest wore black on the seventh day, walzed around while the building burned.
You didn't trust me for a minute, babe. I've never known the spring to turn
So quickly into autumn.

Idiot wind, blowing everytime you move your jaw,
From the Grand Coulee Dam to the Mardi Gras.
Idiot wind, blowing every time you move your teeth,
You're an idiot, babe.
It's a wonder that you still know how to breathe.

We pushed eachother a little too far, and one day it just jumped into a raging storm.
A hound dog bayed behind your trees as I was packing up my uniform.
I figured I'd lost you anyway, Why go on? what's the use?
In order to get in a word with you, I'd have had to come up with some excuse.
It just struck me kinda funny.

I been double-crossed too much, at times I think I've almost lost my mind
Lady-killers load ice on me behind my back, while imitators steal me blind
You close your eyes and part your lips, and slip your fingers from your glove
You can have the best there is, but it's gonna cost you all your love
You won't get it for money

Idiot wind, blowing through the buttons of our coats,
Blowing through the letters that we wrote.
Idiot wind, blowing through the dust upon our shelves,
We're idiots, babe.
It's a wonder we can even feed ourselves.

Bootleg series 1-3 version

The only difference between the two New York versions, apart from the organ on the refrains in the above version, is some slight changes in some of the lyrics. It's really negligible, but for the sake of (trainspotterish) completeness, here it is (the first verse is identical):

I threw the I-Ching yesterday, it said there'd be some thunder at the well.
 I haven't tasted peace and quiet for so long it seems like living hell.
 There's a lone soldier on the hill, watchin' falling raindrops pour.
 You'd never know it to look at him, but at the final shot he won the war
 After losin' every battle.

I woke up on the roadside, day dreamin' about the way things sometimes are
 Hoofbeats pounding in my head at break-neck speed and making me see stars.
 You hurt the ones that I love best and cover up the truth with lies.
 One day you'll be in the ditch, flies buzzin' around your eyes,
 Blood on your saddle.

Idiot wind, blowing through the flowers on your tomb,
 Blowing through the curtains in your room.
 Idiot wind, blowing every time you move your teeth,
 You're an idiot, babe.
 It's a wonder that you still know how to breathe.

It was gravity which pulled us in and destiny which broke us apart
 You tamed the lion in my cage but it just wasn't enough to change my heart.
 Now everything's a little upside down, as a matter of fact the wheels have stopped,
 What's good is bad, what's bad is good, you'll find out when you reach the top
 You're on the bottom.

I noticed at the ceremony, that you left your bags behind
 The driver came in after you left, he gave them all to me, and then he resigned.
 The priest wore black on the seventh day, and walzed around while the building burned.
 You didn't trust me for a minute, babe. I've never known the spring to turn
 So quickly into autumn.

Idiot wind, blowing everytime you move your jaw,
 From the Grand Coulee Dam to the Mardi Gras.
 Idiot wind, blowing every time you move your teeth,
 You're an idiot, babe.
 It's a wonder that you still know how to breathe.

We pushed each other a little too far, and one day it just turned into a raging storm.
 A hound dog bayed behind your trees as I was packing up my uniform.
 I figured I'd lost you anyway, Why go on? What's the use?
 In order to get in a word with you, I'd have had to come up with some excuse.
 It just struck me kinda funny.

I been double-crossed too much, at times I think I've almost lost my mind
 Lady-killers load ice on me behind my back, while imitators steal me blind
 You close your eyes and part your lips, and slip your fingers from your glove
 You can have the best there is, but it's gonna cost you all your love
 You won't get it for money

Idiot wind, blowing every time you move your teeth,
You're an idiot, babe.
It's a wonder that you still can even breathe.

It was gravity which pulled us down and destiny which broke us apart
You tamed the lion in my cage but it wasn't enough to change my heart.
Now everything's a little upside down, as a matter of fact the wheels have stopped,
What's good is bad, what's bad is good, you'll find out when you reach the top
You're on the bottom.

I noticed at the ceremony, that your corrupt ways had finally made you blind
I can't recall your face anymore, your mouth has changed and your eyes don't look into mine.
The priest wore black on the seventh day and sat stone-faced while the building burned.
I waited for you on the running boards, near the cypress trees, while the springtime turned Slowly into autumn.

Idiot wind, blowing like a circle around my skull,
From the Grand Coulee Dam to the Capitol.
Idiot wind, blowing every time you move your teeth,
You're an idiot, babe.
It's a wonder that you still know how to breathe.

I can't feel you anymore, I can't even touch the clothes you wear
Every time I come into your door, you leave me standing in the middle of the air..
Down the highway, down the tracks, down the road to ecstasy,
I followed you beneath the stars, hounded by your memory
And all your ragin' glory.

I been double-crossed now for the very last time and I think I finally see,
I kissed goodbye the howling beast on the borderline which separated you from me.
You'll never know the hurt I suffered nor the pain I rise above,
And I'll never know the same about you, your holiness or your kind of love,
And it makes me feel so sorry.

Idiot wind, blowing through the buttons of our coats,
Blowing through the letters that we wrote.
Idiot wind, blowing through the dust upon our shelves,
We're idiots, babe.
It's a wonder we can even feed ourselves.

Situations have ended sad,
Relationships have all been bad.
Mine have been like Verlaine's and Rimbaud.
But there's no way I can compare
All them scenes to this affair,
You're gonna make me lonesome when you go.

Yer gonna make me wonder what I'm doin',
Stayin' far behind without you.
Yer gonna make me wonder what I'm sayin',
Yer gonna make me give myself a good talkin' to.

I'll look for you in old Honolulu,
San Francisco, Ashtabula,
Yer gonna have to leave me now, I know.
But I'll see you in the sky above,
In the tall grass, in the ones I love,
You're gonna make me lonesome when you go.

"I know I've seen that face before," Big Jim was thinkin' to himself,
"Maybe down in Mexico or a picture up on somebody's shelf."
But then the crowd began to stamp their feet and the house lights did dim
And in the darkness of the room there was only Jim and him,
Starin' at the butterfly who just drew the Jack of Hearts.

Lily was a princess, she was fair-skinned and precious as a child,
She did whatever she had to do, she had that certain flash every time she smiled.
She'd come away from a broken home, had lots of strange affairs
With men in every walk of life which took her everywhere.
But she'd never met anyone quite like the Jack of Hearts.

The hangin' judge came in unnoticed and was being wined and dined,
The drillin' in the wall kept up but no one seemed to pay it any mind.
It was known all around that Lily had Jim's ring
And nothing would ever come between Lily and the king.
No, nothin' ever would except maybe the Jack of Hearts.

Rosemary started drinkin' hard and seein' her reflection in the knife,
She was tired of the attention, tired of playin' the role of Big Jim's wife.
She had done a lot of bad things, even once tried suicide,
Was lookin' to do just one good deed before she died.
She was gazin' to the future, riding on the Jack of Hearts.

Lily washed her face, took her dress off and buried it away.
"Has your luck run out?" she laughed at him,
"Well, I guess you must have known it would someday.
Be careful not to touch the wall, there's a brand-new coat of paint,
I'm glad to see you're still alive, you're lookin' like a saint."
Down the hallway footsteps were comin' for the Jack of Hearts.

The backstage manager was pacing all around by his chair.
"There's something funny going on," he said, "I can just feel it in the air."
He went to get the hangin' judge, but the hangin' judge was drunk,
As the leading actor hurried by in the costume of a monk.
There was no actor anywhere better than the Jack of Hearts.

*Lily's arms were locked around the man that she dearly loved to touch,
She forgot all about the man she couldn't stand who hounded her so much.
"I've missed you so," she said to him, and he felt she was sincere,
But just beyond the door he felt jealousy and fear.
Just another night in the life of the Jack of Hearts.*

No one knew the circumstance but they say that it happened pretty quick,
The door to the dressing room burst open and a cold revolver clicked.
And Big Jim was standin' there, ya couldn't say surprised,
Rosemary right beside him, steady in her eyes.
She was with Big Jim but she was leanin' to the Jack of Hearts.

Two doors down the boys finally made it through the wall
And cleaned out the bank safe, It's said they got off quite a haul
In the darkness by the riverbed they waited on the ground
For one more member who had business back in town.
But they couldn't go no further without the Jack of Hearts.

The next day was hangin' day, the sky was overcast and black,
Big Jim lay covered up, killed by a penknife in the back.

We had...

We had a falling-out, like lovers often will
And to think of how she left that night, it still brings me a chill
And though our separation, it pierced me to the heart
She still lives inside of me, we've never been apart.

If you get close to her, kiss her once for me
I always have respected her for doin' what she did and gettin' free
Oh, whatever makes her happy, I won't stand in the way.
Oh, the bitter taste still lingers on,
from that night I tried to make her stay.

I see a lot of people as I make the rounds
And I hear her name here and there as I go from town to town
And I've never gotten used to it, I've just learned to turn it off
Either I'm too sensitive or else I'm gettin' soft.

Sundown, yellow moon, I replay the past
I know every scene by heart, they all went by so fast
If she's passin' back this way, I'm not that hard to find
Tell her she can look me up if she's got the time.

 I came in from the wilderness, a creature void of form.
 E B A E
 "Come in," she said, "I'll give you shelter from the storm."

B A E E B A E

And if I pass this way again, you can rest assured
 I'll always do my best for her, on that I give my word
 In a world of steel-eyed death, and men who are fighting to be warm.
 "Come in," she said, "I'll give you shelter from the storm."

Not a word was spoke between us, there was little risk involved
 Everything up to that point had been left unresolved.
 Try imagining a place where it's always safe and warm.
 "Come in," she said, "I'll give you shelter from the storm."

I was burned out from exhaustion, buried in the hail,
 Poisoned in the bushes an' blown out on the trail,
 Hunted like a crocodile, ravaged in the corn.
 "Come in," she said, "I'll give you shelter from the storm."

Suddenly I turned around and she was standin' there
 With silver bracelets on her wrists and flowers in her hair.
 She walked up to me so gracefully and took my crown of thorns.
 "Come in," she said, "I'll give you shelter from the storm."

Now there's a wall between us, somethin' there's been lost
 I took too much for granted, got my signals crossed.
 Just to think that it all began on a long-forgotten morn.
 "Come in," she said, "I'll give you shelter from the storm."

Well, the deputy walks on hard nails and the preacher rides a mount
 But nothing really matters much, it's doom alone that counts
 And the one-eyed undertaker, he blows a futile horn.
 "Come in," she said, "I'll give you shelter from the storm."

I've heard newborn babies wailin' like a mournin' dove
 And old men with broken teeth stranded without love.

Do I understand your question, man, is it hopeless and forlorn?
"Come in," she said, "I'll give you shelter from the storm."

In a little hilltop village, they gambled for my clothes
I bargained for salvation an' they gave me a lethal dose.
I offered up my innocence and got repaid with scorn.
"Come in," she said, "I'll give you shelter from the storm."

Well, I'm livin' in a foreign country but I'm bound to cross the line
Beauty walks a razor's edge, someday I'll make it mine.
If I could only turn back the clock to when God and her were born.
"Come in," she said, "I'll give you shelter from the storm."

Alternate 7th verse, from the outtake version:

Now the bonds are broken, but they can be retied
by one more journey to the woods, the holes where spirits hide.
It's a never-ending battle for a peace that's always torn.
"Come in," she said, "I'll give you shelter from the storm."

Budokan version

The version of the '78 version that came on Budokan is rather trite, compared to the far more spirited twist it got later on in 1978, given below.

Friends will arrive, friends will disappear,

If you want me, honey baby,

I'll be here.

Like your smile

And your fingertips

Like the way that you move your lips.

I like the heavenly way you look at me,

Everything about you is bringing me

Exstasy.

Little red wagon

Little red bike

I ain't no monkey but I know what I like.

I like the way you monkey around,

Stick with me baby, and we will never be found.

Life is happy

Life is sad

Life is a bust when you think you been had.

You do what you must do and ya do it bad,

I'll do it for you, honey baby,

Ain't you glad?

It was like a revelation when you betrayed me with your touch,
I'd just about convinced myself that nothin' had changed that much.
The old Rounder in the iron mask slipped me the master key,
Somebody had to unlock your heart,
He said it was up to me.

Well, I watched you slowly disappear down into the officers' club,
I would've followed you in the door but I didn't have a ticket stub.
So I waited all night 'til the break of day, hopin' one of us could get free,
When the dawn came over the river bridge,
I knew it was up to me.

Oh, the only decent thing I did when I worked as a postal clerk
Was to haul your picture down off the wall near the cage where I used to work.
Was I a fool or not to try to protect your identity?
You looked a little burned out, my friend,
I thought it might be up to me.

Well, I met somebody face to face and I had to remove my hat,
She's everything I need and love but I can't be swayed by that.
It frightens me, the awful truth of how sweet life can be,
But she ain't a-gonna make me move,
I guess it must be up to me.

We heard the Sermon on the Mount and I knew it was too complex,
It didn't amount to anything more than what the broken glass reflects.
When you bite off more than you can chew you pay the penalty,
Somebody's got to tell the tale,
I guess it must be up to me.

Well, Dupree came in pimpin' tonight to the Thunderbird Cafe,
Crystal wanted to talk to him, I had to look the other way.
Well, I just can't rest without you, love, I need your company,
But you ain't a-gonna cross the line,
I guess it must be up to me.

There's a note left in the bottle, you can give it to Estelle,
She's the one you been wond'rin' about, but there's really nothin' much to tell.
We both heard voices for a while, now the rest is history,
Somebody's got to cry some tears,
I guess it must be up to me.

So go on, boys, and play your hands, life is a pantomime,
The ringleaders from the county seat say you don't have all that much time.
And the girl with me behind the shades, she ain't my property,
One of us has got to hit the road,
I guess it must be up to me.

And if we never meet again, baby, remember me,
How my lone guitar played sweet for you that old-time melody.
And the harmonica around my neck, I blew it for you, free,
No one else could play that tune,
You know it was up to me.

Well, your friends come by for you
I don't know what to say
Well, your friends come by for you
I don't know what to say
I just can't face to tell 'em
Honey you just went away.

The children cry for mother
I tell 'em, "Mother took a trip."
Well, the children cry for mother
I tell 'em, "Mother took a trip."
Well, I walk on pins and needles
I hope my tongue don't slip.

Well, I gaze at passing strangers
In case I might see you
Yes, I gaze at passing strangers
In case I might see you
But the sun goes around the heavens
And another day just drives on through.

Way out in the distance
I know you're with some other man
Way out in the distance
I know you're with some other man
But that's all right, baby
You know I always understand.

Call girls in the doorway
All givin' me the eye
Call girls in the doorway
All givin' me the eye
But my heart's just not in it
I might as well pass right on by.

My ears are ringin'
Ringin' like empty shells
My ears are ringin'
Ringin' like empty shells
Well, it can't be no guitar player
It must be combat bells.

Million Dollar Bash

Words and music Bob Dylan

Released on The Basement Tapes (1967/1975) and on Biograph (1985)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Capo 4th fret (sounding key E major)

G6 (320000) is a suggestion for the last G in the chorus. It could be that he's playing 320010, i.e. a mix between G and C.

Some of the F's seem to be played Fmaj7 (x33210)

Well, that big dumb blonde

F

With her wheel of gorge

And Turtle, that friend of theirs

G

With his checks all forged

C

And his cheeks in a chunk

F

With his cheese in the cash

C

They're all gonna be there

G

C

At that million dollar bash

Am F C

Ooh, baby, ooh-ee

Am F C

Ooh, baby, ooh-ee

G6

It's that million dollar bash

Ev'rybody from right now

To over there and back

The louder they come

The bigger they crack

Come now, sweet cream

Don't forget to flash

We're all gonna meet

At that million dollar bash

Ooh, baby, ooh-ee

Ooh, baby, ooh-ee

It's that million dollar bash

Well, I took my counselor

Out to the barn

Silly Nelly was there

She told him to yarn

along came Jones
Emptied the trash
Ev'rybody went down
To that million dollar bash

Ooh, baby, ooh-ee
Ooh, baby, ooh-ee
It's that million dollar bash

Well, I'm hittin' it too hard
My stones won't take
I get up in the mornin'
But it's too early to wake
First it's hello, goodbye
Then push and then crash
But we're all gonna make it
At that million dollar bash

Ooh, baby, ooh-ee
Ooh, baby, ooh-ee
It's that million dollar bash

Well, I looked at my watch
I looked at my wrist
I punched myself in the face
With my fist
I took my potatoes
Down to be mashed
Then I made it on over
To that million dollar bash

Ooh, baby, ooh-ee
Ooh, baby, ooh-ee
It's that million dollar bash

Goin' to Acapulco

Words and music Bob Dylan

Released on The Basement Tapes (1967/1975)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Capo 2nd fret (sounding key A major)

The sung chord at "yeah" is a mix of Em, G and C...

Robbie's solos are probably played without a capo. I've tabbed the first solo; the others are similar.

The sung lyrics differ from the copyrighted version.

Goin' to have some fun.

Now, whenever I get up
And can't find what I need,
I just make it down to Rose Marie's and get something quick to eat.
It's not a bad way to make a living
And I ain't complainin' none.
For I can blow my plum and drink my rum
And then go on home and have my fun

Goin' to Acapulco
Goin' on the run.
Goin' down to see soft gut
Goin' to have some fun.
Yeah
Goin' to have some fun.

Now, if someone offers me a joke
I just say no thanks.
I try to tell it like it is
And keep away from pranks.
Well, everytime, you know, when the well breaks down
I just go pump on it some.
Rose Marie, she likes to go to big places
And just sit there waitin' for me to come.

Goin' to Acapulco
Goin' on the run.
Goin' down to see soft gut
Goin' to have some fun.
Yeah
Goin' to have some fun.

Lo and behold! Lo and behold!
Lookin' for my lo and behold,
Get me outa here, my dear man!

Now, I come in on a ferris wheel
An' boys, I sure was slick.
I come in like a ton of bricks,
Laid a few tricks on 'em.
Goin' back to Pittsburgh,
Count up to thirty,
Round that horn and ride that herd,
Gonna thread up!)

Lo and behold! Lo and behold!
Lookin' for my lo and behold,
Get me outa here, my dear man!

*) Copyrighted version:

“I bought my girl a herd of moose,
One she could call her own”
and in the alternate version: “I bought my doll...”

) Alternate version, last verse:

Now, I come in on a ferris wheel
An' boys, I sure was slick.
I moved in like a tornado,
and I also laid a few tricks on 'em.
Movin' on out, I'm goin' to Pittsburgh again,
Ridin' round that herd right for home,

Clothes Line Saga

Words and music Bob Dylan
Released on The Basement Tapes (1967/1975)
Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem
Capo 4th fret (sounding key E major)

After a while we took in the clothes,

Nobody said very much.

Just some old wild shirts and a couple pairs of pants

Which nobody really wanted to touch.

F

Mama come in and picked up a book

An' Papa asked her what it was.

Someone else asked, "What do you care?"

Papa said, "Well, just because."

G7

Then they started to take back their clothes,

Hang 'em on the line.

C

It was January the thirtieth

And everybody was feelin' fine.

The very next day everybody got up

Seein' if the clothes were dry.

The dogs were barking, a neighbor passed,

Mama, of course, she said, "Hi!"

"Have you heard the news?" he said, with a grin,

"The Vice-President's gone mad!"

"Where?" "Downtown." "When?" "Last night."

"Hmm, say, that's too bad!"

"Well, there's nothin' we can do about it," said the neighbor,

"It's just somethin' we're gonna have to forget."

"Yes, I guess so," said Ma,

Then she asked me if the clothes was still wet.

I reached up, touched my shirt,

And the neighbor said, "Are those clothes yours?"

I said, "Some of 'em, not all of 'em."

He said, "Ya always help out around here with the chores?"

I said, "Sometime, not all the time."

Then my neighbor, he blew his nose

Just as papa yelled outside,

‘Mama wants you t’ come back in the house and bring them clothes.’
Well, I just do what I’m told,
So, I did it, of course.
I went back in the house and Mama met me
And then I shut all the doors.

Apple Suckling Tree

Words and music Bob Dylan

Released on The Basement Tapes (1967/1975)

Tabbed and transcribed by Eyolf Østrem

It's hard to tell what he's singing here. Take it for what it is.

Old man sailin' in a dinghy boat Down there

A

Old man down is baitin' a hook On there

D

Gonna pull man down on a suckling hook

D

Gonna pull man into the suckling brook*) Oh yeah!

Now, he's underneath that apple suckling tree, Oh yeah!

Under that apple suckling tree, Oh yeah!

That's underneath that tree

There's just gonna be you and me

Underneath that apple suckling tree, Oh yeah!

I push him back and I stand in line, Oh yeah!

Then I push my lady and stand in line, Oh yeah!

Then I push my lady and stand in line

I get on board like a two-eyed time, Oh yeah!

Under that apple suckling tree, Oh yeah!

Under that apple suckling tree, Oh yeah!

Underneath that tree

There's just gonna be you and me

Underneath that apple suckling tree, Oh yeah!

Now, who should I tell and who's to tell me? Oh yeah!

Who's on the table, who's to tell me? Oh yeah!

Who should I tell, oh, who should I tell?

The forty-nine in your burning hell

Oh underneath that old apple suckling tree

Under that apple suckling tree, Oh yeah!

Under that apple suckling tree, Oh yeah!

Underneath that tree

There's just gonna be you and me

Underneath that apple suckling tree, Oh yeah!

*) Official lyrics. Dylan seems to sing something like: "there's other place he ought to pay [...] brook, oh yeah"

Take #2

Chords as above

Under that apple suckling tree, Oh yeah!
Under that apple suckling tree, Oh yeah!
Underneath that tree
There's just gonna be you and me
Underneath that apple suckling tree, Oh yeah!

Pull him down in a county hook, my man.

Under that apple suckling tree, Oh yeah!
Under that apple suckling tree, Oh yeah!
underneath that tree
There's just gonna be you and me
Underneath that apple suckling tree

Now I wish to my soul I had seven years, Oh yeah!
Now I wish to my soul I had seven years, Oh yeah!
If I thought'em [/had'em] you [...] ground
I'd catch your name but he has a hound
[...]

Under that apple suckling tree, Oh yeah!

Under that apple suckling tree, Oh yeah!
Under that apple suckling tree, Oh yeah!
Underneath that tree
There's just gonna be you and me
Underneath that apple suckling tree Oh yeah!

Please, Mrs. Henry

Words and music Bob Dylan

Released on The Basement Tapes (1967/1975)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Capo 4th fret (sounding key C♯ major)

A

Well, I've already had two beers

I'm ready for the broom

Please, Missus Henry, won't you

Take me to my room?

I'm a good ol' boy

But I've been sniffin' too many eggs

Talkin' to too many people

Drinkin' too many kegs

Please, Missus Henry, Missus Henry, please!

Please, Missus Henry, Missus Henry, please!

I'm down on my knees

An' I ain't got a dime

Well, I'm groanin' in a hallway

Pretty soon I'll be mad

Please, Missus Henry, won't you

Take me to your dad?

I can drink like a fish

I can crawl like a snake

I can bite like a turkey

I can slam like a drake

Please, Missus Henry, Missus Henry, please!

Please, Missus Henry, Missus Henry, please!

I'm down on my knees

An' I ain't got a dime

Now, don't crowd me, lady

Or I'll fill up your shoe

I'm a sweet bourbon daddy

An' tonight I am blue

I'm a thousand years old
And I'm a generous bomb
I'm T-boned and punctured
But I'm known to be calm

Please, Missus Henry, Missus Henry, please!
Please, Missus Henry, Missus Henry, please!
I'm down on my knees
An' I ain't got a dime

Now, I'm startin' to drain
My stool's gonna squeak
If I walk too much farther
My crane's gonna leak
Look, Missus Henry
There's only so much I can do
Why don't you look my way
An' pump me a few?

Please, Missus Henry, Missus Henry, please!
Please, Missus Henry, Missus Henry, please!
I'm down on my knees
An' I ain't got a dime

Tears of Rage

Written by Richard Manuel and Bob Dylan
Released on The Basement Tapes (1967/1975)
Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Capo 2nd fret (sounding key A major)

There are three takes on the GBT, but there are no substantial differences between them. The lyrics differs from the official lyrics on some points.

G

G Em
We carried you in our arms
C Am
On Independence Day,
F C
And now you'd throw us all aside
G
And put us on our way.
G Em
Oh what dear daughter 'neath the sun
C Am
Would treat a father so,
F C
To wait upon him hand and foot
G
Yet always answer "No"?

B Em
Tears of rage, tears of grief,
C G
Why am I always the one who must be the thief?
B
Come to me now, you know
Em /d
We're so alone
C Am G C/g G
And life is brief.

We pointed out the way to go
And scratched your name in sand,
Though you just thought that it was nothing more
Than a place for you to stand.
Now, I want you to know that while you watched,
discovered that there was no one true,
that I myself really thought
It was just a childish thing to do.

Tears of rage, tears of grief,
Why am I always the one who must be the thief?
Come to me now, you know
We're so alone
And life is brief.

It was all very very painless
When you ran out to receive
All that false instruction
Which we never could believe.
And now the heart is filled with gold
As if it was a purse.
But, oh, what kind of love is this
Which goes from bad to worse?

Tears of rage, tears of grief,
Why am I always the one who must be the thief?
Come to me now, you know
We're so alone
And life is brief.

Too Much of Nothing

Words and music Bob Dylan

on the waters of oblivion.

Well too much of nothing can cause a man to weep.

He can walk the streets and like most and boast,

but would he like to keep?

But it's all been done before,

it's all been written in the book.

And when there's too much of nothing

nobody should look.

Say hello to Valery,

say hello to Vivian.

Give her all my salary

on the waters of oblivion.

Now too much of nothing can make a man a liar.
 It can cause some men to sleep on nails,
 it can cause others to eat fire.
 Everybody's doing something,
 I heard it in a dream.
 But when there's too much of nothing
 it just makes a fellow mean.

Say hello to Valery,
 say hello to Vivian.
 Give her all my salary
 on the waters of oblivion.

Take #2

Capo 4th fret (sounding key B major)

The Am in the second last line of the verse is what the guitar plays; the bass plays over a D chord. To get that sound, play D9/a (x00210).

G G-C/g-G (rep. ad lib)

Yea, Heavy and a bottle of bread

Words and music Bob Dylan

Released on The Basement Tapes (1967/1975)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Capo 6th fret (sounding key Eb major)

The only difference between the two takes (apart from minor lyric changes) is that in the officially released version the G is embellished by a G6 (320000) first.

Album version

Well, the comic book and me, just us, we caught the bus.
 The poor little chauffeur, though, she was back in bed
 On the very next day, with a nose full of pus.

Yea! Heavy and a bottle of bread
 Yea! Heavy and a bottle of bread
 Yea! Heavy and a bottle of bread

It's a one-track town, just brown, and a breeze, too,
 Pack up the meat, sweet, we're headin' out
 For Wichita in a pile of fruit.

Get the loot, don't be slow, we're gonna catch a trout
 Get the loot, don't be slow, we're gonna catch a trout
 Get the loot, don't be slow, we're gonna catch a trout

Now, pull that drummer out from behind that bottle.
 Bring me my pipe, we're gonna shake it.
 Slap that drummer with a pie that smells.

Take me down to California, baby
 Take me down to California, baby
 Take me down to California, baby

Yes, the comic book and me, just us, we caught the bus.
 The poor little chauffeur, though, she was back in bed
 On the very next day, with a nose full of pus.

Yea! Heavy and a bottle of bread
 Yea! Heavy and a bottle of bread
 Yea! Heavy and a bottle of bread

Alternate take (probably take #1, actually):

A G
Well, the comic book and me, just us, we caught the bus.

A G
The poor little chauffeur, though, she was back in bed

A G
On the very next day, with a nose full of pus.

A G

Down in the Flood (Crash on the Levee)

Words and music Bob Dylan

Released on The Basement Tapes (1967/1975). A different version was recorded Oct 1971 with Happy Traum (banjo) and released on Greatest Hits II (1971)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Take #1 (I assume): Capo 7th fret (sounding key D major); "another good friend" instead of "another best friend"

Take #2: Capo 2nd (or 3rd) fret (sounding key A (or Bb) major)

The G-C/g-G figure is a little bit everywhere where there is a G (especially line endings). the following is from the officially released take #2.

Basement Tapes version

G C/g-G C/g G

G

Crash on the levee mama,

C/g-G C/g-G

water's gonna overflow,

swamp's gonna rise,

G C/g-G

no boat's gonna row.

C/g-G

Now you can train on down to William's point,

C/g-G

you can bust your feet,

C/g-G

you can rock this joint.

C

But oh mama, ain't you gonna

D G C/g-G

miss your best friend now.

D

You gonna have to find yourself

G C/g-G

another best friend somehow.

Now don't you try and move me,

you're just gonna lose.

There's a crash on the levee

and mama you been refused.

Well it's sugar for sugar

and it's salt for salt,

if you go down in the flood

it's gonna be your fault.

Oh mama, ain't you gonna miss

your best friend now.

Yes you gonna have to find yourself
another best friend somehow.

Well that high tide's rising, mama don't you let me down.
Pack up your suitcase,
mama don't you make a sound.
Now it's king for king,
queen for queen,
it's gonna be the meanest flood that anybody's seen.

Oh mama, ain't you gonna miss
your best friend now.
Yes you gonna have to find yourself
another best friend somehow.

 Tomorrow's the day
 G
 My bride's gonna come
 G Am
 Oh, oh, are we gonna fly
 C G
 Down in the easy chair!

I don't care
 How many letters they sent
 Morning came and morning went Pick up your money
 And pack up your tent
 You ain't goin' nowhere

Whoo-ee! Ride me high
 Tomorrow's the day
 My bride's gonna come
 Oh, oh, are we gonna fly
 Down in the easy chair!

Buy me a flute
 And a gun that shoots
 Tailgates and substitutes
 Strap yourself
 To the tree with roots
 You ain't goin' nowhere

Whoo-ee! Ride me high
Tomorrow's the day
My bride's gonna come
Oh, oh, are we gonna fly
Down in the easy chair!

Genghis Khan
He could not keep
All his kings
Supplied with sleep
We'll climb that hill no matter how steep
When we get up to it

Whoo-ee! Ride me high
Tomorrow's the day
My bride's gonna come
Oh, oh, are we gonna fly
Down in the easy chair!

Alternate take

Capo 2nd fret (sounding key A major)
Chords as above

Now look here dear Sue
You best feed the cat
The cat needs feedin'
You're the one to do it
Get your hat
Feed the cat
You ain't goin' nowhere

Whoo-ee! Ride me high
Tomorrow's the day
My bride's gonna come
Oh, oh, are we gonna fly
Down in the easy chair!

Look here you bunch of basement noise
You ain't no
punchin' bag
I see you walkin' out there, and you're the one to do it
Pick up your nose, you canary
You ain't goin' nowhere

Just pick up that oil cloth cram it in the corner
I don't care if your name is Michael, you gonna need some boards
Get your lunch
you foreign bib
You ain't goin' nowhere

Now look here, you pile of money,
you best go off here to find a file
I've seen you out there beatin' on you hammer,
you ain't no head lettuce
Beat that buzzard lay 'm on the rug
You ain't goin' nowhere

Chords as above

Clouds so swift an' rain fallin' in
Gonna see a movie called "Gunga Din"
Pack up your money, pull up your tent McGuinn
You ain't goin' nowhere.

Whoo-ee, ride me high
Tomorrow's the day
That my bride's a-gonna come
Whoo-ee, are we gonna fly
Down into the easy chair.

Genghis Khan an' his brother Don
Could not keep on keepin' on
We'll climb that bridge after it's gone
After we're way past it.

Buy me some rings an' a gun that sings
A flute that toots an' a bee that stings
A sky that cries an' a bird that flies
A fish that walks an' a dog that talks.

Don't Ya Tell Henry

Words and music Bob Dylan

Released on The Basement Tapes (1967/1975) in a version by The Band

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem, according to the version with Dylan, available as an outtake

Version with Dylan

Don't ya tell Henry,

Apple's got your fly.

E

I went down to the river on a Saturday morn,

A-lookin' around just to see who's born.

I found a little chicken down on his knees,

I went up and yelled to him, "Please, please, please!"

He said, "Don't ya tell Henry,

A

Don't ya tell Henry,

B7

Don't ya tell Henry,

[n.c.] E [turnaround]

Elbow's got your thigh."

E

I went down to the corner at a-half past ten,

I's lookin' around, I wouldn't say when.

I looked down low, I looked above,

And who did I see but the one I love.

A

She said, "Don't ya tell Henry,

E

Don't ya tell Henry,

B

Don't ya tell Henry,

A [n.c.] E

Elbow's got your thigh."

E

Now, I went down to the beanery at half past twelve,

A-lookin' around just to see myself.

I spotted a horse and a donkey, too,

E

I looked for a cow and I saw me a few.

A
 They said, "Don't ya tell Henry,
 E
 Don't ya tell Henry,
 B
 Don't ya tell Henry,
 A [n.c.] E
 Elbow's got your thigh."

Now, I went down to the pumphouse the other night,
 A-lookin' around, it was outa sight.
 I looked high and low for that big ol' tree,
 I did go upstairs but I didn't see nobody but me.

I said, "Don't ya tell Henry,
 Don't ya tell Henry,
 Don't ya tell Henry,
 Elbow's got your thigh."

The Band's version

The following is played as an intro (minus the first bar) and between verses. The tab is just of the one guitar that plays the same thing every time; in addition, the most pronounced guitar plays different licks over this background.

Yes, I...

A
 Yes, I went down to the river on a Saturday morn,
 I's lookin' around just to see who's born.
 I spied a little chicken down on his knees,
 I went up and yelled to him, "Please, please, please!"

He said, "Don't ya tell Henry,

Elbow's got your thigh."

Yes, I went down to the beanery at half past twelve,
I's lookin' around just to see myself.
I looked high and low, and I looked up above,
But who did I see but the one I love.
She said, "Now, don't ya tell Henry,

Don't ya tell Henry,
Don't ya tell Henry,
Elbow's got your thigh."

Yeah, I went down to the whorehouse the other night,
I was lookin' around, I was outa sight.
I looked at a home, and I saw [it ain't new],
I looked for a cow and I saw me a few.

They said, "Don't ya tell Henry,
Don't ya tell Henry,
Don't ya tell Henry,
Elbow's got your thigh."

Yeah, I went down to the river on a Saturday morn,
I's lookin' around just to see who was born.
I saw a little chicken lie down on his knees,
I went up and yelled to him, "Please, please, please!"

He said, "Don't ya tell Henry,
Don't ya tell Henry,
Don't ya tell Henry,
Elbow's got your thigh."

 The sooner you can go.

[n.c.] Em G
 Nothing is better, nothing is best,
 G D/f# C/e G C D(/a) G
 Take care of yourself and get plenty of rest.

Nothing was delivered
 But I can't say I sympathize
 With what your fate is going to be,
 Yes, for telling all those lies.
 Now you must provide some answers
 For what you sold has not been received,
 And the sooner you come up with them,
 The sooner you can leave.

Nothing is better, nothing is best,
 Take heed of this and get plenty rest.

(Now you know)
 Nothing was delivered
 And it's up to you to say
 Just what you had in mind
 When you made ev'rybody pay.
 No, nothing was delivered,
 Yes, 'n' someone must explain
 That as long as it takes to do this
 Then that's how long that you'll remain.

Nothing is better, nothing is best,
 Take heed of this and get plenty rest.

 This wheel shall explode!

If your mem'ry serves you well,
 I was goin' to confiscate your lace,
 And wrap it up in a sailor's knot
 And hide it in your case.
 If I knew for sure that it was yours . . .
 But it was oh so hard to tell.
 But you knew that we would meet again,
 If your mem'ry serves you well.

This wheel's on fire,
 Rolling down the road,
 Best notify my next of kin,
 This wheel shall explode!

If your mem'ry serves you well,
 You'll remember you're the one
 That called on me to call on them
 To get you your favors done.
 And after ev'ry plan had failed
 And there was nothing more to tell,
 You knew that we would meet again,
 If your mem'ry served you well.

This wheel's on fire,
Rolling down the road,
Best notify my next of kin,
This wheel shall explode!

All You Have To Do Is Dream

Written by Bob Dylan, I guess

Performed by Bob Dylan and the Band in the Basement, summer 1967

Tabbed by Simon Bedford and Eyolf Østrem

There were two takes, and since they are virutally identical, I'll present both...

The chords are written as if played with a capo on the 1st or the 3rd fret (for the two takes). On the recordings the guitar part is played with barre chords higher up on the neck.

G Am Bm Am
 If the farmer has no silo
 G Am Bm Am
 And his fuel cost runs up high
 G Am Bm Am
 Well, that's just how much I would love you
 G Am Bm Am
 if you'd just only let me try

 C Am
 in some nice young up-to-date kitchen
 C Am
 let us get acquainted, dear
 G Am Bm Am
 and them old floor-birds would just quit eatin'
 C D G
 And just grin from ear to ear

Two floor birds and a prudent baby chick, yes that's me
 That ain't much to bust
 But restriction causes damage
 And damage causes lust

So, poor little girl, come blow this horn
 Hard as any horn might seem
 It's very easily done, actually
 All you have to do is dream.

[instrumental verse]

Well, the whole back-strappers are a dime a dozen
 And I can get a cup for a nickle
 Yes, but look what an earful I get and it's all awful too
 Everytime I try to go get me a little tickle

So, give me one sweet loaf of bread
 just one sweet loaf, I'll fill it up and I'll be gone
 Yes, just like some of these old floor birds
 who fly from dawn to dawn
 who fly from dawn to dawn
 who fly from dawn to dawn
 who fly from dawn to dawn

Take #2

If the farmer has no silo
And his fuel cost runs him up very high
Well, that's just how much I'd love you
if you'd just only let me try

In some nice young up-to-date kitchen
Let us get acquainted, dear
Then them old floor-birds will just quit eatin'
And just grin from ear to ear

Two floor birds and a prudent baby chick
Yes, that ain't much to bust
But restriction causes damage
And damage causes lust.

So, poor little girl, come blow this horn
Hard as any hole might seem
It's very easily done, actually
All you have to do is dream.

[instrumental verse]

Well, those old whole back-strappers are a dime a dozen
And I can get a cup for a nickle
Yes, but look what an earful I get, and it's awful too,
Everytime I try to go get a little tickle

Give me just one sweet loaf of bread
Fill it up, and I'll be gone
Just like some old floor-bird who just flies from dawn to dawn (yes...)
flies from dawn to dawn (look at that old floor-bird, he just...) flies from dawn to dawn (look at that crazy floor-bird, he just...) flies from dawn to dawn (what a floor-bird, he...) flies from dawn to dawn.

Bonnie Ship the Diamond

Trad.

Played by Bob Dylan and the Band in the Basement of 1967

Lyrics modified from It's not a house it's a home page. Chords tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

On my copy it plays in Bbm, thus a capo on the 1st fret.

The chords in the first verse aren't quite like in the rest of the verses, which follow the simpler pattern of the second verse.

[introductory search for chords omitted for brevity]

Am

Am C/g D/f#
Well, the bonnie ship was a good old ship
Am E
She was a-fishin' on a [leading chain]
Am /c C/g
And me an' John oh was a long catch[-on?]
D/f# F E Am
It was the last of the ones I've seen

Am G Am
So with sword and a rope in bay
E
Feel all that your heart be sailed
Am C/g D/f#
When that bonnie ship the Diamond goes
Am Em Am
fishin' for the whales.

Am D
Well, we feud all night, the cabin gauge,
Am E
It was a-more than feelin' bad
Am D
And with all kind friends we watched in fear
Am Em Am
It was a naught time we ever had.

Am D Am
So it's rise up my lads
E
Let your hearts never fail
Am C/g D/f#
When that bonnie ship the Diamond goes
F E Am
fishin' for the whales.

An' all day long at Vera Cruz
We sailed [all the likes] to bind
With no heavy moan, any hearts [of stone]
No aid was cried [tried?] for mine.

So it's cheer up my boys
Let your hearts never fail
When that bonnie ship the Diamond
Goes fishin' for the whales.

Well, now along Cape Fate, 'twas lit in red
All along cape Horn
And from Vera Cruz we sailed ahead
It was all in the time of storm.

So, it's cheer on up my boys
Let your hearts never fail
When that bonnie ship the Diamond
Goes fishin' for the whales.

One Man's Loss

Written by Bob Dylan, I guess

Performed by Bob Dylan and the Band in the Basement, summer 1967

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Too bad the sound is so bad on this, because it's a text with potential. The bracketed passages are just representations of the sounds I seem to hear, with no claim for meaning or authority.

I'd suggest a capo on the 5th fret (sounding key D major), with the following figure going through the whole song:

  A      A6      A      D/a
|-----|-----|
|-----|-----3---3---|
|-2---2---2---2---|-2---2---2---2---|
|-2---2---4---4---|-2---2---4---4---|
|-0---0---0---0---|-0---0---0---0---|

[first verse inaudible]

[Let's take a cherry], I can't make it no more

Can't stop, she's breaking all time on the floor

Better come down easy or don't come down at all

You don't try and to please me, somebody's gonna fall

      D                                A
One man's loss always is another man's gain
      E              D              A
Yes, one man's joy always is another man's pain

Eight o'clock in the morning, [better] step aside

[let me be to your] warning, you better go by

Three times a loser, number 45 better not lose her, best stayed alive

One man's loss always is another man's gain
Yes, one man's joy always is another man's pain

Wish I'd have found me [...] at the wall

One look at the watch, you better [lord at all]

You can't stop it or wait it [...] at night

Too hard to keep you waiting, calls me aside

One man's loss always is another man's gain
Yes, one man's joy always is another man's pain

(Be Careful of) Stones That You Throw

Written by E. Dodd

Recorded by Bob Dylan and The Band in the Basement, Summer of 1967

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

[fragment:]

. . . and I knew right away
That it was gossip not flowers that she had on her mind
And this is what I heard my neighbor say.

[new start, in D:]

G D
A tongue can accuse or carry bad news
G D
The seeds of destruction it will sow.
G D
So unless you have made no mistakes in your life
D A D
Be careful of stones that you throw.

A neighbor was passin' my garden one time
G
She smiled and I knew right away
D
That it was gossip not flowers that she had on her mind
A7
And this is what I heard my neighbor say.

D
"That bad girl down the street, she should be run from our midst.
G
She drinks and she talks quite a lot
(D)
She knows not to speak to my child nor to me."
A7
My neighbor then smiled and I thought:

A tongue can accuse and carry bad news
The seeds of destruction it will sow.
So unless you have made no mistakes in your life
Be careful of stones that you throw.

A car speeded by, the screamin' of brakes and a sound that made my blood chill
For my neighbor's one child had been pulled from the path
And saved by a girl, lyin' still.

Her child was unhurt and my neighbor cried out
"Oh, who was that brave girl so sweet?"
I covered the crushed broken body and said
"That bad girl down the street."

A tongue can accuse and carry bad news
The seeds of destruction were sown
So unless you have made no mistakes in your life
Be careful of stones that you, you throw.

To spend the summer pleasantly on the trail of the buffalo

I found myself in Griffin in the year of '83
 When a well-known famous drover came walkin' up to me Saying, "how do you do, young cowboy, how would you like to go and spend the summer pleasantly on the trail of the buffalo?"

Well, me being out of work right then, to this drover I did say
 This a-going out on the buffalo range depends upon your pay
 But if you pay good wages, transportation to and fro
 Think I might go with you on the hunt of the buffalo

Yes, I will pay good wages and transportation too
 If you agree to work for me until the season's through
 But if you do get homesick and try to run away
 You'll starve to death on the prairie and also lose your pay

With all this flattering talking he signed up quite a train
 Some ten of twelve in numbers, some able-bodied men
 Our trip it was a pleasant one as we hit the west-ward road
 Until we hit old Boggy Creek in old New Mexico

There our pleasures ended and our troubles they begun
 A lightning storm it hit us and it made the cattle run
 I got all full of stickers from the cactus that did grow
 Outlaws watching to pick us off from the hills of Mexico

Well now, the working season ended but the drover would not pay

He said "You went and drunk too much, you're all in debt to me"
But the cowboys never did hear of such a thing as a bankrupt law
So we left that drover's bones to bleach on the hills of the buffalo

Los Angeles, Aug 2, 1988

But the cowboys never did hear of such a thing as a bankrupt law
So we left that drover's bones to bleach in the hills of the buffalo

Now we crossed Pease River, and homeward we are bound
No more on the buffalo range will we ever be found
Go home to our wives and sweethearts and tell others not to go
For God has forsaken the buffalo range and the damned old buffalo.

Capo 5th fret (sounding key C major)

The rhythm of the intro figure recurs here and there in the song, in the chords between the verse lines.

      C
No use to deny I wanted to die
                        G      C/g G
The day that you said we were through.
      A7
But now that I'm fine, you're out of my mind,
D7 [n.c.]
I can't believe that it's true.

I forgot it somehow
That I cared so before
And it's wonderful now.
I don't hurt anymore.

There ain't no room for the hopeless sinner
Who would hurt all mankind just to save his own
Have pity on those whose chances grow thinner
For there's no hiding place against the Kingdom's throne

So people get ready, there's a train a comin'
You don't need no baggage, you just get on board
All you need is faith to hear the diesels hummin'
Don't need no ticket, you just thank the Lord

Baby, won't you be my baby?

Oh father, dearest father, you've done me great wrong.
You've married me to a boy who is much too young.
Oh I am twice twelve, and he is but fourteen
He's a bonnie lad, he's young but he's growing.

Oh father, dearest father, oh and if it pleases you.
I'll send my man on to a school for a year or two.
And on top of his college cap, he'll wear a ribbon bow
so that the other girls might know that he's married.

One day when I was walking all alone down by the schoolwall,
Em C G D
I saw the boys were playing at the bouncing of the ball.
And my own true love was the fairest of them all.
He's a bonny lad but he's daily growing.

At the age of fourteen he was a married man.
At the age of fifteen the father of a son.
At the age of sixteen on his grave the grass grew green.
Cruel death had put an end to his growing.

I'll buy my love a shroud of ornamental ground and place it on his grave. Oh the tears come tripling down.
For once I had a true love but now I have not.
But I'll watch his bonny son while he's a-growing.

C /b /a G

I remember so well over my father's wall
I heard the boys were singing, I can hear them dancin'-call.
And my own true love was the fairest of them all.
He's young, but he's daily a-growin'.

Oh father, dear father, you've done me great wrong.
You've married me of to a boy that's much too young.
Oh I am twice twelve, and he is but fourteen
He's young, but he's daily a-growin'.

Oh daughter, dear daughter, I've done you no wrong.
I've married you to a rich man's son.
Oh he will be a lord for you to wait upon.
Yes he's young, but he's daily a-growin'.

At the age of fourteen he was a married man.
At the age of fifteen the father of a son.
At the age of sixteen has a grave, it was green.
And death put a stop to his growin'.

But he've born me one son, so I can pass the time
Wachin' my boy rised a great a-year.
And I will wachin' rise, 'til he becomes a man.
He's young now, but he's daily a-growin'.

Quinn The Eskimo (The Mighty Quinn)

Words and music Bob Dylan

Recorded during The Basement sessions (summer 1967)

Released in a live version from the Isle of Wight festival (1969) on Self Portrait (1970) and on Greatest Hits vol. 2 (1971). Original basement version released on Biograph (1985)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

There are two takes from the Basement tapes sessions. They differ only on minor points.

The live version from the Isle of Wight is played in A, with the chords A, D and E.

*) The copyrighted lyrics have: "A cat's meow and a cow's moo, I can recite 'em all". Self Portrait has something similar.

) The other take has: "Just tell me where to put them"

I'm Not There (1956)

Bob Dylan

Recorded during The Basement Tapes sessions (1967), and released (unofficially) on the Genuine Basement Tapes.

Lyrics transcribed by J.W. Mahoney, with some emendations to make it sound more like a meaningful text (which I don't think it necessarily has to be; see this note for a short explanation of why).

Here's a different transcription

And just for the record: "(1956)" is part of the title, not the year of writing.

but I don't belong there.

No I don't belong to her,
I don't belong to anybody,

she's my prize forsaken angel
but she don't hear me cry.

She's a long-hearted mystic and she can't carry on,
when I'm there she's alright,
but she's not, when I'm gone

Heaven knows that the answer
she's don't call in no-one,
she's the way, a sailing beautiful,
she's mine, for the one,

and I loss a heavy tension,
by temptation less it runs
but she don't allah me
but I'm not there, I'm gone.

Now I've cried tonight
like I cried the night before,
and I'm knees on the hassle,
but I dream about the door.

So-long Jesus-saken,
blind fate, with a tell,
it don't hang contonation
she's my ald fare-thee-well.

Now when I'll treat the levee,
I was born to love her,
but she knows that the kingdom weighs so high above her,

and I run but I race,
but it's not too fast a sleoun,
but I don't perceive her,
I'm not there, I'm gone.

Well it's all about deffusion
That I cry for her veil,
I don't need anybody now beside me to tell

And it's all affirmation
I recieve, but it's not,
She's a lone-hearted beauty
but she's gone like the spot
if she waoun...

Yes, she's gone like the rainbow that was shining yesterday but now she's a-home beside me and I'd like her to stay

she's a bone-forsaking beauty and it don't trust anyone,

and I wish I was beside her,
but I'm not there, I'm gone.

Well it's a too hard to stake-in,
and I don't bart-b'lieve
It's all bag for tebusing, but she's hard, too hard to leave.

It's alone, it's a crime
the way she moult me around was she told for to hate me
by this dong fortaken clown.

Yes I believe that it's rightful,
oh I believe it in my mind,
I b'told like I said when I before carry on the crying,

and she's all good to told her,
like I said, carry on,
I wish I was there to help her,
but I'm not there, I'm gone ...

Silent Weekend

Words and music Bob Dylan
 Recorded during the Basement Sessions (1967)
 Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

It actually sounds as if Dylan has left his beloved G-C/g-G chord structure here, and instead plays in A, with a capo on the 1st fret.

Sign on the Cross

Words and music Bob Dylan

Recorded during the Basement sessions (summer 1967)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Bob's at the piano, so it's a black key. Robbie plays some licks high up on the neck, and he uses the following shapes:

Eb: x-x-13-12-11-11

Ab: x-11-10-8-9-8

Bb7: 6-8-8-7-9-6

Since the greatness of this song lies in Dylan's vocal and Garth's organ, and you won't be able to reproduce that anyway :-), you might as well put on a capo somewhere to get simpler chords, or drop all the b's and play E, A and B.

Eb
 Now, I try, oh so awf'ly strong
 Ab Eb
 And I just try to be.
 Eb
 And now, oh it's [an isle]*)
 Bb7
 But it's free.
 Eb (Eb7)
 Yes, but I know in my head
 Ab Eb
 That we're all so misled,
 Eb Bb
 And it's that ol' sign on the cross
 Eb
 That worries me.

Now, when I was just a bawlin' lad,
 I saw what I wanted to be,
 And it's all for the sake
 Of that I should see.
 But I was lost on the land
 As I heard that front door slam,
 And that old sign on the cross worried me.

Ab Eb

Ab
 Well, it's that old sign on the cross,
 Eb
 Well, it's that old key to the kingdom,
 Ab
 Well, it's that old sign on the cross
 Bb
 Like you used to be.
 Eb Eb7
 But, when I hold my head so high

Ab Eb
As I see my ol' friends go by,
Eb Bb
And it's still that sign on the cross
Eb Ab Eb
That worries me.

Well, it seems to be the sign on the cross. Ev'ry day,
Ab
ev'ry night, see the sign on the cross just layin' up on top of the hill. Yes, we thought it might have disappeared long ago, but I'm here to tell you, friends,
Eb
Bb
that I'm afraid it's lyin' there still. Yes, just a little time is all you need, you might say, but I don't Eb7 Ab
Eb
know 'bout that any more, because later on you might find the door, you might want to enter it, but, of course, the door might
Eb
be closed. And I just would like to tell you one time,
Bb
if I don't see you again, that the thing is, that the sign
Ab Eb
on the cross is the thing you might need the most.

Ab
Yes, the sign on the cross
Eb
Is just a sign [of cotton barkin' too]
Ab
Well, there is some in any prison
Bb
And there is some in the penitentiary too.
Eb
Oh, when your, when your days are numbered
Eb7
And your nights are long,
Ab
You might think you're weak
Eb
But I mean to say you're strong.
Yes you are, if that sign on the cross,
Bb
If it begins to worry you.
Eb Ab
Well, that's all right, you just sing a song
Eb
And all your troubles will pass right on through.

 yes, I'm a fool for you
 I'm a fool for you

You Gotta Quit Kicking My Dog Around

Trad., arr. by Bob Dylan

Taped in the Basement (1967)

Tabbed (no, not really – transcribed) by Eyolf Østrem

Played over a sustained G with a capo on the 2nd fret, and with occasional G-C/g-G embellishments.

Every time I go to town
the boys keep kicking my dog around
Don't know why I'm going to town
I don't know why they kick my dog around

let me hear you now:

(dog, dog, dog
dog, dog, dog
dog, dog, dog
why, why, why
why, why, why
why, why, why
why, why, why)

Every time I go to town
the boys keep kicking my dog around
I don't know why I'm going to town
I don't know why they kick my dog around

(dog, dog, dog) yes, yes, yes
(why, why, why) oh-ho
(dog, dog, dog) why, why, why
(why, why, why) dog around

Every time I go and get a meal
I can see the boys they're planning to steal
My here dog, he's waggin' his tail
he helps me pick up the morning mail (bark, bark, bark)

Every time I go to town
the boys keep kicking my dog around (kick, kick, kick)
I don't know why they kick my dog around
I just keep go-ong to town (bark, bark, bark)

I don't know why
(why, why, why) I don't know bark
(dog, dog, dog) I don't know why
(bark, bark, bark) bark-a bark, bark
(quack, quack, quack) duck, duck, duck
(duttuduttudu) pig pig pig
(...) fuck fuck fuck
(bark bark bark) dig dig dig

As Donald Legaut has pointed out, the pattern of the song goes back at least to the 1910s. One version is as follows:

Me and old Lem Briggs and old Bill Brown
Took a load of corn to town
Old Jim dog, the on'ery pup
He just naturally followed us up

Every time I come to town
The boys go to kicking my dog around
Makes no difference if he's a hound
Ya gotta quit kicking my dog around

As we driv' past the country store
A passel of yaps came out the door
Jim he scooted behind a box
Showered him with sticks and rocks

They tied a tin can to his tail
And run him past the county jail
That just naturally makes me sore
Bill he cussed and Lem he swore

Most probably because of his notoriously poor memory, Riley omitted to sing the expected finale:

Me and Lem Briggs and old Bill Brown
Lost no time a-getting down
We whapped them fellers to the ground

For kickin' my old dog, Jim, around
Jim seed his duty there and then
He sure let into those gentlemen
He sure messed up that townhouse square
With rags and meat and hide and hair

Four Strong Winds

Ian Tyson/Warner Brother Music

Recorded by Bob Dylan and The Band during The Basement Tapes sessions, 1967

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem (thanks to Karla in Kansas for correction)

Capo 2nd fret (sounding key A major)

G

Four strong winds that blow lonely,
 Seven seas that run high,
 All these things that won't change, Come what may.
 But our good times are all gone,
 And I'm bound for moving on.
 I'll look for you if you ever come this way.

Think I'll go out to Alberta,
 Weather's good there in the fall.
 Got some friends that I can go to working for,
 Still I wish you'd change your mind
 If I asked you one more time,
 But we've been through that a hundred times or more.

Four strong winds that blow lonely,
 Seven seas that run high,
 All these things that don't change, Come what may.
 But our good times are all gone,
 And I'm bound for moving on.
 I'll look for you if you ever come this way.

[hm hm hm]
 down the lonely [...]
 [and the wind that carries ...]
 [hm hm hm] would be springtime
 and not much for you to do,
 So I'll see you when I pass this way again

Four strong winds that blow lonely,
 Seven seas that run high,
 All these things that don't change, Come what may.
 But our good times are all gone,
 And I'm bound for moving on.
 I'll look for you if you ever come this way.

Ian and Sylvia's last verse, which is a little more clear than Dylan's...:

If I get there before the snow flies,
And if things are looking good,
You could meet me if I sent you down the fare.
But by then it would be winter,
Not too much for you to do
And the winds sure can blow cold way out there.

The Banks of the Royal Canal

Brendan Behan

Recorded by Bob Dylan and The Band during The Basement Tapes sessions (1967)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Em' = xx5450

The recording is much more jingle-jangly than this tab can convey. To get that full effect, you'd need a full band of individualists who are not quite certain about the tune. That's what Dylan had. If you're less resourceful, you can approach that effect by inserting the D-A-G-D turn (or hints of it) here and there where there's a long D.

D G D G D
A hungry feeling, came o'er me stealing
G A D Em' G A
As the mice were squealing in my prison cell
D A G D D A G D
And that old triangle, went jingle jangle
G D A D
All along the banks of the Royal Canal.

To begin the morning, with the water boiling
Get out of bed, clean up your cell
And the old triangle, went jingle jangle
All along the banks of the Royal Canal.

On a fine spring evening the lag lay dreamin'
The sea-gulls beamin' high above the wall
And that old triangle, goes jingle jangle
All along the banks of the Royal Canal.

The screw was peepin' and the lag lay sleapin'
As he lay there weeping for his good gal Sal.
And the old triangle, went jingle jangle
All along the banks of the Royal Canal.

In the female prison there are seventy women and it's with all of them where I'd like to dwell
And the old triangle, would go jingle jangle
All along the banks of the Royal Canal.

Ah, the day was dying and the lag was sighing
As I lay cryin' in my prison cell
And that old triangle, went jingle jangle
All along the banks of the Royal Canal.

Introductory remarks

Eyolf Østrem

In a blog post, Oisín O’Faghain suggested I write the following about Desire:

I think Dylan’s best singing is on Desire and Rolling Thunder (the latter being the superior).

Desire stories (yes i just used “story” as a verb) the crap out of other story albums and yet its ‘stories’ contain questionable biographies ‘Joey’, ‘Sara’, ‘Hurricane’.

It is (chord-speaking) probably his most straightforward album with major and minor chords, no capo and all standard tuning. A departure, but also lyrically it is a stand-alone album (probably closest to John Wesley Harding) because its lyrics are not complex but yet remain opaque: ‘Time is an ocean but it ends at the shore’.

So I did. I think I have a thing or two to say about Desire myself, eventually, but until I do, the above stands, with the possible qualification that it should start: “While I listen to Desire, I tend to forget that Dylan’s best singing happened a few years later, during the Gospel period.”

Hurricane

Words and music Bob Dylan and Jacques Levy

Released on Desire (1976), and in a live version on Live 1975 (2002)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

The Live 1975 version is virtually identical to the album version (chord-wise)

Am F Am F

Three bodies lyin' there does Patty see
And another man named Bello, movin' around mysteriously.
"I didn't do it," he says, and he throws up his hands
"I was only robbin' the register, I hope you understand.
I saw them leavin'," he says, and he stops
"One of us had better call up the cops."
And so Patty calls the cops
And they arrive on the scene with their red lights flashin'
In the hot New Jersey night.

Meanwhile, far away in another part of town
Rubin Carter and a couple of friends are drivin' around.
Number one contender for the middleweight crown
Had no idea what kinda shit was about to go down
When a cop pulled him over to the side of the road
Just like the time before and the time before that.
In Paterson that's just the way things go.
If you're black you might as well not show up on the street
'Less you wanna draw the heat.

Alfred Bello had a partner and he had a rap for the cops.
Him and Arthur Dexter Bradley were just out prowlin' around
He said, "I saw two men runnin' out, they looked like middleweights

They jumped into a white car with out-of-state plates."
And Miss Patty Valentine just nodded her head.
Cop said, "Wait a minute, boys, this one's not dead"
So they took him to the infirmary
And though this man could hardly see
They told him that he could identify the guilty men.

Four in the mornin' and they haul Rubin in,
Take him to the hospital and they bring him upstairs.
The wounded man looks up through his one dyin' eye
Says, "Wha'd you bring him in here for? He ain't the guy!"
Yes, here's the story of the Hurricane,
The man the authorities came to blame
For somethin' that he never done.
Put in a prison cell, but one time he could-a been
The champion of the world.

Four months later, the ghettos are in flame,
Rubin's in South America, fightin' for his name
While Arthur Dexter Bradley's still in the robbery game
And the cops are puttin' the screws to him, lookin' for somebody to blame.
"Remember that murder that happened in a bar?"
"Remember you said you saw the getaway car?"
"You think you'd like to play ball with the law?"
"Think it might-a been that fighter that you saw runnin' that night?"
"Don't forget that you are white."

Arthur Dexter Bradley said, "I'm really not sure."
Cops said, "A poor boy like you could use a break
We got you for the motel job and we're talkin' to your friend Bello
Now you don't wanta have to go back to jail, be a nice fellow.
You'll be doin' society a favor.
That sonofabitch is brave and gettin' braver.
We want to put his ass in stir
We want to pin this triple murder on him
He ain't no Gentleman Jim."

Rubin could take a man out with just one punch
But he never did like to talk about it all that much.
It's my work, he'd say, and I do it for pay
And when it's over I'd just as soon go on my way
Up to some paradise
Where the trout streams flow and the air is nice
And ride a horse along a trail.
But then they took him to the jailhouse
Where they try to turn a man into a mouse.

All of Rubin's cards were marked in advance
The trial was a pig-circus, he never had a chance.
The judge made Rubin's witnesses drunkards from the slums
To the white folks who watched he was a revolutionary bum
And to the black folks he was just a crazy nigger.
No one doubted that he pulled the trigger.
And though they could not produce the gun,
The D.A. said he was the one who did the deed
And the all-white jury agreed.

Rubin Carter was falsely tried.
The crime was murder "one," guess who testified?
Bello and Bradley and they both baldly lied
And the newspapers, they all went along for the ride.
How can the life of such a man
Be in the palm of some fool's hand?
To see him obviously framed
Couldn't help but make me feel ashamed to live in a land
Where justice is a game.

Now all the criminals in their coats and their ties
Are free to drink martinis and watch the sun rise
While Rubin sits like Buddha in a ten-foot cell
An innocent man in a living hell.
That's the story of the Hurricane,
But it won't be over till they clear his name
And give him back the time he's done.
Put in a prison cell, but one time he could-a been
The champion of the world.

Isis

By Bob Dylan and Jacques Levy

Released on Desire (1976) and in live versions on Biograph (1985) and Live 1975 (2002)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem (a tough one)

Same chords throughtout. Replace with G, F, C or any other three chords you like. On Live 1975 it is played in A, either uncapoed with the chords A, G, D, A, or with a capo on the 2nd fret and chords G, F, C, G.

Bb Ab Eb Bb
I married Isis on the fifth day of May,
But I could not hold on to her very long.
So I cut off my hair and I rode straight away
For the wild unknown country where I could not go wrong.

I came to a high place of darkness and light.
The dividing line ran through the center of town.
I hitched up my pony to a post on the right,
Went in to a laundry to wash my clothes down.

A man in the corner approached me for a match.
I knew right away he was not ordinary.
He said, "Are you lookin' for somethin' easy to catch?"
I said, "I got no money." He said, "That ain't necessary."

We set out that night for the cold in the North.
I gave him my blanket, he gave me his word.
I said, "Where are we goin'?" He said we'd be back by the fourth.
I said, "That's the best news that I've ever heard."

I was thinkin' about turquoise, I was thinkin' about gold,
I was thinkin' about diamonds and the world's biggest necklace.
As we rode through the canyons, through the devilish cold,
I was thinkin' about Isis, how she thought I was so reckless.

How she told me that one day we would meet up again,
And things would be different the next time we wed,
If I only could hang on and just be her friend.
I still can't remember all the best things she said.

We came to the pyramids all embedded in ice.
He said, "There's a body I'm tryin' to find.
If I carry it out it'll bring a good price."
'Twas then that I knew what he had on his mind.

The wind it was howlin' and the snow was outrageous.
We chopped through the night and we chopped through the dawn.
When he died I was hopin' that it wasn't contagious,
But I made up my mind that I had to go on.

I broke into the tomb, but the casket was empty.
There was no jewels, no nothin', I felt I'd been had.
When I saw that my partner was just bein' friendly,
When I took up his offer I must-a been mad.

I picked up his body and I dragged him inside,
Threw him down in the hole and I put back the cover.
I said a quick prayer and I felt satisfied.
Then I rode back to find Isis just to tell her I love her.

She was there in the meadow where the creek used to rise.
Blinded by sleep and in need of a bed,
I came in from the East with the sun in my eyes.
I cursed her one time then I rode on ahead.

She said, "Where ya been?" I said, "No place special."
She said, "You look different." I said, "Well, not quite."
She said, "You been gone." I said, "That's only natural." She said,
"You gonna stay?" I said, "Yeah, I jes might."

Isis, oh, Isis, you mystical child.
What drives me to you is what drives me insane.
I still can remember the way that you smiled
On the fifth day of May in the drizzlin' rain.

And you see why it's so unique to be Among the lovely people living free
Upon the beach of sunny Mozambique.

Your daddy he's an outlaw
And a wanderer by trade
He'll teach you how to pick and choose
And how to throw the blade.
He oversees his kingdom
So no stranger does intrude
His voice it trembles as he calls out
For another plate of food.

One more cup of coffee for the road,
One more cup of coffee 'fore I go
To the valley below.

Your sister sees the future
Like your mama and yourself.
You've never learned to read or write
There's no books upon your shelf.
And your pleasure knows no limits
Your voice is like a meadowlark
But your heart is like an ocean
Mysterious and dark.

One more cup of coffee for the road,
One more cup of coffee 'fore I go
To the valley below.

Oh, Sister

Words and music Bob Dylan and Jacques Levy

Released on Desire (1976) and in a live versions on Hard Rain (1976), Budokan (1978) and Live 1975 (2002)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

The Live 1975 version is basically the same as the album version. The Budokan version is sung over a sustained Gm.

G Bm C (/b Am) G
Oh, sister, when I come to lie in your arms
G Em C G
You should not treat me like a stranger.
G Bm C (/b Am) G
Our Father would not like the way that you act
G Em C G
And you must realize the danger.

Oh, sister, am I not a brother to you
And one deserving of affection?
And is our purpose not the same on this earth,
To love and follow His direction?

F C
We grew up together
 G
From the cradle to the grave
F C
We died and were reborn
 G D (/c-b-a)
And then mysteriously saved.

Oh, sister, when I come to knock on your door,
Don't turn away, you'll create sorrow.
Time is an ocean but it ends at the shore
You may not see me tomorrow.

Hard Rain version

Probably played with a capo on the 4th fret (sounding key E major)

C Em F C
Oh, sister, when I come to lie in your arms
G Am F C
You should not treat me like a stranger.
C Em F C
Our Father would not like the way that you act
C Am F C
And you must realize the danger.

Bb F
We grew up together
 C
From the cradle to the grave
Bb F
We died and were reborn
 C G /g-a-b C
And then mysteriously saved.

Budokan version

The verses are sung over a sustained G minor chord. The only difference is the bridge, which is played:

Bb C
We grew up together
 Gm
From the cradle to the grave
Bb C
We died and were reborn
 Gm
And then mysteriously saved.

"Well," he answered, "just because."

Larry was the oldest, Joey was next to last.

Some say they lived off gambling and runnin' numbers too.
It always seemed they got caught between the mob and the men in blue.

G C Am
Joey, Joey,

What made them want to come and blow you away?

G F C G x2

There was talk they killed their rivals, but the truth was far from that
No one ever knew for sure where they were really at.
When they tried to strangle Larry, Joey almost hit the roof.
He went out that night to seek revenge, thinkin' he was bulletproof.

The war broke out at the break of dawn, it emptied out the streets
Joey and his brothers suffered terrible defeats
Till they ventured out behind the lines and took five prisoners.
They stashed them away in a basement, called them amateurs.

The hostages were tremblin' when they heard a man exclaim,
"Let's blow this place to kingdom come, let Con Edison take the blame."
But Joey stepped up, he raised his hand, said, "We're not those kind of men.
It's peace and quiet that we need to go back to work again."

Joey, Joey,
King of the streets, child of clay.
Joey, Joey,
What made them want to come and blow you away?

The police department hounded him, they called him Mr. Smith
They got him on conspiracy, they were never sure who with.
"What time is it?" said the judge to Joey when they met
"Five to ten," said Joey. The judge says, "That's exactly what you get."

He did ten years in Attica, reading Nietzsche and Wilhelm Reich
They threw him in the hole one time for tryin' to stop a strike.
His closest friends were black men 'cause they seemed to understand
What it's like to be in society with a shackle on your hand.

When they let him out in '71 he'd lost a little weight
But he dressed like Jimmy Cagney and I swear he did look great.
He tried to find the way back into the life he left behind
To the boss he said, "I have returned and now I want what's mine."

Joey, Joey,
King of the streets, child of clay.
Joey, Joey,
Why did they have to come and blow you away?

It was true that in his later years he would not carry a gun
"I'm around too many children," he'd say, "they should never know of one."
Yet he walked right into the clubhouse of his lifelong deadly foe,
Emptied out the register, said, "Tell 'em it was Crazy Joe."

One day they blew him down in a clam bar in New York
He could see it comin' through the door as he lifted up his fork.
He pushed the table over to protect his family
Then he staggered out into the streets of Little Italy.

Joey, Joey,
King of the streets, child of clay.
Joey, Joey,
What made them want to come and blow you away?

Sister Jacqueline and Carmela and mother Mary all did weep.
I heard his best friend Frankie say, "He ain't dead, he's just asleep."
Then I saw the old man's limousine head back towards the grave
I guess he had to say one last goodbye to the son that he could not save.

The sun turned cold over President Street and the town of Brooklyn mourned
They said a mass in the old church near the house where he was born.
And someday if God's in heaven overlookin' His preserve
I know the men that shot him down will get what they deserve.

Joey, Joey,
King of the streets, child of clay.
Joey, Joey,
What made them want to come and blow you away?

At the corrida we'll sit in the shade
 And watch the young torero stand alone.
 We'll drink tequila where our grandfathers stayed
 When they rode with Villa into Torreón.

Then the padre will recite the prayers of old
 In the little church this side of town.
 I will wear new boots and an earring of gold
 You'll shine with diamonds in your wedding gown.

The way is long but the end is near
 Already the fiesta has begun.
 The face of God will appear
 With His serpent eyes of obsidian.

No illores, mi querida
 Dios nos vigila
 Soon the horse will take us to Durango.
 Agarrame, mi vida
 Soon the desert will be gone
 Soon you will be dancing the fandango.

Was that the thunder that I heard?
 My head is vibrating, I feel a sharp pain.
 Come sit by me, don't say a word
 Oh, can it be that I am slain?

Quick, Magdalena, take my gun
 Look up in the hills, that flash of light.
 Aim well my little one
 We may not make it through the night.

No llores, mi querida
 Dios nos vigila
 Soon the horse will take us to Durango.
 Agarrame, mi vida
 Soon the desert will be gone
 Soon you will be dancing the fandango.

"C/b" (or just /b when following a C) is shorthand for x20010 in the descending bass figure:

C x32010
 C/b x20010
 Am x02210
 G 320003

It is not obvious which chord ends the lines 7 and 9. I've chosen the C/b, since it matches both the b of the vocal and the c of the violin, but both a plain C, G or even D7 are playable.

 From Black Diamond Bay.

As the mornin' light breaks open, the Greek comes down
 And he asks for a rope and a pen that will write.
 "Pardon, monsieur," the desk clerk says,
 Carefully removes his fez,
 "Am I hearin' you right?"
 And as the yellow fog is liftin'
 The Greek is quickly headin' for the second floor.
 She passes him on the spiral staircase
 Thinkin' he's the Soviet Ambassador,
 She starts to speak, but he walks away
 As the storm clouds rise and the palm branches sway
 On Black Diamond Bay.

A soldier sits beneath the fan
Doin' business with a tiny man who sells him a ring.
Lightning strikes, the lights blow out.
The desk clerk wakes and begins to shout,
"Can you see anything?"
Then the Greek appears on the second floor
In his bare feet with a rope around his neck,
While a loser in the gambling room lights up a candle,
Says, "Open up another deck."
But the dealer says, "Attendez-vous, s'il vous plait,"
As the rain beats down and the cranes fly away
From Black Diamond Bay.

The desk clerk heard the woman laugh
As he looked around the aftermath and the soldier got tough.
He tried to grab the woman's hand,
Said, "Here's a ring, it cost a grand."
She said, "That ain't enough."
Then she ran upstairs to pack her bags
While a horse-drawn taxi waited at the curb.
She passed the door that the Greek had locked,
Where a handwritten sign read, "Do Not Disturb."
She knocked upon it anyway
As the sun went down and the music did play
On Black Diamond Bay.

"I've got to talk to someone quick!"
But the Greek said, "Go away," and he kicked the chair to the floor.
He hung there from the chandelier.
She cried, "Help, there's danger near Please open up the door!"
Then the volcano erupted
And the lava flowed down from the mountain high above.
The soldier and the tiny man were crouched in the corner
Thinking of forbidden love.
But the desk clerk said, "It happens every day,"
As the stars fell down and the fields burned away
On Black Diamond Bay.

As the island slowly sank
The loser finally broke the bank in the gambling room.
The dealer said, "It's too late now.
You can take your money, but I don't know how You'll spend it in the tomb."
The tiny man bit the soldier's ear
As the floor caved in and the boiler in the basement blew,
While she's out on the balcony, where a stranger tells her,
"My darling, je vous aime beaucoup."
She sheds a tear and then begins to pray
As the fire burns on and the smoke drifts away
From Black Diamond Bay.

I was sittin' home alone one night in L.A.,
Watchin' old Cronkite on the seven o'clock news.
It seems there was an earthquake that Left nothin' but a Panama hat

And a pair of old Greek shoes.
Didn't seem like much was happenin',
So I turned it off and went to grab another beer.
Seems like every time you turn around
There's another hard-luck story that you're gonna hear
And there's really nothin' anyone can say
And I never did plan to go anyway
To Black Diamond Bay.

So easy to look at, so hard to define.

I can still see them playin' with their pails in the sand,
They run to the water their buckets to fill.
I can still see the shells fallin' out of their hands
As they follow each other back up the hill.

Sara, Sara,
Sweet virgin angel, sweet love of my life,
Sara, Sara,
Radiant jewel, mystical wife.

Sleepin' in the woods by a fire in the night,
Drinkin' white rum in a Portugal bar,
Them playin' leapfrog and hearin' about Snow White,
You in the marketplace in Savanna-la-Mar. *)

Sara, Sara,
It's all so clear, I could never forget,
Sara, Sara,
Lovin' you is the one thing I'll never regret.

I can still hear the sounds of those Methodist bells,
I'd taken the cure and had just gotten through,
Stayin' up for days in the Chelsea Hotel,
Writin' "Sad-Eyed Lady of the Lowlands" for you.

Sara, Sara,
Wherever we travel we're never apart.
Sara, oh Sara,
Beautiful lady, so dear to my heart.

How did I meet you? I don't know.
A messenger sent me in a tropical storm.
You were there in the winter, moonlight on the snow
And on Lily Pond Lane when the weather was warm. **)

Sara, oh Sara,
Scorpio Sphinx in a calico dress,
Sara, Sara,
You must forgive me my unworthiness.

Now the beach is deserted except for some kelp
And a piece of an old ship that lies on the shore.
You always responded when I needed your help,
You gave me a map and a key to your door.

Sara, oh Sara,
Glamorous nymph with an arrow and bow,
Sara, oh Sara,
Don't ever leave me, don't ever go.

Lyric changes in the Live 1975 version:

*) Sleeping in the woods by a fire in the night
where you fought for my soul and went up against the odds
I was too young to know you were doing it right and you did it with strength that belonged to the gods.

The order of the two following refrains is reversed.

) This verse is left out from the Live 1975 version

Changing of the Guards

Words and music Bob Dylan
Released on Street Legal (1978)
Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Capo 1st fret (sounding key A \flat major). During the 1978 tour it was usually (always?) played in G.

G D Em
Sixteen years,
Am C G D Em
Sixteen banners united over the fields
C D
Where the good shepherd grieves.
Em Am C G D
Desperate men, desperate women divided,
Em C D G
Spreading their wings 'neath the falling leaves.

Fortune calls.
I stepped forth from the shadows, to the marketplace,
Merchants and thieves, hungry for power, my last deal gone down.
She's smelling sweet like the meadows where she was born,
On midsummer's eve, near the tower.

G . D . C . . . | G . D . C . . . |
G . D . C . . D | G . Gsus4 . G .

The cold-blooded moon.
The captain waits above the celebration
Sending his thoughts to a beloved maid
Whose ebony face is beyond communication.
The captain is down but still believing that his love will be repaid.

They shaved her head.
She was torn between Jupiter and Apollo.
A messenger arrived with a black nightingale.
I seen her on the stairs and I couldn't help but follow,
Follow her down past the fountain where they lifted her veil.

I stumbled to my feet.
I rode past destruction in the ditches
With the stitches still mending 'neath a heart-shaped tattoo.
Renegade priests and treacherous young witches
Were handing out the flowers that I'd given to you.

The palace of mirrors
Where dog soldiers are reflected,
The endless road and the wailing of chimes,
The empty rooms where her memory is protected,
Where the angels' voices whisper to the souls of previous times.

She wakes him up
Forty-eight hours later, the sun is breaking
Near broken chains, mountain laurel and rolling rocks.

She's begging to know what measures he now will be taking.
He's pulling her down and she's clutching on to his long golden locks.

Gentlemen, he said,
I don't need your organization, I've shined your shoes,
I've moved your mountains and marked your cards
But Eden is burning, either brace yourself for elimination
Or else your hearts must have the courage for the changing of the guards.

Peace will come
With tranquility and splendor on the wheels of fire
But will bring us no reward when her false idols fall
And cruel death surrenders with its pale ghost retreating
Between the King and the Queen of Swords.

than it could have hurted her

Sometimes I wonder what's going on with Miss X
Sometimes I wonder what's going on with Miss X
she got such a sweet disposition
I never know what the poor girl's gonna do to me next

I got a new pony, she knows how to fox-trot, lope and pace
Well, I got a new pony, she knows how to fox-trot, lope and pace
She got great big hind legs,
long black shaggy hair hanging in her face

Everybody says you're usin' voodoo, I've seen your feet walk by themselves
Oh well, everybody says you're usin' voodoo, I've seen your feet walk by themselves
Oh, baby, but that god that you been prayin' to gonna give ya back what you're wishin' on someone else

Come over here pony, I, I wanna climb up one time on you
Well, Come over here pony, I wanna climb up one time on you
Well, you're so nasty and you're so bad
But I swear I love you, yes I do

Additional 4th verse in the official lyrics, but not sung on the album:

Well now, it was early in the mornin', I seen your shadow in the door
It was early in the mornin', I seen your shadow in the door
Now, I don't have to ask nobody
I know what you come here for.

No Time to Think

Words and music Bob Dylan

Released on Street Legal (1978)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Capo 1st fret (Original key B \flat major)

The "E/a" chord (x02100) might as well be a mistake by someone in the muddy "Street Legal" sound – but it sounds good...

D A E A
 In death, you face life with a child and a wife
 E/a A D E
 Who sleep-walks through your dreams into walls.
 D A E A
 You're a soldier of mercy, you're cold and you curse,
 E A D E
 "He who cannot be trusted must fall."

D/a A A/e E D/a A A/e E
 Loneliness, tenderness, high society, notoriety.
 D A E A
 You fight for the throne and you travel alone
 D E
 Unknown as you slowly sink
 A Asus4 A
 And there's no time to think.

In the Federal City you been blown and shown pity,
 In secret, for pieces of change. -
 The empress attracts you but oppression distracts you
 And it makes you feel violent and strange.

Memory, ecstasy, tyranny, hypocrisy
 Betrayed by a kiss on a cool night of bliss
 In the valley of the missing link
 And you have no time to think.

Judges will haunt you, the country priestess will want you
 Her worst is better than best.
 I've seen all these decoys through a set of deep turquoise eyes
 And I feel so depressed.

China doll, alcohol, duality, mortality.
 Mercury rules you and destiny fools you
 Like the plague, with a dangerous wink
 And there's no time to think.

Your conscience betrayed you when some tyrant waylaid you
 Where the lion lies down with the lamb.
 I'd have paid off the traitor and killed him much later
 But that's just the way that I am.

Paradise, sacrifice, mortality, reality.
But the magician is quicker and his game
Is much thicker than blood and blacker than ink
And there's no time to think.

Anger and jealousy's all that he sells us,
when 're under his thumb.
Madmen oppose him but your kindness throws him
To survive if you play deaf and dumb.

Equality, liberty, humility, simplicity.
You glance through the mirror and there's eyes staring clear
At the back of your head as you drink
And there's no time to think.

Warlords of sorrow and queens of tomorrow
Will offer their heads for a prayer.
You can't find no salvation, you have no expectations
Anytime, anyplace, anywhere.

Mercury, gravity, nobility, humility.
You know you can't keep her and the water gets deeper
That is leading you onto the brink
But there's no time to think.

You've murdered your vanity, buried your sanity
For pleasure you must now resist.
Lovers obey you but they cannot sway you
They're not even sure you exist.

Socialism, hypnotism, patriotism, materialism.
Fools making laws for the breaking of jaws
And the sound of the keys as they clink
But there's no time to think.

The bridge that you travel on goes to the Babylon girl
With the rose in her hair.
Starlight in the East and you're finally released
You're stranded but with nothing to share.

Loyalty, unity, epitome, rigidity.
You turn around for one real last glimpse of Camille
'Neath the moon shinin' bloody and pink
And there's no time to think.

Bullets can harm you and death can disarm you
But no, you will not be deceived.
Stripped of all virtue as you crawl through the dirt,
You can give but you cannot receive.

No time to choose when the truth must die,
No time to lose or say goodbye,
No time to prepare for the victim that's there,
No time to suffer or blink
And no time to think.

If you're looking for assistance, babe,
Or if you just want some company
Or if you just want a friend you can talk to,
Honey, come and see about me.

Baby, please stop crying, stop crying, stop crying
Baby, please stop crying, stop crying, stop crying
Baby, please stop crying.
You know, I know, the sun will always shine
So baby, please stop crying 'cause it's tearing up my mind.

You been hurt so many times
And I know what you're thinking of.
Well, I don't have to be no doctor, babe,
To see that you're madly in love.

Baby, please stop crying, stop crying, stop crying
Baby, please stop crying, stop crying, stop crying
Baby, please stop crying.
You know, I know, the sun will always shine
So baby, please stop crying 'cause it's tearing up my mind.

Is Your Love in Vain?

Words and music Bob Dylan

Released on Street Legal (1978) and in a live version on At Budokan (1978)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Capo 2nd fret (sounding key D major)

G6 = 320000

One verse instrumental intro

C /b Am C/g
 Do you love me,
 F G Gsus4 G
 or are you just extending goodwill?
 C /b Am C/g
 Do you need me half as bad as you say,
 F G C/g G
 or are you just feeling guilt?
 Am G(6) F C
 I've been burned before and I know the score
 F G Gsus4 G
 So you won't hear me complain.
 C /b Am C/g
 Will I be able to count on you
 F G C Csus4 C
 Or is your love in vain?

Are you so fast that you cannot see that I must have solitude?
 When I am in the darkness,
 why do you intrude?
 Do you know my world, do you know my kind
 Or must I explain?
 Will you let me be myself
 Or is your love in vain?

F G C /b Am
 Well I've been to the mountain and I've been in the wind,
 F G C
 I've been in and out of happiness.
 F G C /b Am
 I have dined with kings, I've been offered wings
 F G
 And I've never been too impressed.

All right, I'll take a chance,
 I will fall in love with you
 If I'm a fool you can have the night,
 you can have the morning too.
 Can you cook and sew, make flowers grow,
 Do you understand my pain?
 Are you willing to risk it all
 Or is your love in vain?

Seems like I been down this way before.

Dm Am
Is there any truth in that, señor?

Señor, señor, do you know where she is hidin'?
How long are we gonna be ridin'?
How long must I keep my eyes glued to the door?
Will there be any comfort there, señor?

C Em
There's a wicked wind still blowin' on that upper deck,
F Am
There's an iron cross still hanging down from around her neck.
C Em
There's a marchin' band still playin' in that vacant lot
F Am
Where she held me in her arms one time and said, "Forget me not."

Señor, señor, I can see that painted wagon, smell the tail of the dragon.
Can't stand the suspense anymore.
Can you tell me who to contact here, señor?

Well, the last thing I remember before I stripped and kneeled
Was that trainload of fools bogged down in a magnetic field.
A gypsy with a broken flag and a flashing ring
He said: "Son, this ain't a dream no more, it's the real thing."

Señor, señor, you know their hearts are as hard as leather.
Well, give me a minute, let me get it together.
I just gotta pick myself up off the floor.
I'm ready when you are, señor.

Señor, señor, let's overturn these tables,
Disconnect these cables.
This place don't make sense to me no more.
Can you tell me what we're waiting for, señor?

Maybe when we both get sober
      G  D          G  D
You'll understand I'm only a man
      G          D
Doin' the best that I can.

This situation can only get rougher.
 Why should we needlessly suffer?
 Let's call it a day, go our own different ways
 Before we decay.

  A          D          G          D
  You don't have to be afraid of looking into my face,
  A          D          G          A
  We've done nothing to each other time will not erase.

I feel displaced, I got a low-down feeling
 You been two-faced, you been double-dealing.
 I took a chance, got caught in the trance
 Of a downhill dance.

Oh, child, why you wanna hurt me?
I'm exiled, you can't convert me.
I'm lost in the haze of your delicate ways
With both eyes glazed.

You don't have to yearn for love, you don't have to be alone,
Somewheres in this universe there's a place that you can call home.

I guess I'll be leaving tomorrow
If I have to beg, steal or borrow.
It'd be great to cross paths in a day and a half
Look at each other and laugh.

But I don't think it's liable to happen
Like the sound of one hand clappin'.
The vows that we kept are now broken and swept
'Neath the bed where we slept.

Don't think of me and fantasize on what we've never had,
Be grateful for what we've shared together and be glad.

[Instrumental]

Why should we go on watching each other through a telescope?
Eventually we'll hang ourselves on all this tangled rope.

Oh, babe, time for a new transition
I wish I was a magician.
I would wave a wand and tie back the bond
That we've both gone beyond.

 There's a long-distance train rolling through the rain,
 C F
 tears on the letter I write.
 C F
 There's a woman I long to touch and I'm missing her so much
 C F
 but she's drifting like a satellite.
 C F
 There's a neon light ablaze in this green smoky haze,
 C F
 laughter down on Elizabeth Street
 C F
 And a lonesome bell tone in that valley of stone
 C F
 where she bathed in a stream of pure heat.

Her father would emphasize you got to be more than street-wise
 but he practiced what he preached from the heart.
 A full-blooded Cherokee, he predicted to me
 the time and the place that we'd part.

G C F
 There's a baby in the arms of a woman in a rage
 G C F
 And a longtime golden-haired stripper onstage
 F Em Dm C
 And she winds back the clock and she turns back the page
 Dm G
 Of a book that nobody can write.
 Oh, where are you tonight?

The truth was obscure, too profound and too pure,
 to live it you have to explode.
 In that last hour of need, we entirely agreed,
 sacrifice was the code of the road.
 I left town at dawn, with Marcel and St. John, strong men belittled by doubt.
 I couldn't tell her what my private thoughts were but she had some way of finding them out.
 He took dead-center aim but he missed just the same,
 she was waiting, putting flowers on the shelf.
 She could feel my despair as I climbed up her hair and discovered her invisible self.

There's a lion in the road, there's a demon escaped,
There's a million dreams gone, there's a landscape being raped,
As her beauty fades and I watch her undrape,
I won't, but then again, maybe I might.
Oh, if I could just find you tonight.

I fought with my twin, that enemy within,
'til both of us fell by the way.
Horseplay and disease is killing me by degrees
while the law looks the other way.
Your partners in crime hit me up for nickels and dimes,
the guy you were lovin' couldn't stay clean.
It felt outa place, my foot in his face,
but he should-a stayed where his money was green.
I bit into the root of forbidden fruit
with the juice running down my leg.
Then I dealt with your boss, who'd never known about loss and who always was too proud to beg.
There's a white diamond gloom on the dark side of this room and a pathway that leads up to the stars.
If you don't believe there's a price for this sweet paradise,
remind me to show you the scars.

There's a new day at dawn and I've finally arrived.
If I'm there in the morning, baby, you'll know I've survived.
I can't believe it, I can't believe I'm alive,
But without you it just doesn't seem right.
Oh, where are you tonight?

The A should be treated “bluesily”, which means that Am sounds just as good.

A

You may be an ambassador to England or France,

You may like to gamble, you might like to dance,

You may be the heavyweight champion of the world,

You may be a socialite with a long string of pearls

D

But you're gonna have to serve somebody, yes indeed

A

You're gonna have to serve somebody,

E

D7

Well, it may be the devil or it may be the Lord

A

But you're gonna have to serve somebody.

You might be a rock 'n' roll addict prancing on the stage,

You might have drugs at your command, women in a cage,

You may be a business man or some high degree thief,

They may call you Doctor or they may call you Chief

You may be a state trooper, you might be a young Turk,

You may be the head of some big TV network,

You may be rich or poor, you may be blind or lame,

You may be living in another country under another name

You may be a construction worker working on a home,

You may be living in a mansion or you might live in a dome,

You might own guns and you might even own tanks,

You might be somebody's landlord, you might even own banks

You may be a preacher with your spiritual pride,

You may be a city councilman taking bribes on the side,

You may be workin' in a barbershop, you may know how to cut hair,

You may be somebody's mistress, may be somebody's heir

Might like to wear cotton, might like to wear silk,

Might like to drink whiskey, might like to drink milk,

You might like to eat caviar, you might like to eat bread,

You may be sleeping on the floor, sleeping in a king-sized bed

You may call me Terry, you may call me Timmy,

You may call me Bobby, you may call me Zimmy,

You may call me R. J., you may call me Ray,

You may call me anything but no matter what you say

Stirling Castle, July 13 2001

For the summer tour (it was played like this at least in Gothenburg some weeks before Stirling) he changed the arrangement of the chorus, dragging it out, much in the same way as he changed Trying to get to heaven in 2000, thus slowing down the harmonic rhythm: instead of beginning the "It might be the devil..." bit on the dominant (i.e. the chord on the fifth step of the scale) and quickly descending to the key note, he instead builds up an ascent, that never reaches higher than the fourth step (the subdominant). Quite nice, actually.

The lyrics keep changing all the time, of course; the following is just a suggestion. I may gather together some other lyric variations from throughout the years one of these days.

G

Might be an ambassador to England or France,

Might like to gamble, might like to dance,

Might be the heavyweight champion of the world,

May be a socialite with a long string of pearls

You gotta serve somebody

G

serve somebody,

G

Might be the devil

G7/b

might be the Lord

C

Yeeeah

F

But you

G

gotta serve somebody.

Might be a city councilman taking bribes on the side, somebody's husband, somebody's bride

May be rich or poor, may be blind or lame

Living in another country, under another name

You gotta serve somebody

serve somebody

Might be the devil

Might be the lord

But you, yeah,

but you, but you gotta serve somebody.

Might own guns, might even own tanks

Might believe in [luxury or] somebody's bank

Maybe sleeping on the highway, sleeping in the road

Walking down the highbrow, or you're carrying a heavy load

Might be [...], walkin' down the floor
Might be headin' for the moon, walking out the door.
Maybe living in a [dream], sleepin' in a feather bed
Might feel like you're living, might even feel like a living dead.

Other lyric variations

Submitted by Heinrich Küttler

Knoxville, February 5, 1980,
Los Angeles (22nd Grammy Award), February 22, 1980,
Toronto, April 20, 1980:

... might have drugs in your pocket, ...

May like to drink whiskey, might like to blow smoke,
You may have money-power or you may be broke,
You may think you're living, you may think you're dead,
Maybe sleeping on nails, may be sleeping in a feather bed

New Orleans, November 10, 1981:

You might be laid upon [tie may?], sleeping on the train
Maybe [hold it next] just all [but in] the rain
You may be rich or poor, you may be blind or lame,
May be living in another country under another name

Maybe you're a [huckster], maybe hold [far way?]
Maybe [sleeping on dead man], sleeping every day
Maybe think you're living, maybe even think you're dead,
Maybe sleeping on nails, sleeping in a feather bed

Houston, November 12, 1981:

(french introduction)

You might be rocking on [nails bann], sleeping in the wind,
Maybe you're upon the [grands stand], tapping on good gin,
You may be rich or poor, you may be blind or lame,
You may living in another country under another name

Still gonna serve somebody
Yes indeed, one of these [days], serve somebody,
It might be the devil, it might be the Lord
But you gonna serve somebody.

Maybe high on [nail], rocking in the breeze
Maybe [stuck/stole] a high time on your knees
Maybe think you're living, maybe even think you're dead,
Maybe sleeping on nails, sleeping in a feather bed

Still gonna serve somebody
Well, if you not you will be serve[d?] somebody
It might be the devil, it might be the Lord
But you gonna serve somebody

Portsmouth, September 24, 2000:

They might call you Bono, they might call you Sting,
They might call you [Jose], might call you anything,
You might be rich or poor, may be blind or lame
Living in another country, under another name

Might [go under], you might own [tanks]
May be living by the [wooden fakes ??? ;)]
They might call you even, might say you're dead
May be sleeping on nails, sleepin' in a feather bed

I'm a little too blind to see.

My so-called friends have fallen under a spell.
They look me squarely in the eye and they say, "Well, all is well."
Can they imagine the darkness that will fall from on high
When men will beg God to kill them and they won't be able to die?

Sister, let me tell you about a vision I saw.
You were drawing water for your husband, you were suffering under the law.
You were telling him about Buddha, you were telling him about Mohammed in one breath.
You never mentioned one time the Man who came and died a criminal's death.

Shine your light, shine your light on me
Shine your light, shine your light on me
Shine your light, shine your light on me
Ya know I just couldn't make it by myself.
I'm a little too blind to see.

Precious angel, you believe me when I say
What God has given to us no man can take away.
We are covered in blood, girl, you know both our forefathers were slaves.
Let us hope they've found mercy in their bone-filled graves.

You're the queen of my flesh, girl, you're my woman, you're my delight,
You're the lamp of my soul, girl, and you torch up the night.
But there's violence in the eyes, girl, so let us not be enticed
On the way out of Egypt, through Ethiopia, to the judgment hall of Christ.

Shine your light, shine your light on me
Shine your light, shine your light on me
Shine your light, shine your light on me
Ya know I just couldn't make it by myself.
I'm a little too blind to see.

Shine your light, shine your light on me

There's a slow, slow train comin' up around the bend.
I had a woman down in Alabama,
She was a backwoods girl, but she sure was realistic,

You could die down here, be just another accident statistic."
There's a slow, slow train comin' up around the bend.
All that foreign oil controlling American soil,
Look around you, it's just bound to make you embarrassed.
Sheiks walkin' around like kings, wearing fancy jewels and nose rings,
Deciding America's future from Amsterdam and to Paris
And there's a slow, slow train comin' up around the bend.
Man's ego is inflated, his laws are outdated, they don't apply no more,
You can't rely no more to be standin' around waitin'
In the home of the brave, Jefferson turnin' over in his grave,
Fools glorifying themselves, trying to manipulate Satan
And there's a slow, slow train comin' up around the bend.
Big-time negotiators, false healers and woman haters,
Masters of the bluff and masters of the proposition

But the enemy I see wears a cloak of decency,
All non-believers and men stealers talkin' in the name of religion
And there's a slow, slow train comin' up around the bend.

People starving and thirsting, grain elevators are bursting
Oh, you know it costs more to store the food than it do to give it.
They say lose your inhibitions, follow your own ambitions,
They talk about a life of brotherly love, show me someone who knows how to live it.
There's a slow, slow train comin' up around the bend.

Well, my baby went to Illinois with some bad-talkin' boy she could destroy
A real suicide case, but there was nothin' I could do to stop it,
I don't care about economy, I don't care about astronomy
But it sure do bother me to see my loved ones turning into puppets,
There's a slow, slow train comin' up around the bend.

He said, "He who is not for Me is against Me,"
Just so you know where He's coming from.

There's a kingdom called Heaven,
A place where there is no pain of birth.
There's a kingdom called Heaven,
A place where there is no pain of birth.
Well the Lord created it, mister,
About the same time He made the earth.

MAVIS STAPLES: Hey, hey! Hey there, Bobby!

BOB: Hey, it's Mavis Staples!

MAVIS: Hey fellows! What's Up? Aw, it's good to see all of you.

My goodness, Bobby you got a nice place here!

BOB: Well, welcome to California, Mavis!

MAVIS: Thank ya much! Whoa, you got a nice view!

BOB: Yeeah, it is. You can sit on this porch, and look right straight into Ha-wa-ii.

MAVIS: Yeah, I was over in them foothills.

BOB: (perplexed) Why?

MAVIS: I was looking for me some fuel. I'm kind of hungry now.

Don't you got anything to eat?

BOB: Well I'm sure we do. Momma, we have anything to eat?

WOMAN'S VOICE: Sure, we got plenty of chicken out there in the yard.

BOB: Well we're gonna go knock a few of 'em off and fry 'em up.

BOB: Well, Mavis, I've had the blues.

MAVIS: Aw Bobby, don't tell me you got the blues!

BOB: Uh hum I've been up all night laying in bed, had insomnia, reading Snoozeweek.

MAVIS: Oh, Snoozeweek! That ain't gonna get rid of no blues.

BOB: Umh umh

MAVIS: We gotta do some singing, let's do some singing

BOB: Aw ... yeah, let's do that.

MAVIS: Sing about it, you know.

) The end sounds like: "... like you"

Don't wanna wink at nobody, don't wanna be winked at,
Don't wanna be used by nobody for a doormat.
Don't wanna confuse nobody, don't wanna be confused,
Don't wanna amuse nobody, don't wanna be amused.

But if you do right to me, baby,
I'll do right to you, too.
Ya got to do unto others
Like you'd have them, like you'd have them, do unto you.

Don't wanna betray nobody, don't wanna be betrayed,
Don't wanna play with nobody, don't wanna be waylaid.
Don't wanna miss nobody, don't wanna be missed,
Don't put my faith in nobody, not even a scientist.

But if you do right to me, baby,
I'll do right to you, too.
Ya got to do unto others
Like you'd have them, like you'd have them, do unto you.

Can I cast it aside, all this loyalty and this pride?
Will I ever learn that there'll be no peace, that the war won't cease
Until He returns?

Surrender your crown on this blood-stained ground, take off your mask,
He sees your deeds, He knows your needs even before you ask.
How long can you falsify and deny what is real?
How long can you hate yourself for the weakness you conceal?
Of every earthly plan that be known to man, He is unconcerned,
He's got plans of His own to set up His throne
When He returns.

Introductory Remarks

Eyolf Østrem

While there is general agreement that no matter what one thinks about the lyrics on Slow Train Coming, musically it is one of Dylan's strongest, the general verdict is not equally lenient with Saved. With its ghastly cover — rivalled in tackiness only by Shot of Love — and its unequivocal title, it has proved to be an even bitterer pill to swallow than the precursor.

Which is understandable, but not quite fair. Saved is an excellent album, provided one can endure the obnoxious born-again evangelization. It may be a far cry from Slow Train Coming in the areas of polish and commercial appeal, but it has an energy, a punch, and a new approach to communication and message that is quite unique in Dylan's production, and, as such, quite refreshing.

It should be said, however, that this more positive verdict is only partly true if one refers to the published album. Saved is unique in connection with Dylan in consisting only/mostly of songs that had already been tried out on stage for a long time before they were committed to vinyl. There is critical and historiographical consensus that the album suffered from this: by the time of the sessions for the record, the band (the same band that had played the songs on tour — another Dylan rarity) was already tired, and the spirit of the live renditions, which even the staunchest critics could not deny, did not translate well into a studio production.

There may be something true in this. Many of the songs are exuberant numbers of praise and thanksgiving, which come better into its own from a stage, where extatically jubilant confession seems more natural than on a record.

This applies to the title track, a born-again statement if there ever was one, slightly too over-eager to be taken quite seriously (unless one shares the sentiment), perhaps, but a powerful and driving gospel rock number all the same, which I don't mind listening to.

The same could be said about the brother-in-arms, "Solid Rock" (or, as the full title goes when it is presented during the shows: "Hanging On To A Solid Rock Made Before The Foundation Of The World"); and, to an even higher degree, to "Pressing On" og "Are You Ready?" — the intensity that grows out of the slow build-up of these two songs during the live concerts can make even the hardest of heart jump to his feet and rejoice: "Yes! I'm ready! Take me, Bob! Take me with you!", but that is mostly lost in the album version.

It probably couldn't be any other way. None of the songs I've mentioned are among his strongest — from the gospel period or any other — but their effect depends on presence: the physical presence of the person and the band producing a sound of wall to bang one's head against, and the temporal presence, exploiting the contrast between the indefiniteness of not knowing where this is going to end, and the inevitability of the process set in motion by the first "on-an-don-an-don-an-doon". In the absence that the record medium necessarily entails, some of that is naturally lost. But some remains (and five bonus points for trying).

Besides, it doesn't matter: there are strong songs left that do make the transition from concert stage to recording studio. Partly, perhaps, because they are stronger songs altogether, but mainly because they don't depend on the live situation to the same extent.

"In The Garden" is easily Dylan's most harmonically complex song, and although it shares some traits with the likes of "Saved", such as the escalating intensity and the lyric repetitiveness, it depends more on the harmonic meandering to hold our attention.

Both "Covenant Woman" and "Saving Grace" are harmonically interesting, although not as wild as "In the Garden". They are also touching, introspective reflections on the role of faith and salvation in the trials and tribulations of everyday life (at least that's what a theologian might say about them). Especially "Covenant Woman" stands out in this respect, in a way which transcends the religious sphere. Lines like:

He must have loved me so much to send me someone as fine as you.

and

work well with or without God in the equation.

This leaves the two real gems. "What Can I Do For You" gives us Dylan's best harmonica solos ever — for once captured better on an official album than in any live rendition, at least among the ones I've heard. It is inventive, it is raw, and it is fragile, all at the same time. (It may be an inappropriate kind of metaphor for this particular album, but there's good sex in those two solos.) The sound of the mix in general strikes me as a bit on the hard side, but the harp sound is unsurpassed.

And last but not least, and the opener, "A Satisfied Mind", which in my book is one of Dylan's crowning achievements as a singer. It's not powerful, it's not showy, at times he breaks like a little girl, but there is an intimacy in the delivery which gives the message credibility and urgency. The interaction with the backing singers is exquisite all the way through, and although my mental image of the song is that of calm deliberation, there is actually an intensity which just grows as the song progresses. There happens remarkably much in a little less than two minutes.

Have I made my point clear enough? Damn, this is one hell of an album. If you're a godless heathen, don't let the cover scare you away from this album. And if you're a true believer, don't let your benevolence and agreement prevent the album from grabbing hold of you in ways and places you might not have expected.

Album version

This is played very loosely. The chords used are all in the 7th position, so either use a capo on the 7th fret with the chords E, A/e and B11, or play without a capo with the barre chords B, E/b and F#11. Since the outcome is the same, I thought I might as well use the capoed chords in the tab.

The A/e could be an Esus4 as well (022200). When the bass comes in towards the end of the first verse, it plays E and F# (i.e. A and B relative to the capo), which fits well with Esus4 also.

The second line is played without the first A/e in verses 2 and 3.

Live version (Philadelphia, Nov 9, 1999)

Add a [C Csus4 C] or a [C Csus4 C Csus2 C] flourish at the end of each line and a Gsus4 or C/g for the Gs at midline.

Note that the first line in the first verse is sung completely different from the rest of the lines. Probably to fool the audience into thinking that he was going to sing Blowin' in the wind...

Csus4 x33010
C x32010
Csus2 x30010
Gsus4 320013

Saved

Words and music Bob Dylan

Released on Saved (1980)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem (it wasn't all that hard, really...)

B

I was blinded by the devil,
 Born already ruined,
 Stone-cold dead
 As I stepped out of the womb.
 By His grace I have been touched,
 By His word I have been healed,
 By His hand I've been delivered,
 By His spirit I've been sealed.

I've been saved

By the blood of the lamb,

Saved

By the blood of the lamb,

Saved, (saved)

And I'm so glad

Yes, I'm so glad,

B

Well, I'm so glad,

so glad,

F#

(F#maj7 F#7)

I want to thank You, Lord,

E

I want to thank You, Lord,

B

I want to thank You, Lord.

By His truth I can be upright,
 By His strength I do endure,
 By His power I've been lifted,
 In His love I am secure.
 He bought me with a price,

Freed me from the pit,
Full of emptiness and wrath
And the fire that burns in it.

I've been saved...

Nobody to rescue me,
Nobody would dare,
I was going down for the last time,
But by His mercy I've been spared.
Not by works,
But by faith in Him who called,
For so long I've been hindered,
For so long I've been stalled.

And to you, always, so grateful
I will forever be.

Covenant woman, intimate little girl
Who knows those most secret things of me that are hidden from the world.
You know we are strangers in a land we're passing through.
I'll always be right by your side, I've got a covenant too.

And I just got to tell you
I do intend
To stay closer than any friend.
I just got to thank you
Once again
For making your prayers known
Unto heaven for me
And to you, always, so grateful
I will forever be.

What Can I Do For You?

Capo 3rd fret (original key Eb major).

I have for some reason transcribed the final harp solo. You can find it here. (Eb harp, straight. The transcription is in C major). It is far from optimized for screen viewing, not at all, but you can save the image and print it out if/when you want to recreate Dylan's most glorious moment as a harpist. [There's also a midi file, not to listen to, but to insert into the program "Harping" (if you use Windows), which you can download from <http://www.freeyellow.com/members6/harping/>.

Because he sinned I got no choice, it run in my vein.

Additional third verse sung November 4, 1979 :

You know the adversary never sleeps - he is a roaring beast.
He always comes at the time that you expect him least.
And you know that he's responsible for death and pain and loss,
But we know we'll overcome him by the victory at the cross.

When destruction cometh swiftly

And there's no time to say a fare-thee-well,

Have you decided whether you want to be

In heaven or in hell?

Are you ready? Are you ready?

Have you got some unfinished business?

Is there something holding you back?

Are you thinking for yourself

Or are you following the pack?

Are you ready for the judgment?

Are you ready for that terrible swift sword?

Are you ready for Armageddon?

Are you ready for the day of the Lord?

(B)

I need (I need, I need) a shot of love,
I need (I need, I need) a shot of love.

B

Don't need a shot of heroin to kill my disease,
Don't need a shot of turpentine, only bring me to my knees,
Don't need a shot of codeine to help me to repent,

Don't need a shot of whiskey, help me be president.

E D B
I need a shot of love,
E D B
I need a shot of love.

Doctor, can you hear me? I need some Medicaid.
I seen the kingdoms of the world and it's makin' me feel afraid.
What I got ain't painful, it's just bound to kill me dead
Like the men that followed Jesus when they put a price upon His head.
I need a shot of love,
I need a shot of love.

I don't need no alibi when I'm spending time with you.
I've heard all of them rumors and you have heard 'em too.
Don't show me no picture show or give me no book to read,
It don't satisfy the hurt inside nor the habit that it feeds.
I need a shot of love,
I need a shot of love.

Why would I want to take your life?
You've only murdered my father, raped his wife,
Tattooed my babies with a poison pen,
Mocked my God, humiliated my friends.
I need a shot of love,
I need a shot of love.

Don't wanna be with nobody tonight
Veronica not around nowhere, Mavis just ain't right.
There's a man that hates me and he's swift, smooth and near,
Am I supposed to set back and wait until he's here?
I need a shot of love,
I need a shot of love.

What makes the wind wanna blow tonight?
Don't even feel like crossing the street and my car ain't actin' right.
Called home, everybody seemed to have moved away.
My conscience is beginning to bother me today.

I need a shot of love,
I need a shot of love.

B
I need a shot of love, I need a shot of love.
If you're a doctor, I need a shot of love.

Heart of Mine

Words and music Bob Dylan

Released on Shot of Love (1981) and in a live version on Biograph (1985)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

This is a “piano song”, which means that it translates fairly badly to an unaccompanied guitar. The easiest way to make the nice sixth–maj seventh turns sound well, is to use a capo on the second fret and play D – D6 – Dmaj7 – D6. The same turn can be played in B major as well, but anyone who is able to play that, will also be able to find the chords himself, so I didn’t bother to write it out. . .

It should be mentioned also that it suits open D/E tuning very well, with the chords (labelled not by how they sound, but which chords they correspond to in the tab):

E 555555
E6 575555
Ema₇ 595555
B 000000
E/b 020100
B/f# 797877
F# 777777

Intro: B

E B

You can play with fire but you’ll get the bill
Don’t let her know
E/b B E/b B E/b B
Don’t let her know that you love her.

You got no reason to wander, you got no reason to roam.
Don’t let her see
Don’t let her see that you need her.
Don’t put yourself over the line
Heart of mine.

Heart of mine go back where you been,
It’ll only be trouble for you if you let her in.
Don’t let her hear you want her.
Don’t let her know she’s so fine Heart of mine.

Heart of mine you know that she’ll never be true,
She’ll only give to others the love that she’s gotten from you.
Don’t let her know
Don’t let her know where you’re going.
Don’t untie the ties that bind

Heart of mine.

Heart of mine so malicious and so full of guile,
 Give you an inch and you'll take a mile.
 Don't let yourself fall
 Don't let yourself stumble.
 If you can't do the time, don't do the crime
 Heart of mine.

Chords with capo on 2nd fret:

 Dmaj7 x00222
 D/a x0423(2)
 A x0222(0) (half-barre)

Property of Jesus

Words and music Bob Dylan
Released on Shot of Love (1981)
Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

The song can of course be played with a capo on the 1st fret (chords A, F♯, E, D) or on the 3rd fret (G, Em, D, C)

Recurrent riff:

Bb

Go ahead and talk about him because he makes you doubt,

Because he has denied himself the things that you can't live without.

Laugh at him behind his back just like the others do,

Remind him of what he used to be when he comes walkin' through.

          Gm      F      Eb
He's the property of Jesus
          Gm      F      Eb
Resent him to the bone
          Gm      F      Eb
You got something better
                          Bb
You've got a heart of stone

Stop your conversation when he passes on the street,
Hope he falls upon himself, oh, won't that be sweet
Because he can't be exploited by superstition anymore
Because he can't be bribed or bought by the things that you adore.

He's the property of Jesus
Resent him to the bone
You got something better
You've got a heart of stone

When the whip that's a-keeping you in line doesn't make him jump,
Say he's hard-of-hearin', say that he's a chump.
Say he's out of step with reality as you try to test his nerve
Because he doesn't pay tribute to that king that you serve.

He's the property of Jesus
Resent him to the bone
You got something better
You've got a heart of stone

Say that he's a loser 'cause he got no common sense
Because he don't increase his worth at someone else's expense.
Because he's not afraid of trying, say he's got no style,
'Cause he doesn't tell you jokes or fairy tales, say he's failed to make you smile.

He's the property of Jesus
Resent him to the bone
You got something better
You've got a heart of stone

You can laugh at salvation, you can play Olympic games,
You think that when you rest at last you'll go back from where you came.
But you've picked up quite a story and you've changed since the womb.
What happened to the real you, you've been captured but by whom?

He's the property of Jesus
Resent him to the bone
You got something better
You've got a heart of stone

Lenny Bruce is gone but his spirit's livin' on and on.

Maybe he had some problems, maybe some things that he couldn't work out
But he sure was funny and he sure told the truth and he knew what he was talkin' about. Never robbed any churches nor cut off any babies' heads,
He just took the folks in high places and he shined a light in their beds.
He's on some other shore, he didn't wanna live anymore.

Lenny Bruce is dead but he didn't commit any crime
He just had the insight to rip off the lid before its time.
I rode with him in a taxi once, only for a mile and a half,
Seemed like it took a couple of months.
Lenny Bruce moved on and like the ones that killed him, gone.

They said that he was sick 'cause he didn't play by the rules
He just showed the wise men of his day to be nothing more than fools.
They stamped him and they labeled him like they do with pants and shirts,
He fought a war on a battlefield where every victory hurts.
Lenny Bruce was bad, he was the brother that you never had.

Watered-Down Love

Words and music Bob Dylan
Released on Shot of Love (1981)
Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

There are two problems with this song concerning how to translate it to a tab for a single guitar. One is the use of a capo or not, the other is what to do with the sustained B \flat (the key note) throughout the verse. It can be played uncapoed, with barre chords, but then the sustained tone will have to go, along with other subtleties that are more easily produced if you play with a capo somewhere. I include two such versions at the end.

The "F(6)" (and correspondingly in the other versions) is not absolutely necessary – it comes out of the mixture of tones.

The chords in the beginning of the verse should be embellished: B \flat - Eb/bb – B \flat (capoed: A – D/a – A and G – C/g – G) and Eb – Ebsus4 – Eb (D – Dsus4 -D; C – Csus4 – C).

B \flat Eb
Love that's pure hopes all things,
B \flat Eb
Believes all things, won't pull no strings,
Eb B \flat /d Cm B \flat
Won't sneak up into your room, tall, dark and handsome,
Eb B \flat /d Cm F(6)
Capture your soul and hold it for ransom.
B \flat Eb B \flat
You don't want a love that's pure
Eb
You wanna drowned love
F11 B \flat
You want a watered-down love

Love that's pure, it don't make no claims,
Intercedes for you 'stead of casting you blame,
Will not deceive you or lead you to transgression,
Won't write it up and make you sign a false confession.
You don't want a love that's pure
You wanna drown love
You want a watered-down love

Love that's pure won't lead you astray,
Won't hold you back, won't mess up your day,
Won't pervert you, corrupt you with stupid wishes,
It don't make you envious, it don't make you suspicious.
You don't want a love that's pure
You wanna drown love
You want a watered-down love

Love that's pure ain't no accident,
Always on time, is always content,
An eternal flame, quietly burning,
Never needs to be proud, restlessly yearning.
You don't want a love that's pure
You wanna drown love

The Groom's Still Waiting at the Altar

Words and music Bob Dylan

Released on Biograph (1985) and on the CD edition of Shot of Love (1981)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Tabbed with a capo in the 1st fret.

The rise at the end of the chorus is actually only single bass tones – not full chords. This is most bothersome for the E, which is neither a minor nor a major chord. Playing it as an Em chord sounds best.

The easiest way to produce the chords and recurring riff on a single guitar is to play it one octave down from where it is on the album:

```

Prayed in the ghetto with my face in the cement,

Heard the last moan of a boxer, seen the massacre of the innocent

Felt around for the light switch, became nauseated.

She was walking down the hallway while the walls deteriorated.

D A
 East of the Jordan, hard as the Rock of Gibraltar,

 I see the burning of the page, Curtain risin' on a new age,
A C D E(m) A
 See the groom still waitin' at the altar.

Try to be pure at heart, they arrest you for robbery,
 Mistake your shyness for aloofness, your shyness for snobbery,
 Got the message this morning, the one that was sent to me
 About the madness of becomin' what one was never meant to be.
 West of the Jordan, east of the Rock of Gibraltar,
 I see the burning of the stage,
 Curtain risin' on a new age,
 See the groom still waitin' at the altar.

Don't know what I can say about Claudette that wouldn't come back to haunt me,
 Finally had to give her up 'bout the time she began to want me.
 But I know God has mercy on them who are slandered and humiliated.
 I'd a-done anything for that woman if she didn't make me feel so obligated.
 West of the Jordan, west of the Rock of Gibraltar,
 I see the burning of the cage,
 Curtain risin' on a new stage,
 See the groom still waitin' at the altar.

Put your hand on my head, baby, do I have a temperature?
I see people who are supposed to know better standin' around like furniture.
There's a wall between you and what you want and you got to leap it,
Tonight you got the power to take it, tomorrow you won't have the power to keep it.
West of the Jordan, east of the Rock of Gibraltar,
I see the burning of the stage, Curtain risin' on a new age,
See the groom still waitin' at the altar.

Cities on fire, phones out of order,
They're killing nuns and soldiers, there's fighting on the border.
What can I say about Claudette? Ain't seen her since January,
She could be respectably married or running a whorehouse in Buenos Aires.
West of the Jordan, west of the Rock of Gibraltar,
I see the burning of the stage,
Curtain risin' on a new age,
See the groom still waitin' at the altar.

Dead Man, Dead Man

Words and music Bob Dylan
Released on Shot of Love (1981)
Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

A true two-chord song! One of his many reggae-influenced songs from this period. The Am could/should be livened up with flourishes in the G-direction, underlining the reggae rhythm – something like:

: . . . :
|-----0-0-----0---|-----
|-----1-1-----1---|-----
|-----2-2-----2---|-----
|-----2-2-----2---|-----
|-----0-0-----0---|-----
|-----3-----|-----

or even better with Am played 577555, when you'll get that high, ringing a on the first string.

Am

Uttering idle words from a reprobate mind,

Clinging to strange promises, dying on the vine,

Never bein' able to separate the good from the bad,

Am

Ooh, I can't stand it, I can't stand it,

It's makin' me feel so sad.

Dead man, dead man,

When will you arise?

E

Cobwebs in your mind,

Am

Dust upon your eyes.

Satan got you by the heel, there's a bird's nest in your hair.

Do you have any faith at all? Do you have any love to share?

The way that you hold your head, cursin' God with every move,

Ooh, I can't stand it, I can't stand it,

What are you tryin' to prove?

Dead man, dead man,

When will you arise?

Cobwebs in your mind,

Dust upon your eyes.

The glamour and the bright lights and the politics of sin,

The ghetto that you build for me is the one you end up in,

The race of the engine that overrules your heart,

Ooh, I can't stand it, I can't stand it,

Pretending that you're so smart.

Dead man, dead man,
When will you arise?
Cobwebs in your mind,
Dust upon your eyes.

What are you tryin' to overpower me with, the doctrine or the gun?
My back is already to the wall, where can I run?
The tuxedo that you're wearin', the flower in your lapel,
Ooh, I can't stand it, I can't stand it,
You wanna take me down to hell.

Dead man, dead man,
When will you arise?
Cobwebs in your mind,
Dust upon your eyes.

In the Summertime

Words and music Bob Dylan
Released on Shot of Love (1981)
Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

A D
I was in your presence for an hour or so
E A
Or was it a day? I truly don't know.
A D
Where the sun never set, where the trees hung low
E A
By that soft and shining sea.
A D
Did you respect me for what I did
E A
Or for what I didn't do, or for keeping it hid?
A D
Did I lose my mind when I tried to get rid
E A
Of everything you see?

A D E A
In the summertime, ah in the summertime,
A D E A
In the summertime when you were with me.

I got the heart and you got the blood,
We cut through iron and we cut through mud.
Then came the warnin' that was before the flood
That set everybody free.
Fools they made a mock of sin,
Our loyalty they tried to win
But you were closer to me than my next of kin
When they didn't want to know or see.

In the summertime, ah in the summertime,
In the summertime when you were with me.

Strangers, they meddled in our affairs,
Poverty and shame was theirs.
But all that sufferin' was not to be compared
With the glory that is to be.
And I'm still carrying the gift you gave,
It's a part of me now, it's been cherished and saved,
It'll be with me unto the grave
And then unto eternity.

In the summertime, ah in the summertime,
In the summertime when you were with me.

Trouble,
Trouble, trouble, trouble,
Nothin' but trouble.

Put your ear to the train tracks, put your ear to the ground,
You ever feel like you're never alone even when there's nobody else around?
Since the beginning of the universe man's been cursed by trouble.

Trouble,
Trouble, trouble, trouble,
Nothin' but trouble.

Nightclubs of the broken-hearted, stadiums of the damned,
Legislature, perverted nature, doors that are rudely slammed.
Look into infinity, all you see is trouble.

Trouble,
Trouble, trouble, trouble,
Nothin' but trouble.

Every Grain of Sand

Words and Music Bob Dylan

Released on Shot of Love (1981), Biograph (1985) and in an early version on The Bootleg Series 1-3 (1991)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Bootleg Series version

In the bootleg series version Bob is at the piano, hence the song is in A \flat major. Fred Tackett does the guitar part, which should be played with a capo on the 3rd fret. I'm not sure if anyone is aware of the rhythm to begin with, but once the singing begins, it becomes apparent to both Dylan and Tackett that the song is in 6/8 and not in 4/4, as they play in the intro. The tab below begins where the verse begins, and it's an approximation to what he should have played, rather than an exact reproduction of what he actually plays.

The Dm is in fact a B \flat maj7 (sounding) with the bass tones from the piano, although the guitar plays a Dm/f (xx3231).

Capo 3rd fret (sounding key A \flat major)

Oh, the flowers of indulgence and the weeds of yesteryear,
 Like criminals, they have choked the breath of conscience and good cheer.
 The sun beat down upon the steps of time to light the way
 To ease the pain of idleness and the memory of decay.
 I gaze into the doorway of temptation's angry flame
 And every time I pass that way I always hear my name.
 Then onward in my journey I come to understand
 That every hair is numbered like every grain of sand.

I have gone from rags to riches in the sorrow of the night
 In the violence of a summer's dream, in the chill of a wintry light,
 In the bitter dance of loneliness fading into space,
 In the broken mirror of innocence on each forgotten face.
 I hear the ancient footsteps like the motion of the sea
 Sometimes I turn, there's someone there, other times it's only me.
 I am hanging in the balance of a perfect finished plan *)
 Like every sparrow falling, like every grain of sand.

*) On Shot of Love he sings "of the reality of man".

Shot of Love version

The guitar part is played with a capo on the 8th fret (or with barre chords, which is more awkward, but which is probably how it is played).

Finally the version that is the most playable on a single guitar, as some kind of common denominator (capo anywhere that fits in with the music; the F could/should be replaced by Fmaj7 (133210 or xx3210) except at "break"):

Jokerman

Words and music Bob Dylan
Released on Infidels (1983)
Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

In the key of B \flat major on the album, but played in A live, which is much more comfortable. the following version is with a capo on the first fret. The following chords for the first lines work quite well:

A x07650
Amaj7 x06650
Bm/a x04430 (or x04432)
E/a x06450
A/g# 4x222(0)
A/c# x4222(0)

Here's a recording of it

A Amaj7
Standing on the waters casting your bread
Bm/a E/a A
While the eyes of the idol with the iron head are glowing.
A Amaj7
Distant ships sailing into the mist,
Bm/a E/a A

Freedom just around the corner for you
Bm E A D
But with truth so far off, what good will it do?

E D
Jokerman dance to the nightingale tune,
A /g# F#m D
Bird fly high by the light of the moon,
A(/c#) D E A
Oh, oh, oh, Jokerman.

So swiftly the sun sets in the sky,
You rise up and say goodbye to no one.
Fools rush in where angels fear to tread,
Both of their futures, so full of dread, you don't show one.
Shedding off one more layer of skin,
Keeping one step ahead of the persecutor within.

Jokerman dance to the nightingale tune,
Bird fly high by the light of the moon,
Oh, oh, oh, Jokerman.

You're a man of the mountains, you can walk on the clouds,
Manipulator of crowds, you're a dream twister.
You're going to Sodom and Gomorrah,
But what do you care? Ain't nobody there would want to marry your sister.
Friend to the martyr, a friend to the woman of shame,
You look into the fiery furnace, see the rich man without any name.

Jokerman dance to the nightingale tune,
Bird fly high by the light of the moon,
Oh, oh, oh, Jokerman.

Well, the Book of Leviticus and Deuteronomy,
The law of the jungle and the sea are your only teachers.
In the smoke of the twilight on a milk-white steed,
Michelangelo indeed could've carved out your features.
Resting in the fields, far from the turbulent space,
Half asleep near the stars with a small dog licking your face.

Jokerman dance to the nightingale tune,
Bird fly high by the light of the moon,
Oh. oh.oh. Jokerman.

Well, the rifleman's stalking the sick and the lame,
Preacherman seeks the same, who'll get there first is uncertain.
Nightsticks and water cannons, tear gas, padlocks,
Molotov cocktails and rocks behind every curtain,
False-hearted judges dying in the webs that they spin,
Only a matter of time 'til night comes steppin' in.

Jokerman dance to the nightingale tune,
Bird fly high by the light of the moon,
Oh, oh, oh, Jokerman.

It's a shadowy world, skies are slippery gray,
A woman just gave birth to a prince today and dressed him in scarlet.
He'll put the priest in his pocket, put the blade to the heat,
Take the motherless children off the street
And place them at the feet of a harlot.
Oh, Jokerman, you know what he wants,
Oh, Jokerman, you don't show any response.

Jokerman dance to the nightingale tune,
Bird fly high by the light of the moon,
Oh, oh, oh, Jokerman.

The lyrics of the outtake version:

Standing on the waters casting your bread
While the eyes of the idol with the iron head are glowing.
Distant ships sailing into the mist,
You were born with a snake in both of your fists while a hurricane was blowing.
Freedom just around the corner for you
But with truth so far off, what good will it do?

Jokerman dance to the nightingale tune,
Bird fly high by the light of the moon,
Oh, oh, oh, Jokerman.

So swiftly the sun sets in the sky,
You rise up and say goodbye to no one.
No store-bought shirt for you on your back
One of the women must sit in the shack and sew one.
Shedding off one more layer of skin,
Keeping one step ahead of the persecutor within.

Jokerman dance to the nightingale tune,
Bird fly high by the light of the moon,
Oh, oh, oh, Jokerman.

You're a man of the mountains, you can walk on the clouds,
Manipulator of crowds, you're a dream twister.
You're going to Sodom and Gomorrah,
But what do you care? Ain't nobody there would want to marry your sister.
Scratching the world with a fine-tooth comb
You're a king among nations, you're a stranger at home

Jokerman dance to the nightingale tune,
Bird fly high by the light of the moon,
Oh, oh, oh, Jokerman.

Well, the Book of Leviticus and Deuteronomy,
The law of the jungle and the sea are your only teachers.
No crystal ball do you need on your shelf
Michelangelo himself could have carved out your features.
So drunk, standing in the middle of the street
Directing traffic with a small dog at your feet.

Jokerman dance to the nightingale tune,
Bird fly high by the light of the moon,
Oh, oh, oh, Jokerman.

Well, the Preacherman talkin' 'bout the deaf and the dumb and a world to come that's already been predetermined.
Nightsticks and water cannons, tear gas, padlocks,
Molotov cocktails and rocks can't drown out your sermon.
You let the wicked walk right into a trap.
You give away all the good things that fall in your lap.

Jokerman dance to the nightingale tune,
Bird fly high by the light of the moon,
Oh, oh, oh, Jokerman.

It's a shadowy world, skies are slippery gray,
A woman just gave birth to a prince today and she's dressed in scarlet.
He'll turn priests into pimps that make old men bark
Take a woman who could have been Joan of Arc
And turn her into a harlot.
Oh, Jokerman, you know what he wants,
Oh, Jokerman, you don't show any response.

Jokerman dance to the nightingale tune,
 Bird fly high by the light of the moon,
 Oh, oh, oh, Jokerman.

Sweetheart Like You

Words and music Bob Dylan

Released on Infidels (1983)

tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

The song sounds in E major, and it can perfectly well be played with those keys, but on a single guitar it makes for a far more comfortable and rewarding experience to play it with a capo on the 4th fret. I seem to hear one such guitar in the mix too, although the main guitar(s) are obviously uncapoed.

Other advantages with the capoed version is that the descent at the end of the verses becomes playable, and you can also easily play the Fs (some of them, not all of them) as Fmaj7s.

The Dm at the end of the bridge could be realized in a number of ways. On the album it almost converts to a Fmaj7, when the organ gradually comes to the fore. A way to combine both is to play Dm9, e.g. x53550.

what's a sweetheart like you doin' in a dump like this?

You know, I once knew a woman who looked like you,
She wanted a whole man, not just a half,
She used to call me sweet daddy when I was only a child,
You kind of remind me of her when you laugh.
In order to deal in this game, got to make the queen disappear,
It's done with a flick of the wrist.
What's a sweetheart like you doin' in a dump like this?

You know, a woman like you should be at home,
That's where you belong,
taking care of somebody nice
Who don't know how to do you wrong.
Just how much abuse will you be able to take?
Well, there's no way to tell by that first kiss.
What's a sweetheart like you doin' in a dump like this?

Dm
Who ever crawled across cut glass to make a deal.

You know, news of you has come down the line
 Even before ya came in the door.
 They say in your father's house, there's many mansions
 Each one of them got a fireproof floor.
 Snap out of it, baby, people are jealous of you,
 They smile to your face, but behind your back they hiss.
 What's a sweetheart like you doin' in a dump like this?

Got to be an important person to be in here, honey,
 Got to have done some evil deed,
 Got to have your own harem when you come in the door,
 Got to play your harp until your lips bleed.

They say that patriotism is the last refuge
 To which a scoundrel clings.
 Steal a little and they throw you in jail,
 Steal a lot and they make you king.
 There's only one step down from here, baby,
 It's called the land of permanent bliss.
 What's a sweetheart like you doin' in a dump like this?

Neighborhood Bully

Words and music Bob Dylan

E

Well, the neighborhood bully, he's just one man,
His enemies say he's on their land.
They got him outnumbered about a million to one,
He got no place to escape to, no place to run.
He's the neighborhood bully.

The neighborhood bully just lives to survive,
He's criticized and condemned for being alive.
He's not supposed to fight back, he's supposed to have thick skin,
He's supposed to lay down and die when his door is kicked in.
He's the neighborhood bully.

The neighborhood bully been driven out of every land,
He's wandered the earth an exiled man.
Seen his family scattered, his people hounded and torn,
He's always on trial for just being born.
He's the neighborhood bully.

Well, he knocked out a lynch mob, he was criticized,
Old women condemned him, said he should apologize.
Then he destroyed a bomb factory, nobody was glad.
The bombs were meant for him.
He was supposed to feel bad.
He's the neighborhood bully.

Well, the chances are against it and the odds are slim
That he'll live by the rules that the world makes for him,
'Cause there's a noose at his neck and a gun at his back
And a license to kill him is given out to every maniac.
He's the neighborhood bully.

He got no allies to really speak of.
What he gets he must pay for, he don't get it out of love.
He buys obsolete weapons and he won't be denied
But no one sends flesh and blood to fight by his side.
He's the neighborhood bully.

Well, he's surrounded by pacifists who all want peace,
They pray for it nightly that the bloodshed must cease.
Now, they wouldn't hurt a fly.
To hurt one they would weep.
They lay and they wait for this bully to fall asleep.
He's the neighborhood bully.

Every empire that's enslaved him is gone,
Egypt and Rome, even the great Babylon.
He's made a garden of paradise in the desert sand,
In bed with nobody, under no one's command.
He's the neighborhood bully.

Now his holiest books have been trampled upon,
No contract he signed was worth what it was written on.
He took the crumbs of the world and he turned it into wealth,
Took sickness and disease and he turned it into health.
He's the neighborhood bully.

What's anybody indebted to him for?
Nothin', they say.
He just likes to cause war.
Pride and prejudice and superstition indeed,
They wait for this bully like a dog waits to feed.
He's the neighborhood bully.

What has he done to wear so many scars?
Does he change the course of rivers?
Does he pollute the moon and stars?
Neighborhood bully, standing on the hill,
Running out the clock, time standing still,
Neighborhood bully.

Now he worships at an altar of a stagnant pool
And when he sees his reflection, he's fulfilled.
Oh, man is opposed to fair play,
He wants it all and he wants it his way.

Now, there's a woman on my block,
She just sit there as the night grows still.
She say who gonna take away his license to kill?

You know sometimes Satan comes as a man of peace.

He got a sweet gift of gab, he got a harmonious tongue,
He knows every song of love that ever has been sung.
Good intentions can be evil,
Both hands can be full of grease.
You know that sometimes Satan comes as a man of peace.

Well, first he's in the background, then he's in the front,
Both eyes are looking like they're on a rabbit hunt.
Nobody can see through him,
No, not even the Chief of Police.
You know that sometimes Satan comes as a man of peace.

Well, he catch you when you're hoping for a glimpse of the sun,
Catch you when your troubles feel like they weigh a ton.
He could be standing next to you,
The person that you'd notice least.
I hear that sometimes Satan comes as a man of peace.

Well, he can be fascinating, he can be dull,
He can ride down Niagara Falls in the barrels of your skull.
I can smell something cooking,
I can tell there's going to be a feast.
You know that sometimes Satan comes as a man of peace.

He's a great humanitarian, he's a great philanthropist,
He knows just where to touch you, honey, and how you like to be kissed.
He'll put both his arms around you,
You can feel the tender touch of the beast.
You know that sometimes Satan comes as a man of peace.

Well, the howling wolf will howl tonight, the king snake will crawl,
Trees that've stood for a thousand years suddenly will fall.
Wanna get married? Do it now,
Tomorrow all activity will cease.
You know that sometimes Satan comes as a man of peace.

Somewhere Mama's weeping for her blue-eyed boy,
She's holding them little white shoes and that little broken toy
And he's following a star,
The same one them three men followed from the East.
I hear that sometimes Satan comes as a man of peace.

A

Well, my shoes, they come from Singapore,
 My flashlight's from Taiwan,
 My tablecloth's from Malaysia,
 My belt buckle's from the Amazon.
 You know, this shirt I wear comes from the Philippines
 And the car I drive is a Chevrolet,
 It was put together down in Argentina
 By a guy makin' thirty cents a day.

Well, it's sundown on the union
 And what's made in the U.S.A.
 Sure was a good idea
 'Til greed got in the way.

Well, this silk dress is from Hong Kong
 And the pearls are from Japan.
 Well, the dog collar's from India
 And the flower pot's from Pakistan.
 All the furniture, it says "Made in Brazil"
 Where a woman, she slaved for sure
 Bringin' home thirty cents a day to a family of twelve,
 You know, that's a lot of money to her.

Well, it's sundown on the union
 And what's made in the U.S.A.
 Sure was a good idea
 'Til greed got in the way.

Well, you know, lots of people complainin' that there is no work.
 I say, "Why you say that for
 When nothin' you got is U.S.-made?"
 They don't make nothin' here no more,
 You know, capitalism is above the law.
 It say, "It don't count 'less it sells."
 When it costs too much to build it at home
 You just build it cheaper someplace else.

Well, it's sundown on the union
And what's made in the U.S.A.
Sure was a good idea
'Til greed got in the way.

Well, the job that you used to have,
They gave it to somebody down in El Salvador.
The unions are big business, friend,
And they're goin' out like a dinosaur.
They used to grow food in Kansas
Now they want to grow it on the moon and eat it raw.
I can see the day coming when even your home garden
Is gonna be against the law.

Well, it's sundown on the union
And what's made in the U.S.A.
Sure was a good idea
'Til greed got in the way.

Democracy don't rule the world,
You'd better get that in your head.
This world is ruled by violence
But I guess that's better left unsaid.
From Broadway to the Milky Way,
That's a lot of territory indeed
And a man's gonna do what he has to do
When he's got a hungry mouth to feed.

Well, it's sundown on the union
And what's made in the U.S.A.
Sure was a good idea
'Til greed got in the way.

Album version

Am C G
 Been so long since a strange woman has slept in my bed.
 D Am
 Look how sweet she sleeps, how free must be her dreams.
 Am C G
 In another lifetime she must have owned the world, or been faithfully wed
 D Am
 To some righteous king who wrote psalms beside moonlit streams.

 G D Am
 In creation where one's nature neither honors nor forgives.
 Am
 I and I
 G D Am
 One says to the other, no man sees my face and lives.

Think I'll go out and go for a walk,
 Not much happenin' here, nothin' ever does.
 Besides, if she wakes up now, she'll just want me to talk
 I got nothin' to say, 'specially about whatever was.

I and I
 In creation where one's nature neither honors nor forgives.
 I and I
 One says to the other, no man sees my face and lives.

Took an untrodden path once, where the swift don't win the race,
 It goes to the worthy, who can divide the word of truth.
 Took a stranger to teach me, to look into justice's beautiful face
 And to see an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.

I and I
 In creation where one's nature neither honors nor forgives.
 I and I
 One says to the other, no man sees my face and lives.

Outside of two men on a train platform there's nobody in sight,
 They're waiting for spring to come, smoking down the track.
 The world could come to an end tonight, but that's all right.
 She should still be there sleepin' when I get back.

I and I
In creation where one's nature neither honors nor forgives.
I and I
One says to the other, no man sees my face and lives.

Noontime, and I'm still pushin' myself along the road, the darkest part,
Into the narrow lanes, I can't stumble or stay put.
Someone else is speakin' with my mouth, but I'm listening only to my heart.
I've made shoes for everyone, even you, while I still go barefoot.

I and I
In creation where one's nature neither honors nor forgives.
I and I
One says to the other, no man sees my face and lives.

Don't fall apart on me tonight,
Yesterday's just a memory,
Tomorrow is never what it's supposed to be
And I need you, oh, yeah.

I ain't too good at conversation, girl,
So you might not know exactly how I feel,
But if I could, I'd bring you to the mountaintop, girl,
And build you a house made out of stainless steel.
But it's like I'm stuck inside a painting
That's hanging in the Louvre,
My throat start to tickle and my nose itches
But I know that I can't move.

Don't fall apart on me tonight,
I just don't think that I could handle it.
Don't fall apart on me tonight,
Yesterday's gone but the past lives on,
Tomorrow's just one step beyond
And I need you, oh, yeah.

No more booby traps and bombs,
No more decadence and charm,
No more affection that's misplaced, girl,
No more mudcake creatures lying in your arms.
What about that millionaire with the drumsticks in his pants?
He looked so baffled and so bewildered
When he played and we didn't dance.

Tight Connection to My Heart (Has Anybody Seen My Love)

Words and music Bob Dylan (although half of the words are borrowed from the Maltese Falcon)
First recorded during the Infidels sessions as "Someone's Got a Hold of My Heart" and eventually released on The Bootleg Series 1-3 (1991)
Re-recorded for Empire Burlesque (1985). Played live i.a. in a stunning version at the Supper Club (1993)
Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Empire Burlesque version

Tricky chords to get smoothly on a single guitar. The best alternative is probably to play the album version with a capo on the 2nd fret.

Madame Butterfly
She lulled me to sleep,
In a town without pity
Where the water runs deep.
She said, "Be easy, baby,
There ain't nothin' worth stealin' in here."
You're the one I've been looking for,
You're the one that's got the key.
But I can't figure out whether I'm too good for you
Or you're too good for me.

Has anybody seen my love,
Has anybody seen my love,
Has anybody seen my love.
I don't know,
Has anybody seen my love?

Well, they're not showing any lights tonight
And there's no moon.
There's just a hot-blooded singer
Singing "Memphis in June,"
While they're beatin' the devil out of a guy
Who's wearing a powder-blue wig.
Later he'll be shot
For resisting arrest,
I can still hear his voice crying
In the wilderness.
What looks large from a distance,
Close up ain't never that big.
Never could learn to drink that blood
And call it wine,
Never could learn to hold you, love,
And call you mine.

Seeing the Real You at Last

I've used the chords "D" and E for the recurrent riff, mainly to have something to call it. The "D" could be called "A" or "B" too.

Riff:

      "D"                E
      : . . . : . . .

[Intro: 4x riff]

      "D"                E
Well, I thought that the rain would cool things down
"D"                E
    But it looks like it don't.
"D"                E
I'd like to get you to change your mind
"D"                E
    But it looks like you won't.
    A
From now on I'll be busy,
E
Ain't goin' nowhere fast.
B
I'm just glad it's over
      D    A                [riff]
And I'm seeing the real you at last.

Well, didn't I risk my neck for you,
Didn't I take chances?
Didn't I rise above it all for you,
The most unfortunate circumstances?
Well, I have had some rotten nights,
Didn't think that they would pass.
I'm just thankful and grateful
To be seeing the real you at last.

I'm hungry and I'm irritable
And I'm tired of this bag of tricks.
At one time there was nothing wrong with me
That you could not fix.
Well, I sailed through the storm
Strapped to the mast,
But the time has come

And I'm seeing the real you at last.

When I met you, baby,
You didn't show no visible scars.
You could ride like Annie Oakley,
You could shoot like Belle Starr.
Well, I don't mind a reasonable amount of trouble,
Trouble always comes to pass
But all I care about now
Is that I'm seeing the real you at last.

Well, I'm gonna quit this baby talk now,
I guess I should have known.
I got troubles, I think maybe you got troubles,
I think maybe we'd better leave each other alone.
Whatever you gonna do,
Please do it fast.
I'm still trying to get used to Seeing the real you at last.

Clean-Cut Kid

Words and music Bob Dylan
Released on Empire Burlesque (1985)
Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

D7

Everybody wants to know why he couldn't adjust

Adjust to what, a dream that bust?

A

He was a clean-cut kid

D7 [n.c.]

But they made a killer out of him,

That's what they did

They said what's up is down, they said what isn't is

They put ideas in his head he thought were his

He was a clean-cut kid

But they made a killer out of him,

That's what they did

He was on the baseball team, he was in the marching band

When he was ten years old he had a watermelon stand

He was a clean-cut kid

But they made a killer out of him,

That's what they did

He went to church on Sunday, he was a Boy Scout

For his friends he would turn his pockets inside out

He was a clean-cut kid

But they made a killer out of him,

That's what they did

G

They said, "Listen boy, you're just a pup"

D7

They sent him to a napalm health spa to shape up

E

They gave him dope to smoke, drinks and pills,

A

A jeep to drive, blood to spill

They said "Congratulations, you got what it takes"

They sent him back into the rat race without any brakes

He was a clean-cut kid

But they made a killer out of him,

That's what they did

He bought the American dream but it put him in debt

The only game he could play was Russian roulette

He drank Coca-Cola, he was eating Wonder Bread,

Ate Burger Kings, he was well fed

He went to Hollywood to see Peter O'Toole
He stole a Rolls Royce and drove it in a swimming pool
They took a clean-cut kid
And they made a killer out of him,
That's what they did

He could've sold insurance, owned a restaurant or bar
Could've been an accountant or a tennis star
He was wearing boxing gloves, took a dive one day
Off the Golden Gate Bridge into China Bay

His mama walks the floor, his daddy weeps and moans
They gotta sleep together in a home they don't own
They took a clean-cut kid
And they made a killer out of him,
That's what they did

Well, everybody's asking why he couldn't adjust
All he ever wanted was somebody to trust
They took his head and turned it inside out
He never did know what it was all about

He had a steady job, he joined the choir
He never did plan to walk the high wire
They took a clean-cut kid
And they made a killer out of him,
That's what they did

Never Gonna Be the Same Again

Best played with a capo on the 1st fret. The As should be embellished with Asus4s and Asus2s (xo2200) following the melody. The D/a could also be replaced by Asus4s, and the F6 (133231) could be replaced with a Dm/f (xx3231).

You taught me how to love you, baby,

You taught me, oh, so well.

Now, I can't go back to what was, baby,

I can't unring the bell.

You took my reality

And cast it to the wind

And I ain't never gonna be the same again.

Trust Yourself

A quite monotonous song... Liven up the sustained A by A/g (3x222x) or A/c (x3222x) chords or something like that. Great lyrics. Follow them.

A

Trust yourself,

Trust yourself to do the things that only you know best.

Trust yourself,

Trust yourself to do what's right and not be second-guessed.

Don't trust me to show you beauty

When beauty may only turn to rust.

A

If you need somebody you can trust, trust yourself.

Trust yourself,

Trust yourself to know the way that will prove true in the end.

Trust yourself,

Trust yourself to find the path where there is no if and when.

Don't trust me to show you the truth

When the truth may only be ashes and dust.

If you want somebody you can trust, trust yourself.

D

Well, you're on your own, you always were,

A

In a land of wolves and thieves.

D

Don't put your hope in ungodly man

E

Or be a slave to what somebody else believes.

Trust yourself

And you won't be disappointed when vain people let you down.

Trust yourself

And look not for answers where no answers can be found.

Don't trust me to show you love

When my love may be only lust.

If you want somebody you can trust, trust yourself.

The C/b is best played x20010 (to get the d in the chord), and to produce both the bass descent and the parallel e – d – c, you'll have to play the following Am 5322xx – It's quite nice that way, actually. The G at the end of the verse could be embellished somehow – with a Gsus4 or a G11 or something. The F at "behind closed doors" has a g in it, which you will get by playing C=x32013, F= xx3213: G=320003.

The Fmaj9 in the bridge can be played both Fmaj7 (133210) or F9 (xx3213).

I can see through your walls and I know you're hurting,

Sorrow covers you up like a cape.

Only yesterday I know that you've been flirting

With disaster that you managed to escape.

I can't provide for you no easy answers,

Who are you that I should have to be?

You'll know all about it, love,

It'll fit you like a glove

When the night comes falling from the sky.

I can hear your trembling heart beat like a river,

You must have been protecting someone last time I called.

I've never asked you for nothing you couldn't deliver,

I've never asked you to set yourself up for a fall.

I saw thousands who could have overcome the darkness,

For the love of a lousy buck, I've watched them die.

Stick around, baby, we're not through,

Don't look for me, I'll see you

When the night comes falling from the sky.

In your teardrops, I can see my own reflection,
It was on the northern border of Texas where I crossed the line.
I don't want to be a fool starving for affection,
I don't want to drown in someone else's wine.
For all eternity I think I will remember
That icy wind that's howling in your eye.
You will seek me and you'll find me
In the wasteland of your mind
When the night comes falling from the sky.

Well, I sent you my feelings in a letter
But you were gambling for support.
This time tomorrow I'll know you better
When my memory is not so short.
This time I'm asking for freedom,
from a world which you deny.
and you'll give it to me now,
I'll take it anyhow
When the night comes falling from the sky.

Dark Eyes

Words and music Bob Dylan
Released on Empire Burlesque (1985)
Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

In Dylan behind closed doors, The recording sessions [1960-1994] Clinton Heylin says about the guitar playing on this song:

Even after Dylan had written the song, the guitar part proved problematic as he repeatedly hit the wrong strings accidentally in the studio. With only three strings necessary for what is actually a rather trite melody, the other three strings were taped down, at which point Dylan finally got the song on tape (p.161).

This is complete nonsense, which more or less confirms my suspicion that Heylin hasn't really listened carefully enough to the things he writes off. Dylan uses all six strings, hits "wrong" bass notes, but so consistently and clearly that it definitely is the way he wanted it to sound. It's odd, though, with that open 4th string throughout most of the song.

What is special is that all the strings are tuned down one whole step, so that what is really a song in G major, is played as if in A major.

I'm not dead certain about all this – especially the choices of positions for the chords in the first measure (and corresponding). It sounds as if he plays it as written below, but the more natural thing would be to play -655 -454 -655. You decide. If you come up with a better solution, please let me know

Where the earth is strung with lovers' pearls and all I see are dark eyes.

A cock is crowing far away and another soldier's deep in prayer,
Some mother's child has gone astray, she can't find him anywhere.
But I can hear another drum beating for the dead that rise,
Whom nature's beast fears as they come and all I see are dark eyes.

They tell me to be discreet for all intended purposes,
They tell me revenge is sweet and from where they stand, I'm sure it is.
But I feel nothing for their game where beauty goes unrecognized,
All I feel is heat and flame and all I see are dark eyes.

Oh, the French girl, she's in paradise and a drunken man is at the wheel,
Hunger pays a heavy price to the falling gods of speed and steel.
Oh, time is short and the days are sweet and passion rules the arrow that flies,
A million faces at my feet but all I see are dark eyes.

Percy's Song

Words Bob Dylan, melody trad. ("The Wind and The Rain", which is a variant of The Two Sisters)
 Recorded Oct 24, 1963 during the sessions for The Times They Are A-Changin' and released on Biograph
 (1991)
 Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Standard tuning, capo 2nd fret (sounding key D major)

The general finger-picking pattern is found in the intro:

: . . . : . . . : . . . : . . .
|-----0-----|-----0-----|-----0-----|-----0-----|
|----1-----|----1-----|----1-----|----1-----|
|----0-----0-----|----0-----0-----|----0-----0-----|----0-----0-----|
|----2-----2-----|----2-----2-----|----2-----2-----|----2-----2-----|
|-3-----3-----|-3-----3-----|-3-----3-----|-3-----3-----|
|-----3-----|-----3-----|-----3-----|-----3-----|

Bad . . .

The G-G6-G7 is usually played like this (drop the 1st string to do the hammer-ons):

: . . . : . . .
|-----|-----|
|-----0-----|-----0-----|
|-----0-----|-----0-----|
|----0-----0h2-|----2h3----3---|
|-----|-----|
|-3-----3-----|-3-----3-----|

And the turn around Dm is played with the low E-string open, which of course clashes with the Dm, but which still can defended "musically" because of the bass line d-e-f-g:

Dm      /e      /e      /e      F      G
: . . . : . . . : . . . : . . .
|----1-----1-----|-----|-----|-----3---|
|-----|-----3-----1-----|----1-----|-----|
|----2-----2-----|----2-----2-----|-----2---0-----|
|-0-----0-----|-----0-----|----3-----3---|----0---|
|-----|-----|-----|-----|
|-----0-----|-0-----0-----|-1-----1-----|-3-----|
      Turn, turn,      to the      rain      and the wind

Notice also how the melody can be picked out in the higher strings.

C      F      C
Bad news, bad news come to me where I sleep,
G  G6  G7  G  G6  G7
Turn, turn, turn again.
C      F
Sayin' one of your friends is in trouble deep,
Dm      F      G  G6  G7  G  G6  G7
Turn, turn to the rain and the wind.

Tell me the trouble, Tell once to my ear.
Joliet prison and ninety-nine years.

Oh what's the charge of how this came to be?
Manslaughter in the highest of degree.

I sat down and wrote the best words I could write,
Explaining to the judge I'd be there on Wednesday night.

Without a reply, I left by the moon,
And was in his chambers by the next afternoon.

"Could ya tell me the facts?" I said without fear,
"That a friend of mine would get ninety-nine years."

A crash on the highway flew the car to a field.
There was four persons killed and he was at the wheel.

But I knew him as good as I'm knowin' myself,
And he wouldn't harm a life that belonged to someone else.

The judge spoke out of the side of his mouth,
Sayin', "The witness who saw, he left little doubt,"

That may be true, he's got a sentence to serve,
But ninety-nine years, he just don't deserve.

Too late, too late, for his case it is sealed.
His sentence is passed and it cannot be repealed.

But he ain't no criminal and his crime it is none.
What happened to him could happen to anyone.

And at that the judge jerked forward and his face it did freeze,
Sayin', "Could you kindly leave my office now, please,"

Well his eyes looked funny and I stood up so slow,
With no other choice except for to go.

I walked down the hallway and I heard his door slam,
I walked down the courthouse stairs and I did not understand.

And I played my guitar through the night to the day,
Turn, turn, turn again.
And the only tune my guitar could play
Was, "Oh the Cruel Rain And the Wind."

The ocean wild like an organ played,
The seaweed's wove its strands.
The crashin' waves like cymbals clashed
Against the rocks and sands.
Lay down your weary tune, lay down,
Lay down the song you strum,
And rest yourself 'neath the strength of strings
No voice can hope to hum.

I stood unwound beneath the skies
And clouds unbound by laws.
The cryin' rain like a trumpet sang
And asked for no applause.
Lay down your weary tune, lay down,

Lay down the song you strum,
And rest yourself 'neath the strength of strings
No voice can hope to hum.

The last of leaves fell from the trees
And clung to a new love's breast.
The branches bare like a banjo played
To the winds that listened best.

I gazed down in the river's mirror
And watched its winding strum.
The water smooth ran like a hymn
And like a harp did hum.
Lay down your weary tune, lay down,
Lay down the song you strum,
And rest yourself 'neath the strength of strings
No voice can hope to hum.

My patron saint is fighting with a ghost
 He's always off somewhere when I need him most.
 The Spanish moon is rising on the hill
 But my heart is telling me I love ya still.

I come back to the town from the flaming moon
 I see you in the street, I begin to swoon.
 I love to see you dress before the mirror
 Won't you let me in your room one time before I disappear?

Everybody's wearing a disguise
 To hide what they've got left behind their eyes.
 But me, I can't cover what I am
 Wherever the children go I'll follow them.

I can't play the game no more, I can't abide by their stupid rules which kept me sick inside
 They've been made by men who've given up the search
 Whose gods are dead and whose queens are in the church.

I march in the parade of liberty
 But as long as I love you I'm not free.
 How long must I suffer such abuse
 Won't you let me see you smile before I cut you loose?

Send out for Saint John the Evangelist
 All my friends are drunk, they can be dismissed.
 My head says that it's time to make a change
 But my heart is telling me I love ya but you're strange.

So step lightly, darling, near the wall
 Put on your heavy make-up, wear your shawl.
 Won't you descend from the throne, from where you sit?
 Let me feel your love one more time before I abandon it.

I come back to the town from the flaming moon
I see you in the street, I begin to swoon.
I love to see you dress before the mirror
Won't you let me in your room one time before I finally disappear?

Everybody's wearing a disguise
To hide what they've got left behind their eyes.
But me, I can't cover what I am
Wherever the children go I'll follow them.

I march in the parade of liberty
But as long as I love you I'm not free.
How long must I suffer such abuse
Won't you let me see you smile before I cut you loose?

I've given up the game, I've got to leave
The pot of gold is only make-believe
The treasure can't be found by men who search
Whose gods are dead and whose queens are in the church.

We sat in an empty theatre and we kissed
I asked you please to cross me off your list
My head tells me it's time to make a change
But my heart is telling me I love ya but you're strange.

So one more time, at midnight near the wall,
take off your heavy make-up, and your shawl.
Won't you descend from the throne, from where you sit?
Let me feel your love one more time before I abandon it.

 Trying to peel the moon and expose it
 With his businesslike anger and his bloodhounds that kneel
 If he needs a third eye he just grows it
 He just needs you to talk or to hand him his chalk
 Or pick it up after he throws it.

Why does he look so righteous while your face is so changed
 Are You frightened of the box you keep him in While his genocide fools and his friends rearrange
 Their religion of the little ten women
 That backs up their views but your face is so bruised
 Come on out the dark is beginning.

You just stood there grinning

You got a lotta nerve
To say you got a helping hand to lend
You just want to be on
The side that's winning

You say I let you down
You know it's not like that
If you're so hurt
Why then don't you show it

You say you lost your faith
But that's not where it's at
You had no faith to lose
And you know it

I know the reason
That you talk behind my back
I used to be among the crowd
You're in with

Do you take me for such a fool
To think I'd make contact
With the one who tries to hide
What he don't know to begin with

You see me on the street
You always act surprised
You say, "How are you?", "Good luck"
But you don't mean it

When you know as well as me
You'd rather see me paralyzed
Why don't you just come out once
And scream it

No, I do not feel that good
When I see the heartbreaks you embrace
If I was a master thief
Perhaps I'd rob them

And now I know you're dissatisfied
With your position and your place
Don't you understand
It's not my problem

I wish that for just one time
You could stand inside my shoes
And just for that one moment
I could be you

Yes, I wish that for just one time
You could stand inside my shoes
You'd know what a drag it is
To see you

Told about Jesus, told about the rain,
 She told me about the jungle where her brothers were slain
 By a man who invented iron and disappeared so mysteriously.

Was she a child or a woman, I can't say which
 From one to another she could to easily switch
 We went into the wall to where the long arm of the law could not reach.

Could I been used and played as a pawn?
 It certainly was possible as the gay night wore on
 Where men bathed in perfume and celebrated free speech.

 Bringing everything that's near to me nearer to the fire.

She looked into my soul through the clothes that I wore
 She said, "We got a mutual friend over by the door,
 And you know he's got our best interest in mind."
 He was well connected but her heart was a snare
 And she had left him to die in there,
 There were payments due and he was a little behind.

The cry of the peacock, flies buzz my head,
 Ceiling fan broken, there's a heat in my bed,
 Street band playing "Nearer My God to Thee."
 We met at the steeple where the mission bells ring,
 She said, "I know what you're thinking, but there ain't a thing
 You can do about it, so let us just agree to agree."

And them Caribbean winds still blow from Nassau to Mexico
 Fanning the flames in the furnace of desire

And them distant ships of liberty on them iron waves so bold and free,
Bringing everything that's near to me nearer to the fire.

Atlantic City by the cold grey sea
I hear a voice crying, "Daddy," I always think it's for me,
But it's only the silence in the buttermilk hills that call.
Every new messenger brings evil report
'Bout armies on the march and time that is short
And famines and earthquakes and hatred written upon walls.

Would I have married her? I don't know, I suppose.
She had bells in her braids and they hung to her toes
But I kept hearing my name and I had to be movin' on.
I saw screws break loose, saw the devil pound tin,
I saw a house in the country being torn from within.
I heard my ancestors calling from the land far beyond.

And them Caribbean winds still blow from Nassau to Mexico
Fanning the flames in the furnace of desire
And them distant ships of liberty on them iron waves so bold and free,
Bringing everything that's near to me nearer to the fire.

Fox Warfield theatre, San Francisco November 12, 1980

(Transcription is unfinished)

She was from Haiti, fair brown and intense
And then i took over the Lord
Attendin' the show in Miami, in the theater of divine company.
Talkin' about Jesus, talked about the rain
She told me about the vision, told me about the pain
That has arisen from the ashes abided in her memory.

Is she a child or a woman? i really can't say,
Something about her said, "Trust me" anyway
As the days turned to minutes and the minutes turned back into hours.
Could i've been used and played as a pawn?
It certainly was possible as the gay night wore on
But victory was mine, and i held it with the help of God's power.

And that Caribbean wind still blows from Trinidad to Mexico
The circle of light and the furnace of desire
And them distant ships of liberty on them iron waves so bold and free
Bringing everything that's near to me, nearer to the fire.

Shadows grew closer as we touched on the floor
Prodigal son sitting next to the door
Preaching resistance, waitin' for the night to arrive.
He was well connected, but his heart was a snare
'Cause she had left him to die in there
And i knew he could get out while he still was alive.

Stars on my balcony, buzz in my head

Slayin' [Bob Dylan?] in my bed
Street band playin', "Nearer My God To Thee."
She never did see me where the mission bells ring
She said, "I know what you're thinkin', but there ain't a thing
You can do about it, so you might as well agree to agree'.'

And that Caribbean wind blows hard from the Valley coast into my backyard
Drivin' all your love to the furnace of desire
And them distant ships of liberty on them iron waves so bold and free
Bringing everything that's near to me, nearer to the fire.

Atlantic City by the cruel sea
I hear a voice cryin' "Daddy", i always think it's for me
But it's only the silence in the buttermilk hills that call.
Bearin' new messages, bringin' evil reports
Of riotin' armies and time that is short
And earthquakes and train wrecks and death threats written on walls.

Would I have married her? i don't know, i suppose
She had bells on her braids and they hung to her toes
The curtain was risin' and like they say, the ship will sail at dawn.
And i felt it come over me, some kind of gloom
My voice said, "Come on with me girl, I got plenty of room."
But i know i'd be lyin', and besides she had already gone.

And that Caribbean wind still howls from Tokyo to the British Isles
We never walked in to that furnace of desire
And them distant ships of liberty on 'em iron waves so bold and free
Bringing everything that's near to me, nearer to the fire.

This version is issued on the Genuine Bootleg Series Vol.1.

She was well rehearsed, fair brown and blonde
She had friends who was busboys and friends in the Pentagon
Playin' a show in Miami in the theater of divine comedy.
Talked in the shadows where they talked in the rain
I could tell she was still feelin' the pain
Pain of rejection, pain of infidelity.

Was she a child or a woman? I can't say which
One to another she could easily switch.
Couples were dancin' an' i lost track of the hours.
He was well prepared, i knew he was Paying attention like a rattlesnake does
When he's hearin' footsteps tramplin' over his flowers.

And that Caribbean winds still blow from Nassau to Mexico
From the circle of ice to the furnace of desire.
An' them distant ships of liberty on 'em iron waves so bold and free
Bringing everything that's near to me, nearer to the fire.

She looked into my soul through the clothes that i wore
She said, "We got a mutual friend standin' at the door.
Yeah, you know he's got our best interest in mind."
He was well connected, but her heart was a snare
And she had left him to die in there
Here were payments due and he was a little behind.

Well i slept in a hotel where flies buzz my head
Ceiling fan was broken, there was heat in my bed
Street band playin', "Nearer My God To Thee."
We met in secret where we drank from a spring
She said, "I know what you're thinkin', but there ain't a thing
We can do about it, so we might as well let it be."

The Caribbean winds still blow from Nassau to Mexico
From the circle of ice to the furnace of desire.
An' them distant ships of liberty on 'em iron waves so bold and free
Bringing everything that's near to me, nearer to the fire.

Atlantic City, two years to the day
I hear a voice cryin', "Daddy" and i looked that way
But it's only the silence on the buttermilk hills that call.
Every new messenger bringin' evil reports
'Bout riotin' armies and time that is short
An' earthquakes and train wrecks and hate words scribbled on walls.

Would i have married her? I don't know i suppose
She had bells in her braids and they hung to her toes
But i heard my mirrored destiny said to be movin' on.
And i felt it come over me, some kind of gloom
For the sake of "Come on with me girl, i got plenty of room."
But i knew i'd be lyin' and besides she had already gone.

And that Caribbean winds still blow from Nassau to Mexico
Circle of ice to the furnace of desire.
And them busy ships of liberty on 'em iron waves so bold and free
Bringing everything that's near to me, nearer to the fire.

I don't wanna be hers, I wanna be yours.

Well, the undertaker in his midnight suit
Says to the masked man, "Ain't you cute!"
Well, the mask man he gets up on the shelf
And he says, "You ain't so bad yourself."

I wanna be your lover, baby, I wanna be your man.
I wanna be your lover, baby,
I don't wanna be hers, I wanna be yours.

Well, jumpin' Judy can't go no higher.
She had bullets in her eyes, and they fire.
Rasputin he's so dignified,
He touched the back of her head an' he died.

I wanna be your lover, baby, I wanna be your man.
I wanna be your lover, baby,
I don't wanna be hers, I wanna be yours.

Well, Phaedra with her looking glass,
Stretchin' out upon the grass.
She gets all messed up and she faints
That's 'cause she's so obvious and you ain't.

I wanna be your lover, baby, I wanna be your man.
I wanna be your lover, baby,
I don't wanna be hers, I wanna be yours

Tell her not to worry, everything is gonna be fine

Well I'll give you all my money all my connections too

There ain't nothing in this world, you can say I didn't give to you

I got my mind made up

Got my mind made up.

You will be alright girl, someone's watchin' over you

He won't do nothing to you baby that I wouldn't do

Well if you don't want to see me look out the other way

You don't have to feed me I ain't your dog that's gone astray

I got my mind made up

I got my mind made up

Got my mind made up

Got my mind made up

Baby, is there anythin' left to tell?

I'll see you later when I'm not so out of my head
Maybe next time I'll let the dead bury the dead
Baby, what more can I tell?

When the desert is hot, the mountain is cursed
Pray that I don't die of thirst
Baby, two feet from the well.

Introductory Remarks

Eyolf Østrem

Down in the Groove came at a time when Dylan wasn't exactly at the zenith of his powers as a recording artist. His struggles with the modern recording techniques (at the time mostly resulting in lost battles), as well as a steadily decreasing audience since his religious trilogy, hadn't been good for his reputation. And Down in the Groove didn't make things much better.

It is probably one of the last albums people buy. And in my most critical moments I'm inclined to say: "And for good reason." But still: the album has qualities, not only compared with Knocked out Loaded, which only has one quality ("Brownsville Girl").

I'll return to the qualities in a moment. First a general overview: The six first songs, and eight out of ten songs on the album as a whole, are in the key of A major, most of them are fairly standard 12-bar blues, with slight variations (such as the F#m in Had a Dream About You Baby, which in this case is counterbalanced by the rather monotonous singing)(I didn't say it was bad, though). The main difference between Let's Stick Together, Sally Sue Brown, Had a Dream About You Baby and Ugliest Girl In The World is the titles.

Death is Not the End is, I think, the only Dylan song that has left a really bad taste in my mouth. It was a general joking subject around here, until someone wanted to borrow the album to play this song in his wife's funeral. They had heard it on the radio a few days before she died, probably the only time it was ever played on the radio. I pass her gravestone every day on my way to work. It hasn't changed my opinion about the song, I just don't laugh about it anymore.

Silvio is a strange song in many ways. The lyrics by Grateful Dead-lyricist Robert Hunter are often referred to as typical Dylan-wannabe-writing. Be that as it may – on this album it compares favourably not only to the non-Dylan songs. For a very long time it was the regular ending of the first electric set of just about every show, which added to its strangeness: a song that for tape-collectors was a nuisance and a drag, as the eternal song no. 5, but which most others had never heard – who had got Down in the Groove apart from the collectors (the song request of all times: in Stockholm, June 9 1998 someone yelled out "SILVIO" after song nr. 4)?

Musically it is a carbon copy of Isis. That's perhaps not where the real genius of Isis lies, but it's a persistent little bugger of a riff.

The songs that are neither square rock'n'roll in A or "Death is not the end", go to the other opposite – three of them are played in a very loose rhythm (When Did You Leave Heaven?, Shenandoah, Ninety Miles an Hour). These are not only standing out, they are really outstanding. Sure enough, the drumming on "When did you leave heaven" is a bit strange, but that's forgiveable. "Ninety miles" is a perfect example of how to create an intensive pulse (quite fitting the lyrics) without a drum or even a fixed rhythm.

One song left, one performance, and what a performance! Rank Strangers To Me is one of the reasons to have this one on CD – not because of the sound, but because of the repeat button.

 Well the woman that I love she got a hook in her nose

Her eye brows meet she wears second hand clothes
 She speaks with a stutter and she walks with a hop

A
 I don't know why I love her but I just can't stop.

D A
 You know I love her yeah I love her
 E A
 I'm in love with the ugliest girl in the world.

If I ever lose her I will go insane
 I go half crazy when she calls my name
 When she says "ba-ba-ba-ba-baby I l'-l'-love you
 There ain't nothing in the world that I wouldn't do.
 You know I love her yeah I love her
 I'm in love with the ugliest girl in the world.

The woman that I love she got two flat feet
 Her knees knocks together walking down the street
 She cracks her knuckles and she snores in bed
 She ain't much to look at but like I said:
 I love her Yeah I love her
 I'm in love with the ugliest girl in the world

(She's so ugly
 Man she's ugly definitely (?) ugly truly ugly
 She's so ugly
 She's so ugly)

I don't mean to say she got nothing going
 She got a weird sense of humor that is all her own
 When I got low she sets me on my feet
 Got a five inch smile but her breath is sweet.
 You know I love her Yeah I love her
 I'm in love with the ugliest girl in the world.

Well the woman that I love she got a hook in her nose
 Her eye brows meet she wears second hand clothes
 She speaks with a stutter and she walks with a hop
 I don't know why I love her but I just can't stop.
 You know I love her yeah I love her
 I'm in love with the ugliest girl in the world.

Won't buy back the beat of a heart grown cold
Silvio I gotta go
Find out something only dead men know.

Honest as the next jade rolling that stone
When I come and knockin' don't throw me no bone
I'm an old boll weevil looking for a home
If you don't like it you can leave me alone.

I can snap my fingers and require the rain
From a clear blue sky and turn it off again
I can stroke your body and relieve your pain
And charm the whistle off an evening train.

Silvio silver and gold
Won't buy back the beat of a heart grown cold
Silvio I gotta go
Find out something only dead men know

Give what I got until I got no more
I take what I get until I even the score
You know I love you and further more
When it is time to go you got an open door.

I can tell your fancy I can tell your plain
You give something up for ev'rything you gain
Since ev'ry pleasure's got an edge of pain
Pay for your ticket and don't complain.

One of these days and it won't be long
Going down the valley and sing my song
I will sing it loud and sing it strong
Let the echo decide if I was right or wrong.

Silvio silver and gold
Won't buy back the beat of a heart grown cold
Silvio I gotta go

Find out something only dead men know.

Ninety Miles An Hour (Down A Dead End Street)

Words and music by H. Blair and D. Robertson

Tabbed in A (capo 1st fret, original key B \flat major)

A D A
I took you home from a party and we kissed in fun
E A Asus4 A
A few stolen kisses and no harm was done
D A
Instead of stopping when we could we went right on (A/c#) D A/c#
Till suddenly we found that the brakes were gone.

You belong to someone else, and I do too
It's just crazy bein' here with you
As a bad motorcycle with the devil in the seat
Going ninety miles an hour down a dead end street
Ninety miles an hour down a dead end street.

I didn't want to want you, but now I have no choice
It's too late to listen to that warning voice
All I hear is thunder of two hearts beat
Going ninety miles an hour down a dead end street
Ninety miles an hour down a dead end street.

D
You're not free to belong to me
A
And you know I could never be your own
Your lips on mine are like a sweet, sweet wine
A E
But we're heading for a wall of stone.

Warning signs are flashing ev'ry where, but we pay no heed
'Stead of slowing down the pace, we keep a pickin' up speed
Disaster's getting closer ev'ry time we meet
Going ninety miles an hour down a dead end street
Yeah, ninety miles an hour down a dead end street
Well, ninety miles an hour down a dead end street.

 Across the wide Missouri.

Now the Missouri is a mighty river
 Look away, you rollin' river
 Indians camp along her border
 Look away, we're bound away

Well, a white man loved an Indian maiden
 Look away, you rollin' river
 With notions his canoe was laden
 Look away, we're bound away
 Across the wide Missouri.

Shenandoah, I love your daughter
 Look away, you rollin' river
 It was for her I'd cross the water
 Look away, we're bound away
 Across the wide Missouri.

For seven long years I courted Sally
 Look away, you rollin' river
 Seven more years I longed to have her
 Look away, we're bound away
 Across the wide Missouri.

Well, it's fare-thee-well, my dear, I'm bound to leave you
 Look away, you rollin' river
 Shenandoah, I will not deceive you
 Look away, we're bound away
 Across the wide Missouri.

I found they were all rank strangers to me.

 Esus4
Ev'rybody I met seemed to be a rank stranger

I found they were all rank strangers to me.

"They all moved a way," said a voice of a stranger
"To that beautiful home by the bright crystal sea"
Some beautiful day I'll meet 'em in heaven
Where no one will be a stranger to me.

We live in a political world
Love don't have any place
We're living in times
Where men commit crimes
And crime don't have any face.

We live in a political world
Icicles hanging down
Wedding bells ring
And angels sing
Clouds cover up the ground.

We live in a political world
Wisdom is thrown in jail
It rots in a cell
Is misguided as hell
Leaving no one to pick up a trail.

We live in a political world
Where mercy walks the plank
Life is in mirrors
Death disappears
Up the steps into the nearest bank.

We live in a political world
Where courage is a thing of the past
Houses are haunted
Children unwanted
The next day could be your last.

We live in a political world

The one we can see and feel
But there's no one to check
It's all a stacked deck
We all know for sure that it's real.

We live in a political world
In the cities of lonesome fear
Little by little
You turn in the middle
But you're never sure why you're here.

We live in a political world
Under the microscope
You can travel anywhere
And hang yourself there
You always got more than enough rope.

We live in a political world
Turning and trashing about
As soon as you're awake
You're trained to take
What looks like the easy way out.

We live in a political world
Where peace is not welcome at all
It's turned away from the door
To wonder some more
Or put up against the wall.

We live in a political world
Everything is hers and his Climb into the frame
And shout God's name
But you're never sure what it is.

Outtake version

Lyrics transcribed by Dag B

Broken nights, broken days,
Broken leaves on broken trees,
Broken treaties, broken vows,
Broken hands on broken plows.
Ain't no use runnin', honey,
Ain't no use jokin'
Nothing's workin'
Everything is broken.

Broken lives, hangin' by a thread,
Broken bones in a broken bed,
Broken mirror, broken chair,
Broken roads, goin' nowhere.
Broken words never meant to be spoken,
Can't help it, honey,
Everything broken.

I send you roses once from a heart that was truly grieved
Send you roses someone else must have received

Broken clock, on a broken wall
Broken voices in a broken hall
Broken beginnings, broken ends
Streets are filled with broken friends
Take a deep breath, baby, feel like you're chokin',
Tell me the truth now,
Everything broken.

Seen James Dean in a picture once, comin' in from the cold
Say, geez, I hope I look that good, if I get to be that old

Broken flesh on a broken floor,
Broken key, for a broken door
Broken idols, broken heroes,

Broken numbers, addin' up to zeroes
Hound dog's howling, bull frog's croakin',
It ain't easy, baby,
Everything broken.

 She gone with the man in the long black coat.

Somebody seen him hangin' around
 At the old dance hall on the outskirts of town.
 He looked into her eyes when she stopped him to ask
 If he wanted to dance, he had a face like a mask.
 Somebody said from the bible he'd quote
 There was dust on the man in the long black coat.

Preacher was a-talkin', there's a sermon he gave
 He said "Every man's conscience is vile and depraved.
 You cannot depend on it to be your guide
 When it's you who must keep it satisfied."
 It ain't easy to swallow, it sticks in the throat
 She gave her heart to the man in the long black coat.

 D A
 There are no mistakes in life some people say
 F#m E F#m
 It is true sometimes you can see it that way
 D A
 But people don't live or die people just float
 F#m A E F#m
 She went with the man in the long black coat.

There's smoke on the water, it's been there since June
 Tree trunks unrooted 'neath the high crescent moon
 Feel the pulse and vibration and the rumbling force
 Somebody is out there beating on a dead horse
 She never said nothing, there was nothing she wrote
 She gone with the man in the long black coat.

I can keep both feet on the ground
Am F
 I can follow the path, I can read the sign
Am F
 Stay right with it when the road unwinds
 C F
I can handle whatever I stumble upon
 Am F
I don't even notice she's gone
 C
Most of the time.

Most of the time it's well understood
Most of the time I wouldn't change it if I could
I can make it all match up
I can hold my own
I can deal with the situation right down to the bone
I can survive and I can endure
And I don't even think about her
Most of the time.

Most of the time my head is on straight
Most of the time I'm strong enough not to hate
I don't build up illusion 'til it makes me sick
I ain't afraid of confusion no matter how thick
I can smile in the face of mankind
Don't even remember what her lips felt like on mine
Most of the time.

 Or if I was ever with her

Most of the time I'm halfway content
 Most of the time I know exactly where it went
 I don't cheat on myself I don't run and hide
 Hide from the feelings that are buried inside
 I don't compromise and I don't pretend
 I don't even care if I ever see her again
 Most of the time.

Tell Tale Signs version

The chord that I have written as /g changes through the song, from a simple Am/g (3x2210) to a full C/g, played as 3x2013, which at one point is played 3x203x, quickly changed to the correct form, which gives an interesting variation ...

Also worth noting is the slowing down of the harmonic rhythm in the last verse, which brings the song closer to the album version in a way which reminds of On A Rainy Afternoon from Eat The Document.

G11 is played 3x3211.

Disease of Conceit

Words and music Bob Dylan.

Released on Oh Mercy (1989).

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Piano song, black keys, capo on the 1st fret (sounding key C♯ major)

C C/e
 There's a whole lot of people suffering tonight
 F C/e F
 from the disease of conceit
 D/f#
 Whole lot of people struggling tonight
 F/g
 from the disease of conceit
 Am C/g F C
 Comes right down the highway straight down the line
 Am C/g F C
 Rips into your senses through your body and your mind
 D/f# C/g
 Nothing about it that's sweet
 F/g C
 The disease of conceit.

There's a whole lot of hearts breaking tonight
 from the disease of conceit
 Whole lot of hearts shaking tonight
 from the disease of conceit
 Steps into your room eats into your soul
 Over your senses you have no control
 Ain't nothing too discreet about
 the disease of conceit.

There's a whole lot of people dying tonight
 from the disease of conceit
 Whole lot of people crying tonight
 from the disease of conceit
 Comes right out of nowhere and you're down for the count
 From the outside world the pressure will mount
 Turn you into a piece of meat
 The disease of conceit.

Am C/g
 Conceit is a disease
 F C
 that the doctors got no cure
 Am C/g
 They've done a lot of research on it
 D/f# F/g
 but what it is they're still not sure

There's a whole lot of people in trouble tonight
 from the disease of conceit
 Whole lot of people seeing double tonight

from the disease of conceit
Give you delusions of grandeur and evil eye
Give you the idea that you're too good to die
Then they bury you from your head to your feet
From the disease of conceit.

What Was It You Wanted?

Words and music Bob Dylan
Released on Oh Mercy (1989).

C#m

What was it you wanted

Tell me again so I'll know

What's happening in there,

What's going on in your show

F#m

What was it you wanted

Could you say it again?

C#m

I'll be back in a minute

You can get it together by then.

E G#m C#m

What was it you wanted

You can tell me I'm back

We can start it all over

Get it back on the track

You got my attention

Go ahead speak

What was it you wanted

When you were kissing my cheek?

Was there somebody looking

When you gave me that kiss

Someone there in the shadows

Someone that I might have missed?

Is there something you needed

Something I don't understand.

What was it you wanted.

Do I have it here in my hand?

G#m

Whatever you wanted

Slipped out of my mind

Would you remind me again,

If you'd be so kind

Has the record been breaking

Did the needle just skip

Is there somebody waiting

Was there a slip of the lip?

What was it you wanted,

I ain't keeping score

Are you the same person
That was here before?
Is it something important
Maybe not.
What was it you wanted?
Tell me again I forgot.

Whatever you wanted
What could it be
Did somebody tell you
That you could get it from me
Is it something that comes natural,
Is it easy to say,
Why do you want it,
Who are you anyway?

Is the scenery changing,
Am I getting it wrong
Is the whole thing going backwards
Are they playing our song?
Where were you when it started
Do you want it for free
What was it you wanted
Are you talking to me?

Shooting Star

Words and music Bob Dylan.

Released on Oh Mercy (1989) and in a live version on Unplugged (1995).

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

B'' (in the bridge) is a chord with a whole lot of tones in it, on several guitars, playing quite different chords. A good approximation is x22324.

In the outtake version the song is clearly played in C, with a capo on the 4th fret (see below). On Unplugged Dylan plays his licks without a capo, while Jackson uses the capo on the 4th fret.

Unbelievable

Written by Bob Dylan

Released on Under The Red Sky (1990)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

The basic chord is some kind of Em or Em7, but with hints of E and E7 as well.
This little thing goes through the whole song:

    Em      A   Em
|-0---0---0---0---|
|-0---0---2---0---|
|-0---0---2---0---|
|-2-----|
|-2-----|
|-0-----|

combination with a bass:

e . a c

    Em
It's unbelievable, it's strange but true,
It's inconceivable it could happen to you.
You go north and you go south
Just like bait in the fish's mouth.
Ya must be livin' in the shadow of some kind of evil star.
    B
It's unbelievable it would get this far.
    Em
It's undeniable what they'd have you to think,
It's indescribable it can drive you to drink.
They said it was the land of milk and honey,
now they say it's the land of money.
Who ever thought they could ever make that stick.
It's unbelievable you can get this rich this quick.

    B
Every head is so dignified, every moon is so sanctified,
    A
Every urge is so satisfied as long as you're with me.
    B
All the silver, all the gold, all the sweethearts you can hold
    A
That don't come back with stories untold, are hanging on a tree.

It's unbelievable like a lead balloon,
It's so impossible to even learn the tune.
Kill that beast and feed that swine,
```

Scale that wall and smoke that vine,
Beat that horse and saddle up the drum.
It's unbelievable, the day would finally come.

Once there was a man who had no eyes, every lady in the land told him lies,
He stood beneath the silver skies and his heart began to bleed.
Every brain is civilized, every nerve is analyzed,
Everything is criticized when you are in need.

It's unbelievable, it's fancy-free,
So interchangeable, so delightful to see.
Turn your back, wash your hands,
There's always someone who understands
It don't matter no more what you got to say
It's unbelievable it would go down this way.

T.V. Talkin' Song

Written by Bob Dylan

Released on Under The Red Sky (1990)

On this one, Eyolf Østrem commented: Go to bobb Dylan.com, get the lyrics, pick any chord and stay there.

One time in London I'd gone out for a walk,
Past a place called Hyde park where people talk
'Bout all kinds of different gods, they have their point of view
To anyone passing by, that's who they're talking to.

There was someone on a platform talking to the folks
About the T.V. god and all the pain that it invokes.
"It's too bright a light", he said, "For anybody's eyes,
If you've never seen one it's a blessing in disguise."

I moved in closer, got up on my toes,
Two men in front of me were coming to blows
The man was saying something 'bout children when they're young
Being sacrificed to it while lullabies are being sung.

"The news of the day is on all the time,
All the latest gossip, all the latest rhyme,
Your mind is your temple, keep it beautiful and free,
Don't let an egg get laid in it by something you can't see."

"Pray for peace!". he said, you could feel it in the crowd.
My thoughts began to wander. His voice was ringing loud,
"It will destroy your family, your happy home is gone
No one can protect you fro it once you turn it on."

"It will led you into some strange pursuits,
Lead you to the land of forbidden fruits.
It will scramble up your head and drag your brain about,
Sometimes you gotta do like Elvis did and shoot the damn thing out."

"It's all been designed", he said, "To make you lose your mind,
And when you go back to find it, there's nothing there to find."
"Everytime you look at it, your situation's worse,
If you feel it grabbing out for you, send for the nurse."

The crowd began to riot and they grabbed hold of the man,
There was pushing, there was shoving and everybody ran.
The T.V. crew was there to film it, they jumped right over me,
Later on that evening, I watched it on T.V..

Bb7

Some of 'm goin' down, some of 'm gonna get killed.

Ten thousand men dressed in oxford blue,

Ten thousand men dressed in oxford blue,

Drummin' in the morning, in the evening they'll be coming for you.

Ten thousand men on the move,

Ten thousand men on the move,

None of them doing nothin' that your mama wouldn't disapprove.

Ten thousand men digging for silver and gold,

Ten thousand men digging for silver and gold,

All clean shaven, all coming in from the cold.

Hey! Who could your lover be?

Hey! Who could your lover be?

Let me eat off his head so you can really see!

Ten thousand women all dressed in white,

Ten thousand women all dressed in white,

Standin' at my window wishing me goodnight.

Ten thousand men looking so lean and frail,

Ten thousand men looking so lean and frail,

Each one of 'em got seven wives, each one of 'em just out of jail.

Ten thousand women all sweepin' my room,

Ten thousand women all sweepin' my room,

Spilling my buttermilk, sweeping it up will a broom.

Ooh, baby, thank you for my tea!

Baby, thank you for my tea!

It's so sweet of you to be so nice to me.

How many compared to yesterday?
How many more without any reward?
How many more can they afford?

Two by two, they stepped into the ark,
Two by two, they step in the dark.
Three by three, they're turning the key,
Four by four, they turn it some more,
One by one, they follow the sun,
Two by two, to another rendezvous.

It was supposed to last a season

God knows it's terrifying,
God sees it all unfold,
There's a million reasons to be lying
You been so bold and so cold.

God knows there's a river,
God knows how to make it flow,
God knows, you ain't gonna be taking nothing with you when you go.

Words and music Bob Dylan

Released on Under The Red Sky (1990)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Sounding key B \flat major. I'd suggest a capo somewhere – 1st or 3rd frets are good suggestions.

Chords:

Plain	Capo 1st	Capo 3rd
Bb	A	G
Eb	D	C
F	E	D
Cm	Bm	Am
Fsus4	Esus4	Dsus4

The "Fsus4" in the last line of the bridge is a chord with a lot of tones in it – play e.g. Fsus4, F11 or B \flat /f.

Bb Eb F Eb Bb Eb F Eb
Handy dandy, controversy surrounds him
Eb Eb
He been around the world and back again
F Eb Bb Eb F Eb
Something in the moonlight still hounds him
Bb Eb F Eb Bb Eb F
Handy dandy, just like sugar and candy

Handy dandy, if every bone in his body was broken he would never admit it
He got an all girl orchestra and when he says
"Strike up the band", they hit it
Handy dandy, handy dandy

Cm
You say, "What are ya made of?"
Bb
He says, "Can you repeat what you said?"
Cm
You'll say, "What are you afraid of?"
Fsus4 F
He'll say, "Nothin' neither 'live nor dead."

Handy dandy, he got a stick in his hand and a pocket full of money
He says, "Darling, tell me the truth, how much time I got?"
She says, "You got all the time in the world, honey."
Handy dandy, Handy dandy

He's got that clear crystal fountain
He's got that soft silky skin
He's got that fortress on the mountain
With no doors, no windows, no thieves can break in

Handy dandy, sitting with a girl named Nancy in a garden feelin' kind of lazy
He says, "Ya want a gun? I'll give you one." She says, "Boy, you talking crazy."
Handy dandy, just like sugar and candy
Handy dandy, pour him another brandy

Handy dandy, he got a basket of flowers and a bag full or sorrow
He finishes his drink, he gets up from the table he says,
"Okay, boys, I'll see you tomorrow."

The cat's in the well, and the horse is going bumpety bump.
Back alley Sally is doing the American jump.

The cat's in the well, and pappa is reading the news.
His hair is falling out and all of his daughters need shoes.

The cat's in the well and the barn is full of bull
The cat's in the well and the barn is full of bull
The night is so long and the table is oh, so full

The cat's in the well and the servant is at the door.
The drinks are ready and the dogs are going to war.

The cat's in the well, the leaves are starting to fall
The cat's in the well, leaves are starting to fall
Goodnight, my love, may the lord have mercy on us all.

Hard Times in New York Town

Written by Bob Dylan, heavily based on "Down on Penny's Farm" by the Bently Boys Recorded Dec 22, 1961 ("The Minnesota Hotel Tape", Bonnie Beecher's apartment), and released on
The Bootleg Series 1-3 (1991)
 Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Although the guitar playing sounds very casual, it is actually quite well-organized, with a conscious bass line, especially around the end of the verse and the chorus. This concerns particularly the alternation between c and g (5th and 6th string) as bass note for the C chord, and the F/a chord (x03211), to get the bass progression c - a - g - c in the chorus.

The G at the end of the verse and the chorus is basically just a bass tone with hints of other tones added to it, which in some verses make it a G chord, in others a C/g (332010).

The finger picking pattern is (more or less):

      C          F          C
      : . . . : . . .
|-----|-----0-----|
|---1-----1-----|---1-----|
|-----0-----2-----|-----0-----0-----|
|-----2-----3-----|-----2-----2-----|
|---3-----3-----|-----3-----|
|-----1-----|---3-----|

The Witmark Demos version only has slight textual differences, such as the penultimate line's "Hard times in the city" instead of "...country".

          C          F          C
Come you ladies and you gentlemen, a-listen to my song.
C          F          C
Sing it to you right, but you might think it's wrong.
C          F          C
Just a little glimpse of a story I'll tell
          C          F          G
'Bout an East Coast city that you all know well.
C          F(/a)
It's hard times in the country,
C/g          G          C
Livin' down in New York town.

Old New York City is a friendly old town,
 From Washington Heights to Harlem on down.
 There's a-mighty many people all millin' all around,
 They'll kick you when you're up and knock you when you're down.
 It's hard times in the country,
 Livin' down in New York town.

It's a mighty long ways from the Golden Gate
 To Rockefeller Plaza n' the Empire State.
 Mister Empire sets up as high as a bird,
 Old Mister Rockefeller never says a word.
 It's hard times from the country,
 Livin' down in New York town.

Well, it's up in the mornin' tryin' to fins a job of work.

Stand in one place till your feet begin to hurt.
If you go a lot o' money you can make yourself merry,
If you only got a nickel, it's the Staten Island Ferry.
And it's hard times in the country,
Livin' down in New York town.

Mister Hudson come a-sailin' down the stream
And old Mister Minuet paid for his dream.
Bought your city on a one-way track,
'F I had my way I'd sell it right back.
And it's hard times from the country,
Livin' down in New York town.

I'll take all the smog in Cal-i-for-ne-ay,
'N' every bit of dust in the Oklahoma plains,
'N' the dirt in the caves of the Rocky Mountain mines.
It's all much cleaner than the New York kind.
And it's hard times in the country,
Livin' down in New York town.

So all you newsy people, spread the news around,
You c'n listen to m' story, listen to m' song.
You c'n step on my name, you c'n try 'n' get me beat,
When I leave New York, I'll be standin' on my feet.
And it's hard times in the country,
Livin' down in New York town.

The following figure is the basis of the fingerpicking pattern that he uses throughout, but with many variations along the way. Don't bother too much about the exact strings neither of the thumb nor the middle strings – what matters is the steady thumb against the syncopated rhythm of the upper strings:

Well, the crowd, they gathered one fine morn,
 At the man whose clothes 'n' shoes were torn.
 There on the sidewalk he did lay,
 They stopped 'n' stared and they went their way.

Well, the p'liceman come and he looked around,
 "Get up, old man, or I'm a-takin' you down."
 He jabbed him once with his bully club,
 the old man then rolled off the curb.

Well, he jabbed him again and loudly said:
 "Call the wagon; this man is dead."
 The wagon come, they loaded him in,
 I never saw the man again.

I've sung you my song, it ain't very long,
 'Bout an old man who never done wrong.
 How he died no body could say,
 They found him dead in the street one day.

Dropped D tuning (D-A-d-g-b-e')

The chords, the little figures and the playing style is the same as in numerous other dropped D-tunes from the early days. And as always, there is some variation in the way the descent D – C9 – G/b is executed. Quite often both in the C9 and in the G/b the bass tone is reached by a hammer-on from the open 5th string.

In the third line there is some variation between the verses concerning which bass tones are played. Some verses have the version of the interlude written out below, with only C9 – others have the version of the first verse.

Well, if you could have married a King's daughter there
I'm sure you're the one to blame
For I am married to a house carpenter
And I'm sure he's a fine young man

Forsake, forsake your house carpenter
And come away with me
I'll take you to where the green grass grows
On the shores of sunny Italy

So up she picked her babies three
And gave them kisses, one, two, three Saying "take good care of your daddy while I'm gone
And keep him good company."

Well, they were sailin' about two weeks
I'm sure it was not three
When the younger of the girls, she came on deck
Sayin' she wants company

"Well, are you weepin' for your house and home?
Or are you weepin' for your babies three?"
"Well, I'm not weepin' for my house carpenter
I'm weepin' for my babies three."

Oh what are those hills yonder, my love
They look as white as snow
Those are the hill of heaven, my love
You and I'll never know

Oh what are those hills yonder, my love
They look as dark as night
Those are the hills of hell-fire my love

Where you and I will unite

Oh twice around went the gallant ship
I'm sure it was not three
When the ship all of a sudden, it sprung a leak
And it drifted to the bottom of the sea

The Self Portrait version

One of those songs where "tabbed by..." feels hyperbolic. Pick a chord. Any chord. Sing gloriously over it. That's your tab.

Talking Bear Mountain Picnic Massacre Blues

Written by Bob Dylan

Recorded Apr 25 1962 during the Freewheelin' sessions, released on The Bootleg Series 1-3 (1991)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

The tune is the standard talkin' blues accompaniment. I've noted the deviations from the pattern of the first verse in the subsequent verses. The first four lines are the same in all the verses (which means that in verse 7 there is nothing but the four lines – it goes straight into the next verse).

G /a C
I saw it advertised one day,
D /f#
that the Bear Mountain picnic was comin' my way.
G C
"Come along 'n' take a trip,
D /f# G
We'll bring you up there on a ship.
/a/b C
Bring the wife and family

Bring the whole kids."
D G
Yippee!

G . C . D . . G /e-d
[harp]

Well, I run right down 'n' bought a ticket
To this thing called the Bear Mountain Picnic.
little did I realize
I was in for a pleasant funny surprise.
It had nothing to do with picnics didn't come close to a mountain.
And I hate bears.

Took the wife 'n' kids down to the pier,
there were six thousand people there,
Everybody had a ticket for the trip. G . . /a-b C
"Oh well." I said, "it's a pretty big ship."
Besides, anyhow, the more the merrier."

Well, we all got on 'n' what d'ya think,
That big old boat started t' sink
More people kept a-pilin' on, G . . /a-b C
That old ship was a-goin' down.
D
Funny way t' start a picnic.

Well, I soon lost track of m' kids 'n' wife,
So many people I never saw in m' life
That old ship was sinkin' down in the water, /f# G
There were six thousand people tryin' t' kill each other,

C

Dogs a-barkin', cats a-screamin',
 Women a-yellin', men a-flyin', fists a-flyin', paper flyin'
 Cops a-comin', me a-runnin'.

D

Maybe we just better call off the picnic.

I got shoved down, got pushed around,
 All I remember was a moanin' sound,
 Don't remember one thing more, /f# G . . /a-b C all I remember was wakin' up on the shore,
 /b-c D

M' arms and legs were broken,
 m' feet were splintered, m' head was cracked,
 I couldn't walk, couldn't talk, smell, feel, couldn't see,
 Didn't know where I was, I was bald . . .
 /f# G

Quite lucky to be alive though.

Well, feelin' like I just climbed outa m' casket,
 I grabbed back hold of m' picnic basket.
 Took the wife 'n' kids 'n' started home,
 Wishin' I'd never got up that mornin'.

Now, I don't care just what you do,
 If you wanta have a picnic, that's up t' you.
 But don't tell me about it, I don't wanta hear it,
 /f# G . . /a-b

You see, I just lost all m' picnic spirit.

C /b-c

Stay in m' kitchen,

D

have m' picnic in the bathroom.

Well, it don't seem to me quite so funny
 What some people are gonna do f'r money.
 There's a bran' new gimmick every day
 /f# G . . /a-b

Just t' take somebody's money away.

C /b-c

I think we oughta take some o' these people

d

put 'em on a boat, send 'em up to Bear Mountain . . .
 For a picnic.

..ground

There's been rumors of war and wars that have been
The meaning of the life has been lost in the wind
And some people thinkin' that the end is close by
"Stead of learnin' to live they are learning to die.
Let me die in my footsteps
Before I go down under the ground.

I don't know if I'm smart but I think I can see
When someone is pullin' the wool over me
And if this war comes and death's all around
Let me die on this land 'fore I die underground.
Let me die in my footsteps
Before I go down under the ground.

There's always been people that have to cause fear
They've been talking of the war now for many long years
I have read all their statements and I've not said a word
But now Lawd God, let my poor voice be heard.
Let me die in my footsteps
Before I go down under the ground.

If I had rubies and riches and crowns
I'd buy the whole world and change things around
I'd throw all the guns and the tanks in the sea
For they are mistakes of a past history.

Let me die in my footsteps
Before I go down under the ground.

Let me drink from the waters where the mountain streams flood
Let me smell of wildflowers flow free through my blood
Let me sleep in your meadows with the green grassy leaves
Let me walk down the highway with my brother in peace.
Let me die in my footsteps
Before I go down under the ground.

Go out in your country where the land meets the sun
See the craters and the canyons where the waterfalls run
Nevada, New Mexico, Arizona, Idaho
Let every state in this union seep in your souls.
And you'll die in your footsteps
Before you go down under the ground.

Rambling Gambling Willie

Written by Bob Dylan, based on the traditional tune "Brennan on The Moor" (thanks to Oliver Rea for notifying me)

Recorded at the first Freewheelin' session (April 24, 1962), and released on The Bootleg Series 1-3 (1991)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Open D/E tuning

Capo 10th or 8th fret

Chords

E 000000

B/e 040300

*) In subsequent verses a A/e E is inserted here, as in the following lines.

E . . . A/e . E . | A/e . E . . A/e E . . .

E *) A/e E
Come around you rovin' gamblers and a story I will tell
E A/e E A/e E
About the greatest gambler, you all should know him well.
E A/e E A/e E
His name was Will O' Conley and he gambled all his life,
A/e B/e A/e
He had twenty-seven children, yet he never had a wife.
E A/e E
And it's ride, Willie, ride,
E A/e A
Roll, Willie, roll,
A/e E A/e E
Wherever you are a-gamblin' now, nobody knows.

He gambled in the White House and in the railroad yards,
Wherever there was people, there was Willie and his cards.
He had a reputation as the gamblin'est man around,
Wives would keep their husbands home when Willie came to town.
And it's ride, Willie, ride,
Roll, Willie, roll,
Wherever you are a-gamblin' now, nobody really knows.

Sailin' down the Mississippi to a town called New Orleans,
They're still talkin' about their card game on that Jackson River Queen.
"I've come to win some money," Gamblin' Willie says,
When the game finally ended up, the whole damn boat was his.
And it's ride, Willie, ride,
Roll, Willie, roll,
Wherever you are a-gamblin' now, nobody really knows.

Up in the Rocky Mountains in a town called Cripple Creek,
There was an all-night poker game, lasted about a week.
Nine hundred miners had laid their money down,

When Willie finally left the room, he owned the whole damn town.
And it's ride, Willie, ride,
Roll, Willie, roll,
Wherever you are a-gamblin' now, nobody really knows.

But Willie had a heart of gold and this I know is true,
He supported all his children, and all their mothers too.
He wore no rings or fancy things, like other gamblers wore,
He spread his money far and wide, to help the sick and the poor.
And it's ride, Willie, ride,
Roll, Willie, roll,
Wherever you are a-gamblin' now, nobody really knows.

When you played your cards with Willie, you never really knew
Whether he was bluffin' or whether he was true.
He won a fortune from a man who folded in his chair.
The man, he left a diamond flush, Willie didn't even have a pair.
And it's ride, Willie, ride,
Roll, Willie, roll,
Wherever you are a-gamblin' now, nobody really knows.

It was late one evenin' during a poker game,
A man lost all his money, he said Willie was to blame.
He shot poor Willie through the head, which was a tragic fate,
When Willie's cards fell on the floor, they were aces backed with eights.
And it's ride, Willie, ride,
Roll, Willie, roll,
Wherever you are a-gamblin' now, nobody really knows.

So all you rovin' gamblers, wherever you might be,
The moral of this story is very plain to see.
Make your money while you can, before you have to stop,
For when you pull that dead man's hand, your gamblin' days are up.
And it's ride, Willie, ride,
Roll, Willie, roll,
Wherever you are a-gamblin' now, nobody really knows.

Quit Your Low Down Ways

Words and music Bob Dylan (but to some extent based on Bob Wills' Brain Cloudy Blues)
 Recorded Jul 9, 1962, during the Freewheelin' sessions, released on The Bootleg Series 1-3 (1991)
 Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

This one eluded me for a while; I thought it was in open g tuning for a while (because of the G7 chord), but couldn't then find a practical way of playing the other chords. I'm pretty confident about the 5x0003 shape, though. I haven't heard Dylan use it elsewhere in this tuning (but he uses a similar shape in Barbara Allen, in simple Drop D tuning), but nothing happens during that chord, and that's evidence that it is fingered in a way that prevents things from happening, such as the suggestion. Besides, it works.

The real tricky part is the rhythm, of course, with its constant changes between triple and duple time. I've noted in the verses where the riff (first bar of intro) begins, and where the beats fall in the text (usually the riff begins with an upbeat 3—; I've marked that with a comma).

According to Vince Cancilla, the "You're gonna need my help someday" part is copied exactly – text and melody – from Bob Wills' "Brain Cloudy Blues" from the 1940's. "The last two lines also follow the same melody. He even sings it the same way, with that high pitched – neeed." (V.C.)

Double dropped d tuning (D-A-d-g-b-d'; tune down the first and the sixth string one whole step), capo 5th fret.

I wish to my soul that I could see the girl I'm a-thinking of.

Don't you remember me, babe, I remember you quite well,
It caused me to leave old Kingsport Town with a high sheriff on my trail.

High sheriff on my trail, boys, high sheriff on my trail,
All because I've fallen for a curly-headed dark-eyed girl.

Who's a-gonna stroke your cool black hair and sandy colored skin?
Who's a-gonna kiss your Memphis lips when I'm not in the wind?

When I'm not in the wind, babe, when I'm not in the wind,
Who's a-gonna kiss your Memphis mouth when I'm not in the wind?

Who's a-gonna walk you side by side and tell you everything's all right?
Who's a-gonna sing to you all day long and not just in the night?

Who's a-gonna walk you side by side, who's a-gonna be your man?
Who's a-gonna look you straight in the eye and hold your bad luck hand?

Hold your bad luck hand, babe, hold your bad luck hand,
Who's a-gonna hold your hard luck hand and who's a-gonna be your man?

A winter wind is a-blowin' strong, my hands ain't got no gloves.
I wish to my soul that I could see the gal I'm thinkin' of.

 To tell about my troubled mind.

I got a heavy-headed gal
 I got a heavy-headed gal
 I got a heavy-headed gal
 She ain't feelin' well
 When she's better only time will tell

Well, I'm walkin' down the line,
 I'm walkin' down the line
 An' I'm walkin' down the line.
 My feet'll be a-flyin'
 To tell about my troubled mind.

My money comes and goes
 My money comes and goes
 My money comes and goes
 And rolls and flows and rolls and flows
 Through the holes in the pockets in my clothes

Well, I'm walkin' down the line,
 I'm walkin' down the line
 An' I'm walkin' down the line.
 My feet'll be a-flyin'
 To tell about my troubled mind.

I see the morning light
 I see the morning light

Well it's not because
I'm an early riser
I didn't go to sleep last night

Well, I'm walkin' down the line,
I'm walkin' down the line
An' I'm walkin' down the line.
My feet'll be a-flyin'
To tell about my troubled mind.

I got my walkin' shoes
I got my walkin' shoes
I got my walkin' shoes
An' I ain't a-gonna lose
I believe I got the walkin' blues

Well, I'm walkin' down the line,

G
Oh, the age of the inmates
C G
I remember quite freely:

No younger than twelve,
G /b /c D/f#
No older 'n seventeen.

G
Thrown in like bandits
C G
And cast off like criminals,
C /b /a G
Inside the walls,
D /c /b G
on the grounds of Red Wing.

From the dirty old mess hall
You march to the brick wall,
Too weary to talk
And too tired to sing.
Oh, it's all afternoon
You remember your home town,
Inside the walls,
The walls of Red Wing.

Oh, the gates are cast iron
And the walls are barbed wire.
Stay far from the fence
With the 'lectricity sting.
And it's keep down your head
And stay in your number,
Inside the walls,
The walls of Red Wing.

Oh, it's fare thee well
To the deep hollow dungeon,
Farewell to the boardwalk
That takes you to the screen.
And farewell to the minutes
They threaten you with it,
Inside the walls,
The walls of Red Wing.

It's many a guard
That stands around smilin',
Holdin' his club
Like he was a king.
Hopin' to get you

Behind a wood pilin',
Inside the walls,
The walls of Red Wing.

The night aimed shadows
Through the crossbar windows,
And the wind punched hard
To make the wall-siding sing.
It's many a night I pretended to be a-sleepin',
Inside the walls,
The walls of Red Wing.

As the rain rattled heavy
On the bunk-house shingles,
And the sounds in the night,
They made my ears ring.
'Til the keys of the guards
Clicked the tune of the morning,
Inside the walls,
The walls of Red Wing.

Oh, some of us'll end up
In St. Cloud Prison,
And some of us'll wind up
To be lawyers and things,
And some of us'll stand up
To meet you on your crossroads,
From inside the walls,
The walls of Red Wing.

The evenin' dust was rollin',

I was walking down the track.

There was a one-way wind a-blowin'

it was blowin' at my back.

Trails of troubles,

Roads of battles,

Paths of victory,

The gravel road is bumpy,

It's a hard old road to ride,

But the clearer road's up yonder

With the cinders on the side.

Trails of troubles,

Roads of battles,

Paths of victory,

We shall walk.

Tha mornin' train was movin',
The hummin' of its wheels, told me of a new day
comin' across the field.

Trails of troubles,
Roads of battles,
Paths of victory,
We shall walk.

Talkin' John Birch Paranoid Blues

 They wus all over.

So I run down most hurriedly
 And joined the John Birch Society, got me a secret membership card
 And went back home to the yard,
 Started lookin' on the sidewalk,
 under the hedges.

Well, I got up in the mornin' 'n' looked under my bed,
 I wus lookin' every place for them gol-darned Reds.
 Looked behind the sink, and under the floor,
 Looked in the glove compartment of my car.
 Couldn't find any . . .

Looked behind the clothes, behind my chair lookin' for them reds everywhere
 looked up my chimney hole,
 even deep down inside my toilet bowl,
 They got away . . .

I heard some foot-steps by the front porch door,
 so I grabbed my shot-gun from the floor.
 Snuck around the house with a huff and a hiss, saying "Hands up, you communist!"
 It was the mailman.
 He punched me out.

Well, I wus sittin' home alone an' started to sweat,
 Figured they wus in my T.V. set.
 I peeked behind the picture frame,

Got a shock from my feet that hit my brain.
Them Reds did it!
Hootenanny Television . . .

Well, I quit my job so I could work alone,
got a magnifying glass like Sherlock Holmes.
Followed some clues from my detective bag
And discovered: red stripes on the American flag!
Betsy Ross . . .

Now Eisenhower, he's a Russian spy,
Lincoln, Jefferson and that Roosevelt guy.
To my knowledge there's just one man
That's really a true American:
That's George Lincoln Rockwell.
I know for a fact he hates Commies cus he picketed the movie Exodus.

Well, I fin'ly started thinkin' straight
When I run outa things to investigate.
Couldn't imagine nothing else,
So now I'm home investigatin' myself!
Hope I don't find out too much . . . Good God!

Verses not sung in the released version:

Now we all agree with Hitlers' views,
Although he killed six million Jews.
It don't matter too much that he was a Fascist,
At least you can't say he was a Communist!
That's to say like if you got a cold you take a shot of malaria.

Well, I investigated all the books in the library,
Ninety percent of 'em gotta be burned away.
I investigated all the people that I knowed,
Ninety-eight percent of them gotta go.
The other two percent are fellow Birchers . . . just like me.

Who Killed Davey Moore?

Words and music Bob Dylan

Released on The Bootleg Series 1-3 (1991) in a live recording from Carnegie Hall, NY, Oct 26, 1963, and in a version from Philharmonic Hall (Oct 31, 1964) on Live 1964 (2004)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Capo 3rd fret

In the Carnegie version, the descending figure in the verses is played rather freely, with ample variation. In the version from the Halloween show (Oct 31, 1964), both the rhythm and the chords are more regular:

Also, in some verses, at least, it seems that he plays the last line of each verse ("No you can't blame me at all") the same way as the last line in the chorus (F G-G6-G7-C)

Verse pattern:	Chorus, last line:
F C/e G/d C	F G G6 G7 C
-----	--1-----
---1---1---0---1---	--1-----
---2---0---0---0---	--2---0-0-0---0---
3---2---0-----	--3---0-2-3---2---
-----3-----	--3---2-----3---
-----	--1---3-3-3-----

Spoken intro at the Halloween show (1964):

*"This is a song about a boxer... a boxer,
It's got nothing to do with boxing, it's just a song about a boxer.
And, uh... It's, uh...
It's not even having to do with a boxer, really it's got nothing to do with nothing [giggle]
But I fit all these words together, that's all
This is taken out of the newspapers.
Nothing has been changed, except the words."*

"Not I," says the referee,
"Don't point your finger at me.
I could've stopped it in the eighth
An' maybe kept him from his fate,
But the crowd would've booed, I'm sure,
At not gettin' their money's worth.
It's too bad he had to go,
But there was a pressure on me too, you know.
It wasn't me that made him fall.
No, you can't blame me at all."

Who killed Davey Moore,

Why an' what's the reason for?

"Not us," says the angry crowd,
Whose screams filled the arena loud.
"It's too bad he died that night
But we just like to see a fight.
We didn't mean for him t' meet his death,
We just meant to see some sweat,
There ain't nothing wrong in that.
It wasn't us that made him fall.
No, you can't blame us at all."

Who killed Davey Moore,
Why an' what's the reason for?

"Not me," says his manager,
Puffing on a big cigar.
"It's hard to say, it's hard to tell,
I always thought that he was well.
It's too bad for his wife an' kids he's dead,
But if he was sick, he should've said.
It wasn't me that made him fall.
No, you can't blame me at all."

"Not me," says the gambling man,
With his ticket stub still in his hand.
"It wasn't me that knocked him down,
My hands never touched him none.
I didn't commit no ugly sin,
Anyway, I put money on him to win.
It wasn't me that made him fall.
No, you can't blame me at all."

Who killed Davey Moore,
Why an' what's the reason for?

"Not me," says the boxing writer,
Pounding print on his old typewriter,
Sayin', "Boxing ain't to blame,
There's just as much danger in a football game."
Sayin', "Fist fighting is here to stay,
It's just the old American way.
It wasn't me that made him fall.
No, you can't blame me at all."

Who killed Davey Moore,
Why an' what's the reason for?

"Not me," says the man whose fists
Laid him low in a cloud of mist,
Who came here from Cuba's door
Where boxing ain't allowed no more.
"I hit him, yes, it's true,
But that's what I am paid to do."

Don't say 'murder,' don't say 'kill.'
It was destiny, it was God's will."

Who killed Davey Moore,
Why an' what's the reason for?

Only a Hobo

Words and music Bob Dylan

Bootleg Series 1-3 version

C' x30030

G C G
 As I was out walking on a corner one day,
 I spied an old hobo, in a doorway he lay.
 G C G
 His face was all grounded in the cold sidewalk floor
 D G
 And I guess he'd been there for the whole night or more.

C G
 Only a hobo, but one more is gone
 D C' G/b
 Leavin' nobody to sing his sad song
 G C G
 Leavin' nobody to carry him home
 D C' G
 He was only a hobo, but one more is gone

A blanket of newspaper covered his head,
 As the curb was his pillow, the street was his bed.
 One look at his face showed the hard road he'd come
 And a fistful of coins showed the money he bummed.

Only a hobo, but one more is gone
 Leavin' nobody to sing his sad song
 Leavin' nobody to carry him home
 Only a hobo, but one more is gone

Does it take much of a man to see his whole life go down,
 To look up on the world from a hole in the ground,
 To wait for your future like a horse that's gone lame,
 To lie in the gutter and die with no name?

Only a hobo, but one more is gone
 Leavin' nobody to sing his sad song
 Leavin' nobody to carry him home
 Only a hobo, but one more is gone

Moonshiner

Trad (aka The Bottle song, Moonshine blues or Kentucky Moonshiner), arr. Bob Dylan Recorded August 12 1963 (The Times They Are A-changin' sessions), and released on The Bootleg Series
 1-3 (1991)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Capo 4th fret (sounding key C♯ minor)

Standard fingerpicking.

C/g (332010) is played in the turns around F. In the longer stretches (such as from "moonshiner" to "years" in the first line), it changes to a plain C chord, i.e. the bass goes from only picking the low G, to alternating between C and G on the 5th and 6th strings.

Intro:

Am C/g
 F . . . C/g

Am C/g F C/g G7
 I've been a-a moonshiner for seventeen long years
 Am C/g F C/g G7
 I've spent all my-y money on whiskey an' beer
 F G C/g F
 I go to some hollow and set up my still
 Am C/g F C/g G7
 And if whiskey don't kill me then I don't know what will.

I'd go to some bar room and drink with my friends
 Where the women can't follow an' see what I've spent
 God bless them pretty women, I wish they was mine
 Their breath is as sweet as the dew on the vine.

Let me eat when I'm hungry, let me drink when I'm dry
 Hmm, dollars when I'm hard up, religion when I die
 The whole world's a bottle an' life's but a dram
 When a bottle gets empty, it sure ain't worth a damn.

Last Thoughts on Woody Guthrie

Written by Bob Dylan

Spoken live , and released on The Bootleg Series 1-3 (1991)

When yer head gets twisted and yer mind grows numb
When you think you're too old, too young, too smart or too dumb
When yer laggin' behind an' losin' yer pace
In a slow-motion crawl of life's busy race
No matter what yer doing if you start givin' up
If the wine don't come to the top of yer cup
If the wind's got you sideways with with one hand holdin' on
And the other starts slipping and the feeling is gone
And yer train engine fire needs a new spark to catch it
And the wood's easy findin' but yer lazy to fetch it
And yer sidewalk starts curlin' and the street gets too long
And you start walkin' backwards though you know its wrong
And lonesome comes up as down goes the day
And tomorrow's mornin' seems so far away
And you feel the reins from yer pony are slippin'
And yer rope is a-slidin' 'cause yer hands are a-drippin'
And yer sun-decked desert and evergreen valleys
Turn to broken down slums and trash-can alleys
And yer sky cries water and yer drain pipe's a-pourin'
And the lightnin's a-flashing and the thunder's a-crashin'
And the windows are rattlin' and breakin' and the roof tops a-shakin'
And yer whole world's a-slammin' and bangin'
And yer minutes of sun turn to hours of storm
And to yourself you sometimes say
"I never knew it was gonna be this way
Why didn't they tell me the day I was born"
And you start gettin' chills and yer jumping from sweat
And you're lookin' for somethin' you ain't quite found yet
And yer knee-deep in the dark water with yer hands in the air
And the whole world's a-watchin' with a window peek stare
And yer good gal leaves and she's long gone a-flyin'
And yer heart feels sick like fish when they're fryin'
And yer jackhammer falls from yer hand to yer feet
And you need it badly but it lays on the street
And yer bell's bangin' loudly but you can't hear its beat
And you think yer ears might a been hurt
Or yer eyes've turned filthy from the sight-blindin' dirt
And you figured you failed in yesterdays rush
When you were faked out an' fooled white facing a four flush
And all the time you were holdin' three queens
And it's makin you mad, it's makin' you mean
Like in the middle of Life magazine
Bouncin' around a pinball machine
And there's something on yer mind you wanna be saying
That somebody someplace oughta be hearin'
But it's trapped on yer tongue and sealed in yer head
And it bothers you badly when your layin' in bed
And no matter how you try you just can't say it
And yer scared to yer soul you just might forget it
And yer eyes get swimmy from the tears in yer head

And yer pillows of feathers turn to blankets of lead
And the lion's mouth opens and yer staring at his teeth
And his jaws start closin with you underneath
And yer flat on your belly with yer hands tied behind
And you wish you'd never taken that last detour sign
And you say to yourself just what am I doin'
On this road I'm walkin', on this trail I'm turnin'
On this curve I'm hanging
On this pathway I'm strolling, in the space I'm taking
In this air I'm inhaling
Am I mixed up too much, am I mixed up too hard
Why am I walking, where am I running
What am I saying, what am I knowing
On this guitar I'm playing, on this banjo I'm frailin'
On this mandolin I'm strummin', in the song I'm singin'
In the tune I'm hummin', in the words I'm writin'
In the words that I'm thinkin'
In this ocean of hours I'm all the time drinkin'
Who am I helping, what am I breaking
What am I giving, what am I taking
But you try with your whole soul best
Never to think these thoughts and never to let Them kind of thoughts gain ground
Or make yer heart pound
But then again you know why they're around
Just waiting for a chance to slip and drop down
'Cause sometimes you hear'em when the night times comes creeping
And you fear that they might catch you a-sleeping
And you jump from yer bed, from yer last chapter of dreamin'
And you can't remember for the best of yer thinking
If that was you in the dream that was screaming
And you know that it's something special you're needin'
And you know that there's no drug that'll do for the healin'
And no liquor in the land to stop yer brain from bleeding
And you need something special
Yeah, you need something special all right
You need a fast flyin' train on a tornado track
To shoot you someplace and shoot you back
You need a cyclone wind on a stream engine howler
That's been banging and booming and blowing forever
That knows yer troubles a hundred times over
You need a Greyhound bus that don't bar no race
That won't laugh at yer looks
Your voice or your face
And by any number of bets in the book
Will be rollin' long after the bubblegum craze
You need something to open up a new door
To show you something you seen before
But overlooked a hundred times or more
You need something to open your eyes
You need something to make it known
That it's you and no one else that owns
That spot that yer standing, that space that you're sitting
That the world ain't got you beat
That it ain't got you licked
It can't get you crazy no matter how many Times you might get kicked

You need something special all right
You need something special to give you hope
But hope's just a word
That maybe you said or maybe you heard
On some windy corner 'round a wide-angled curve

But that's what you need man, and you need it bad
And yer trouble is you know it too good
"Cause you look an' you start getting the chills

"Cause you can't find it on a dollar bill
And it ain't on Macy's window sill
And it ain't on no rich kid's road map
And it ain't in no fat kid's fraternity house
And it ain't made in no Hollywood wheat germ
And it ain't on that dimlit stage
With that half-wit comedian on it
Ranting and raving and taking yer money
And you thinks it's funny
No you can't find it in no night club or no yacht club
And it ain't in the seats of a supper club
And sure as hell you're bound to tell
That no matter how hard you rub
You just ain't a-gonna find it on yer ticket stub
No, and it ain't in the rumors people're tellin' you
And it ain't in the pimple-lotion people are sellin' you
And it ain't in no cardboard-box house
Or down any movie star's blouse
And you can't find it on the golf course
And Uncle Remus can't tell you and neither can Santa Claus
And it ain't in the cream puff hair-do or cotton candy clothes
And it ain't in the dime store dummies or bubblegum goons
And it ain't in the marshmallow noises of the chocolate cake voices
That come knockin' and tappin' in Christmas wrappin'
Sayin' ain't I pretty and ain't I cute and look at my skin
Look at my skin shine, look at my skin glow
Look at my skin laugh, look at my skin cry
When you can't even sense if they got any insides
These people so pretty in their ribbons and bows
No you'll not now or no other day
Find it on the doorsteps made out-a paper mache
And inside it the people made of molasses
That every other day buy a new pair of sunglasses
And it ain't in the fifty-star generals and flipped-out phonies
Who'd turn yuh in for a tenth of a penny
Who breathe and burp and bend and crack
And before you can count from one to ten
Do it all over again but this time behind yer back
My friend
The ones that wheel and deal and whirl and twirl
And play games with each other in their sand-box world
And you can't find it either in the no-talent fools
That run around gallant
And make all rules for the ones that got talent
And it ain't in the ones that ain't got any talent but think they do
And think they're foolin' you
The ones who jump on the wagon

Just for a while 'cause they know it's in style
To get their kicks, get out of it quick
And make all kinds of money and chicks
And you yell to yourself and you throw down yer hat
Sayin', "Christ do I gotta be like that Ain't there no one here that knows where I'm at Ain't there no one here that knows how I feel Good God Almighty
THAT STUFF AIN'T REAL"

No but that ain't yer game, it ain't even yer race
You can't hear yer name, you can't see yer face
You gotta look some other place
And where do you look for this hope that yer seekin'
Where do you look for this lamp that's a-burnin'
Where do you look for this oil well gushin'
Where do you look for this candle that's glowin'
Where do you look for this hope that you know is there
And out there somewhere
And your feet can only walk down two kinds of roads
Your eyes can only look through two kinds of windows
Your nose can only smell two kinds of hallways
You can touch and twist
And turn two kinds of doorknobs
You can either go to the church of your choice
Or you can go to Brooklyn State Hospital
You'll find God in the church of your choice
You'll find Woody Guthrie in Brooklyn State Hospital

And though it's only my opinion
I may be right or wrong
You'll find them both
In the Grand Canyon
At sundown

Old Reilly's daughter got a message
 That her father was goin' to hang.
 She rode by night and came by morning
 With gold and silver in her hand

When the judge he saw Reilly's daughter
 His old eyes deepened in his head,
 Sayin', "Gold will never free your father,
 The price, my dear, is you instead."

"Oh I'm as good as dead," cried Reilly,
 "It's only you that he does crave
 And my skin will surely crawl if he touches you at all.
 Get on your horse and ride away."

"Oh father you will surely die
 If I don't take the chance to try
 And pay the price and not take your advice.
 For that reason I will have to stay."

The gallows shadows shook the evening,
 In the night a hound dog bayed,
 In the night the grounds were groanin',
 In the night the price was paid.

The next mornin' she had awoken
 To know that the judge had never spoken.
 She saw that hangin' branch a-bendin',
 She saw her father's body broken.

Through a bullet of light
Her face was reflectin'
The fast fading words
That rolled from my tongue
With a long-distance look
Her eyes was on fire
But the song it was long
And there was more to be sung.

My eyes danced a circle
Across her clear outline
With her head tilted sideways
She called me again

As the tune drifted out
She breathed hard through the echo
But the song it was long
And it was far to the end

I glanced at my guitar
And played it pretendin'
That of all the eyes out there
I could see none
As her thoughts pounded hard
Like the pierce of an arrow
But the song it was long
And it had to get done

As the tune finally folded
I laid down the guitar
Then looked for the girl
Who'd stayed for so long
But her shadow was missin'
For all of my searchin'
So I picked up my guitar
And began the next song

Suze (The Cough Song)

One of Dylan's attempts at an instrumental.

Recorded Oct 24, 1963 and released on The Bootleg Series 1-3 (1991)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

The trick in this song is to let the chords begin on the last 8th note of the previous bar, and to emphasise this note wherever it figures as a melody tone, such as in the first measure.

Many of the things that are written in as hammer-ons or pull-offs in the tab, are really just the almost inevitable result of changing chords at breakneck speed. Don't bother too much about it; if you are able to play it at the correct speed, the effects will come out in any case.

Bootleg Series version

Capo 4th fret (sounding key E major)

Chords:

D7/f# 200212 (or 200210, which would be called D9/f#)
 C/g 332010
 C/b x20010 (not really C/b, but that's what he plays)
 G6 322003 (drop the 1st string and play 32000x-32200x-32300x, G7 323003 that's the only way to get this one smooth)

I don't even mind who you'll be wakin' with tomorrow,

[Joanie, who remembers the lyrics, takes charge:]

I am not askin' you to say words like "yes" or "no,"
Please understand me, I'm not calling for you to go
I'm just breathing to myself, pretending not that I don't know, that Mama [/daddy] you been on my mind.

[Long halt on the G7 again, but this time Dylan takes his time to ask Joan how the next verse begins:]

When you wake up in the mornin', baby, look inside your mirror.
You know I won't be next to you, you know I won't be near.
I'd just be curious to know if you can see yourself as clear
As someone who has had you on his mind.

Live 1975 (Rolling Thunder) Version (w/Joan Baez)

The first verse is repeated at the end.

G

G D Em
Maybe it's the color of the sun cut flat
Am *)
An' cov'rin' the crossroads I'm standing at,
G D Em C
Or maybe it's the weather or something like that,
G D G
But mama, you're just on my mind.

I don't mean trouble, please don't put me down or get upset,
I am not pleadin' or sayin', "I can't forget you."
I do not walk the floor bowed down an' bent, but yet,
Mama, you're just on my mind.

Even though my mind is hazy an' my thoughts they might be narrow,
Where you been don't bother me or bring me down in sorrow.
It don't even matter where you're wakin' up tomorrow,
Mama, you're just on my mind.

When you wake up in the mornin', baby, look inside your mirror.
You know I won't be next to you, you know I won't be near/there.
I'd just be curious to know if you can see yourself as clear
As someone who has had you on his mind

Maybe it's the color of the sun cut flat
An' cov'rin' the crossroads I'm standing at,
Or maybe it's the weather or something like that,
But mama, you're just on my mind.
Mama, you're just on my mind

*) In some verses a C is inserted before the Am.

Farewell Angelina

Recorded jan 13 1965 and released on The Bootleg Series 1-3 (1991)

The melody is based on an old standard, sung by Pete Seeger called "Wagoners Lad" on "Americas Favorite Ballads Vol. 1" released on Smithsonian Folkways. Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

The melody is clearly based upon his earlier unfinished I Rode Out One Morning.

If You Gotta Go, Go Now

Words and music Bob Dylan

Played in an acoustic version occasionally in 1964-5, and recorded with a band in Jan 1965 during the sessions for Bringing It All Back Home. Released on The Bootleg Series 1-3 (1991) in the electric version, and on Live 1964 (2004) in a live version from the Philharmonic Hall

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Halloween version (NY Philharmonic Hall, 31 Oct 1964)

C G
But if you got to go, go now,
G'/d D7(/f#) G
Or else you gotta stay all night.

It ain't that I'm questionin' you.
To take part in any quiz.
It's just that I ain't got no watch
An' you keep askin' me what time it is.

But if you got to go,
It's all right.
But if you got to go, go now,
Or else you gotta stay all night.

I am just a poor boy, baby,
Lookin' to connect.
But I certainly don't want you thinkin'
That I ain't got any respect.

But if you got to go,
 It's all right.
 But if you got to go, go now,
 Or else you gotta stay all night.

You know I'd have nightmares
 And a guilty conscience, too,
 If I kept you from anything
 That you really wanted to do.

But if you got to go,
 It's all right.
 But if you got to go, go now,
 Or else you gotta stay all night.

It ain't that I'm wantin'
 Anything you never gave before.
 It's just that I'll be sleepin' soon,
 It'll be too dark for you to find the door.

But if you got to go,
 It's all right.
 But if you got to go, go now,
 Or else you gotta stay all night.

Bootleg Series 1-3 version

The phrase end lick is basically a succession of Gs and Bbs, with some prominence to the Bb.

The G - C/g - G figure is somewhat more elaborate here than elsewhere. The el-guitar plays a little figure that would have to be played something like:

    G      C/g  G
    | . . . | . .
| (3)-----|-----
|-3---3---5-6-5-3-|-----3----
|-4---4---5-----4-|-----4---- etc
|-5---5---5-----5-|-----5----
|-----|-----

or something to that effect.

Sittin' on a Barbed-Wire Fence

Words and music Bob Dylan

Recorded June 15, 1965 during the Highway 61 Revisited sessions, released on The Bootleg Series 1-3 (1991)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Dylan is at the piano, hence the (black) key. A fair guess is that the guitars are capoed on the fourth fret. That would give the chords E (which is actually an E7-10 = 022133), B7 and A9 (x02000)

Ab

I paid fifteen million dollars, twelve hundred and seventy-two cents

I paid one thousand two hundred twenty-seven dollars and fifty-five cents

Eb7

See my bull dog bite a rabbit

Db9

Ab

And my hound dog is sittin' on a barbed-wire fence

Well, my temperature rises and my feet can't walk so hot

Yes, my temperature rises and my feet can't walk so hot

Well, this Arabian doctor comes in, gives me a shot

But he wouldn't tell me what it was that I got

Well, this woman I've got, she's killin' me alive

Yes, this woman I've got, she's killin' me alive

She's makin' me into an old man,

and man I'm not even 25

Of course, you're gonna think this song is a riff

I know you're gonna think this song is just a riff

Unless you've been inside a tunnel

And fell down 69, 70 feet over a barbed-wire fence

All right!

I'll Keep It with Mine

Words and music Bob Dylan

Recorded Jan 14, 1965 and Jan 27, 1966, released on Biograph (1985) and The Bootleg Series 1-3 respectively

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Since these are both played at the piano, the value as a guitar tab is limited, but what the heck...

You know I was straight with you
You know I never tried to change you in any way
You know if you didn't want to be with me
That you didn't have to stay.
Now you stand here sayin' you forgive and forget.
Honey, what can I say?
And you, you just sit around and ask for ashtrays, can't you reach?
I see you kiss her on the cheek everytime she gives a speech
With her picture books of the pyramid
And her postcard of billy the kid
why must evrybody bow?
You better talk to her about it
You're her lover now.

Oh everybody that cares Is goin' up the castle stairs
But I'm not up in your castle, honey,
It's true, I can't recall San Francisco at all
I can't even rember El Paso, uh , honey
You never had to be faithful
I didn't want you to grieve
Oh, why was it so hard to you
If you didn't want to be with me, just to leave?
Now you stand here
while your finger's goin' up my sleeve
An' you, just what do you do, anyway? Ain't there nothing you can say?
She'll be standin' on the bar soon
With a fish head an' a harpoon
An' a fake beard plastered on her brow
You'd better do somethin' quick
She's your lover now.

Oh, why must I fall into this sadness?
Do I look like Charles Atlas?
Do you think I still got what you still got, baby?
Her voice is really warm
It's just that it ain't got no form
But it's just like a dead man's last pistol shot, baby
Oh, your mouth used to be naked, your eyes used to be so blue
Your hurts used to be so nameless and your tears used to be so few
Now your eyes cry wolf while your mouth cries:
"I'm not scared of animals like you."
And you there's really nothing about you I can recall
I just saw you that one time and you were just there that's all
But I've already been kissed,
I'm not gonna get into this
I couldn't make it anyhow
You do it for me
You're her lover now

Alternate lyrics

From the Martin Luther King Jr. Tribute, Washington, DC January 20, 1986

They say every man needs protection
They say that every man must fall
I swear I see my own reflection
Somewhere so high above this wall

I see my light come shinin'
I don't need no doctor or no priest

Any day now, any day now
I shall be released

It don't take much to be a criminal
One wrong move and they'll turn you into one
At first decay is just subliminal
To protect yourself and your forever on the run

I see my light come shinin'
I don't need no doctor or no priest
Any day now, any day now
I shall be released

He will find you where your stayin'
Even in the arms of somebody else's wife
Your laughin' now, you should be prayin'
To be in the midnight hour of your life

I see my light come shinin'
I don't need no doctor or no priest
Any day now, any day now
I shall be released

To sail away
She's all feel bad
No no no no don't don't don't feel bad
She's the worst thing he's ever had She's a mad, man that he's so glad
She's over above the hat to bad
She's never disappear so bad
I went away.

Sante Fe, dear dear dear dear dear Sante Fe
My own heart city lay
I won't have a nature way
And I'm leavin' every day to run away
From Sante Fe, dear dear dear dear Sante Fe.
My woman's left sittin' at home
She's actin' the police unknown
She cried like an evening stone
She leap back under a broom
But she ain't gonna find a room
And the tears send her on own ever day.

By that place where the bones of life are piled

I know somethin' has changed

I'm a stranger here and no one sees me

'Cept you, yeah you

Nothing anymore seems to please me

'Cept you, yeah you

Nothing hypnotizes me

Or holds me in a spell

Everything runs by me

Just like water from a well

Everybody wants my attention

Ev'rybody got something to sell

'Cept you, yeah you.

Am G

I'm in love with you.

Golden Loom

G

n.c. G
Smoky autumn night, stars up in the sky,

I see the sailin' boats across the bay go by.

Eucalyptus trees hang above the street

 G
And then I turn my head, for you're approachin' me.
Am Bm C D
Moonlight on the water, fisherman's daughter, floatin' in to my room
 G
With a golden loom.

First we wash our feet near the immortal shrine
And then our shadows meet and then we drink the wine.
I see the hungry clouds up above your face
And then the tears roll down, what a bitter taste.
And then you drift away on a summer's day where the wildflowers bloom
With your golden loom.

I walk across the bridge in the dismal light
Where all the cars are stripped between the gates of night.
I see the trembling lion with the lotus flower tail
And then I kiss your lips as I lift your veil.
But you're gone and then all I seem to recall is the smell of perfume
And your golden loom.

Seven Days

Words and music Bob Dylan

Performed during the Rolling Thunder Revue II (1976)

Released in a live version from Tampa, Florida, Apr 21, 1976 on The Bootleg Series 1-3 (1991)

It's hard to tell from the live version what he's actually singing in the bridge. The suggestion below has the one advantage that it rhymes. If you come up with something better, give me a hint.

Go to bobdylan.com for the official lyrics, which differ on one or two places.

      Em      C                      G
Seven days, seven more days she'll be comin'
      B7      Em      Am
I'll be waiting at the station for her to arrive
      B7      Em
Seven more days, all I gotta do is survive.

She been gone ever since I been a child
 Ever since I seen her smile, I never forgotten her eyes.
 She had a face that outshine the sun in the skies.

I been good, I been good while I been waitin'
 Maybe guilty of hesitatin', But I've been hangin' on Seven more days, all that'll be gone.

You Changed My Life

Words and music Bob Dylan

Recorded Apr 23, 1981 during the Shot of Love sessions, released on The Bootleg Series 1-3 (1991)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

D /c#
I was listening to the voices of death on parade
/c G
Singin' about conspiracy, wanting me to be afraid
Gm6 D
Working for a system I couldn't understand or trust
Asus4 A
Suffering ridicule and wanting to give it all up in disgust.

D G D
But you changed my life
D G A
Came along in a time of strife
G D
In hunger and need you made my heart bleed
D A D
You changed my life.

Talk about salvation, people suddenly get tired
They got a million things to do, they're all so inspired
You do the work of the devil you got a million friends
They'll be there when you got something, they'll take it all in the end.

But you changed my life
Came along in a time of strife
In hunger and need you made my heart bleed
You changed my life.

When the nature of man is to beg and to steal
I do it myself, it's not so unreal
The call of the wild's forever at my door
Want me to fly like an eagle while being chained to the floor.

But you changed my life
Came along in a time of strife
In hunger and need you made my heart bleed
You changed my life.

When I was eatin' with the pigs off a fancy tray
I was told I was lookin' good and to have a nice day
It all seemed so proper, it all seemed so elite
Eatin' that obsolete garbage while being so discreet.

But you changed my life
Came along in a time of strife
In hunger and need you made my heart bleed
You changed my life.

You were glowing in the sun while being peaceable calm
While orphans of man dance to the beat of the palm
You eyes were on fire, your feet were of brass
In the world you had made they had made you an outcast.

But you changed my life
Came along in a time of strife
In hunger and need you made my heart bleed
You changed my life.

There's someone in my body that I could hardly see
Invading my privacy making my decisions for me
Holding me back, not letting me stand
Making me feel like a stranger in a strange land.

But you changed my life
Came along in a time of strife
In hunger and need you made my heart bleed
You changed my life.

My lord and my savior, my companion, my friend
Heart"fixer, mind"regulator, true to the end
My creator my comforter my cause for joy
While the world is set against what will never destroy.

But you changed my life
Came along in a time of strife
In hunger and need you made my heart bleed
You changed my life.

I need a woman, [ah pull up]
Need a woman, [ticket from the same stub] (?) :-)
Someone who likes simple things, is not afraid to bend
Someone who don't make herself up to make every man her friend
And I want you to be that woman
(every day, be that woman every way)

Don't know what you got that I want,
Don't know what I got to give
Don't know how much time I've got,
don't know how long I live
The rebellion in my soul - why was it created?
To blur the focus of my mind and keep me isolated

But I need a woman, ain't no crime
Need a woman, all the time
To see the promised land with me as the time goes by
To rule my heart with sweetness and boldness from on high
And I want you to be that woman, Yes I do
Be that woman straight and true.

Your best friend and my worst enemy is one and the same
Angelina

Oooh-oh, Angelina
Oooh-oh, Angelina

There's a black Mercedes rolling through the combat zone
Your servants are half dead, you're down to the bone
Tell me tall man, where would you like to be overthrown?
In Jerusalem or Argentina?

She was stolen from her mother when she was three days old
Now her vengeance has been satisfied and her possessions have been sold
He's surrounded by God's angels and she's wearing a blindfold
But so are you, Angelina

Oooh-oh, Angelina
Oooh-oh, Angelina

I see pieces of men marching, tryin' to take heaven by force
I can see the unknown rider, I can see the pale white horse
In God's truth, name, tell me what you want and you'll have it of course
Just step into the arena

Beat a path of retreat up them spiral staircases
Pass the tree of smoke, pass the angel with four faces
Begging god for mercy and weeping in unholy places
Angelina

Oooh-oh, Angelina
Oooh-oh, Angelina
Oooh-oh, Angelina
(Oooh-oh, Angelina)
(Oooh-oh, Angelina)

B E (E7)
Tell me. Tell me.

Tell me, what are you focused upon?
Tell me, will it come to me after you're gone? *)

Tell me now with a glance on the side.
Shall I hold you close or let you go by?
Tell me. Tell me.

Is that the heat and the beat of your pulse that I feel?
If it's not that, then what is it that you're trying to conceal?
Do you have any secrets that will only come out in time?

Do you lie in your bed do you stare at the stars?
Is your main friend someone who's an old acquaintance of ours?
Tell me. Yes, tell me.

Tell me, are those rock 'n' roll dreams in your eyes?
Tell me behind what door your treasure lies.

Ever gone broke in a big way?
Ever done the opposite of what the experts say?
Tell me. Tell me.

Is it some kind of game that you're playin' with my heart
How deep must I go, where do I start?
Do you have any morals? Do you have any point of view?

Is that a smile that I see on your face?
Will it lead me to glory or lead me to disgrace?
Tell me. Tell me.

Tell me, is that my name in your book?
Tell me, will you go back and take another look?

Tell me the truth, don't tell me no lies.
Are you anybody, someone, prays for, or cries?
Tell me. Tell me.

Few things you find are worthwhile

And though I don't ask for much

No material things to touch

He's young and on fire

Full of hope and desire

In a world that's been raped, raped and defiled

If I fall along the way

When all will be well

When God and man will be reconciled

But until men lose their chains

And righteousness reigns

B G#m E
Well, there ain't no goin' back when your foot of pride come down
 B
Ain't no goin' back

Hear ya got a brother named James, don't forget faces or names
Sunken cheeks and his blood is mixed
He looked straight into the sun and said revenge is mine
But he drinks, and drinks can be fixed
Sing me one more song, about ya love me to the moon and the stranger
And your fall by the sword love affair with Erroll Flynn in these times of compassion when conformity's in fashion
Say one more stupid thing to me before the final nail is driven in.

Well, there ain't no goin' back when your foot of pride come down
Ain't no goin' back

There's a retired businessman named Red, cast down from heaven and he's out of his head
He feeds off of everyone that he can touch
He said he only deals in cash or sells tickets to a plane crash
He's not somebody that you play around with much
Miss Delilah is his, a Philistine is what she is She'll do wondrous works with your fate
Feed you coconut bread, spice buns in your bed
If you don't mind sleepin' with your head face down in a grave.

Well, there ain't no goin' back when your foot of pride come down
Ain't no goin' back

Well they'll choose a man for you to meet tonight
You'll play the fool and learn how to walk through doors
How to enter into the gates of paradise
No, how to carry a burden too heavy to be yours
Yeah, from the stage they'll be tryin' to get water outta rocks
A whore will pass the hat, collect a hundred grand and say thanks
They like to take all this money from sin, build big universities to study in Sing "Amazing Grace" all the way to the Swiss banks

Well, there ain't no goin' back when your foot of pride come down
Ain't no goin' back

They got some beautiful people out there, man
They can be a terror to your mind and show you how to hold your tongue
They got mystery written all over their forehead
They kill babies in the crib and say only the good die young
They don't believe in mercy
Judgment on them is something that you'll never see
They can exalt you up or bring you down main route
Turn you into anything that they want you to be

Well, there ain't no goin' back when your foot of pride come down
Ain't no goin' back

Yes, I guess I loved him too
I can still see him in my mind climbin' that hill
Did he make it to the top, well he probably did and dropped
Struck down by the strength of the will
Ain't nothin' left here partner, just the dust of a plague that has left this whole town afraid
From now on, this'll be where you're from
Let the dead bury the dead. Your time will come
Let hot iron blow as he raised the shade

Well, there ain't no goin' back when your foot of pride come down
Ain't no goin' back

Guitar tuned down one half step (sounding key Eb minor) (Otherwise: put a capo on the 1st fret and play in Dm – see chords below).

The guitar part is played on a 12-string, so it's impossible to be certain about the exact picking pattern. The following is a suggestion, where only the most prominent tones have been indicated – the rest is picking over the indicated chords.

Since the 12-string has string pairs tuned an octave apart for the lowest strings, the highest notes in the figure *) below are actually played on the 4th string. Too bad for all you 6-stringers out there, but that's the bitter truth: you won't be able to get that sound... (Actually there is a way – see bottom of page)

 As they were taking down the tents
 The stars above the barren trees and into the shadows of doubt wasn't going to any great trouble

You'd believe in it's whatever it seems nothing too heavy to burst the bubble
Just thinking of a series of dreams.

Thinking of a series of dreams
Where the time and the tempo drag
Suddenly the gate is thrown open and you're left there holding the bag
Wasn't making any great connection
Wasn't falling for any intricate scheme
Nothing that would pass inspection
I's just thinking of a series of dreams

Dreams where the umbrella is folded
Into the path you are hurled
And the cards are no good that you're holding
Unless they're from another world

In one, the surface was frozen
In another, I witnessed a crime
In one, I was running, and in another
All I seemed to be doing was climb
Wasn't looking for any special assistance
Not going to any great extremes
I'd already gone the distance
Just thinking of a series of dreams

Frankie & Albert

trad., arr. Bob Dylan
Released on Good As I Been To You (1992)
Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

The guitar is tuned ca. a semitone low.

What can I say? Lots of creative strumming here, which is virtually un-tab-able. The intro is just an approximation, of course ...

The G's are played with hammer-ons (1-2) on the fifth string throughout, and the melody is played over the Cs, on the 3rd string (drop the second finger from the 4th string (this is beginning to sound like Highway 61 ...)) and damp the string with the 3rd finger, playing something like this, while strumming what's left of the C chord:

G
Frankie was a good girl, everybody knows.
C
Paid one hundred dollars for Albert's new suite of clothes.
D G
He was her man but he done her wrong.

Albert said, "I'm leaving you. Won't be gone for long.
Don't wait up for me. A-worry about me when I'm gone."
He was her man but he done her wrong.

Frankie went down to the corner saloon, get a bucket of beer.
Said to the bartender: "Has my lovin' man been here?"
He was her man but he done her wrong.

Instrumental

"Well, I ain't gonna tell you no stories, I ain't gonna tell you no lies.
I saw Albert an hour ago. With a gal named Alice Bly."

He was her man but he done her wrong.

Frankie went down to 12th Street, lookin' up through the window high.
She saw her Albert there, lovin' up Alice Bly.
He was her man but he done her wrong.

Instrumental

Frankie pulled out a pistol, pulled out a forty-four.
Gun went off a rootie-toot-toot, and Albert fell on the floor.
He was her man but he done her wrong.

Frankie got down upon her knees, took Albert into her lap.
Started to hug and kiss him, but there was no bringin' him back.
He was her man but he done her wrong.

Instrumental

"Gimme a thousand policemen. Throw me into a cell.
I shot my Albert dead, and now I'm goin' to hell.
He was her man but he done me wrong."

Judge said to the jury: "Plain as a thing can be.
A woman shot her lover down. Murder in the second degree."
He was her man but he done her wrong.

Instrumental

Frankie went to the scaffold, calm as a girl could be.
Turned her eyes up towards the heavens. Said, "Nearer, my God, to Thee."
He was her man but he done her wrong.

Well...

Well our ship was high upon the sea
when pirates came along,

But the soldiers on our convict ship
 Were full five hundred strong.
 For they opened fire and somehow drove
 That pirate ship away.
 But I'd rather have joined that pirate ship
 Than gone to Botany Bay.
 With the storms ragin' round us,
 And the winds a-blowin' gales,
 I'd rather have drowned in misery
 Than gone to New South Wales.
 There's no time for mischief there, they say remember that says they oh they'll flog the poaching out of you down there in Botany Bay

Now it's day and night and the irons clang,
 And like poor galley slaves
 We toil and toil, and when we die
 Must fill dishonored graves,
 And it's by and by I'll slip my chains,
 Well, into the bush I'll go
 And I'll join the brave bush rangers there,
 Jack Donohue and co.
 And some dark night, when everything
 Is silent in the town
 I'll shoot those tyrants one and all,
 I'll gun the flogger down.
 Oh, I'll give the land a little shock,
 Remember what I say,
 And they'll yet regret they've sent Jim Jones
 In chains to Botany Bay.

Let the 2nd string sound during the Gm strumming – that's what creates that delightful clash between the B \flat of the melody and the B of the strumming.

And, of course, there are plenty of variations from one verse to another.

"Well, saddle for me my coal black stud,
He's speedier than the gray.
I rode all day and I'll ride all night,
And I'll overtake my lady.
I'll bring back my lady."

Well, he rode all night till the broad daylight,
Till he came to a river ragin',
And there he spied his darlin' bride
In the arms of Black Jack Davey.
Wrapped up with Black Jack Davey.

"Pull off, pull off them long blue gloves
All made of the finest leather.
Give to me your lily-white hand
And we'll both go home together.

Well, she pulled off them long blue gloves
All made of the finest leather.
Gave to him her lily-white hand
And said good-bye forever.
Bid farewell forever.

Trad./arr. Bob Dylan (possibly (but not certainly) influenced by Nic Jones' arr (here's a tab of it))

Released on Good As I Been To You (1992)

Some open/alternate tuning has been suggested for this one, but I doubt that. It sounds very much like a standard guitar, tuned down one whole step (D-G-c-f-a-d'). The playing is sprinkled with hammer-ons and sus4-chords, in such a free way that it would be sacrilegious to encarcerate it in a fixed version (meaning I don't have the time or the energy to tab it out...). It's been claimed that Dylan stole his arrangement from the English folk singer Nic Jones. A comparison between the two versions tells me that Dylan can sleep safely—they don't sound that similar. See the footnote and see for yourselves.

[Intro: first two lines of the verse]

 C G C F
Well, it's all of fair and handsome girl,
C G C
She's all in her tender years.
C G C F
She fell in love with a sailor boy,
 C G
It's true she loved him well.
F C
For to go off to sea with him
 G
Like she did not know how,
C G C F
She longed to see that seaport town
C F C
Of Canadee-i-o.

So she bargained with the sailor boy,
All for a piece of gold.
Straightaway then he led her
Down into the hold,
Sayin', "I'll dress you up in sailor's clothes,
Your jacket shall be blue.
You'll see that seaport town
Of Canadee-i-o.

Now, when the other sailors heard the news,
Well, they fell into a rage,
And with all the ship's company
They were willing to engage.
Saying, "We'll tie her hands and feet, my boys,
Overboard we'll throw her.
She'll never see that seaport town
Called Canadee-i-o.

Now, when the captain he heard the news,
Well, he too fell in a rage,
And with the whole ship's company
He was willing to engage,
Sayin', "She'll stay in sailor's clothes,

Her color shall be blue,
She'll see that seaport town
Call Canadee-i-o.

Now, when they come down to Canada
Scarcely 'bout half a year,
She's married this bold captain
Who called her his dear.
She's dressed in silks and satins now,
She cuts a gallant show,
Finest of the ladies
Down Canadee-i-o.

Come, all you fair and tender girls,
Wheresoever you may be,
I'd have you to follow your own true love
Whene'er he goes to sea.
For if the sailors prove false to you,
Well, the captain, he might prove true.
You'll see the honor I have gained
By the wearing of the blue.

It seems that the B is played with an open E string: x24400, but the full B chord x24442 is fine too; you don't really need those high strings anyway, since mostly the song is played only on the bass strings.

The E4 chord (E on the fourth fret) = xxx454. Could be played on the seventh fret as well (o7999o)

Step It Up And Go

Trad.

Released on Good As I Been To You (1992)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Guitar tuned down one whole tone (sounding key thus F major)

The tab of the intro is at the same time the basic outline of the strumming for the verses. It is less complicated than it looks: the boogie woogie bass for the G, the little lick in bar three for the C (which comes a little late in the intro), and the turn to D at the end, which is not played in the intro, but in the verses.

The tab only notes the melodic bass notes that depart from the fundamental chord; the upstrokes generally strum the higher strings.

This may come as a surprise to some of you, but this song is in standard tuning, capo 2nd fret, chords in the G family, and not in open G tuning. The hammer-ons simply wouldn't be possible in open G, and the high, continually sounding tone suggests the common G chord 3rd fret pinky on the 1st string.

See <http://www.paulbrady.com/tablature/am.asp> for Paul Brady's version in open G, which is probably where Dylan learned it (thanks to Trev for notifying me and for finding the link).

And a little wee drummer intending to camp,
      D      G
For the day bein' pleasant and charmin'.

"Good morning, good morning," the Sergeant he cried.
 "And the same to you, gentlemen," we did reply,
 Intending no harm but meant to pass by,
 For it bein' on Christmas mornin'
 "But," says he, "My fine fellows, if you will enlist,
 Ten guineas in gold I'll stick to your fist,
 And a crown in the bargain for to kick up the dust,
 And drink the king's health in the morning.

"For a soldier, he leads a very fine life,
 And he always is blessed with a charming young wife,
 And he pays all his debts without sorrow or strife,
 And he always lives pleasant and charmin',
 And a soldier, he always is decent and clean,
 In the finest of clothing he's constantly seen.
 While other poor fellows go dirty and mean,
 And sup on thin gruel in the morning."

Instrumental

"But," says Arthur, "I wouldn't be proud of your clothes,
 For you've only the lend of them, as I suppose,
 And you dare not change them one night, for you know
 If you do, you'll be flogged in the morning,
 And although that we're single and free,
 We take great delight in our own company,
 We have no desire strange places to see,
 Although that your offers are charming.

"And we have no desire to take your advance,
 All hazards and dangers we barter on chance,
 For you'd have no scruples for to send us to France,

G D G

Where we would get shot without warning."

"Oh no," says the Sergeant. "I'll have no such chat,
 And neither will I take it from snappy young brats,
 For if you insult me with one other word,
 I'll cut off your heads in the morning."
 And Arthur and I, we soon drew our hogs,
 And we scarce gave them time to draw their own blades
 When a trusty shillelagh came over their head
 And bid them take that as fair warning.

And their old rusty rapiers that hung by their sides,
 We flung them as far as we could in the tide,
 "Now take them up, devils!" cried Arthur McBride,
 "And temper their edge in the mornin'!"
 And the little wee drummer, we flattened his bow,
 And we made a football of his rowdy-dow-dow,
 Threw it in the tide for to rock and to roll,

G D

And bade it a tedious returning

And we havin' no money, paid them off in cracks.
 We paid no respect to their two bloody backs,
 And we lathered them there like a pair of wet sacks,
 And left them for dead in the morning.
 And so, to conclude and to finish disputes,
 We obligingly asked if they wanted recruits,
 For we were the lads who would give them hard clouts
 And bid them look sharp in the mornin'.

Instrumental

Oh, me and my cousin, one Arthur McBride,
 As we went a-walkin' down by the seaside,
 Mark now what followed and what did betide,
 For it bein' on Christmas mornin'

Introductory Remarks

Eyolf Østrem

World Gone Wrong (1993) is a body. Not just a great body of work, but a body.

The greatness of this album of folk and blues classics is that there is one voice speaking on it and one person speaking with this voice, whether he speaks guitar, harmonica, or English.

I'll try to make it a little clearer.

Not-a-one-man-band

Perhaps if I start by saying what it's not: The tracks on World Gone Wrong are not those of a one-man band, a skilled display by a person who can speak different languages at the same time, or, more down-to-earth, is able to sing and play harp and guitar at the same time.

Instead, it is as if the different parts of the performance — words, guitar, language, harmonica, rhythm, sound — come together and blend into one; here more than on any other Dylan album (or any album whatsoever, probably).

You speak to me in body language

It is as if the different parts of the performance represent different facets of the same language, which materialize first as 'mouth language' (which is not to be confused with spoken language): voice range, talking speed, voice quality, and — as a special case — harmonica style; and as 'hand language': the guitar playing. The languages of these different body parts are so prominent that they together form, if not a full human body, then at least the image of one, the impression of a full body in our presence, speaking body language in sound.

To phrase it differently, what I hear on World Gone Wrong is all the informational extras, the toppings on the 'message': that which we see/experience/understand when we speak with someone face to face, but which disappear in this medium, the disembodied text (or the un-incarnated Word, which is more or less the same), where they are replaced with smilies or rhetorics (or parentheses like this one).

Hence the distinction between 'mouth language' and the language that comes out of the mouth: speaking is a physical act of communication.

The stylized worlds of music and poetry frequently lead an uncertain life in-between: poetry departs from the written word by drawing attention to the physical quality of words and text. And singing usually takes one step back from the act of speaking, by inserting a layer of artfulness and/or aesthetics between what is said and who says it, adding something in the process, but at the cost of blurring the person at the other end.

But on World Gone Wrong I can hear him. I hear all that which fleshes out the message, i.e. makes it appear in the flesh, as a human expression and not just as a stick figure.

This would not have been possible had Dylan not been a great, natural guitar player: technically speaking, World Gone Wrong is Dylan's greatest achievement as a guitarist since Freewheelin'. Worth pointing out is the consistent technique of picking out the melody line or fragments of it on the bass strings and strum on in the higher strings as if nothing special was happening. Two Soldiers is the standout track in this respect, but also Love Henry and one of the many superb outtakes in Dylan's production, You Belong To Me shine. Delia and Ragged and Dirty do some of the same: the little riffs that go through each of those songs, echo snippets of melody line as well. World Gone Wrong could be on the curriculum of any course in "Solo song with guitar accompaniment".

But even more important is the way Dylan makes the guitar one with the body, hence with the voice, hence with what comes out through the voice: the words. The interludes and ornaments flow as freely and naturally as the syllables of the text. An alacrity in the words is transformed into strokes on the strings — a slightly harder strum here, a vaguely noticeable tempo gain or hesitation there. The strokes set and adjust to a pace: the guitar breathes.

The Limbs of the Body

Among the individual performances, I have favourites, of course, musically speaking. But at the other end, I really can't pick any of them out as superfluous, just as little as I can tell which finger I could do without.

"World Gone Wrong", the title track and opener, is the most unappealing, unsexy opening track in Dylan's catalogue. Never has his voice been raspier, more piercing, less redeeming. When the album came out, I still had a couple of albums from the back catalogue left to buy, and I was standing in the record store, trying to choose between some classic and this new one. When I heard the first seconds, I thought: "This is grim! I must have it." I still feel the same about it.

'Blood in my Eyes' was one of the first songs I sat down to seriously figure out the chords to, and it was one of the first tab files at what was later to become dylanchords. It's not revolutionary, it's not pretty, and it's not showy or particularly difficult. But it's hypnotic and near, and I thought: "I must know how he does that." I still feel the same about it too.

Apropos hypnotic: 'Ragged and Dirty' ... The hours I spent playing that little riff over and over again — some would say they were spent in vain and are now lost forever, but that's a lie: they have etched that sound-and-body union into my fingers and my soul, and brought the memories of that part of my life with them. I'd be a poorer man and a lesser person without them.

The same goes for the little riffs and interludes in songs like Love Henry, Lone Pilgrim, and Delia. They are all based on the same figure, over the same chord structure. And they are all repeated almost identically throughout the songs: it would have been easy for a musician with Dylan's good knowledge of the style to vary the riffs, but the only variation there is, comes from imperfection: a wrong finger placement here, an accidentally struck string there, and here and there a missed beat.

In fact, the whole album is based on the same figures over the same chord structures: most of the songs are played with C type chords (varied through different capo position), embellished with Csus4 or Csus2 chords, either to echo the melody line, or as "hints" of F; and the Gsus4-like chord xx3300 which is so prominent in 'Blood In My Eyes' is used in many of the other songs too.

Down in the Groove: a stick figure

This lack of variation might have led to the same verdict as for Down in the Groove, but it doesn't. In fact, the difference between the albums couldn't have been bigger. The difference is in principle the same as between "Mixed Up Confusion" and "In the Morning", which I've discussed earlier: one fills a pattern the same way every time, and after five, ten, hundred repetitions, it becomes clear that the pattern is all there is. The other can be seen as a pattern the same way that people can (two arms, two legs, etc.), but in the end, what we notice and remember are all the things that deviate from the pattern, and we recognize the person as an individual, even though it may be hard to describe why.

The use of Csus4 chords instead of F is a case in point: the pattern — the three-chord pattern of most western music — prescribes F, and it is perfectly possible to play F everywhere there is a Csus4. But Dylan doesn't want that. The slot which schematically is an F chord, is occupied with every possible shade of chord between C and F. The differences are hinted at more than stated.

World Gone Wrong: a body in sound

It is as if he is saying: this may be a song with a fixed verse and chord structure, but musically, this isn't poetry, it's prose. It's a human talking freely, someone speaking guitar — not someone following and (ful)filling a given pattern.

The same variability can be seen on the rhythmical level. Delia is the most extreme case. The wait before the final “All the friend I ever had are gone” is differently long every time. Sometimes the basic pulse is maintained, but more often it is not. It is borderline annoying. The performance is balancing on the edge of falling apart, but miraculously it doesn’t. Again: the variations give body where the plain structure is just dead surface.

Greatest of them all, ‘Broke Down Engine’: Dylan’s best guitar track since ‘Hero Blues’, the outtake from Freewheelin’. The rhythmic drive and the precision of the playing is fabulous. The “Lordy lord” part is amazing, in more ways than one: It’s well played, of course, but it is also a good illustration of the synergy of body languages: I find it impossible to sing that line without a guitar, but effortless when the two are together.

I’ve always heard this song as the shadow of a rock history in miniature. There is a clear connection between Dylan’s version and Blind Willie McTell’s original, but despite the strong continuity, Dylan could never have played the way he does without forty years of rock in his baggage. This is not to say that Dylan’s version is a rock’n’roll song — far from it. But there is an energy, a punch, an attack in the playing which is not and could never have been there in Blind Willie’s playing — because he hadn’t heard Chuck Berry and Little Richard.

I haven’t said anything about the texts. That’s not because I don’t care about them — on the contrary, I feel very strongly about many of them. But while my most common impression of the interplay between words and music is that the music may enhance the words, it is the other way around here: I hear the lyrics as a commentary to the music. If I can identify with the ragged and dirty one who sneaks out the back door when his lover’s husband comes home, it is because I can identify first with the riff and the bodily state it puts me in.

Capo 2nd fret (Original key D major)

Chords:

C x32010
Csus4 x33010
Dm7-5 xx011x (Could also be called C+ or E+)
Cmaj7 xx5500

The last line in every verse is given special treatment every time. Sometimes he plays C F G C using only the strings 2, 3 and 4. Other times he goes straight to an F after the Cmaj7. It's all mainly a flourish anyway, so... And the riff that follows is just as variable. This is in principle what he plays:

Riff 1:

In practice, it can take this form:

The turn at 'I can't be good no more' goes like this:

 Honey, because the world gone wrong.

[Riff 1]

Feel bad this morning, ain't got no home
 No use in worrying cause the world gone wrong
 I can't be good no more, once, like I did before
 I can't be good baby
 Honey, because the world gone wrong.

I told you baby, right to your head
 If I didn't leave you, I would have to kill you dead
 I can't be good no more, once, like I did before
 I can't be good baby
 Honey, cause the world gone wrong.

I tried to be lovin', and treat you kind
 But it seem like you never right, you got no loyal mind
 I can't be good no more, once, like I did before
 I can't be good baby
 Honey, cause the world's gone wrong.

If you had a woman and she don't treat you kind
 Praise the Good Lord to get her out of your mind
 I can't be good no more, once, like I did before
 I can't be good baby
 Honey, because the world gone wrong.

Said, when you been good now, can't do no more
 Just tell her kindly, "There is the front door"
 I can't be good no more, once, like I did before
 I can't be good baby
 Honey, because the world's gone wrong.

Pack up my suitcase, give me my hat
 No use to ask me baby, cause I'll never be back
 I can't be good no more, once, like I did before
 I can't be good baby.
 Honey, because the world gone wrong.

Love Henry

Traditional, arranged by Bob Dylan
 Released on World Gone Wrong (1993)
 Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Capo 6th fret (original key F# major)

Chords:

C x32010
 Csus4 x33010
 Csus2 x30010

In principle, the melody is picked out in the lower strings on the downbeats while the upper strings are strummed freely on the upbeats.

Riff for the last line of each verse:

"Get well, get well Love Henry," she cried
 "Get well, get well," said she
 "Oh don't you see my own heart's blood
 Come flowin' down so free?"

She took him by his long yellow hair
 And also by his feet
 She plunged him into well water, where
 It runs both cold and deep.

"Lie there, lie there, Love Henry," she cried
 "'Til the flesh rots off your bones
 Some pretty little girl in Cornersville
 Will mourn for your return."

"Hush up, hush up, my parrot," she cried
 "Don't tell no news on me
 Or these costly beads around my neck
 I'll apply them all to thee."

"Fly down, fly down pretty bird," she cried
 "And light on my right knee
 The doors to your cage shall be decked with gold
 And hung on a willow tree."

"I won't fly down, I can't fly down
 And light on your right knee
 A girl who would murder her own true love
 Would kill a little bird like me."

Ragged & Dirty

Written by Yank Rachell and Sleepy John Estes arranged by Bob Dylan and played on World Gone Wrong (1993)
 Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Capo 4th fret (original key E major)

The trick is to get the riff that runs through the whole song right. This riff appears everywhere where there's a G, and it's always played twice in a row. The adjacent open strings should be sounding, especially at the end of the riff, where you get the delicious clash between the B \flat of the third string and the B of the open second string. The : and | indicate the beats. Most of the melody notes come a little before the beat, and should be played on the upstrokes. Throughout all of this, you keep strumming, but lightly, mainly to indicate the basic rhythm.

For the initial slide up (/ = slide up), you already have the index finger in place from the C chord. Use that.

 If I can't come in here baby then just let me sit down in your door
 And I would leave so soon that your man won't never know.

How can I live here baby, Lord, and feel at ease?
 How can I live here baby, Lord, and feel at ease?
 Well, that woman I got, man, she do just what she feels.

Lord you shouldn't mistreat me, baby, because I'm young and wild
 Shouldn't mistreat me, baby, because I'm young and wild
 You must always remember, baby, you was once a child.

'Cause I'm leaving in the morning, if I have to ride the blind

Well, I've been mistreated and I swear, I don't mind dyin'.

Blood in My Eyes

(traditional, arranged by Bob Dylan)
Released on World Gone Wrong (1993)

Album version

Capo 2nd fret (Original key D major)

The chord I've called "G7" (G6sus4add7/C, to be precise) could have been called Csus4maj7, or even some F-chord variant, but I consider it functionally as a dominant, hence a G, even though a G is hardly sounding in the chord. What's in a name anyway? Sometimes it is replaced by an F.

Broke Down Engine

Written by Blind Willie McTell. In this case I suppose the arrangement credits could actually go to Dylan, since his version sounds nothing like Blind Willie's (unless Dylan is using someone else's arrangement).

Released on World Gone Wrong (1993)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Dropped D tuning (D-A-d-g-b-e')

Chords:

D9 xx(0)-14-13-12

The real problem here is, of course, to get the chorus right (un)rhythmically speaking (I added a transcription of the first lordylorddoodledumdy at the end). Aside from that, the riffs are definitely playable. The fact that the intro riff ends with a D in fifth position (057775), and the D-riff begins in second position (000232), implies that one has to move from the one to the other somewhere during the first line of singing. I seem to hear such moves here and there (then again, after some hours of tabbing, I seem to hear quite a lot...).

In the first verse, the B^b in the last line comes later than in the rest of the verses (where the A is noted).

Delia

Traditional, arranged by Bob Dylan
Released on World Gone Wrong (1993)
Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Read John Garst's story about Delia Green, age 14, shot down on Christmas Eve 1900 by her boyfriend "Cooney" Houston.

Capo 2nd fret (original key D major)

Chords:

C x32013 in the intro, otherwise x32010
F9 xx3213 in the intro, otherwise normal F
Cviii xxx988
Fv xxx565
Ciii xxx553
Giii xxx433
C/g 332010

It should be mentioned that Dylan isn't always dead certain about neither how long to strum F before "all the friends I ever had are gone", nor about now to play the descending riff. But hey, he's an artist, man, you gotta give him that.

If your pinky is strong enough, I'd suggest to play the figure in the second line as a half-barre on the eight fret with the middle finger on the ninth, then let that slide down to form the basis of the "D-shape" chord on the fifth fret, with the rest of the strings fingered with the ring- and little fingers. That way, it's possible to play it quickly and smoothly. At least that's how I play it.

Delia's dear ol' mother took a trip out West
 When she returned, little Delia'd gone to rest.
 All the friends I ever had are gone.

Delia's Daddy weeped, Delia's momma moaned
 Wouldn't have been so bad if the poor girl died at home.
 All the friends I ever had are gone.

Curtis's looking high, Curtis's looking low
 He shot poor Delia down with a cruel forty-four.
 All the friends I ever had are gone.

High upon the housetops, high as I can see
 Looking for them rounders, looking out for me.
 All the friends I ever had are gone

Men in Atlanta, trying to pass for white
 Delia's in the graveyard, boys, six feet out of sight.
 All the friends I ever had are gone.

Judge says to Curtis, "What's this noise about?"
 "All about them rounders, Judge, tryin' to cut me out."
 All the friends I ever had are gone.

Curtis said to the judge "What might be my fine?"
 Judge says, "Poor boy, you got ninety-nine."
 All the friends I ever had are gone.

Curtis' in the jailhouse, drinking from an old tin cup
 Delia's in the graveyard, she ain't gettin' up.
 All the friends I ever had are gone.

Delia, oh Delia, how can it be?
 You loved all them rounders, never did love me.
 All the friends I ever had are gone.

Delia, oh Delia, how could it be?
 You wanted all them rounders, never had time for me.
 All the friends I ever had are gone.

The figure at the end of the verse, that I have denoted "C Csus4 C Csus2" is just a quick flourish of the underlying C major chord, and can of course be replaced by a C throughout. There are other occasional Csus4's sprinkled throughout the verses. Use your ear (and your fingers).

Dylan's Liner Notes from the album

STACK A LEE is Frank Hutchinson's version. what does the song say exactly? it says no man gains immortality thru public acclaim. truth is shadowy. in the pre-postindustrial age, victims of violence were allowed (in fact it was their duty) to be judges over their offenders-parents were punished for their children's crimes (we've come a long way since then) the song says that a man's hat is his crown. futurologists would insist it's a matter of taste. they say "let's sleep on it" but they're already living in the sanitarium. No Rights Without Duty is the name of the game & fame is a trick. playing for time is only horsing around. Stack's in a cell, no wall phone. he is not some egotistical degraded existentialist dionysian idiot, neither does he represent any alternative lifestyle scam (give me a thousand acres of tractable land & all the gang members that exist & you'll see the Authentic alternative lifestyle, the Agrarian one) Billy didn't have an insurance plan, didn't get airsick yet his ghost is more real & genuine than all the dead souls on the boob tube-a monumental epic of blunder & misunderstanding. a romance tale without the cupidity.

He was just a blue-eyed boston boy
His voice was low in pain
"I'll do your biddin', comrade mine,
If I ride back again
But if you ride back and I am left
You'll do as much for me
Mother, you know, must hear the news,
so write to her tenderly."

She's waiting at home like a patient saint,
Her fond face pale with woe
Her heart would be broken when I am gone
I'll see her soon, I know.
Just then the order came to charge
For an instance, hand touched hand
They said, "Aye!" and away they rode,
That brave and devoted band.

Straight was the track to the top of the hill
the rebels, they shot and shelled
Plowed furrows of death through the toiling ranks,
And guarded them as they fell
There soon came a horrible, dying yell
From heights that they could not gain
And those whom doom and death had spared
Rode slowly down again

But among the dead that were left on the hill was the boy with the curly hair
The tall dark man who rode by his side
Lay dead beside him there
There's no-one to write to the blue-eyed girl
The words that her lover had said.
Mama, you know, awaits the news,
And she'll only know he's dead.

 Oh, there was a wealthy merchant, in London he did dwell
 Am C F C /b
 He had a lovely daughter, the truth to you I'll tell
 Am E Am
 Oh, the truth to you I'll tell.

She had sweethearts a-plenty and men of high degree
 There was none but Jackie Frazier, her true love e'er to be Oh, her true lover e'er to be.

"Oh daughter, oh daughter your body I will confine
 If none but Jack the sailor, would ever suit your mind
 Oh, would ever suit your mind."

"This body you may imprison, my heart you can't confine There's none but Jack the Sailor would have this heart of mine
 Oh, would have this heart of mine."

Now Jackie's gone a-sailing with trouble on his mind
 To leave his native country and his darling girl behind
 Oh, his darling girl behind.

She went into the tailor shop and dressed in men's array
 Then she went into a vessel to convey herself away
 Oh, convey herself away.

"Before you step on board, sir, your name I'd like to know"
 She smiled all in her countenance, said, "They call me Jack-A-Roe"
 Oh, they call me Jack-A-Roe.

"Your waist is light and slender, your fingers neat and small
 Your cheeks too red and rosy for to face the cannonball"
 Oh, to face the cannonball.

"I know my waist is slender and my fingers they are small
 But it would not make me tremble for to see ten thousand fall"
 Oh, to see ten thousand fall.

The war soon being over, they hunted all around
 Among the dead and dying her darling love she found
 Oh, her darling love she found.

She picked him up all in her arms and carried him to town
 And sent for her physician to quickly heal his wounds
 Oh, to quickly heal his wounds.

This couple, they got married, so well they did agree
This couple they got married, so why not you and me
Oh, so why not you and me ?

John Brown

Written by Bob Dylan

Recorded as Witmark and Broadside demos in 1963 and performed occasionally in the early days (Gaslight II, Bob Dylan in Concert), but not released officially on a Dylan album until Unplugged (1995).

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Gaslight II version

From the second of the three concerts at the Gaslight Cafe, late October 1962. First known performance of this song. The other early performances are all similar to this; some use the simple drop D tuning.

Double drop D tuning (D-A-d-g-b-d')
Capo 5th fret (sounding key G minor)

Chords:

Oh!          Lord!      from my home!

When John Brown went off to war to fight on a foreign shore.
 His mother sure was proud of him!
 As he stood straight and tall in his uniform and all.
 His mother's face broke out all to a grin.

"Oh son, you look so fine, I'm glad you're a son of mine,
 You make me proud to know you hold a gun.
 Do what the captain says, lots of medals you will get,
 And we'll put them on the wall when you come home."

When that old train pulled out, John's ma began to shout,
 Tellin' ev'rybody in the whole neighborhood:
 "That's my son that's about to go, he's a soldier now, you know."
 She made well sure her neighbors understood.

Oh! Lord! Understood!

She got a letter once in a while and her face broke into a smile
 As she showed them to the people from next door.
 And she bragged about her son with his uniform and gun,
 And these things you called a good old-fashioned war.

Then the letters ceased to come, for a long time they'd never come.
 They ceased to come for about nine months or more.
 Then a letter finally came saying, "Go down and meet the train.
 Your son's a-coming home from the war."

Oh! Lord! From the war.

She smiled and went right down, she looked up and all around
 But she did not see her soldier son in sight.
 But as all the people passed, she saw her son at last,
 When she did she could hardly believe her eyes.

His face was all shot up and his hands were both blown off
 And he wore a metal brace around his waist.
 He whispered kind of slow, in a voice she did not know,

While she couldn't even recognize his face!

"Oh my darling son, tell me what to you they done.
How is it that you come to be this way?"
His mouth could hardly move as he tried his best to talk
And she did not even recognize his voice.

"Don't you remember, Ma, when I went off to war
You thought it was the best thing I could do?
I was on the battleground, you were home, feeling proud.
Thank God you wasn't standing in my shoes."

"Oh, I thought when I was there, God, what am I doing here?
I'm a-tryin' to kill my enemy or die tryin'.
But as the enemy came close, the thing that hurt me most
As I saw that his face looked just like mine."

Oh! Lord! Just like mine!

"And I couldn't help but think, through the thunder sound and stink,
That I was just a puppet in a play.
And through the roar and smoke, this string is finally broke,
And a cannon ball blew my eyes away."

As he turned away to walk, his Ma was still in shock
At seein' the metal brace that helped him stand.
But as he turned to go, he called his mother close
And he dropped his medals down into her hand.

Oh! Lord! To her hand!

You wasn't there standing in my shoes."

"Well, and I thought when I was there, Lord, what am I doing here?
tryin' to kill somebody or die tryin' .
But the thing that scared me most when my enemy came close
I could see that his face looked just like mine."

"And I couldn't help but think, through the thunder rolling stink,
I was just a puppet in a play.
And through the roar and smoke, this string it finally broke,
And a cannon ball blew my eyes away."

As he turned away to go, his Mother was acting slow seein' the metal brace that helped him stand.
But as he turned to leave, he called his mother close
And he dropped his medals down into her hand.

Dignity

(Words and Music by Bob Dylan) (or James Damiano?)

1994 Special Rider Music

Released on Greatest Hits vol. 3 (1994) and on Unplugged (1995) in a live version.

Chords:

G11 = F/g = 303211

C/e 032010 or xx2010

Unplugged version

(the Greatest hits version is basically the same, but with a capo on the 3rd fret)

C

Fat man lookin in a blade of steel

Thin man lookin at his last meal

F C

Hollow man lookin in a cottonfield

F/g C

For dignity

Wise man lookin in a blade of grass

Young man lookin in the shadows that pass

Poor man lookin through painted glass

For dignity

G

Somebody got murdered on New Years Eve

F C

Somebody said dignity was the first to leave

F C/e

I went into the city, went into the town

Dm F/g

Went into the land of the midnight sun

Searchin high, searchin low

Searchin everywhere I know

Askin the cops wherever I go

Have you seen dignity?

Blind man breakin out of a trance

Puts both his hands in the pockets of chance

Hopin' to find one circumstance

Of dignity

I went to the wedding of Mary-Lou

She said I dont want nobody see me talkin to you

Said she could get killed if she told me what she knew

About dignity

I went down where the vultures feed
I would've gone deeper, but there wasn't any need
Heard the tongues of angels and the tongues of men
Wasn't any difference to me

Chilly wind sharp as a razor blade
House on fire, debts unpaid
Gonna stand at the window, gonna ask the maid
Have you seen dignity?

Drinkin' man listens to the voice he hears
In a crowded room full of covered up mirrors
Lookin into the lost forgotten years
For dignity

Met Prince Phillip at the home of the blues
Said he'd give me information if his name wasn't used
He wanted money up front, said he was abused
By dignity

Footprints runnin cross the silver sand
Steps goin down into tattoo land
I met the sons of darkness and the sons of light
In the bordertowns of despair

Got no place to fade, got no coat
I'm on the rollin river in a jerkin boat
Tryin' to read a note somebody wrote
About dignity

Sick man lookin' for the doctors cure
Lookin' at his hands for the lines that were
And into every masterpiece of literature
For dignity

Englishman stranded in the blackheart wind
Combin' his hair back, his future looks thin
Bites the bullet and he looks within
For dignity

Someone showed me a picture and I just laughed
Dignity never been photographed
I went into the red, went into the black
Into the valley of dry bone dreams

So many roads, so much at stake
So many dead ends, I'm at the edge of the lake
Sometimes I wonder what it's gonna take
To find dignity

Tell Tale Signs version #2

Lyrics transcribed by Craig Thomas

Fat man lookin at a ferris wheel
Yellow man lookin' at his last meal
Hollow man lookin' in a cottonfield
For dignity

Wise man lookin in a blade of grass
Young man lookin in the days that pass
Poor man lookin through painted glass
For dignity

Dignity is a woman that knows
Dignity moves like a tropical wind that blows into the cities, into the towns into the land of the midnight sun

I'm searchin high, I'm searchin low
Searchin everywhere I know
Askin the cops wherever I go
Have you seen dignity?

Drunk man listens to a voice he hears
in a crowded room, full of covered-up mirrors looking to the lost forgotten years
for dignity

Don Juan was talking to Don Miguel
Standin' outside the gates of Hell
There ain't nothing to say, there ain't nothing to tell
'bout dignity

Dignity is a woman unspoiled
By fame and greed and snakes that are coiled
In the damp woods, on the river's edge
Near the green, green grass of home

Pull into the platform, step off the train
Walk thirty steps, it begins to rain
I'm asking somebody with water on his brain
Have you seen dignity?

Cities in a mess of jackhammer beats
Buses roll by with burned-out seats
A child's eyes look through the creeping streets
For dignity

Prince Phillip was talking to Miss Mary Lou
She said don't let nobody see me talking to you
She's afraid to tell him what she knew
About dignity

Dignity is a woman that's light
She don't tease, she don't travel at night
Dignity is a woman that bleeds
Like the hot Egyptian sun

I'm looking east, looking west
See people cursed, see people blessed
Asking everybody like a man possessed
Have you seen dignity?

Blind man breaking out of a trance
Puts both of his hands in the pockets of chance
Hoping to find one circumstance
Of dignity

Englishman stranded in the blackheart wind
Combing his hair back, his future looks thin
Bites the bullet and he looks within
For dignity

Somebody showed me a picture and I just laughed
Dignity never been photographed
Dignity got no starting-point
No beginning, no middle, no end

Looking at a glass that's half-filled
Looking at a dream that's just been killed
Asking everybody that's strong-willed
Have you seen dignity?

Did I,
hear someone's distant cry
I spoke like a child
You destroyed me with a smile
while i was sleeping

G A G A
I'm sick of love*)
Em
That I'm in the thick of it
G A G A
This kind of love
Em
I'm so sick of it

I see,
I see lovers in the meadow
I see,
I see silhouettes in the window
I watch them 'til they're gone and they leave me hangin' on to a shadow

I'm sick of love
I hear the clock tick
this kind of love
I'm lovesick

Sometimes
the silence can be like thunder
Sometimes
I wanna take to the road of plunder

Dirt Road Blues

Words and music by Bob Dylan
 Released on Time out of Mind (1997)
 Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

The guitars in the original recording are playing high up on the fretboard, so I originally suggested a capo on the 5th fret and the chords E, A, and B. Then it is possible to play the little lick that runs through the whole song:

with E	with A
: . . . : . . .	: . . . : . . .
-3b-----0-----0- -----0-----	-3-----5-----2-5- -----2-5-----
-0-----2-----0- -----0-----	-2-----5-----2-5- -----2-5-----
-1----- -----	-2----- -----4-----
-2----- -----	-2----- -----
-2----- -----	-0----- -----
-0----- -----	-0----- -----

- Note 1: it is mostly played on the E, but can occasionally be heard for the other chords too.
- Note 2: It is played with the tone on the 2nd fret, 2nd string, although the 3rd fret falls more naturally, to me, at least.
- Note 3: It's easier and sounds better if the initial bent note is moved to the second beat, so that the first beat gets a clear bass note.

Another option is to use the 076750 shape for the E. The open third string can be left sounding, since it produces the same clash as the first note in the lick, which leaves you with enough fingers to play a modified version of the lick, combined with the bass figure:

: . . . : . . .
----- -----
-----7b--5-----5- -----	(or 8 or 8b on the first note on this string)
-----7----- -----
-6----- -6-----
-7----- -7-----5---7---
-0----- -0---7-----

For the B I'd suggest to leave out the lick and instead do the bass:

: . . . : . . . : . . . : . . . :	:
(3)----- ----- ----- ----- -----	-----
-0----- ----- ----- ----- -----	-----
-2----- ----- ----- ----- -----	-----
-1----- ----- ----- ----- -----	-----
-2-----0--- -2-----0--- -2-----0--- -2---0-----	-----
-----2----- -----2----- -----2----- -----3---2---	-0---

It may be easier to make an interesting solo-song out of it with no capo and something like the following bass line, which can be combined with a variant of the lick, an octave lower (or just play the bass line – that's much easier...):

with A                with D
: . . . : . . . : . . . : . . .
|-----|-----|-----|-----|| |
|-----|-----| (3)-----|-----||
|-5b----2----2-|-----| |-5b----2----2-|-----||
|-2-----4---|-----| |-0-----4---| -0-----||
|-0-----| -0-----|-----|-----| -0---3---||
|-----|-----0---3---|-----|-----||

with E
: . . . : . . . : . . . : . . .
|-0-----|-----|-----|-----|-----|
|-5-----|-----|-----|-----|-----|
|-7-----|-----|-----|-----|-----|
|-6-----|-----|-----|-----|-----|
|-7-----5---|-7-----5---|-7-----5---|-7---5---3---2---|-0---|
|-0-----7-----|-7-----7-----|-7-----7-----|-----|

Capo 5th fret (original key A)

E
Gonna walk down that dirt road 'Til someone lets me ride
A                                     E
Gonna walk down that dirt road 'Til someone lets me ride
If I can't find my baby
      E
I'm gonna run away and hide

Well, I been pacing round the room, hoping maybe she come back pacing round the room, hoping maybe she come back
Well, I been praying for salvation
Laying round in a one-room country shack

Gonna walk down that dirt road, until my eyes begin to bleed
Gonna walk down that dirt road, until my eyes begin to bleed
'Til there's nothing left to see
'Til the chains have been shattered and I been freed

But I'm looking at my shadow, I been watching the clouds up above looking at my shadow, watching the clouds up above
Rolling through the rain and hail
Looking for the sunny side of love

Gonna walk down that dirt road 'til everything becomes the same
Gonna walk down that dirt road 'til everything becomes the same
I keep on walking
'til I hear her holler out my name

Version with no capo:

Gonna walk down that dirt road 'Til someone lets me ride

Time out of Mind

D
Gonna walk down that dirt road 'Til someone lets me ride
E7
If I can't find my baby
A
I'm gonna run away and hide

The light in this place is so bad
Makin' me sick in the head
All the laughter is just makin' me sad
The stars have turned cherry red

I'm strummin' on my gay guitar
Smokin' a cheap cigar
The ghost of our old love has not gone away
Don't look it like it will anytime soon
You left me standin' in the doorway cryin'
Under the midnight moon.

Maybe they'll get me and maybe they won't
But not tonight and it won't be here
There are things I could say, but I don't
I know the mercy of God must be near
 I been ridin a midnight train
 Got ice water in my veins
I would be crazy if I took you back
It would go up against every rule
You left me standin' in the doorway cryin'
Sufferin' like a fool.

When the last rays of daylight go down
Buddy you'll roll no more
I can hear the church bells ringin' in the yard
I wonder who they're ringin' for
 I know I can't win
 But my heart just won't give in
Last night I danced with a stranger
But she just reminded me you were the one
You left me standin' in the doorway cryin'
In the dark land of the sun.

I eat when I'm hungry drink when I'm dry
And live my life on the square
And even if the flesh falls off of my face
I know someone will be there to care
 It always means so much
 Even the softest touch
I see nothing to be gained by any explanation
There's no words that need to be said
You left me standin' in the doorway cryin'
Blues wrapped around my head.

Live version 2003

New arrangement during the 2003 southern US tour. The basic structure of the song is the same as the album version, but a new riff has snuck into the first part, with the chords in the descent coming twice as fast and with an extra turn at the end. In the version that has been available to me (Austin, 20 April 2003) it sounds as if the two different guitars are in two different capo positions: the main rhythm guitar at the 3rd fret and the other at the 1st fret. I have given suggestions for the main riff in those two positions. In the 3rd position there are two suggestions, one which is more or less what is played by the band, the other a version which is more suitable for a single guitar. In the 1st-fret version I have included the chords to the whole verse.

The Am (Bm with capo 1st fret) could also be played F (G)

Capo 3rd fret (sounding key Eb major)

Million Miles

Words and music by Bob Dylan
 Released on Time out of Mind (1997)
 Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Capo 4th fret (Original key A♭m). The sevenths are generally "instable". Any bluesy addition to the basic chord goes (and probably is somewhere in the soundscape of the recording...).

Em

You took a part of me that I really miss

I keep asking myself how long it can go on like this

A7

You told yourself a lie

Em

Thats alright mama I told myself one too

B7

A7

Em

I try to get closer but I'm still a million miles from you

You took the silver, you took the gold

You left me standing out in the cold

People asked about you, I didn't tell them everything I knew

Well I try to get closer but I'm still a million miles from you

I'm driftin in and out of dreamless sleep

Somehow my memory's in a ditch so deep

Did so many things I never did intend to do

And I try to get closer but I'm still a million miles from you

I need your love so bad, turn your lamp down low *)

I need every bit of it for the places that I go

Sometimes I wonder, tell us just what its all coming to

Well I try to get closer but I'm still a million miles from you

...

Well I don't dare close my eyes and I don't dare wink

Maybe in the next life I'll be able to hear myself think

Feel like talking to somebody but I just don't know who

Well I try to get closer but I'm still a million miles from you

Yes the last thing you said before you hit the street

Gonna find me a janitor to sweep me off my feet

I said thats alright mamma you, you do what you gotta do

Well I try to get closer I'm still a million miles from you

Rock me pretty baby rock me all at once,

Rock me for a little while

Rock me for a couple of months And I'll rock you too

I try to get closer but I'm still a million miles from you

Well there's voices in the night trying to be heard

I'm sitting here listening to every mind-pollutin' word

I know plenty of people put me up for a day or two

Yes I try to get closer but I'm still a million miles from you

) from a post to r.m.d. by Jesse Anderson:*

"I haven't seen this reference yet, but in "Million Miles", the line 'Turn your lamp down low' is from Blind Willie Mctell's great Statesboro Blues.

'Til I Fell In Love With You

Words and music by Bob Dylan

Released on Time out of Mind (1997)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Standard three-chord blues, with more of a E feeling than G, so therefore: Capo 6th fret (Original key B flat major)

Well my nerves are exploding

And my body is tense

I feel like the whole world

got me pinned up against the fence

A

I been hit too hard

Seen too much

Nothing can heal me now

But your touch

B

I just don't know what I'm gonna do

I was allright 'til I fell in love with you

Well my house is on fire

Burnin' to the sky

Well I thought it would rain

But the clouds passed by

I feel like I'm comin'

To the end of my way

But I know God is my shield

And he won't lead me astray

Still I don't know what I'm gonna do

I was allright 'til I fell in love with you

Boys in the street

Beginnin' to play

Girls like birds

Flyin' away

When I'm gone

You will remember my name

I'm gonna win my way

To wealth and fame

Yet I just don't know what I'm gonna do

I was allright 'til I fell in love with you

Well junk's pilin' up

Takin' up space

My eyes feel

Like they're fallin' off my face
Sweat fallin' down
I'm starin' at the floor
I'm thinkin' about that girl
Who won't be back no more
I just don't know what to do
I was allright 'til I fell in love with you

Well I'm tired of talkin'
I'm tired of tryin' to explain
My attempts to please you
They were all in vain
Tomorrow night
Before the sun goes down
If I'm still among the livin'
I'll be Dixie bound
Still I just don't know what I'm gonna do
I was allright 'til I fell in love with you will you were created, against your will you were born, against your will you live, against your will you die, and against your will you are destined to give an account before the Supreme King of Kings, the Holy One Blessed be He."

Cold Irons Bound

Words and music by Bob Dylan

Released on Time out of Mind (1997) and in an alternate version on Tell Tale Signs (2008).

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Time out of Mind version

Capo 6th fret (original key B \flat major).

The “Bbdim” is only a faint approximation to the wealth of notes sounding at this point (and never twice the same, it seems). A chord like x12300 or x12202 captures that fairly well, but there are really no “correct” chords here!

The same goes for the other two chords – basically tonic, fifth and a lot of blue notes.

Em7

I'm beginning to hear voices and there's no one around

now I'm all used up and the fields have turned brown

I went to church on Sunday and she passed by and my love for her is taking such a long time to die

Lord I'm waist deep, waist deep in the mist

It's almost like, almost like I don't exist

I'm 20 miles out of town, Cold Irons bound

The walls of pride is high and wide, can't see over to the other side
It's such a sad thing to see beauty decay,
it's sadder still to feel your heart torn away
one look at you and I'm out of control like the universe has swallowed me whole
I'm 20 miles out of town and Cold Irons bound

There's too many people, too many to recall
I thought some of 'em were friends of mine
I was wrong about 'em all
Well, the road is rocky and the hillside's mud
Up over my head nothing but clouds of blood
I found my world, I found my world in you but your love just hasn't proved true
I'm 20 miles out of town, Cold Irons bound
20 miles out of town, Cold Irons bound

...

Well the winds in Chicago have torn me to shreds reality has always had too many heads some things last longer than you think they will there are some kind of things you can never kill

Make You Feel My Love

Words and music by Bob Dylan
Released on Time out of Mind (1997)
Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

This is a piano tune on the record, but harmonically it is an almost exact copy of "Simple twist of fate", and can preferably be played on guitar in open tuning (E or D), with the chords 054000, 044000, 034000, 020120, xx5450, 000000, 222222 (or even better 020220), x02100, 000000 for the verse and 021020, 000000, 010010, 021020, 000000, 021020, 000000, 222120, x02102 (or -00 or -20), 000000 for the bridge. Got that...?

In standard tuning it is most easily played using G as tonic, but I give it here in C, as that is closest to the key of the recording. Capo 1st fret (Original key D \flat major).

C x32010
G/b x20003 (could even be played as an Em/B:x22000)
C7/Bb x10033
F/a x03211
Fm/Ab 433111
C/g 332010
D9/f# 200210 or 202210
G11 333211 (w/thumb) or 3x3211
C+ x32110

C G/b

I'd go crawling down the avenue
Oh there's nothing that I wouldn't do
to make you feel my love

The storms are raging on the rolling sea and on the highway of regret the winds of change are blowing wild and free
you ain't seen nothing like me yet

I could make you happy, make your dreams come true nothing that I wouldn't do go to the ends of the earth for you
to make you feel my love

Can't Wait

Words and music by Bob Dylan

Released on Time out of Mind (1997) and in alternate versions on Tell Tale Signs (2008).

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Capo 4th fret (Original key A \flat blues)

The recurrent chord is a shimmering Esus4 which is never really resolved – or, for the sake of convenience, Em.

Em
 I can't wait
 A Em
 Wait for you to change your mind

 It's late
 A Em
 I'm tryin to walk the line

 Well it's way past midnight

 And there's people all around

 Em A
 The air burns and I'm tryin to think straight
 C B7 Em
 And I don't know how much longer I can wait

 I'm your man
 I've tried to recover the sweet love that we knew
 You understand
 That my heart can't go on beating without you
 Well your loveliness has wounded me
 I'm reeling from the blow
 I wish I knew what it was that keeps me loving you so
 I'm breathin' hard standin' at the gate
 And I don't know how much longer I can wait

 Skies are gray
 I'm looking for anything that will bring a happy glow
 Night or day
 It doesn't matter where I go anymore I just go 1)
 If I ever saw you comin' I don't know what I might do
 I'd like to think I could control myself
 But it isn't true
 That's how it is
 When things disintegrate
 And I don't know how much longer I can wait

 A
 I'm doomed to love you

Em
I been rollin' through stormy weather
A
I'm thinkin' of you
Bsus4
And all the places we could roam together

Em
It's mighty funny
The end of time has just begun
Oh honey, after all these years you're still the one
Well I'm strollin' through the lonely graveyard of my mind
I left my life with you
Somewhere back there along the line
I thought somehow that I would be spared this fate
I don't know how much longer I can wait

1) From Josh Meisler:

The lyric "night or day, it doesn't matter anymore where I go, I just go" is conspicuously similar to a lyric in the Grateful Dead tune 'Crazy Fingers' which goes "gone are the days we stopped to decide where we should go, we just ride", by Robert Hunter. Somewhat similar in construction and definitely in content.

2000 version

The main changes are in the pace and the mood of the playing, not really much in the arrangement. B7add11=x21200. Or play B7-10 (x21230)

Em

Skies are grey
Life is short, and I think of her a lot
Every day
I can't say if I want the pain to end or not
Well, the blindness overtaking me is beating like a drum
I don't know where it starts or where it's coming from
That's how it is
When I try to concentrate
And I don't know
how much longer I can wait.

I've been drinkin'
Drinkin' forbidden juices
I've been livin'
Livin' on lame excuses.

My hands are cold
The end of time has just begun
I'm gettin' old
Anything can happen now to anyone
I walk across the floor till I wear out my shoes
Think you've lost it all, there's always more to lose
[I so clear]
She can keep my head on straight
And I don't know
how much longer I can wait.

Ab Ebm
For you to walk the line
Ebm
You ever feel just like your brain's been bolted to the wall,
Ab
That you're drowning in your thoughtlessness and cut off from it all?
Ebm
I don't know,
Ab

Cb7
But as for me,
Bb7 Ebm
I don't know how much longer I can wait

It's got to end
Everything about it just feels wrong
I'll pretend

Being close to her is where I don't belong
Well, my back is to the sun because the light is too intense
I can see what everybody in the world is up against That's how it is
when things disintegrate
And I don't know
how much longer I can wait.

Skies are grey
Life is short, and I think of her a lot
Every day
I can't say whether I want the pain to even end -- or not Well, I'm trying my best to stand on my own two feet
Not have to lean on everybody that I meet
I'm breathing hard,
I'm trying to concentrate
And I don't know
how much longer I can wait.

Well, I'm torn and I'm tattered
I've been rolling through the stormy weather
My heart's been shattered
But I'm holding all the parts of it together

My hands are cold
The end of time has just begun
I'm gettin' old
Anything can happen now to anyone
Loneliness around me diggin' in me like a rake
What a piece of work she is to cause my heart to break
I thought somehow that I'd be spared this fate
And I don't know
how much longer I can wait.

Highlands

Words and music by Bob Dylan
Released on Time out of Mind (1997)
Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

You may ask – and some of you do: why haven't you tabbed the riff?!

Here's why: (1) it's not really a riff so much as a skeleton with quite a lot of different realizations. So I would either have to transcribe it all, spend a lot of time finding "representative" versions, or just decide upon(/make up) a common denominator. The first is insane, the last I don't want to do, and the middle – well, it would take a lot of time.

(2) But even so, what makes that riff tick is the interplay between the two main guitars, and I found it very difficult to come up with something that would sound good in a one-guitar version. And in those cases, my principle is that whoever is able to play something like that, would probably be able to use his own musical imagination to come up with something that's fresher.

E7
Well my heart's in The Highlands, gentle and fair

Honeysuckle blooming in the wildwood air
A E7
Bluebells blazing where the Aberdeen waters flow
B7

Well my heart's in The Highlands
A E7
I'm gonna go there when I feel good enough to go

Windows were shaking all night in my dreams
Everything was exactly the way that it seems Woke up this mornin' and I looked at the same old page
Same old rat race, life in the same old cage

I don't want nothin' from anyone, ain't that much to take
Wouldn't know the difference between a real blonde and a fake
Feel like a prisoner in a world of mystery
I wish someone'd come and push back the clock for me

Well my heart's in The Highlands wherever I roam
That's where I'll be when I get called home
The wind it whispers to the buckeyed trees in rhyme
Well my heart's in The Highlands
I can only get there one step at a time

I'm listening to Neil Young, I gotta turn up the sound
Someone's always yellin' "Turn it down"
Feel like I'm driftin', driftin' from scene to scene
I'm wonderin' what in the devil could it all possibly mean?

Insanity is smashin' up against my soul
You could say I was on anything but a roll
If I had a conscience, well I just might blow my top
What would I do with it anyway, maybe take it to the pawn shop

My heart's in The Highlands at the break of dawn

by the beautiful lake of the Black Swan
Big white clouds like chariots that swing down low
Well my heart's in The Highlands only place left to go

I'm in Boston town in some restaurant
I got no idea what I want or maybe I do but I'm just really not sure
Waitress comes over, nobody in the place but me and her

Well it must be a holiday, there's nobody around
She studies me closely as I sit down
She got a pretty face and long white shiny legs
I said "Tell me what I want"
She say "You probably want hard boiled eggs"

I said "That's right, bring me some"
She says "We ain't got any, you picked the wrong time to come"
then she says "I know you're an artist, draw a picture of me"
I said "I would if I could, but I don't do sketches from memory"

Well she's there, she says "I'm right here in front of you or haven't you looked"
I say "All right I know but I don't have my drawin' book"
She gives me a napkin, she say "You can do it on that"
I say "Yes I could but I don't know where my pencil is at"

She pulls one out from behind her ear
She says "Alright now go ahead draw me I'm stayin' right here"
I make a few lines and I show it for her to see
Well she takes the napkin and throws it back and says
"That don't look a thing like me"

I said "Oh kind miss, it most certainly does"
She say "You must be joking", I said "I wish I was"
She says "You don't read women authors do ya?"
at least that's what I think I hear her say
Well I say "How would you know, and what would it matter anyway"

Well she says "Ya just don't seem like ya do", I said "You're way wrong"
She says "Which ones have you read then?", I say "Read Erica Jong"
She goes away for a minute, and I slide out, out of my chair
I step outside back to the busy street, but nobody's goin' anywhere

Well my heart's in The Highlands with the horses and hounds way up in the border country far from the towns with the twang of the arrow and the snap of the bow
My heart's in The Highlands, can't see any other way to go

Every day is the same thing, out the door feel further away than ever before
Some things in life it just gets too late to learn
Well I'm lost somewhere, I must have made a few bad turns

I see people in the park, forgettin' their troubles and woes
They're drinkin' and dancin', wearin' bright colored clothes
All the young men with the young women lookin' so good
Well I'd trade places with any of 'em, in a minute if I could

I'm crossin' the street to get away from a mangy dog talkin' to myself in a monologue
I think what I need might be a full length leather coat
Somebody just asked me if I'm registered to vote

The sun is beginnin' to shine on me
But it's not like the sun that used to be
The party's over and there's less and less to say
I got new eyes, everything looks far away

Well my heart's in The Highlands at the break of day over the hills and far away
There's a way to get there, and I'll figure it out somehow
Well I'm already there in my mind and that's good enough for now

*) From a post at r.m.d.:

Highlands source

OK, so the song "Highlands" contains the line 'My heart's in the highlands.' The source of this line (my apologies to all of you who know this already) is a song by Robert Burns. The song was first published in 1790, and, like many of Burns's songs, was his own expansion of lines gathered from the folk tradition.

In the 1960s, as I recall, the song was somewhat scorned in Scotland. (Andrew Muir can perhaps confirm this.) It was seen as one of Burns's polite, sentimental songs, written for an English audience (as witness its English, not Scottish, vocabulary). In the 1960s, it was the kind of thing which would have been sung by genteel, middle-class, pseudo-Scots entertainers, rather than by the genuine singers of the Scottish folk renaissance. (That is, to get really local, it's a song more likely to have been performed by Kenneth MacKellar than by Archie Fisher – right, Andy?)

Anyway, with these (serious) reservations, here are the lyrics:

My heart's in the Highlands, my heart is not here;
My heart's in the Highlands a-chasing the deer;
Chasing the wild deer, and following the roe;
My heart's in the Highlands, wherever I go. –

Farewell to the Highlands, farewell to the North;
The birth-place of valour, the country of Worth:
Wherever I wander, wherever I rove,
The hills of the Highlands for ever I love. –

Farewell to the mountains high cover'd with snow;
Farewell to the Straths and green valleys below;
Farewell to the forest and wild-hanging woods;
Farewell to the torrents and loud-pouring floods. –

My heart's in the Highlands, my heart is not here,
My heart's in the Highlands a-chasing the deer;
Chasing the wild deer, and following the roe;
My heart's in the Highlands, wherever I go. –

The somewhat cryptic title of this album reflects the fact that the concert, which circulated widely among collectors long before it was officially released, was for a long time believed to have been the final concert of the English tour (May 26 or 27, 1966), in the Royal Albert Hall, London.

Tell Me, Momma

Written by Bob Dylan

Performed during the 1965/66 tour, and released on Live 1966

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem (thanks to Andy for lyric suggestions)

The lyrics below differ considerably from the official lyrics on bobydylan.com, but not so considerably from what he actually sings live. There are some blanks, though. Suggestions and corrections are welcome.

The tuning and the playing style is interesting: on the song that was chosen to open the electrical pandemonium, he uses a tuning and a playing style from his earliest acoustic days.

Dropped D tuning (D-A-d-g-b-e'), capo 7th fret (sounding key A major)

D 000232
 Dsus2 000030
 D/c 030030
 G 020033
 Em 222000

The rhythm isn't at all obvious in the introduction: his foot-tapping is on the off-beats, but when the band enters, the full rhythm pattern corresponds well with what the intro would have been with the foot-tapping as the beats.

This figure, with variations, is repeated for the intro, and played during the beginning of the verses:

*) The end of the line is dubious, but in Liverpool (5/14) he clearly sings "pony run" somewhere. Sydney, Apr 13, 1966 has: "With your dark sun-glasses on your Babylon chest" (different continuation).

) Sydney: "Sometimes / my time's / the right time / to go, / now, / what's resting on your mind?"

Tweedle Dee And Tweedle Dum

Words by Bob Dylan. Music taken from Johnnie & Jack's "Uncle John's Bongos" (pointed out by Eben Hensby)

Released on Love And Theft (2001)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

B

Tweedle Dum and Tweedle Dee

They're throwing knives into the tree

Two big bags of dead man's bones

Got their noses to the grindstone

E

Living in the Land of Nod

B

Trusting their fate to the hands of God

E

They pass by so silently

B

Tweedle Dum and Tweedle Dee

Well, they're going to the country, they're going to retire

They're taking a streetcar named Desire

Looking at a window with a pecan pie

Lot of things they'd like they would never buy

Neither one want to turn and run

And making a voyage to the sun.

"His master's voice is calling me,"

Said Tweedle Dum to Tweedle Dee.

Tweedle Dee and Tweedle Dum

All that and more and then some

They walk among the stately trees

They know the secrets of the breeze

Tweedle Dum said to Tweedle Dee,

"Your presence is obnoxious to me,

Feel like baby sitting on a woman's knee."

Tweedle Dum and Tweedle Dee

Well, the rain beatin' down on a window pane

I got love for you, and it's all in vain

Brains in a pot, they're beginning to boil

They're dripping with garlic and olive oil.

Tweedle Dee is on his hands and his knees,

Saying, "Throw me something, Mister, please!"

"What's good for you is good for me,"

Said Tweedle Dum to Tweedle Dee.

Well, they're living in a happy harmony

Tweedle Dum and Tweedle Dee

They're one day older and a dollar short

They got a parade permit and a police escort

Kenneth Mirandola comments that in live versions (fall 2001) "Larry played in A capoed on the second fret for a sounding key of B major. Sexton played uncapoed. So I think Larry played the intro riff...and Sexton played the riff between the verses the end of lines 5 and 7 verses."

Patrik Winqvist confirms this, that "Larry played the opening riff in Stockholm with a capo on the 2nd fret". So that would be:

Album version

A rare instance of a Dylan song with an ascending bass line (but there are others – “Like A Rolling Stone” is one).

The G at the end of the verses is probably best played G7sus4 (3x301x). G11 (3x3211) is another possibility.

The F chords in the verses could be played Fmaj7 (133210)

Use G=320033 for the bridge section – just hold the -33 on the lighter strings and play the ascent in the bass.

The “/d” in that passage (“Don’t even have anything”) contains an f; a possibility is to switch to G7sus4/d (x53533) here – or just leave out the f.

Intro (actually played one octave higher):

C      /d      /e      /f      G      C
:      .      .      .      :      .      .

C              Csus4 C              Csus4
Every step of the way, we walk the line.
C              Csus4 C      F
Your days are numbered, so are mine.
C              F      C              F
Time is piling up, we struggle and we scrape.
C      /d      /e /f G      C
We're all boxed in, nowhere to escape.

City's just a jungle, more games to play.
 Trapped in the heart of it, trying to get away.
 I was raised in the country, I been working in the town.
 I been in trouble ever since I set my suitcase down.

G      /a      /b      /c
Got nothing for you, I had nothing before
/d      /e      F      G
Don't even have anything for myself anymore
G      /a      /b      /c
Sky full of fire, pain pouring down
/d      /e      F      G
Nothing you can sell me, I'll see you around.

All my powers of expression, I thought so sublime,
Could never do you justice in reason or rhyme
Only one thing I did wrong,
Stayed in Mississippi a day too long

Well, the devil's in the alley, mule's in the stall
Say anything you want to, I have heard it all
I was thinking about the things that Rosie said
I was dreaming I was sleeping in Rosie's bed
Walking through the leaves falling from the trees
Feeling like a stranger nobody sees.
So many things that we never will undo
I know you're sorry, I'm sorry too.
 Some people will offer you their hand and some won't
 Last night I knew you, tonight I don't
 I need something strong to distract my mind
 I'm gonna look at you 'til my eyes go blind
Well, I got here following the southern star
I crossed that river just to be where you are
Only one thing I did wrong
Stayed in Mississippi a day too long.

Well, my ship's been split to splinters and it's sinking fast.
I'm drowning in the poison, got no future, got no past.
But my heart is not weary, it's light and it's free.
I got nothing but affection for those who've sailed with me.
Everybody moving, if they ain't already there.
Everybody got to move somewhere
Stick with me baby, stick with me anyhow,
Things should start to get interesting right about now
 My clothes are wet, tight on my skin
 Not as tight as the corner that I painted myself in
 I know that fortune is waiting to be kind
 So give me your hand and say you'll be mine *)
Now the emptiness is endless, cold as the clay
You can always come back, but you can't come back all the way
Only one thing I did wrong
Stayed in Mississippi a day too long

*) In the light of the reference to Othello and Desdemona in Po' Boy, the following exchange from Measure for Measure is interesting (submitted by Mike Conley):

Duke Vincentio [to Isabella]:

If he be like your brother, for his sake
Is he pardon'd; and, for your lovely sake,
Give me your hand and say you will be mine. (Act V, Scene I, 484-486)

Tell Tale Signs version #1

The B11 figure at the end of the intro can hardly be played on a single guitar, since the hand is in the wrong position to play the B bass note after the slide up. This might be solved with some kind of open tuning, but a better alternative is probably to play some other figures.

Chords:

"Love And Theft"

B Eiv A Eiv B
Nothing you can sell me, I'll see you around.

All my powers of expression, I thought so sublime,
Could never do you justice in reason or rhyme
Only one thing I did wrong,

Tell Tale Signs version #2

Summer Days

Words and music Bob Dylan
Released on Love And Theft (2001)
Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

The song is a fairly straightforward rockabilly number, but the guitar parts are far from straightforward. The left channel guitar alternates between the high, ringing playing of the intro and the interludes, and the middle-range alternative in the bridges.

In the right channel there is a guitar with a descending figure, which can even be combined with the intro (see the end of the page for these two tabs). In the bridges, there is a trace of the "high version" in this channel, which seems to have been mixed out.

During the verses, the guitar plays the Eb chords on the backbeat:

Eb
: . . . .
|-----|
|---8---8---8---8---|
|---8---8---8---8---|
|---10---10---10---10---|

In some verses the return from B \flat to Eb in the last line passes through A \flat .

I haven't written out the different solos in the interludes, but they follow the same chord pattern as the model in the intro. It can be played in different positions, of course, but if one plays the 11-13-11-turn with the little finger and keeps a half barre on the 8th fret during the second A \flat measure, it is playable as written below.

[intro]

Well, the fog's so thick you can't spy the land,
 The fog is so thick that you can't even spy the land,
 What good are you anyway if you can't stand up to some old businessman.

Weddin' bells are ringin' and the choir is beginnin' to sing,
 Yes, the weddin' bells are ringin' and the choir's beginnin' to sing,
 What looks good in the day, at night is another thing.

She's lookin' into my eyes, and she's a-holdin' my hand,
 She lookin' into my eyes, she's holdin' my hand,
 She says, "You can't repeat the past,"
 I say "You can't? What do you mean you can't? Of course, you can."*)

"Where do you come from?" "Where do you go?"
 Sorry, that is nothin' you would need to know.
 Well, my back's been to the wall so long, it seems like it's stuck.
 Why don't you break my heart one more time just for good luck?

[intro]

I got eight carburetors, boys, I'm usin' 'em all,
 Well, I got eight carburetors and, boys, I'm usin' 'em all,
 I'm short on gas, my motor's startin' to stall.

 My dogs are barkin', there must be someone around,
 I got my hammer ringin', pretty baby, but the nails ain't goin' down.

If you got somethin' to say, speak or hold your peace,
 Well, you got somethin' to say, speak now or hold your peace,
 If it's information you want, you can get it from the police.

Politician's got on his joggin' shoes,
 He must be runnin' for office, got no time to lose,
 Suckin' the blood out of the genius of generosity.
 You been a-rollin' your eyes, you been teasin' me.

[intro]

"Love And Theft"

Standing by God's river, my soul's beginnin' to shake,
 Standing by God's river, my soul's beginnin' to shake,
 I'm countin' on you, love, to give me a break.

Well, I'm leavin' in the mornin' as soon as the dark clouds lift,
 Yes! I'm leavin' in the mornin' just as soon as the dark clouds lift,
 Gonn' break in the roof, set fire to the place as a parting gift.

Summer days, summer nights are gone,
 Summer days, summer nights are gone,
 I know a place where there's still somethin' goin' on.

For this song I believe in a capo on the 1st fret, at least in a solo acoustic tab, since the uncapped version would be virtually unplayable. Both versions are included, though, with a list of suggested chords at the end.

I've written in the melody line from the violin part in the intro; it's a bit awkward, but it can be done, if you absolutely want to (otherwise, it sounds better with the chord indicated in the chord list). If played with a capo on the 1st fret, it is actually a bit easier to get this part right. If only for that reason, I include such a version at the end of the page.

Other references

9) "R B" has sent me the following quite interesting reference – there's no limit to the range of sources Dylan has chosen: this time, it is Confederate Gen Nathan B. Forrest, the founder of the Ku Klux Klan:

... Later in the war, Forrest told General Braxton Bragg just what he thought of that vacillating, indecisive officer after Bragg had twice "tampered with" Forrest's cavalry command. The confrontation occurred at Bragg's headquarters on Missionary Ridge during the ridiculous Confederate siege of Chattanooga. Forrest said:

"I have stood your meanness as long as I intend to. You have played the part of a damned scoundrel, and are a coward, and if you were any part of a man I would slap your jaws and force you to resent it... If you ever again try to interfere with me or cross my path, it will be at the peril of your life."

High water rising, rising night and day

All the gold and silver are being stolen away

Big Joe Turner looking east and west from the dark room of his mind

He made it to Kansas City, Twelfth Street and Vine *)

F5 F#5 G

Nothing standing there

F5 F#5 G

High water everywhere

High water rising, the shacks are sliding down

Folks lose their possessions and folks are leaving town

Bertha Mae she shook it, broke it, and she hung it on the wall

Say: "You dancin' with whom they tell you to, or you don't dance at all"

It's tough out there

High water everywhere

I got a craving love for blazing speed, got a hopped up Mustang Ford

Jump into the wagon, Love, throw your panties on the board

I can write you poems, make a strong man lose his mind

I'm no pig without a wig I hope you treat me kind

Things are breaking up out there

High water everywhere

High water rising, six inches 'bove my head

Coffins dropping in the street, like balloons made out of lead

Water poured into Vicksburg, don't know what I'm gonna do

"Don't reach out for me," she said, "Can't you see I'm drowning too"

It's rough out there

High water everywhere

Well, George Lewes told the Englishman, the Italian and the Jew,

"You can't open up your mind, boys, to any conceivable point of view,

They got Charles Darwin trapped out there on Highway 5"

Judge says to the High Sheriff, "I want him dead or alive,

Either one, I don't care"

High water everywhere

Well, the cuckoo is a pretty bird, she warbles as she flies **)
I'm preaching the word of God, I'm putting out your eyes
I asked fat Nancy for something t' eat, she said, "Take it off the shelf
As great as you are, man, you'll never be greater than yourself."
I told her I didn't really care
High water everywhere

I'm gettin' up in the morning, I believe I'll dust my broom
Keeping away from the women, I'm giving them lots of room
Thunder rollin' over Clarksdale, everything a-lookin' blue
I just can't be happy, love, unless you're happy too
It's bad out there
High water everywhere.

*) As has been pointed out by jokerman on r.m.d., there is no such intersection in Kansas. However, as Matt Groneman has pointed out in an e-mail, this is irrelevant because Kansas City is in Missouri. Kansas City, Kansas is a suburb of Kansas City, Missouri. 12th Street and Vine, also referenced in the R&B standard Kansas City made famous by Wilbert Harrison among others, is a historic jazz and blues landmark. Big Joe Turner, Count Basie and others made themselves famous in the Kansas City scene. 56th and Wabasha is also in Kansas City, Missouri, within walking distance from the Kansas border.

) This is of course a reference to Cuckoo Is A Pretty Bird, sung by Bob Dylan at the second Gaslight show (oct 1962).

Chords:

Bb6	x1303x	C#o	x45353
Dm7-5	xx0111 or x5656x	Bb/d	x5333x
Cm7-5	x3434x	C9	x35333
Dm/f	xx3231	F+	x4322x
Bo	x23131

A more logical (or at least euphonious) progression at the end of the intro and other places, would be Bb Bo Cm C#o. Bb/b matches what Dylan sings... Euphony never was his middle name anyway. The Dm7 at "meet me" sounds like a Dm7-5 in some verses, but since that clashes with the singing, I'd recommend a plain Dm7.

The figure at the end of the bridge is transcribed according to what is played. The chord names in the tab are more or less what results if the bass and the song are considered; in the text I've suggested a simpler version that does more or less the same (Dm/f - F+ - F7 - F+).

And remember: the bass notes that are played too early, which gives the swing character.

Some of these women they just give me the creeps

I'm avoiding the south side the best I can

These memories I got they can strangle a man

You don't understand it, my feeling for you

F7

You'd be honest with me if you only knew.

I'm not sorry for nothing I've done

I'm glad I fought, I only wish we won

The siamese twins are coming to town

People can't wait, they've gathered around

When I left my home the sky split open wide

I never wanted to go back there, I'd rather have died

You don't understand it, my feeling for you

You'd be honest with me if only you knew

[intro]

My woman got a face like a teddy bear

She's tossin' a baseball bat in the air

The meat is so tough you can't cut it with a sword

I'm crashing my car trunk first into the board

You say that my eyes are pretty and my smile is nice

Well, I'd sell it to you at a reduced price

You don't understand it, my feeling for you

You'd be honest with me if only you knew

[intro]

Some things are too terrible to be true,
I won't come here no more if it bothers you.
There's a Southern Pacific leaving at 9:45
I'm having a hard time believing some people were ever alive
I'm stark naked but I don't care
I'm going off into the woods, I'm huntin' bare
You don't understand it, my feeling for you
Well, you'd be honest with me if only you knew

[intro]

I'm here to create the new imperial empire
I'm gon' do whatever circumstances require
I care so much for you I didn't think I could
I can't tell my heart that you're no good
Well, my parents, they warned me not to waste my years
And I still got their advice oozing out of my ears
You don't understand it, my feeling for you
Well, you'd be honest with me if only you knew

Well, I cried for you, now it's your turn to cry awhile

I don't carry dead weight, I'm no flash in the pan
All right, I'll set you straight, can't you see I'm a union man
I'm letting the cat out of the cage, I'm keeping a low profile
Well, I cried for you, now it's your turn, and you can cry awhile

Feel like a fighting rooster, feel better than I ever felt
But the Pennsylvania Line's in an awful mess and the Denver road is about to melt
I went to the Church house, every day I go an extra mile
Well, I cried for you, now your turn, you can cry awhile

Last night, 'cross the alley, there was a pounding on the wall
It must have been Don Pasquale making a 2 a.m. booty call
To break a trusting heart like mine was just your style
Well, I cried for you, now it's your turn to cry awhile

I'm on the fringes of the night, fighting back tears that I can't control
Some people they ain't human, they got no heart or soul
But I'm crying to the Lord, trying to be meek and mild
Yes, I'm crying for you, now it's your turn, you can cry awhile

[instr. verse]

Well the preacher's in the pulpit and the babies in their cribs
I'm longing for that sweet fat that sticks to your ribs
I gonn' buy me a barrel of whisky, I'll die before I turn senile
Yes, I cried for you, now it's your turn, you can cry awhile

Well, you bet on the horse, and it ran the wrong way
I always said you'd be sorry and today could be the day
I might need a good lawyer, could be your funeral, my trial
Well, I cried for you, now it's your turn, you can cry awhile

Sugar Baby

Words by Bob Dylan. Musically a Theft from "The Lonesome Road" by Austin/Shilkret, sung by Gene Austin

Released on Love And Theft (2001)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

The most prominent guitar (right channel) uses a re-tuned guitar, most likely in the tuning C-G-c-f-a-d' ("Drop D" tuning pattern, but one whole step lower than usual). Other tunings are possible – DADGAD, open D or double drop D (all tuned one step lower, to C). The only chord that seems to require a 1st string in standard tuning, is F#m7. Throughout the rest of the song, the 1st string doesn't seem to be used.

The tabs below follow the re-tuned guitar, here and there incorporating the bass figure, which is not always played on that guitar. At the bottom of the page is a version in standard tuning, for those who don't want to re-tune your guitars.

Chords (with chord names relative to standard tuning, for clarity. The sounding chords are one step lower):

Some of these bootleggers, they make pretty good stuff.
 Plenty of places to hide things here if you want to hide them bad enough.

"Love And Theft"

I'm staying with Aunt Sally, but you know she's not really my Aunt
Some of these mem'ries you can learn to live with and some of 'em you can't.
Sugar baby, get on down the line, yeah, you ain't got no brains, nohow,
You went years without me; you might as well keep going now.

The ladies down in Darktown, they're doing the Darktown strut
You always got to be prepared, but you never know for what
There ain't no limit to the amount of trouble women bring Love is pleasing, love is teasing. Love, not an evil thing.
Sugar baby, get on down the road, ain't got no brains, nohow
You went years without me; might as well keep going now.

Every moment of existence seems like some dirty trick
Happiness can come suddenly and leave just as quick
Any minute of the day the bubble can burst
Try to make things better for someone sometimes you just end up making it thousand times worse.
Sugar baby, get on down the road, ain't got no brains, nohow
You went years without me; might as well keep going now

Your charms have broken many a heart and mine is surely one
You got a way of tearing the world apart, love, see what you've done
Just as sure as we're living, just as sure as you're born,
Look up, look up, seek your Maker, 'fore Gabriel blows his horn
Sugar baby, get on down the line, you ain't got no sense, nohow
You went years without me; might as well keep going now

The water is wide and I can't cross over
 Em D
Neither have I wings to fly
[n.c.] Bm C
Build me a boat that can carry two
 G D C G/b Am G (C/g G)
And both shall row my love and I.

There is a ship and it sails on the sea
Loaded deep as deep can be
But not as deep as the love I'm in
I know not if I sink or swim.

I leaned my back up against an oak
Thinkin' it was a trusty tree
But first it bent and then it broke
Just like my own false love to me.

Oh love is gentle, love is kind
Gay as a jewel when first it's new
But love grows old and waxes cold
And fades away like some morning dew.

The water is wide and I can't cross over
Neither have I wings to fly
Build me a boat that can carry two
And both shall row my love and I.

I'm a rambler and a gambler, I'm a long way from my home
      G                C                G                D
If the people don't like me, they can leave me alone

Come sit down beside me, come sit down right here
 Come sit down long you want to, love you always to hear

When you get to Wyoming, a letter you'll see
 If you get into trouble, just you write after me

For I once had a lover, Her age was 16
 She's a flower of Belton, and a rose of Seline

Her parents was against me, now she is the same
 If I've writ on your book, love, just you blot out my name

Oh, there's changes in the ocean, there's changes in the sea
 There's changes in my true love, ain't no change in me

This land is your land

This land is your land, this land is my land,
From California to the New York Island,
From the redwood forest to the Gulf stream waters,
This land was made for you and me.

I've roamed and rambled, and I've followed my footsteps
To the sunny bright sands of her diamond deserts
And all around me a voice came a-singing
Singing, "This land was made for you and me"

This land is your land, this land is my land,
From California to the New York Island,
From the redwood forest to the Gulf stream waters,
This land was made for you and me.

It was early one morning, and I was a-strolling
With the wheat fields waving and the dust clouds rolling
As the fog was lifting, a voice comes chanting
. . . .

This land is your land, this land is my land,
From California to the New York Island,
From the redwood forest to the Gulf stream waters,
This land was made for you and me.

Nobody living can ever stop me
As I go walking my freedom highway
Nobody living can make me turn back
This land was made for you and me

This land is your land, this land is my land,
From California to the New York Island,
From the redwood forest to the Gulf stream waters,
This land was made for you and me.

Dink's Song

(trad., John/Alan Lomax)

Recorded in Bonnie Beecher's apartment, with Tony Glover at the recording wheels, on what came to be known as the Minnesota Hotel Tape (Released on No direction home [2005]). Also played once during the second Rolling Thunder Revue (Apr 25, 1976) in a duet with Joan Baez.

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

"Minnesota Hotel Tape" version

Dylan told Bonnie Beecher that he learned the song from a woman called Dink. So did Alan Lomax, several years earlier. . . Read the whole story in The Telegraph, or in Roger McGuinn's Folk Den, where you can also hear his version of the song.

Capo 3rd fret (Original key Eb major)

Played by alternately lowering and raising all the fingers in a steady rhythmical pattern over the chords C and F, later G and Am:

      C      F          C      F
      :      .      .      .      :      .      .      .
|-----|-----|
|-1-----1---0-1-0-|-1-----1---0-1-0-|
|-0-----2---0-2-0-|-0-----2---0-2-0-|
|-2-----3---0-3-0-|-2-----3---0-3-0-| etc.
|-3-----3---0-3-0-|-3-----3---0-3-0-|

This pattern is usually repeated also at the end of each line, so that the first line is:

C F      C F C F C F
If I had wings

Chords (The 1st string should be kept silent, except in the Am chord):

C      332010
F(maj) x33210
Am     002210

The turn to G at the end is very rudimentary in some verses – occasionally it isn't even there but he goes straight to the C-F-thing instead.

And don't forget the foot, tapping the rhythm a la John Lee Hooker.

C F      C F
C F      C F
If I had wings
C F      C F
like Noah's dove,
C F      Am
I'd fly the river
```

C F
 to the one I love.
 C Am F G
 Fare thee well, my honey,
 C F
 fare thee well.

I had a man who was long and tall, moved his body
 like a cannonball.
 Fare thee well, my honey,
 fare thee well.

'member one evening
 was drizzling rain,
 and round my heart
 I felt an aching pain.
 Fare thee well, my honey,
 fare thee well.

Once I wore
 my apron low,
 couldn't keep you
 away from my door.
 Fare thee well, my honey,
 fare thee well.

Now my apron
 is up to my chin, you'll pass my door
 but you'll never come in.
 Fare thee well, my honey,
 fare thee well.

Mighty river runs muddy and wild,
 can't care the bloody
 for my unborn child.
 Fare thee well, my honey,
 fare thee well.

Number nine train
 done no harm,
 number nine train,
 take my poor baby home.
 Fare thee well, my honey,
 fare thee well.

Fastest man
 I ever saw,
 was in Missouri
 on the way to Arkansas.
 Fare thee well, my honey,
 fare thee well.

Glover: Is that the way the original goes?

Bob: Huh?

Glover: Is that the way the original goes?

Bob: That's the way I heard it. I heard that from a lady named Dink. I don't know who wrote it.
Hah!

I Was Young When I Left Home

Trad.

Recorded on the "Minnesota Hotel Tape" (Dec 22, 1961) and released on the limited edition of Love And Theft (2001) and on No direction home (2005)

Tabbed by Gabor Bella and Eyolf Østrem

The tab is of the intro, but it's almost the same thing that he plays while singing. As usual with Dylan, the actual pattern is always changing, so it would be impossible (and pointless) to write down every single note exactly. For example, the alternation of the bass (between the G and d strings) is not always continuous, and from time to time Dylan uses the lower D string as well.

"I sorta made it up on a train. Huh, oh I'm here. This must be good for somebody, this sad song. I know it's good for somebody. If it ain't for me, it's good for somebody. I just talked about it, huh huh."

 And I never wrote a letter to my home.
 G G' D G C
 To my home, lord to my home.
 D G'
 And I never wrote a letter to my home.

It was just the other day,
 I was bringing home my pay
 when I met an old friend I used to know.
 Said your mother's dead and gone, baby sister's all gone wrong
 and your daddy needs you home right away.

Not a shirt on my back,
 not a penny on my name.
 But I can't go home thisaway.
 Thisaway, lord lord lord.
 And I can't go home thisaway.

If you miss the train I'm on,
 count the days I'm gone.
 You will hear that whistle blow a hundred miles.
 Hundred miles, honey baby, lord lord lord,
 and you'll hear that whistle blow a hundred miles.

I'm playing on a track,
 ma would come and whoop me back on them trussels down by old Jim McKay's.
 When I pay the debt I owe to the commissary store,
 I will pawn my watch and chain and go home.
 Go home, lord lord lord.
 I will pawn my watch and chain and go home.

Used to tell ma sometimes when I see them riding blind, gonna make me a home out in the wind.
 In the wind, lord in the wind.
 Make me a home out in the wind.

I don't like it in the wind,
 I go back home again,
 but I can't go home thisaway.

Thisaway, lord lord lord,
and I can't go home thisaway.

I was young when I left home
and I been all rambling 'round.
And I never wrote a letter to my home.
To my home lord lord lord.
And I never wrote a letter to my home.

Introductory Remarks

Eyolf Østrem

The question is not so much: “Is this a good Dylan album?” – which it is – as “Is this a Dylan album?” – which it isn’t.

First the lyrics: as Scott Warmuth has discovered, through an ingenious google investigation, several lines of lyrics are lifted from the works of the “Poet Laureate of the Confederacy” Henry Timrod in much the same way as Yunichi Saga’s Confessions of a Yakuza unwittingly contributed to “Love and Theft”. This has caused considerable reactions, in far wider circles than usual.

So, is Dylan a thieving scoundrel and a plagiarist, or a genius who transforms what he reads into new gems?

The lyrical side of his creative borrowings don’t bother me a single bit, and I’m surprised that such a fuss has been made over this. If anything, they add to the value of Dylan’s effort, rather than subtract from it. I would never call any of that plagiarism, neither in the case of Modern Times nor of “Love and Theft”. I can’t imagine Dylan sitting there in his divine solitude, struggling with a line, then walking over to the bookshelf and picking out Timrod or Saga in search for a line that would work. Now, that would have come closer to plagiarism: to let someone else do the job. I imagine it’s the other way around: Dylan has read Yakuza and Timrod, certain phrases and figures have stuck in his mind, from where they in due time have popped up again, in a completely new context. This kind of use is not dictated by need but by circumstance, coincidence, “intuition” if you wish. That is what I find fascinating about the use of these sources on these two albums: they highlight just how it is that things “pop up” in one’s mind – how people think.

But my surprise by the overreaction regarding a few creatively transformed word connections is multiplied by the lack of a similar reaction to the musical borrowings. These are both much more substantial and much more difficult to defend.

At the time of writing (Wed 20 Sept, 16:08 CET), the following songs on Modern Times have known models for their music (for the textual borrowings from Henry Timrod, see the link above. Note also that there are numerous borrowings from sources other than Timrod; see <http://www.republika.pl/bobdylan/>):

- Rollin’ and Tumblin’ • Taken from Muddy Water’s version of Hambone Willie Newbern’s “Roll and Tumble Blues” from 1929.
- When the Deal Goes Down • based on Bing Crosby’s trademark song “Where the Blue of the Night (Meets the Gold of the Day)” by Roy Turk and Fred E. Ahlert
- Beyond the Horizon • Taken from Jim Kennedy’s “Red Sails in the Sunset”
- The Levee’s Gonna Break • taken wholesale (apart from a few new lines of lyrics here and there) from Kansas Joe & Memphis Minnie’s “When the Levee Breaks” from 1929.
- Someday Baby • taken from “Worried Life Blues” (aka “Someday Baby” or “Trouble No More”), performed by Sleepy John Estes, Fred McDowell, Lightnin’ Hopkins, Muddy Waters, Chuck Berry, Eric Clapton, the Animals, and Bob Dylan himself (Toad’s Place, 1990), just to mention a few.

These are not just influences: in all cases, the chord structure is lifted from the models and the melody is clearly recognizable, and in some cases, the whole arrangement is “borrowed”.

That’s five out of ten. Furthermore, I’d be very surprised if the music to Spirit on the Water is Dylan’s own. Thunder on the Mountain could be by anyone, and probably is. That leaves us with three songs where the music is – at least until proven otherwise – truly “by Bob Dylan”.

It so happens that these are the three strongest songs on the album: “Nettie Moore”, “Ain’t Talkin’” and “Workingman’s Blues #2”. [note: Nettie Moore is a borderline case; the refrain is vaguely similar to “Gentle Nettie Moore” [pdf file], a song printed in the 1860, but the differences are also substantial.] I don’t know if this is good news or bad: it is reassuring that his own songs are the best, but why, then, did he have to put in the rest of it – didn’t he have more than three songs in him in five years?

If this is a sign of creative drought, that may be a matter of concern regarding the possibility of more albums in the future, but in this particular context, it’s not my main concern.

If the various textual allusions and citations can be redeemed as a fascinating display of creative intertextual intuition, it is quite the opposite with the music. When Dylan w/band play the exact same notes and the exact same solos as Muddy Waters did on “Rollin’ and Tumblin’”, that’s not “intuition” or creative translocation, it’s just “letting Muddy do the job”, plain and simple. That doesn’t add to my appreciation of the work – on the contrary.

Not all the borrowings are as straightforward as “Rollin’ and Tumblin’”. “When the Deal Goes Down” is a more interesting case. It is based on Bing Crosby’s “Where the Blue of the Night (Meets the Gold of the Day)”, and Dylan has in fact been open or semi-open about this. In a Live Talk with David Gates, who interviewed Dylan for Newsweek after Chronicles came out, Gates answered questions from the audience. One of them was:

Did Bob share any details with you regarding the songs for his next album? What’s the scoop?

And the answer was:

David Gates: Really only that he’s working on them. he did say he’s written a song based on the melody from a Bing Crosby song, “Where the Blue of the Night (Meets the Gold of the Day).” How much it’ll actually sound like that is anybody’s guess. [From <http://www.msnbc.msn.com/id/6099027/site/newsweek/>. Thanks to Jörgen Lindström for directing my attention to this.]

We now know the answer to the last question: Not much, actually. Although the song structure and he chords are identical, the phrasing, the melody line, and the pace in Dylan’s version are all very different from Crosby’s slow, insinuating crooning. It is indeed “a song based on the melody” from “Where the Blue of the Night” rather than “Where the Blue of the Night” with new lyrics.

The case is quite analogous to Dylan’s version of “You Belong To Me” – or just about every live cover he has performed during the Never Ending Tour years: his melody differs considerably from the original; he has definitely made it his own, although the underlying tune is clearly the same. The difference is that “You Belong To Me” doesn’t have “Written by Bob Dylan” under it indecenty. Again, this applies only to the music; I would not have wished to see anything like: "Words by Bob Dylan and Henry Timrod". But I would have liked to see: "Words: Bob Dylan, Music: Muddy Waters" (disregarding here the fact that Muddy didn't write the tune either, but that's moot: he played those solos, he shaped the song into the form which Dylan has taken over, so for all intents and purposes Muddy is the originator). If Dylan has copyrighted the tunes of Rollin' and Tumblin' and Beyond the Horizon, he gets money from selling something he didn't own in the first place. And regardless of the money, by putting "by Bob Dylan" under it he is taking creative credit for something he didn't create, stating "This is what I have to say" without actually saying anything. That's my main concern: he isn't saying anything. And as Tom Lehrer so eloquently put it: "If you can't communicate, the least you can do is shut up!"

Putting the label “All songs written by Bob Dylan” on this CD is plain

As more and more references and borrowings were discovered on "Love and Theft", I got this wonderful vision: what if it wasn't just a few lines of Japanese gangster-lore here and there – what if every note and every lyric line were direct quotations, put together in a grand collage – that would have been a major achievement, and a bold highlighting of the problematic of communication, by blurring the normally well-established pattern of sender-receiver; pointing (fingers) to our expectations and norms, and proving them to be wrong. It would have been like a game. And that title ... But when the same thing happens on Modern Times, only without the extra level of "game", it just becomes a sign of someone who is content with playing lounge music, but who has a reputation to live up to and a record company with an over-zealous sales department on his back.

Some have defended Dylan with reference to the folk tradition. "This is what one does there: one takes what one hears and builds on that. This is what Dylan has always done." Etc. Fair enough, but only to a point. Of course, there are contexts where, for historical or other reasons, a legalistic approach to authorship may be less relevant than in other contexts, or at least require an interpretation in the light of practice, the "folk tradition" being one such context. The next question would then be if a multi-million seller is at all comparable to the swapping, sharing, reworking of songs in coffee-houses or dance halls which I would more immediately associate with the "folk tradition". If the folk tradition is about community, sharing, and freedom of expression, Modern Times does that, but it does a lot of other things too, such as making money for the artist, the record company, and the manager's uncle, which places it in a completely different context.

Besides, as Nick Manho said on the dylanpool (making a point that he had borrowed/stolen from emily smith):

The difference between Bob ripping off the blues guys in the 60s and Bob ripping off the blues guys now is that in the 60s Bob's rip-offs were better than the originals.

There's a point in that. Not that quality would be a justification for rip-offs, nor that the statement is always true, taken literally, but to the extent that standing in a creative tradition would imply taking in something from a common storehouse (whether or not an original composer can be identified), processing it, and putting out something which adds something to the input. The point of standing on others' shoulders should be to see farther, not to stand taller. 'Being in the folk tradition' isn't a valid excuse for acting more like a thieving bastard than as a creative musician with a rich heritage.

 Thunder on the mountain and there's fires on the moon

There's a ruckus in the alley and the sun will be here soon

C G
 Today's the day; gonna grab my trombone and blow

D7 G
 Well, there's hot stuff here and it's everywhere I go

I was thinkin' 'bout Alicia Keys, couldn't keep from crying
 When she was born in Hell's Kitchen, I was living down the line
 I'm wondering where in the world Alicia Keys could be
 I been looking for her even clear through Tennessee

Feel like my soul is beginning to expand
Look into my heart and you will sort of understand
You brought me here, now you're trying to run me away
The writing on the wall, come read it, come see what it say

Thunder on the mountain, rolling like a drum
Gonna sleep over there, that's where the music coming from
I don't need any guide, I already know the way
Remember this, I'm your servant both night and day

The pistols are poppin' and the power is down
I'd like to try somethin' but I'm so far from town
The sun keeps shinin' and the north wind keep picking up speed gonna forget about myself for a while, go out and see what others need

I've been sitting down studying The Art of Love
I think it will fit me like a glove
I want some real good woman to do just what I say
Everybody got to wonder what's the matter with this cruel world today

Thunder on the mountain rolling to the ground
Gonna get up in the morning walk the hard road down
Some sweet day I'll stand beside my king
I wouldn't betray your love or any other thing

Gonna raise me an army, some tough sons of bitches
I'll recruit my army from the orphanages
I been to St. Herman's church; said my religious vows
I've sucked the milk out of a thousand cows

I got the pork chops, she got the pie
She ain't no angel and neither am I
Shame on your greed, shame on your wicked schemes
I'll say this, I don't give a damn about your dreams

Thunder on the mountain heavy as can be
Mean old twister bearing down on me
All the ladies in Washington are scrambling to get out of town
Look like something bad gonna happen, better roll your airplane down

Everybody going and I want to go, too
Don't wanna take a chance with somebody new
I did all I could, I did it right there and then
I've already confessed - no need to confess again

Gonna make a lot of money, gonna go up north
I'll plant and I'll harvest what the earth brings forth
The hammer's on the table, the pitchfork's on the shelf
For the love of God, you ought to take pity on yourself

Original key B \flat major. Best played in A major with a capo on the first fret.

The chords in the beginning of the verses could be played like this, to emulate the guitar figures in the recording:

  A   E   A   E       D   A   D   E       A                               D

Spirit on the water
D         A       D       E       A
Darkness on the face of the deep

At the place marked *) in the tab below, there is thus room for any of the variants — full guitar figure, E7, or D throughout.

Chords:

A           x02220 (going to E)
A           x0222x (going to D; half barre)
D           x04232 (alternative fingering; goes with the following F)
F           x07560 (slide up from the previous); there is also a 6 in there some

I'll throw my love into the deep blue sea

Sometimes I wonder
 Why you can't treat me right
 You do good all day
 And then you do wrong all night

When you're with me
 I'm a thousand times happier than I could ever say
 What does it matter
 What price I pay?

 Brag about it all over town
 Put some sugar in my bowl
 I feel like layin' down

I'm as pale as a ghost

I could live forever

High on the hill
 you can carry all my thoughts with you
 You know my will
 This love could tear me in two

I won't be with you in paradise and it seems so unfair
 I can't go to paradise no more,
 I killed a man back there

You think I'm over the hill
 Think I'm past my prime
 Let me see what you got
 We can have a whoppin' good time

I get up in the dawn and I go down and lay in the shade
I ain't nobody's houseboy, I ain't nobody's well-trained maid

I'm flat out spent, this woman been drivin' me to tears
I'm flat out spent, this woman, she been drivin' me to tears
This woman so crazy, I swear I ain't gonna touch another one for years

Well, the warm weather's comin' and the buds are on the vine
Warm weather's comin'; the buds are on the vine
Ain't nothin' more depressin' than tryin' to satisfy this woman of mine

I got up this mornin', saw the risin' sun return
Well, I got up this mornin', seen the risin' sun return
Sooner or later, you too shall burn

Well, the night's filled with shadows, the years are filled with early doom
The night is filled with shadows, the years are filled with early doom
I've been conjuring up all these long dead souls from their crumblin' tombs

Let's forgive each other, darlin', let's go down to the Greenwood Glen
Let's forgive each other, darlin', let's go down to the Greenwood Glen
Let's put our heads together now, let's put all ol' matters to an end

Now I rolled and I tumbled, I cried the whole night long
Ah, I rolled and I tumbled, I cried the whole night long
I woke up this morning, I think I must be travelin' wrong

The moon gives light and it shines by night
 Well, I scarcely feel the glow
 We learn to live and then we forgive
 O'er the road we're bound to go
 More frail than the flowers, these precious hours
 That keep us so tightly bound
 You come to my eyes like a vision from the skies
 And I'll be with you when the deal goes down

Well, I picked up a rose and it poked through my clothes
 I followed the winding stream
 I heard the deafening noise, I felt transient joys
 I know they're not what they seem
 In this earthly domain, full of disappointment and pain
 You'll never see me frown
 I owe my heart to you, and that's sayin' it true
 And I'll be with you when the deal goes down

When I heard you was cold, I bought you a coat and hat
I think you must have forgotten about that Someday baby, you ain't gonna worry poor me any more

[Instrumental verse]

Gonna blow out your mind, and make you pure
I've taken about as much of this as I can endure
Someday baby, you ain't gonna worry poor me any more

You put me down from the upper creek
That's all right, to you I turn the other cheek
Someday baby, you ain't gonna worry poor me any more

[Instrumental verse]

You say you need me, how would I know?
You say you love me, but it can't be so
Someday baby, you ain't gonna worry poor me any more

I don't want to brag, but I'll wring your neck
When all else fails, I'll make it a matter of self-respect
Someday baby, you ain't gonna worry poor me any more

[Instrumental verse]

Living this way ain't a natural thing to do
Why was I born to love you?
Someday baby, you ain't gonna worry poor me any more

Workingman's Blues #2

Words and music Bob Dylan
 Released on Modern Times (2006)
 Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Did you ever expect to hear a line like “The buying power of the proletariat’s gone down” in a song lyric? Way to go, Bobby! In a straight line from Ballad of Hollis Brown, through the Farm Aid initiative in the eighties, here’s one of the highlights of the album — but more than a political statement, it is also a love-ballad.

Musically, it is a close cousin of Cross the Green Mountain with which it shares the ever-descending bass line and some of the chord shadings that never manage to decide whether they’re major or minor (and which minor they are!).

A stroke of genius is the G7 between the verses — the only place where this is actually a blues song. “I say it, so it must be so.”

Capo 2nd fret (sounding key A major)

Chords:

The G/d in the second line (marked with *) below) can be played in many different ways, in addition to the plain xx0003. A well-sounding solution, which captures the f# (sounding: g#) in the strings, is to play it as 354000 or 054000, and to play the preceding Em as 075000. This gives a nice descent on the guitar neck down to the C in the next measure (-75— -54— -32—).

D/f#	200232 or xx4030
Em	022000 or 075000
Gmaj7	354000
Em9	054000
D9	xx0210

 Money's getting shallow and weak

Well, the place I love best is a sweet memory
 it's a new path that we trod
 They say low wages are a reality
 If we want to compete abroad

My cruel weapons have been put on the shelf
 Come sit down on my knee
 You are dearer to me than myself
 As you yourself can see
 While I'm listening to the steel rails hum
 Got both eyes tight shut
 Just sitting here trying to keep the hunger from Creeping it's way into my gut

Well, I'm sailin' on back, ready for the long haul
 Tossed by the winds and the seas
 I'll drag 'em all down to hell and I'll stand 'em at the wall
 I'll sell 'em to their enemies
 I'm a-tryin' to feed my soul with thought
 Gonna sleep off the rest of the day
 Sometimes no one wants what you got
 Sometimes you can't give it away

Now the place is ringed with countless foes
 Some of them may be deaf and dumb
 No man, no woman knows

The hour that sorrow will come
In the dark I hear the night birds call
I can feel a lover's breath
I sleep in the kitchen with my feet in the hall
Sleep is like a temporary death

Meet me at the bottom, don't lag behind

Well, they burned my barn, and they stole my horse
I can't save a dime
I got to be careful, I don't want to be forced Into a life of continual crime
I can see for myself that the sun is sinking
How I wish you were here to see
Tell me now, am I wrong in thinking
That you have forgotten me?

Now they worry and they hurry and they fuss and they fret
They waste your nights and days
Them I will forget
But you I'll remember always
Old memories of you to me have clung
You've wounded me with your words
Gonna have to straighten out your tongue
It's all true, everything you've heard

Meet me at the bottom, don't lag behind

In you, my friend, I find no blame
Wanna look in my eyes, please do

No one can ever claim
That I took up arms against you.
All across the peaceful sacred fields
They will lay you low
They'll break your horns and slash you with steel
I say it, so it must be so

Now I'm down on my luck and I'm black and blue
Gonna give you another chance
I'm all alone I'm expecting you
To lead me off in a cheerful dance
I got a brand new suit and a brand new wife
I can live on rice and beans
Some people never worked a day in their life
Don't know what work even means

Well, meet me at the bottom, don't lag behind
Bring me my boots and shoes
You could hang back or fight your best on the front line
Sing a little bit of these workingman's blues

Beyond the Horizon

Words: Bob Dylan, music: taken from Jim Kennedy's "Red Sails in the Sunset", covered by Nat King Cole, Fats Domino, and others

Released on Modern Times (2006)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

There are lots of different tones here, and many places to play them. Here are two different versions: one in E major (capo 1st fret), which gives a fuller sound and the option to play around with the E-E6-E7-plus things up at the 7th fret and still use the open strings as a soundboard; another in D (capo 3rd fret), which is much easier to play, and doesn't sound half bad at all.

Don't let all the long names scare you off: all the 6-es are there for the gently rocking groundwork, and the maj7-s and 9-s for the N'Orleans-ish fillings. Any of them can be dropped: play E . . . | D7 . . . | etc instead if you wish.

Oh, I miss you, Nettie Moore
And my happiness is o'er
Winter's gone, the river's on the rise
I loved you then and ever shall
But there's no one left here to tell
The world has gone black before my eyes

Don't know why my baby never looked so good before
Don't have to wonder no more
She been cooking all day, gonna take me all night
I can't eat all that stuff in a single bite

The judge is coming in, everybody rise
Lift up your eyes
You can do what you please, you don't need my advice
'Fore you call me any dirty names, you better think twice

Gettin' light outside, the temperature dropped
I think the rain has stopped
I'm gonna make you come to grips with fate
When I'm through with you, you'll learn to keep your business straight

Oh, I miss you, Nettie Moore
And my happiness is o'er
Winter's gone, the river's on the rise
I loved you then and ever shall
But there's no one left here to tell
The world has gone black before my eyes

The bright spark of the steady lights
Has dimmed my sights
When you're around me all my grief gives way
A life time with you is like some heavenly day

Everything I've ever known to be right has been proven wrong
I'll be drifting along
The woman I'm a-lovin', she rules my heart
No knife could ever cut our love apart.

Today I'll stand in faith and raise
The voice of praise
The sun is strong, I'm standing in the light
I wish to God that it were night

Oh, I miss you, Nettie Moore
And my happiness is o'er
Winter's gone, the river's on the rise
I loved you then and ever shall
But there's no one here left to tell
The world has gone black before my eyes

Well, I worked on the levee, mama, both night 'n day,
I worked on the levee, mama, both night 'n day.
I got to the river and I threw my clothes away.

I paid my time and now I'm as good as new,
I've paid my time and now I'm as good as new.
They can't take me back unless I want 'em to.

If it keep on rainin', the levee gonna break,
If it keep on rainin', the levee gonna break.
Some of these people gonna strip you of all they can take.

[Guitar solo]

I can't stop here, I ain't ready to unload,
I can't stop here, I ain't ready to unload.
Riches and salvation can be waiting behind the next bend in the road.

I picked you up from the gutter and this is the thanks I get,
I picked you up from the gutter and this is the thanks I get.
You say you want me to quit ya, I told ya, 'No, not just yet.'

Well, I look in your eyes, I see nobody other than me,
 I look in your eyes, I see nobody other than me.
 I see all that I am and all I hope to be.

If it keep on rainin', the levee gonna break,
 If it keep on rainin', the levee gonna break.
 Some of these people don't know which road to take.

[Guitar solo]

When I'm with you, I forget I was ever blue,
 When I'm with you, I forget I was ever blue.
 Without you there's no meaning in anything I do.

Some people on the road carryin' everything that they own,
 Some people on the road carryin' everything they own.
 Some people got barely enough skin to cover their bone.

Put on your cat clothes, mama, put on your evening dress,
 Put on your cat clothes, mama, put on your evening dress.
 Few more years of hard work, then there'll be a thousand years of happiness.

If it keep on rainin', the levee gonna break,
 If it keep on rainin', the levee gonna break.
 I tried to get you to love me, but I won't repeat that mistake.

If it keep on rainin', the levee gonna break,
If it keep on rainin', the levee gonna break.
Plenty of cheap stuff out there still around that you take.

I woke up this morning, butter n' eggs in my bed,
I woke up this morning, butter n' eggs in my bed.
I ain't got enough room to even raise my head.

Come back, baby, say we nevermore will part,
Come back, baby, say we nevermore will part.
Don't be a stranger with no brain or heart.

If it keep on rainin', the levee gonna break,
If it keep on rainin', the levee gonna break.
Some people still sleepin', some people are wide awake.

They say prayer has the power to heal, so pray for me, mother.
 In the human heart, an evil spirit will dwell.
 I am a-tryin' to love my neighbor and do good unto others,
 But oh mother things ain't goin' well.

Ain't talkin', just walkin'
I'll burn that bridge before you can cross.
Heart burnin', still yearnin'
There'll be no mercy for you once you've lost.

Now I'm all worn down by weeping,
 My eyes are filled with tears, my lips are dry.
 If I catch my opponents ever sleeping,
 I'll just slaughter'em where they lie.

Ain't talkin', just walkin'
Through the world mysterious and vague.
Heart burnin', still yearnin'
Walkin' through the cities of the plague.

Well, the whole world is filled with speculation,
 The whole wide world which people say is round.
 They will tear your mind away from contemplation,
 They will jump on your misfortune when you're down.

Ain't talkin', just walkin'
Eatin' hog-eyed grease in a hog-eyed town.
Heart burnin', still yearnin'
Some day you'll be glad to have me around.

They will crush you with wealth and power
 Every waking moment you could crack.
 I'll make the most of one last extra hour,
 I'll avenge my father's death when I step back.

Ain't talkin', just walkin'
Hand me down my walkin' cane.
Heart burnin', still yearnin'
Got to get you out of my miserable brain.

All my loyal and my much-loved companions
They approve of me and share my code
I practice a faith that's been long abandoned
Ain't no altars on this long and lonesome road

Ain't talkin', just walkin'
My mule is sick, my horse is blind.
Heart burnin', still yearnin'
Thinkin' 'bout that gal I left behind.

Well, it's bright in the heavens and the wheels are flyin',
Fame and honor never seem to fade.
The fire gone out but the light is never dyin'.
Who says I can't get heavenly aid'

Ain't talkin', just walkin'
Carryin' a dead man's seal.
Heart burnin', still yearnin'
Walkin' with a toothache in my heel.

The suffering is unending;
Every nook and cranny has its tears.
I'm not playing, I'm not pretending,
I'm not nursing any superfluous fears.

Ain't talkin', just walkin'
Walkin' ever since the other night.
Heart burnin', still yearnin'
Walkin' till I'm clean out of sight.

As I walked out in the mystic garden
On a hot summer day, a hot summer lawn.
Excuse me, ma'am, I beg your pardon:
There's no one here, the gardener is gone.

Ain't talkin', just walkin'
Up the road, around the bend.
Heart burnin', still yearnin'
In the last outback at the world's end.

Red River Shore

Written by Bob Dylan

Recorded Jan 1997 for Time Out Of Mind, and released on Tell Tale Signs (2008)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

The Gs eventually take on a G7ish character when the organ comes in.

Some of us scare ourselves to death in the dark
      G      C/g G
To be where the angels fly
C
Pretty maids all in a row lined up

I've never wanted any of 'em wanting me

Except the girl from the red river shore

Well I sat by her side and for a while I tried
To make that girl my wife
She gave me her best advice and she said
Go home and lead a quiet life
Well I been to the east and I been to the west
And I been out where the black winds roar
Somehow though I never did get that far
With the girl from the red river shore

Well I knew when I first laid eyes on her
I could never be free
One look at her and I knew right away
She should always be with me
Well the dream dried up a long time ago
Don't know where it is anymore
True to life, true to me
Was the girl from the red river shore

Well I'm wearing the cloak of misery
And I've tasted jilted love

And the frozen smile upon my face
Fits me like a glove
Well I can't escape from the memory
Of the one I'll always adore
All those nights when I lay in the arms
Of the girl from the red river shore

Well we're living in the shadows of a fading past
Trapped in the fires of time
I've tried not to ever hurt anybody
And to stay out of the life of crime
And when it's all been said and done
I never did know the score
One more day is another day away
From the girl from the red river shore

Well I'm a stranger here in a strange land
But I know this is where I belong
I'll ramble and gamble for the one I love
And the hills will give me a song
Though nothing looks familiar to me
I know I've stayed here before
Once a thousand nights ago
With the girl from the red river shore

Well I went back to see about her once
Went back to straighten it out
Everybody that I talked to had seen us there
Said they didn't know who I was talking about
Well the sun went down on me a long time ago
I've had to pull back from the door
I wish I could have spent every hour of my life
With the girl from the red river shore

Now I heard of a guy who lived a long time ago
A man full of sorrow and strife
That if someone around him died and was dead
He knew how to bring 'em on back to life
Well I don't know what kind of language he used
Or if they do that kind of thing anymore
Sometimes I think nobody ever saw me here at all
Except the girl from the red river shore

Tell Ol' Bill

Words and music Bob Dylan

Recorded summer 2005 for the North Country soundtrack. Outtake version released on Tell Tale Signs (2008)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

The version that was released on the soundtrack may not have been the most exciting ever, but the recording sessions are, especially take 6, where the change from major to minor takes place, and Dylan says to the band, in a way that sounds exactly like what his musicians have said ever since the 60s: "Maybe we should just change it all, totally. Change the melody, change everything about it. You know, put it in a minor key, I mean, everything!"

Capo 3rd fret (sounding key B \flat major)

Dreamin' of You

Written by Bob Dylan

Recorded Jan 1997 for Time Out Of Mind, and released on Tell Tale Signs (2008)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

This is quite a simple song – if you are a band, that is, where each player can play around with a riff. But since you're more likely a single guitar player, you'll have to choose. The initial tab line shows the two basic elements that run through the verse sections: the piano riff and the bass line.

Other than that, it's just a bluesy Em7 (022430)

Em7          /g    /a    /b
The light in this place is really bad
Em7          /g    /a    /b
Like being at the bottom of a stream
Em7          /g    /a    /b
Any minute now
      Em7          /g    /a    /b
I'm expecting to wake up from a dream
G   A          Em7
      Means so much
G   A          Em7
      The softest touch
      Em7          /g    /a    /b
Like the grave of some child, who neither wept or smiled
Em7          /g    /a    /b
I pondered my fate in the rain

      I've been dreaming of you
      That's all I do
      And it's driving me insane

Somewhere dawn is breaking
Light is streaking across the floor
Church-bells are ringing
I wonder who they're ringing for Travel under any star
      You'll see me wherever you are
The shadowy past is so vague and so vast
I'm sleeping in the palace of pain

      I've been dreaming of you
      That's all I do
      But it's driving me insane

Maybe they'll get me, maybe they won't
But whatever it won't be tonight
I wish your hand was in mine right now
We could go where the moon is white
 For years they had me locked in a cage
 Then they threw me onto the stage
Some things just last longer than you thought they would
And they never ever explain

I've been dreaming of you
That's all I do
And it's driving me insane

Well I eat when I'm hungry, drink when I'm dry
Live my life on the square
Even if the flesh falls off my face
It won't matter, long as you're there
 Feel like a ghost in love
 Underneath the heavens above
Feel further away than I ever did before
Feel further I can take

Dreaming of you
Is all I do
But it's driving me insane

Everything in the way is so shiny today
In queer and unusual form
Spirals of golden haze here and there in a blaze
Like beams of light in a storm
 Maybe you were here and maybe you weren't
 Maybe you touched somebody and got burnt
The silent sun has got me on the run
Burning a hole in my brain

I'm dreaming of you
That's all I do
But it's driving me insane

I found hopeless love in the room above
When the sun and the weather were one
You're as fine as wine, I ain't handing you no line
I'm gonna have to put you down for a while

All the merry little elves can go hang themselves
My faith is as cold as can be **)
I'm stacked high to the roof, and I'm not without proof
If you don't believe me, come see.
You think i'm blue I think so too
In my words you'll find no guile
The game's gotten old The deck's gone cold
And i'm gonna have to put you down for a while

The game's gotten old The deck's gone cold
I'm gonna have to put you down for a while

Marchin' to the City

Written by Bob Dylan

Recorded Jan 1997 for Time Out Of Mind, and released on Tell Tale Signs (2008)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Main Album version

Just to have mentioned it: the chords are simple enough, although a guitar player might prefer something like a capo on the third fret and the chords G, C/g, and D7 instead.

 Eb/bb Bb
Well I'm sitting in church

 Eb/bb Bb
In an old wooden chair

 Eb/bb Bb
I knew nobody

 Eb/bb Bb
Would look for me there

 Eb7
Sorrow and pity

Rule the earth and the skies
 Bb7

Looking for nothing
Eb/bb Bb
Anyone's eyes

 F
Once I had pretty girls
 Eb

Did me wrong
 Bb
Now I'm marching to the city

And the road ain't long

Snowflakes are falling
Around my head
Lord have mercy
It feel heavy like lead
I been hit too hard
Seen too much
Nothing can heal me now
But your touch

Once I had a pretty girl
She done me wrong
Now I'm marching to the city
And the road ain't long

Loneliness
Got a mind of its own

The more people around
The more you feel alone
I'm chained to the earth
Like a silent slave
Trying to break free
Out of death's dark cave

Once I had a pretty girl
Done me wrong
Now I'm marching to the city
And the road ain't long

Boys in the street
Beginning to play
Girls like birds
Flying away
I'm carrying the roses
That were given to me
And I'm thinking about paradise
Wondering what it might be

Once I had a pretty girl
She done me wrong
Now I'm marching to the city
And the road ain't long

Go over to London
Maybe gay Paree
Follow the river
You get to the sea
I was hoping we could drink from
Life's clear streams
I was hoping we could dream
Life's pleasant dreams

Once I had a pretty girl
But she done me wrong
Now I'm marching to the city
And the road ain't long

Well the weak get weaker
And the strong stay strong
The train keeps rolling
All night long
She looked at me
With an irresistable glance
With a smile
That could make all the planets dance

Once I had a pretty girl
She did me wrong
Now I'm marching to the city
And the road ain't long

My house is on fire
 Burning to the skies
 I thought the rain clouds
 But the clouds passed by
 When I'm gone
 You'll remember my name
 I'm gonna win my way
 To wealth and fame

Once I had a pretty girl
 But she did me wrong
 Now I'm marching to the city
 And the road ain't long

Outtake version (Tell Tale Signs, vol. 3)

E
 Loneliness

Got a mind of its own

The more people around

The more you feel alone
 A7

I've been chained to the earth

Like a silent slave

E
 Im trying to break free

Out of death's dark cave

B7
 Once I had a pretty girl

She did me wrong
 C#m

Now I'm marching to the city, boys
 A E
 And the road ain't long

I was hoping to my soul that we'd never part
 You took all the madness right out of my heart
 I was hoping we could drink from
 Life's clear streams
 I was hoping we could dream from life's pleasant dreams

My house is burnin'
 up to the skies
 I thought it would rain
 But the clouds passed by

Sorrow and pity
Through the earth and the skyes
I'm not looking for nothing
In anyone's eyes

Wind is blowin'
All troubles and dirt
Time to get away
'fore someone gets hurt
I just don't know what I'm a-gonna do
I was all right
Till I fell in love with you.

If she gets unruly, thinks she don't want you
If she gets unruly and thinks she don't want you
Take my 32-20 now and break her half in two

She got a .38 special, but I believe it's much too light
She got a .38 special, but I believe it's much too light
I got a 32-30, makes the camp all right

If I send for my baby, man, and she don't come
Send for my baby, man, and she don't come
All the doctors in Hot Springs sure ain't gonna help her none

Gonna shoot my pistol, shoot my Gatling gun
Gonna shoot my pistol, got to shoot my Gatling gun
You made me love you, now your man has come

Aw baby, where'd you stay last night?
Aw baby, where'd you stay last night?
You got your hair all tangled and you ain't talking right

Her .38 special, boys, it do very well
Her .38 special, boys, it do very well
I got a 32-20 now it's a burning hell

If I send for my baby, man, and she don't come
Send for my baby, man, and she don't come
All the doctors in [...] sure ain't gonna help her none

Hey hey baby, where'd you stay last night?
Hey hey baby, where'd you stay last night?
Didn't come home till the sun was shining bright

Oh boys, I just can't take my rest
Oh boys, I just can't take my rest
With this 32-20 laying up and down my breast

Can't Escape From You

Written by Bob Dylan

Recorded 2005 for "a film that never got made", and released on Tell Tale Signs (2008)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Capo 1st fret, based on the left guitar (sounding key B \flat major)

The Amaj7 thing between the verses is probably better played with a chord sequence like x06650 – x04430 on a single guitar. For the variation in the outro, the descent can start higher:

Well I . . .

Well I hear the sound of thunder
Roaring loud and long
Sometimes you've got to wonder
God knows I've done no wrong
You've wasted all your power
You threw out the Christmas pie
Now you're withering like a flower
You'll play the fool and die

I'm neither sad nor sorry
I'm all dressed up in black
I fought for fame and glory
You tried to break my back

In the far off sweet forever
The sunshine peeking through
We should have walked together
I can't escape from you

I cannot grasp the shadows
That gather near the door
Rain falls round my window
I wish I'd seen you more
The path is ever-winding
The stars they never age
The morning light is blinding
All the world's a stage

Should be the time of gladness
Happy faces everywhere
The mystery of madness
Is propagating in the air

I don't like the city
Not like some folks do
Isn't it a pity
I can't escape from you

We ploughed the fields of heaven
Right down to the end
I hope I can be forgiven
If any words of mine offend
All our days were splendid
They were simple, they were plain
It never should have ended
I should have kissed you in the rain

I've been thinking things all over
All the moments full of grace
The primrose and the clover
Your ever-changing face

Can't help looking at you
You made love with god-knows-who Never found a girl to match you
I can't escape from you

Cocaine Blues

traditional/Revd. Gary Davis

Performed by Bob Dylan occasionally in his early days (at the Gaslight, e.g.), and frequently in 1997-1999

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Version from Gaslight Tapes 2

Capo 5th fret (sounding key F major)

Standard fingerpicking. The F chord is fingered with an open 5th string (A) in the bass (103211). This, and the hammer-ons, requires the chord to be played using the thumb on the 6th string.

The intro is in principle what is played for the verses (beginning from measure 3), whereas the interlude is also the refrain. And, yes, he does sing the two 10th street verses in a row, without a refrain between them. The last "refrain" is really just mumbling over the final interlude (which then isn't an interlude anymore, but a postlude).

Well up and down 10th street, turned down main, looking for a guy they call Cocaine.
Cocaine all around my brain.

Then I walked down 10th street, turned down Beale, looking for a guy they call Lucille.
Cocaine all around my brain.

[instrumental verse + refrain]

Yonder come a baby all dressed in white,

Cocaine all around my brain.

Hey baby, won't you come here quick.
This old cocaine is making me sick.
Cocaine all around my brain.

Lord, cocaine been on my head,
goddamn, cocaine my head,
cocaine all around my brain.

Minnesota Hotel version (Bonnie Beechers Apartment 22nd December 1961)

Thanks to Burkhard Czarnetzki for the transcription.

When walk up 10th street turn down Beale,
Looking for a girl at the Colosseum,
Cocaine all around my brain.
Hey mama, won't you come here quick,
This old Cocaine is making me sick.
Cocaine all around my brain.

Walked up 10th street turn down Main,
Looking where I get Cocaine,
Cocaine all around my brain.
Hey baby, won't you come here quick,
This old cocaine is getting me sick.
Cocaine all around my brain.

Here come my baby all dressed in white,
hey baby won't you stay all night.
Cocaine all around my brain.
Hey baby, this is real,
You must know the way I feel,
Cocaine all around my brain.

Yonder come a baby all dressed in blue.
Hey baby, don't want no one but you,
Cocaine is inside my brain.
Hey mama, come here soon.
This old hash she's got me on the moon.
Cocaine all around my brain.

Memories are bringing happy days of yore
Miss the Mississippi and you
Mockingbirds are singing
'round the cabin door
Miss the Mississippi and you

Rolling the wide world over
Always alone and blue, so blue
Longing for my homeland
Muddy water shore
Miss the Mississippi and you

The Lonesome River

Written by Ralph and Carter Stanley

Sung by Bob Dylan and Ralph Stanley on Ralph Stanley & Friends: Clinch Mountain Country (1998)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

The intro is played on a mandolin, of course. Below is an approximative adaptation to the guitar (put a half barré on the 2nd fret in the third bar, and slide the whole barre up from the 1st fret on the fourth beat – the 1-2 on the 2nd string).

I sit here alone on the banks of the river
      D              A
The lonsesome wind blows and the water runs high
      D              A
I can hear a voice call [from] out there in the darkness
      E              A
But I sit here alone too lonesome to cry

```

Oh the water rolls high on the river at midnight

I sit on the shore too grievin' to cry

The woman I love she left me this morning
      E              A
With no-one to love or kiss me goodnight

We met there one night on the banks of the river
 sat there holdin' hands and makin' a vow
 That we never would part and be happy together
 But the new love she's found - she's gone with him now.

Oh the water rolls high on the river at midnight
I sit on the shore too grievin' to cry
The woman I love she left me this morning
With no-one to love or kiss me goodnight

```

Words and music Bob Dylan

Written for the soundtrack of the film Gods And Generals (2003), released on Tell Tale Signs (2008)

Lyrics taken from communal efforts at the Pool message board; tab by Eyolf Østrem

Two things are noteworthy from the guitaristic side. One is the continuously sounding —3 (highest string, third fret), throughout most of the chords (see chord chart). The other is the bitonality of the second chord. Where I've written a G/b chord, some of the instruments play a Bm chord, which clashes with the —3. There are some ways of approximating that on a single guitar, but none are completely satisfying; see suggestions below.

Apart from that, it's an interesting tune for three reasons: the difference between the two types of verses, which are so similar that it's hard to keep them apart, but still quite distinct; the irregular strophe structure, with the secondary verse form occurring three times, with a different number of "regular" verses in between. The third reason is more elusive, but despite its extreme simplicity, with basically the same chord sequence (Am7-G/b-C-D, reversed in the bridge) for just about every line, it still works wonderfully.

In an ancient light, that is not of day
They were calm, they were blunt, we knew 'em all too well
We loved each other more than we ever dared to tell

Duncan And Brady

Trad.

As performed by Bob Dylan in Durham, New Hampshire, Nov 17, 1999 (first live performance), with emendations from other performances.

The song was recorded in 1992 for Good As I Been To You, in a version that was eventually released on Tell Tale Signs (2008). Performed live during late 1999/early 2000. Dylan's source is probably Tom Rush's version, with virtually exactly identical lyrics (thanks to Peter J. Curry for the info). Other possible influences are Jerry Garcia or David Bromberg, with whom he played around that time. Tabbed and transcribed by Eyolf Østrem (Thanks to Mike Miller and to Antonio for corrections)

The Tell Tale Signs version has the chords A, E, and D.

C

Twinkle, twinkle, little star

G

'Long comes Brady in his 'lectric car

Got a mean look right in his eye

Gonna shoot somebody jus' to watch him die

C

He been on the job too long

Duncan, Duncan was tending the bar

'Long came Brady with his shiny star

"Duncan," said Brady, "you are under arrest"

Duncan shot a hole right in Brady's chest

He been on the job too long.

Old King Brady was a big, fat man

Doctor looked down, and took hold of his hand reached for his pulse, the doctor said

"I believe to my soul, king Brady, you're dead"

He been on the job too long

Up upon the hillside, eight hundred at hand,

vases of roses standing around

[...] horses and a rubber-tired hack

bring him down to the graveyard, it won't bring him back.

He been on the job too long

When the women all heard King Brady was dead,

They went home and they'd be re-ragged in red *)

Slippin' and a-slidin', shuffelin' down the street,

In their big mother hubbards and their stockin' feet.

He been on the job too long

"Brady, Brady, Brady, you know you done wrong

breakin' in here when this game's goin' on

Bustin' down the window, tearin' down the door

Now you lyin' dead on the barroom floor

You been on the job too long."

Twinkle, twinkle, little star

'Long comes Brady in his 'lectric car
Got a mean look in his eye
Gonna shoot somebody jus' to watch him die
He been on the job too long.

G C
He been on the job too long.

*) Tom Rush: "[They] all went home, [and they] re-ragged in red".

Leadbelly's version

Twinkle, twinkle, twinkle, little star
Up comes Brady in a 'lectric car
Got a mean look all 'round his eye
Gonna shoot somebody jus' to see them die
Duncan, Duncan was tending the bar
In walked Brady with a shining star
And Brady says, "Duncan you are under arrest"
And Duncan shot a hole in Brady's breast
Brady, Brady carried a .45,
Said it would shoot half a mile
Duncan had a .44
That what laid Mr. Brady so low
Brady fell down on the barroom floor,
"Please Mr. Duncan don' shoot me no more"
Women all cryin', ain't it a shame,
Shot King Brady, goin' shoot him again
"Brady, Brady, Brady, you know you done wrong
Walkin' in the room when the game was goin' on Knockin' down windows, breakin' down the door
Now you lyin' dead on the grocery [barroom] floor
Women all heard that Brady was dead,
Goes back home and they dresses in red
Come a sniffin' and a sighin' down the street,
In their big mother hubbards and their stockin' feet
'Cause he been on the job too long

 At last I've found my treasure
 But oh how cruel my parents must be Banishing my darling so far from me
 Well I'll leave them all and I'll go with thee
 My bold and undaunted soldier

Oh Mary dear, your parents' love
 I pray don't be unruly

When you're in a foreign land
Believe me you'll rue it surely
Perhaps in battle I might fall
From a shot from an angry cannonball
And you so far from your daddy's hall
Be advised by a gallant soldier

And I have fifty guineas in [...] gold
Likewise a heart that's blinder
And I'd leave them all and I'll go with you
My bold and undaunted soldier
So don't say no, but let me go
And I will face the daring foe
We'll march together to and fro
I'll wed you, my gallant soldier

And when he saw her loyalty
And Mary so true-hearted
He said: My darling, married we'll be
And nothing but death will part us
And when we're in some foreign land
I'll guard you, darling, with my right hand
Hopes that God might stand a friend
To Mary and her gallant soldier

 Without this love that we call ours.
 Beyond here lies nothin',
 Nothin' but the moon and the stars

Down every street there's a window,
 And every window's made of glass.
 We'll keep on lovin', pretty baby,
 For as long as love will last.
 Beyond here lies nothin'
 but the mountains of the past

jWell my ship is in the harbor,
 And the sails are spread.
 Listen to me pretty baby,
 Lay your hand upon my head.
 Beyond here lies nothin',
 Nothin' done and nothin' said.

Some playing suggestions:

1. The chords in the beginning of the verses can be expanded to follow the melody:
Ebmaj7 . . Eb6 | Dm7 . Eaug E
2. The record has the chromatic descent beginning at 'I'm always ...' played both in the bass line and in a higher register. It is probably best to choose one of them; see chord suggestions below.
3. The chords to that descent could be conceived of (and played) either as notated below, or as Am Ammaj7 C/g D9/f#.

Chords:

Ebmaj7 xx1333 or x65333
Ammaj7 x02110 or 4x2210
Am7/g x02010 or 3x2210

My Wife's Home Town

Written by Bob Dylan and Willie Dixon
Released on Together Through Life (2009)

D throughout, with shades of D minor. The guitar/accordeon riff below is played at the end (or is it beginning?) of most measures, and that's more or less it, except for the 'Home Town' motif, given here as a one-guitar thing, but played on different instruments. I wouldn't necessarily say that it's a good idea to play this arrangement on a single guitar, but it's up to you.

N.C. = "no chord"; the slash chords ("/d" etc) indicate bass notes.

I just wanna say that hell's my wife's home town home town home town

She can make you steal, make you rob
Give you the hives, make you lose your job
Make things bad she can make things worse
She got stuff more potent than a gypsy curse

One of these days I'll end up on the run
I'm pretty sure she'll make me kill someone
I'm going inside, roll the shutters down
I just wanna say that hell's my wife's home town

Well there's plenty to remember, plenty to forget
I still can remember the day we met
I lost my reasons long ago
My love for her is all I know

I decided to tab this relative to a capo on the first fret. The song is in F major, which means that you'll have to play barre chords all the way through. Feel free to do that instead, with the chords suggested at the end of the tab.

Instead of the 'slash chords', one can use sus4-chords (thus Esus4-E, Asus4-A, and Dsus4-D).

You'll be asking for trouble
If you're lookin' for a fight
If you ever go to Houston
Boy, you better walk right

If you're ever down there
On Bagby and Lamar
You better watch out for
The man with the shining star
Better know where you're going
Or stay where you are
If you're ever down there

On Bagby and Lamar

I know these streets
I've been here before
I nearly got killed here
During the Mexican war
Something always
Keeps me coming back for more
I know these streets
I've been here before

If you ever go to Dallas
Say hello to Mary Anne
Say I'm still pullin' on the trigger
Hangin' on the best that I can
If you see her sister Lucy
Say I'm sorry I'm not there
Tell her other sister Betsy
To pray the sinner's prayer

I got a restless fever
Burnin' in my brain
Got to keep ridin' forward
Can't spoil the game
The same way I leave here
Will be the way that I came Got a restless fever
Burnin' in my brain

Mr. Policeman
Can you help me find my gal
Last time I saw her
Was at the Magnolia Hotel
If you help me find her
You can be my pal
Mr. Policeman
Can you help me find my gal

If you ever go to Austin
Fort Worth or San Antone
Find the bar rooms I got lost in
And send my memories home
Put my tears in a bottle
Screw the top on tight
If you ever go to Houston
You better walk right

who would remember better than you?

Forgetful heart,
we laughed and had a good time, you and I.
It's been so long.
Now you're content to let the days go by.
When you were there,
you were the answer to my prayer.

Forgetful heart,
we loved with all the love that life can give.
What can I say?
Without you, it's so hard to live.
Can't take much more.
Why can't we love like we did before.

Forgetful heart,
like a walking shadow in my brain.
All night long
I lay awake and listen to the sound of pain.
The door has closed forever more,
if indeed there ever was a door.

If you absolutely want to play this on a single guitar, and at least try to include the lick in the refrain, the easiest thing to do is to play it with a capo on the 6th fret, hence the chords below. Otherwise, pick any key and play a regular shuffle with the straight three-chord chords.

The lick (play at *):

      : . . . . : . . . .

|-----5--3--5-----|-----|
|-----2--2-----|-----|

Without the capo:

|-----11--9--11-----|-----|
|-----8--8-----|-----|

I Feel a Change Coming On

Music by Bob Dylan, lyrics by Bob Dylan and Robert Hunter
Released on Together Through Life (2009)
Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Written out with a capo on the 1st fret (sounding key: B \flat). Another alternative is to use a 3rd fret capo and the chords G, Em, Am, D11, which is easier to play, but misses the deep, full E sound for the last chord in each 'round'.

Lots of things going on here, even though it sounds simple enough. Especially the chord noted as an E11 is only vaguely defined. Alternatives to E11 are plain E, E7, or some other muddy version of E.

The 'last part of the day...' part could be (and is, at least at one point) embellished as:

      E7      A/e      E7 A/e      E7      A

It's All Good

Words and music Bob Dylan
Released on Together Through Life (2009)
Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Nothing much here, but I guess it's all good. Or was it: it's all G?

Calling it "G" is a little too simple, by the way. It's one half G, one half Gm, one half G7, and the rest is an assortment of blues licks around a G bass.

G

Talk about me babe, if you must

Throw on the dust, pile on the dust

I'd do the same thing if I could

You know what they say, they say it's all good

All good,

It's all good

Big politician telling lies

Restaurant kitchen, all full of flies

Don't make a bit of difference, don't see why it should

But it's all right, 'cause it's all good

It's all good

It's all good

Wives are leavin' their husbands, they beginning to roam

They leave the party and they never get home

I wouldn't change it, even if I could

You know what they say man, it's all good,

It's all good

All good

Brick by brick, they tear you down

A teacup of water is enough to drown

You ought to know, if they could they would

Whatever going down, it's all good

All good

Say it's all good

People in the country, people on the land

Some of them so sick, they can hardly stand

Everybody would move away, if they could

It's hard to believe but it's all good

Yeah

The widow's cry, the orphan's plea
Everywhere you look, more misery
Come along with me, babe, I wish you would
You know what I'm sayin', it's all good
All good
I said it's all good
All good

Cold blooded killer, stalking the town
Cop cars blinking, something bad going down
Buildings are crumbling in the neighborhood
But there's nothing to worry about, 'cause it's all good
It's all good
They say it's all good

I'll pluck off your beard and blow it in your face
This time tomorrow I'll be rolling in your place
I wouldn't change a thing even if I could
You know what they say, they say it's all good
It's all good

Introductory Remarks

I love this album. It's a perfect follow-up, not to Dylan's trilogy of albums vacuum-cleaning the American song tradition for inspiration, but to his Theme Time Radio Hour. (And for the record, my negative evaluation of his latest studio albums does not stem from indignation over 'theft', should anyone have gotten that impression, but from a number of lacklustre performances of material of declining quality.)

It's hilarious. Finally, the 'wolfman' voice has found a home where it belongs: as a counterweight to the saccharine, a way to scare the living soul out of the unsuspecting innocent, and perhaps – just perhaps – blow some meaning into these songs again.

Because surely it's hilarious. But that's not the main reason why I've played this album more than any Dylan album since Time out of Mind. The reason is simple: the way he sings 'ad Bethlehem' in Adeste fideles sends shivers down my spine; his demonstration of Santa's laughter in Must be Santa is the funniest thing since 'Talkin' WWIII Blues'; the sombre tone of Do you hear what I hear? is stunning and a perfect counterpart to the angelic serenity of Hark! The Herald Angels Sing, perspectivizing both qualities and leaving us, not somewhere undefined in the middle, but somewhere where there is room for both sombre and serene, hilarious and breathtakingly beautiful.

Of course, it's a brilliant idea of Dylan to make a Christmas album, because it's the last thing anyone would have expected (and, for that reason alone, perhaps not at all surprising). But Christmas in the Heart is much more than a funny idea, a joke, or, for that matter, just a nice way to do charity. It's obvious that he loves this stuff. And somehow, amid the croaking and the frolicking, he manages to communicate that love, at least to this listener.

And when love is communicated, what more can one ask? Have yourselves a merry Christmas!

Dylan and tradition

Quite a lot has been made out of the fact that this is a 1950s version of the American Christmas song tradition. Someone pointed out that seven of the songs are from Frank Sinatra's 1957 A Jolly Christmas album; others that Dylan secretly wants to be Dean Martin, another important source for songs on the album.

I won't repeat all that has been said about that. Here, just a brief remark about harmony. If there is one thing that runs through Dylan's entire production, all period included, it is his consistent avoidance of the plain dominant, especially the dominant seventh: the strong harmonic tension generator, which is resolved to the key note, e.g. G7 -> C. Even when he plays covers, or when he relates to fixed genres, such as the blues, he usually finds ways to modify the dominant relation.

Not so here. In no other Dylan album will one find as many chains of dominant seventh as here. Just a sample:

Christmas blues	F#7	B7	E7	A7	Dmaj7
I'll be home for Christmas	Bm7-5	E7	Am7	D7	G
Here comes Santa Claus		A7	Dm7	G7	C
Have yourself a merry little Christmas	B7	E7	A7	D7	Gmaj7

This is not in itself surprising – that's how the songs were written, and the room for taking liberties is smaller in this genre than in folk and blues. What is interesting about it, is the degree to which (and the ease with which) Dylan has subordinated himself to the style, without feeling the need to make a statement about it, the way he did on Self Portrait, the only album which is comparable in this respect (but not in many other).

The same can be said about the way he treats melody: he actually sings the tunes, straight up, with none of the trademark "you couldn't even recognize the melody" treatment. And he does it wonderfully. He takes his mastery of vocal delivery into this – for him, as a public persona – foreign territory, and does it convincingly.

Dylan and religion

This one is inevitable when Dylan chooses to make a Christmas album. What does he mean with it? Is it a clear sign that he's still a Christian, or is it a just as clear sign of the opposite; that it's all "just" heritage?

I have no idea, and I don't care (there is only one recent song that has made me wonder what he actually thinks in this area, but it's not on Christmas in the Heart). What I do know is that the lyrics to "Here Comes Santa Claus" in the version that Dylan sings is a most fascinating mix of symbols. From the "jingle bells" intro with the smooth, soft jazz choir, and through the first two verses, it's classic American pop culture Christmas all the way, with reindeer, stockings and toys.

But then, in the third verse:

[He doesn't care if you're rich or poor]
for he loves you just the same

Oh, that was Santa, was it? For a moment there, I thought I was in the wrong song – I thought that was Christ or something.

[Santa knows that we're God's children]
and that makes everything right

OK, so it was something in that direction after all. From here to the end of the song, it is quite clear that this has something to do with God, but it is delightfully unclear if it's Santa or someone else who comes as God's gift to Man on Christmas day.

This is emphasised by the arrangement: the alternation at the end of the song between the slow, solemn "Let's give thanks to the Lord above" and the jinglebellsy "Cause Santa Claus comes tonight" is . . . Well, I have no idea what to call it. Hilarious? not quite. Blasphemous? Not at all. Devout? Get out of here!

At the same time, it's all of those, and more. The best way I can describe this album is as a balancing act. A balancing act that you can only perform if you're enjoying yourself and what you're doing, perfectly unaffected by the 70,000 fathoms of thin air between you and total disaster. Dylan seems to have been staring into that abyss for quite some time, ever since he first tried to shake off the yoke of being some Generation's Voice. Christmas in the Heart is a sign that he is finally free.

Said the shepard boy to the mighty king:
Do you know what I know?
In your palace wall, mighty king,
Do you know what I know?
A child, a child,
Shivers in the cold.
Let us bring him silver and gold,
Let us bring him silver and gold.

Said the king to the people everywhere:
Listen to what I say.
Pray for peace people everywhere.
Listen to what I say.
The child, the child,
Sleeping in the night,
He will bring us goodness and light,
He will bring us goodness and light.

 And pretend that he's a circus clown
 We'll have lots of fun with mister snowman,
 Until the other kids all knock him down.

When it snows, ain't it filling,
 Though your nose gets a chilling
 We'll frolic and play, the Eskimo way,
 Walking in a winter wonderland.

Verses not sung by Dylan

Christ, by highest heaven adored;
Christ, the everlasting Lord;
Late in time behold him come,
Offspring of the Virgin's womb.
Veiled in flesh the Godhead see;
Hail the incarnate Deity,
Pleased as man with man to dwell;
Jesus, our Emmanuel.

Hark the herald angels sing
Glory to the newborn King.

Mild he lays his glory by,
Born that man no more may die,
Born to raise the sons of earth,
Born to give them second birth.
Risen with healing in his wings,
Light and life to all he brings,
Hail, the Sun of Righteousness
Hail, the heaven-born Prince of Peace.

Hark the herald angels sing
Glory to the newborn King.

Come, Desire of nations come,
Fix in us Thy humble home;
Rise, the Woman's conquering Seed,
Bruise in us the Serpent's head.
Adam's likeness now efface:
Stamp Thine image in its place;
Second Adam, from above,
Reinstate us in thy love.

Hark the herald angels sing
Glory to the newborn King.

Don't let the long names scare you off. Rule of thumb #1: it will rarely hurt to chop off from the end (e.g. E7-9 is just a spiced-up E7). Rule of thumb #2: a plain 7 or m7 will usually work just fine.

Additional verses not sung by Dylan

English

True God of true God, Light from Light Eternal,
Lo, He shuns not the Virgin's womb;
Son of the Father, begotten, not created;

See how the shepherds, summoned to His cradle,
Leaving their flocks, draw nigh to gaze;
We too will thither bend our joyful footsteps;

Lo! star led chieftains, Magi, Christ adoring,
Offer Him incense, gold, and myrrh;
We to the Christ Child bring our hearts' oblations.

Child, for us sinners poor and in the manger,
We would embrace Thee, with love and awe;
Who would not love Thee, loving us so dearly?

Yea, Lord, we greet Thee, born this happy morning;
Jesus, to Thee be glory given;
Word of the Father, now in flesh appearing.

Latin

En grege relicto, humiles ad cunas
Vocati pastores approperant:
Et nos ovanti gradu festinamus.
Venite adoremus, venite adoremus,
venite adoremus Dominum.

Aeterni Parentis splendorem aeternum
Velatum sub carne videbimus:
Deum infantem pannis involutum.
Venite adoremus, venite adoremus,
venite adoremus Dominum.

BF: I think you did drop the "goodies" on the sleigh. Did something about that bother you?

BD: No not really. I don't think I thought of it until you mentioned it. I try my best to be exact, but sometimes things just fall away. We probably recorded the song, got the feel right and moved on. Most likely we didn't even listen back. Just moved on to something else. I don't think that's something I would have noticed anyway.

For Christ is born of Mary
And gathered all above
While mortals sleep, the angels keep
Their watch of wondering love
O morning stars together
Proclaim the holy birth
And praises sing to God the King
And Peace to men on earth

Poor Boy Blues

Written by Bob Dylan

Recorded February 1962 as a Leeds Music demo, and released on The Bootleg Series vol 9: The Witmark Demos

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

The guitar part consists of one little figure, played over and over again. The basic pattern is just one measure long, and the distinctive feature is the bass line:

All downstrokes, with light upstrokes in between.

Introductory Remarks

Duquesne Whistle

Written by Bob Dylan and Robert Hunter

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

This song sounds deceptively simple, but man are there lots of things going on here!

First there's this two-chord thing going, throughout the whole song, that's either brilliantly persistent or driving you crazy – probably depending on what mood you're in:

      F      C
      : . . . : . . .
|-----|-----|
|-6----5-----|-----|
|--5----5-----|-----|

|-6----5-----|-----3-----|-----|
|-5----5-----|-----4-----|-5-----|
|-7----5-----|-----5-----|-5-----|
|-----|-----|-7-----|
|-----|-----|-----|

But then there's the chord sequence that is played by the Django-ish acoustic guitar somewhere to the left:

| C . . . | F . . . | C . . . | F . Dm/f Fm |
| C . . . | . . Csus4 . | C . . . | . . . . . |

And finally the bass line, which adds more complexity to the gumbo (and for the sake of simplicity, I give all the tabs relative to a third-fret capo, even though that's of course not what Tony Garnier is actually playing):

      C          F          C          Dm7-5

Listen to that Duquesne whistle blowing
Blowing like she never blowed before
Blue light blinking, red light glowing
Blowing like she's at my chamber door
You're smiling through the fence at me
Just like you've always smiled before
Listen to that Duquesne whistle blowing
Blowing like she ain't gonna blow no more.

Can't you hear that Duquesne whistle blowing
Blowing like the sky's gonna blow apart
You're the only thing alive that keeps me going
You're like a time-bomb in my heart
I can hear a sweet voice gently calling
Must be the Mother of Our Lord
Listen to that Duquesne whistle blowing
Blowing like my woman's on board.

Listen to that Duquesne whistle blowing
Blowing like it's gonna blow my blues away
You old rascal, I know exactly where you're going
I'll lead you there myself at the break of day
I wake up every morning with that woman in my bed
Everybody telling me she's gone to my head
Listen to that Duquesne whistle blowing
Blowing like it's gonna kill me dead.

Can't you hear that Duquesne whistle blowing
Blowing through another no-good town
The lights of my native land are glowing
I wonder if they'll know me next time round
 I wonder if that old oak tree's still standing
 That old oak tree, the one we used to climb
Listen to that Duquesne whistle blowing
Blowing like she's blowing right on time.

Narrow Way

I'm gonna walk across the desert 'til I'm in my right mind.

I won't even think about what I left behind.

Nothing back there anyway I can call my own.

Go back home, leave me alone.

It's a long road, it's a long and narrow way

F#

B

If I can't work up to you, you'll surely have to work down to me someday.

Ever since the British burned the White House down
There's a bleeding wound in the heart of town
I saw you drinking of an empty cup
I saw you buried, and I saw you dug up.

It's a long road, it's a long and narrow way

If I can't work up to you, you'll surely have to work down to me someday.

Look down, Angel from the skies!
Help my weary soul to rise!
I kissed the cheek, I dragged your plow.
You broke my heart, I was your friend 'til now.

It's a long road, it's a long and narrow way

If I can't work up to you, you'll surely have to work down to me someday.

In the courtyard of the golden sun
You stand and fight, or you break and run.
You went and lost your lovely head
For a drink of wine and a crust of bread.

It's a long road, it's a long and narrow way

If I can't work up to you, you'll surely have to work down to me someday.

We looted and we plundered on distant shores.
Why is my share not equal to yours?
Your father left you, your mother too.
Even death has washed its hands of you.

It's a long road, it's a long and narrow way

If I can't work up to you, you'll surely have to work down to me someday.

This is hard country to stay alive in.
Blades are everywhere, and they're breaking my skin.
I'm armed to the hilt, and I'm struggling hard.
You won't get out of here unscarred.

It's a long road, it's a long and narrow way
If I can't work up to you, you'll surely have to work down to me someday.

You got too many lovers wailin' at the wall.
If I had a thousand tongues, I couldn't count them all.
Yesterday, I could've thrown them all in the sea,
Today, even one may be too much for me.

It's a long road, it's a long and narrow way
If I can't work up to you, you'll surely have to work down to me someday.

Cakewalking baby, you can do no wrong
Put your arms around me where they belong.
I won't take you on a roller coaster ride.
Lay my hands all over ya, tie you to my side.

It's a long road, it's a long and narrow way
If I can't work up to you, you'll surely have to work down to me someday.

I've got a heavy-stacked woman with a smile on her face,
And she has crowned my soul with grace.
I'm still hurting from an arrow that pierced my chest
I'm gonna have to take my head and bury it between your breasts.

It's a long road, it's a long and narrow way
If I can't work up to you, you'll surely have to work down to me someday.

Been dark all night, but now it's dawn.
The moving finger is moving on.
You can guard me while I sleep,
Kiss away the tears I weep.

It's a long road, it's a long and narrow way
If I can't work up to you, you'll surely have to work down to me someday.

I love women, and she loves men.
We've been to the West, and we're going back again.
I heard a voice at the dusk of day
Saying, "Be gentle brother, be gentle and pray."

It's a long road, it's a long and narrow way
If I can't work up to you, you'll surely have to work down to me someday.

It's been such a long, long time

D

Since we loved each other and our hearts were true.

G

One time, for one brief day,

C

G

I was the man for you.

Last night I heard you talking in your sleep

Saying things you shouldn't say.

Oh baby,

You just might have to go to jail someday.

Is there a place we can go?

Is there anybody we can see?

Maybe,

It's the same for you as it is for me.

I ain't seen my family in twenty years

That ain't easy to understand.

They may be dead by now;

I lost track of them after they lost their land.

Shake it up baby, twist and shout,
You know what it's all about.
What you doing out there in the sun anyway?
Don't you know the sun can burn your brains right out?

My enemy crashed into the dust,
Stopped dead in his tracks, and he lost his lust.
He was run down hard, and he broke apart.
He died in shame; he had a iron heart.

I wear dark glasses to cover my eyes.
There are secrets in them that I can't disguise.
Come back baby,
If I hurt your feelings, i apologize

Two trains running side by side
Forty miles wide, down the eastern line.
You don't have to go,
I just came to you because you're a friend of mine.

I think that when my back was turned,
The whole world behind me burned.
It's been a while
Since we walked down that long, long aisle.

We cried on that cold and frosty morn.
We cried because our souls were torn.
So much for tears,
So much for these long and wasted years.

Night after night, Day after day
 They strip your useless hopes away
 The more I take the more I give.
 The more I die the more I live.
 I got something in my pocket make your eyeballs swim.
 I got dogs could tear you limb from limb.
 I'm circlin' around the Southern Zone.
 I pay in blood, but not my own.

Low cards are what I've got,
 But I'll play this hand whether I like it or not.
 I'm sworn to uphold the laws of God.
 You can put me out in front of a firing squad.
 I've been out and around with the rowdy men.
 Just like you, my handsome friend.
 My head's so hard, must be made of stone.
 I pay in blood, but not my own.

Another politician pumping out the piss.
 Another angry beggar blowing you a kiss.
 You got the same eyes that your mother does.
 If only you could prove who your father was.
 Someone must have slipped a drug in your wine.
 You gulped it down and you crossed the line.
 Man can't live by bread alone.
 I pay in blood, but not my own.

How I made it back home nobody knows,
 or how I survived so many blows.
 I've been thru Hell, What good did it do?
 You bastard! I'm suppose to respect you?
 I'll give you justice, I'll fatten your purse
 Show me your moral virtue first.
 Hear me holler and hear me moan.
 I pay in blood but not my own.

You get your lover in the bed.
 Come here, I'll break your lousy head.
 Our nation must be saved and freed.
 You've been accused of murder, how do you plead?
 This is how I spend my days.
 I came to bury, not to praise.
 I'll drink my fill and sleep alone
 I play in blood, but not my own.

Scarlet Town

Written by Bob Dylan
Released on Tempest (2012)

Am

In Scarlet Town, where I was born

There's ivy leaf and silver thorn

The streets have names that you can't pronounce

G E
Gold is down to a quarter of an ounce

The music starts and the people sway
Everybody says, "Are you going my way?"
Uncle Tom still workin' for Uncle Bill
Scarlet Town is under the hill.

Scarlet Town in the month of May
Sweet William Holme on his deathbed lay
Mistress Mary by the side of the bed
Kissin' his face and puttin' prayers on his head

So brave, so true, so gentle is he
I'll weep for him as he would weep for me
Little Boy Blue come your blow horn
In Scarlet Town, where I was born.

Scarlet Town, in the hot noon hours,
There's palm-leaf shadows and scattered flowers
Beggars crouching at the gate
Help comes, but it comes too late

By marble slabs and in fields of stone
You make your humble wishes known
I touched the garment, but the hem was torn
In Scarlet Town, where I was born.

In Scarlet Town, the end is near
The Seven Wonders of the World are here
The evil and the good livin' side by side
All human forms seem glorified

Put your heart on a platter and see who will bite
See who will hold you and kiss you good night
There's walnut groves and maplewood
In Scarlet Town cryin' won't do no good.

In Scarlet Town, you fight your father's foes
Up on the hill, a chilly wind blows
You fight 'em on high and you fight 'em down in
You fight 'em with whiskey, morphine and gin

You've got legs that can drive men mad
A lot of things we didn't do that I wish we had

In Scarlet Town, the sky is clear
You'll wish to God that you stayed right here.

Set 'em Joe, play "Walkin' the Floor"
Play it for my flat-chested junkie whore
I'm staying up late, I'm making amends
While we smile, all heaven descends

If love is a sin, then beauty is a crime
All things are beautiful in their time
The black and the white, the yellow and the brown
It's all right there in front of you in Scarlet Town.

Early Roman Kings

Written by Bob Dylan
Released on Tempest (2012)
Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

The Muddy Waters riff that runs through the whole song, starts just before the chord change indicated below. It is hinted at in the very beginning of the song, in this form:

      .      :      .      .
-----|-----
-----|-----
---5---4-|-----
---5---4-|-----
-----|-----
-----|-3-----

It's not really a guitar song at all, but these are the notes anyway, to be played as written here or some other place on the neck::

          G          C
      .      :      .      .      :      .      .
-----|-----1---0-|-----
---1---0-|-----1-----|-1-----
---0-----|-0-----|-----
-----|-----|-----
-----|-----|-----
-----|-----|-----
[in top hats and tails]
```

G
All the early Roman kings in their shark-skin suits,

Bow-ties and buttons, high-top boots,

Driving the spikes in, blazing the rails,

Nailed in their coffins in top-hats and tails.
C
Fly away little bird, fly away, flap your wings
G
Fly by night like the early Roman kings.

All the early Roman kings in the early, early morn,
Comin' down the mountain, distributing the corn,
Speedin' through the forest, racing down the track,
You try to get away, they drag you back.
Tomorrow is Friday, we'll see what it brings.
Everybody's talking about the early Roman kings.

They're peddlers and they're meddlers, they buy and they sell.
They destroyed your city, they'll destroy you as well.
They're leacherous and treacherous, hell-bent for leather.

Each of them bigger than all men put together.
Sluggers and muggers wearing fancy gold rings.
All the women going crazy for the early Roman kings.

I can dress up your wounds with a blood-clotted rag.
I ain't afraid to make love to a bitch or a hag.
If you see me coming, and you're standing there,
Wave your handkerchief in the air!
I ain't dead yet, my bell still rings.
I keep my fingers crossed like the early Roman kings.

I can strip you of life, strip you of breath,
Ship you down to the house of death.
One day you will ask for me.
There'll be no one else that you'll want to see.
Bring down my fiddle, tune up my strings:
I'm gonna break it wide open like the early Roman kings.

I was up on Black mountain the day Detroit fell.
They killed them all off, and they sent them to hell.
Ding-dong daddy, you're coming up short.
Gonna put you on trial in a Sicilian court.
I've had my fun, I've had my flings.
Gonna shake them all down like the early Roman kings.

It was late last night when the boss came home
To a deserted mansion and a desolate throne.
Servant said "Boss, the lady's gone.
She left this morning just before dawn."

"You got something to tell me, tell it to me, man.
Come to the point as straight as you can."
"Old Henry Lee, chief of the clan
Came riding through the woods and took her by the hand."

The boss he lay back flat on his bed.
He cursed the heat and he clutched his head.
He pondered the future of his fate --
To wait another day would be far too late.

Go fetch me my coat and my tie
And the cheapest labour that money can buy.
Saddle me up my buckskin mare.
If you see me go by, put up a prayer.

Well they rode all night and they rode all day,
Eastward long on the broad highway.
His spirit was tired and his vision was bent.
His men deserted him and onward he went.

He came to a place where the land was dull.
His forehead pounding in his skull.
Heavy heart was racked with pain,
Insomnia raging in his brain.

Well he threw down his helmet and his cross-handled sword.
He renounced his faith, he denied his Lord.
Crawled on his belly, put his ear to the wall.
"One way or another, put an end to it all!"

He leaned down cut the electric wire,
Stared into the flames and he snorted the fire.
Peered through the darkness, caught a glimpse of the two.
Was hard to tell for certain who was who.

He lowered himself down on a golden chain.
His nerves were quickening every vein,
His knuckles were bloody he sucked in the air.
He ran his fingers through his greasy hair.

They looked at each other, and their glasses clinked,
One single unit inseparably linked.
"Got a strange premonition there's a man close by."
"Don't worry about him - he wouldn't harm a fly."

From behind the curtain the boss crossed the floor.
He moved his feet and he bolted the door.
Shadows hiding the lines in his face
With all the nobility of an ancient race.

She turned, she was startled with a look of surprise
With a hatred that could hit the skies.
"You're a reckless fool, I could see it in your eyes.
To come this way was by no means wise."

"Get up, stand up, you greedy lipped wench,
And cover your face with some other consequence!
You are making my heart feel sick.
Put your clothes back on double quick!"

"Silly boy, you think me a saint.
I'll listen no more to your words of complaint.
You've given me nothing but the sweetest lies.
Now hold your tongue and feed your eyes."

"I'd have given you the stars and the planets too,
But what good would these things do you?
Bow the heart, if not the knee,
Or never again this world you'll see."

"Oh please let not your heart be cold.
This man is dearer to me than gold."
"Oh my dear you must be blind:
He's a gutless ape with a worthless mind."

"You've had your way too long with me.
Now its me who will determine how things shall be.
Try to escape!" he cussed and cursed,
"You'll have to try get past me first!"

"I dare not let your passion rule -
You think my heart the heart of a fool.
And you, sir, you can not deny
You made a monkey of me. What and for why?"

"I'll have no more of this insulting chat.
The Devil can have you - I'll see to that.
Look sharp or step aside,
Or in the cradle you'll wish you died."

The gun went "boom" and the shot rang clear.
First bullet grazed his ear,
Second ball went right straight in,
And he bent in the middle like a twisted bin.

He crawled to the corner and he lowered his head,
He gripped the chair and he grabbed the bed.
It would take more than needle and thread.
Bleeding from the mouth he's as good as dead.

"You shot my husband down, you fiend!"
Husband? What husband? What the hell do you mean?
He was a man of strife, a man of sin!
I cut him down and'll throw him to the wind."

"Hear this!" she said with angry breath,
"You too shall meet the Lord of death!
It was I who brought your soul to life."
And she raised her robe and she drew out a knife.

His face was hard and caped with sweat.
His arms ached, and his hands were wet.
"You're a murderous queen and a bloody wife.
If you don't mind I'll have the knife."

"We're two of a kind, and our blood runs hot.
But we're no way similar in body or thought.
'All husbands are good men' is all I knew."
Then she pierced him to the heart and his blood did flow.

His knees went limp and he reached for the door.
His doom was sealed, he slipped to the floor.
He whispered in her ear: "This is all your fault.
My fighting days have come to a halt."

She touched his lips and kissed his cheek
He tried to speak, but his breath was weak.
"You die for me, I will die for you."
She put the blade to her heart and she ran it through.

All three lovers, together in a heap,
Thrown into the grave forever to sleep.
Funeral torches blazed away
Through the towns and the villages all night
And all day.

Tempest

G
The pale moon rose in its glory
C
Out o'er the western town
C G
She told a sad, sad story
D G
Of the great ship that went down.

T'was the fourteenth day of April
Over the way she rolled
Sailing into tomorrow
To a golden age foretold

The night was bright with starlight
The seas were sharp and clear
Moving through the shadows
The promised hour was near

Lights were holding steady
Gliding over the foam
All the lords and ladies
Heading for their eternal home

The chandeliers were swaying
From the balustrades above
The orchestra was playing
The songs of faded love

The watchman, he lay dreaming
As the ballroom dancers twirled
He dreamed the Titanic was sinking
Into the underworld

Leo took his sketchbook
He was often so inclined
He closed his eyes and painted
The scenery in his mind

Cupid struck his bosom
And broke it with a snap
The closest woman to him
He fell into her lap

He heard a loud commotion
Something sounded wrong
His inner spirit was saying
That he couldn't stand here long

He staggered to the quarterdeck
No time now to sleep
Water on the quarterdeck
Already three foot deep

Smokestack was leaning sideways
Heavy feet began to pound
He walked into the whirlwind
The sky splitting all around

The ship was going under
The universe had opened wide
The roll was called up yonder
The angels turned aside

Lights down in the hallway
Flickering dim and dull
Dead bodies already floating
In the double bottom hull

The engines then exploded
Propellers they failed to start
The boilers overloaded
The ship's bow split apart

Passengers were flying
Backward, forward, far and fast
They mumbled, fumbled, and tumbled
Each one more weary than the last

The veil was torn asunder
'Tween the hours of twelve and one
No change, no sudden wonder
Could undo what had been done

The watchman lay there dreaming
At forty-five degrees
He dreamed the Titanic was sinking
Dropping to her knees

Wellington he was sleeping
His bed began to slide
His valiant heart was beating
He pushed the tables aside

Glass of shattered crystal
Lay scattered roundabout
He strapped on both his pistols
How long could he hold out?

His men and his companions
Were nowhere to be seen
In silence there he waited for
Time and space to intervene

The passageway was narrow
There was blackness in the air
He saw every kind of sorrow
Heard voices everywhere

Alarm bells were ringing
To hold back the swelling tide
Friends and lovers clinging
To each other side by side

Mothers and their daughters
Descending down the stairs
Jumped into the icy waters
Love and pity sent their prayers

The rich man, Mister Astor
Kissed his darling wife
He had no way of knowing
It was the last trip of his life

Calvin, Blake, and Wilson
Gambled in the dark
Not one of them would ever live to Tell the tale of the disembark

Brother rose up 'gainst brother
In every circumstance
They fought and slaughtered each other
In a deadly dance.

They lowered down the lifeboats
From the sinking wreck
There were traitors, there were turncoats
Broken backs and broken necks

The bishop left his cabin
To help all those in need
Turned his eyes up to the heavens
Said: "the poor are yours to feed"

Davey the brothel-keeper
Came out, dismissed his girls
Saw the water getting deeper
Saw the changing of his world

Jim Dandy smiled
He'd never learned to swim
Saw the little crippled child
And he gave his seat to him

He saw the starlight shining
Streaming from the east
Death was on the rampage
But his heart was now at peace

They battened down the hatches
But the hatches wouldn't hold
They drowned upon the staircase
Of brass and polished gold

Leo said to Cleo:
"I think I'm going mad"
But he'd lost his mind already Whatever mind he'd had

He tried to block the doorway
To save others from harm
Blood from that open wound
Pouring down his arm.

Petals fell from flowers
'Til all of them were gone
In the long and dreadful hours
The wizard's curse played on

The host was pouring brandy
He was going down slow
He stayed right 'til the end, he was the last to go

There were many, many others
Nameless here forevermore
They never sailed the ocean
Or left their homes before

The watchman he lay dreaming
The damage had been done
He dreamed the Titanic was sinking
And he tried to tell someone

The Captain, barely breathing
Kneeling at the wheel
Above him and beneath him
Fifty thousand tons of steel

He looked over at his compass
And he gazed into its face
Needle pointing downward
He knew he'd lost the race

In the dark illumination
He remembered bygone years
He read the Book of Revelation
And he filled his cup with tears

When the Reaper's task had ended
Sixteen hundred had gone to rest
The good, the bad, the rich, the poor
The loveliest and the best

They waited at the landing
And they tried to understand
But there is no understanding
For the judgement of God's hand

News came o'er the wires
And struck with deadly force
Love had lost its fires
All things had run their course

The watchman he lay dreaming
Of all things that can be
He dreamed the Titanic was sinking
Into the deep blue sea

Roll On John

Written by Bob Dylan
Released on Tempest (2012)
Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

G C
Doctor, doctor tell me the time of day!
G
Another bottle's empty, another penny spent.
G C
He turned around and he slowly walked away.
C G
They shot him in the back and down he went.

C
Shine your light
D
Movin' on
C
You burned so bright
G
Roll on, John

From the Liverpool docks to the red-light Hamburg streets,
Down in the quarry with the Quarrymen
Playing to the big crowds, playing to the cheap seats.
Another day in the life on your way to your journey's end.

Shine your light,
Movin' on
You burned so bright
Roll on, John

Sailin' through the trade winds bound for the South
Rags on your back just like any other slave.
They tied your hands and they clamped your mouth.
Wasn't no way out of that deep dark cave.

Shine your light
Movin' on
You burned so bright
Roll on, John

I heard the news today, oh boy
They hauled your ship up on the shore
Now the city gone dark, there is no more joy.
They tore the heart right out and cut him to the core.

Shine your light
Movin' on
You burned so bright
Roll on, John

Put on your bags and get 'em packed.
Leave right now, you won't be far from wrong.
The sooner you go the quicker you'll be back.
You've been cooped up on an island far too long.

Shine your light
Movin' on
You burned so bright
Roll on, John

Slow down you're moving way too fast,
Come together right now over me.
Your bones are weary, you're about to breathe your last.
Lord, you know how hard it can be!

Shine your light
Movin' on
You burned so bright
Roll on, John

Roll on, John, roll through the rain and snow.
Take the right-hand road and go where the buffalos roam.
They'll trap you in an ambush before you know.
Too late now to sail back home.

Shine your light
Movin' on
You burned so bright
Roll on, John

Tyger, tyger, burnin' bright *)
I pray the Lord my soul to keep
In the forest of the night
Cover him over and let him sleep.

Shine your light
Movin' on
You burned so bright
Roll on, John

*) Lines 1 and 3 are borrowed from William Blake's poem The Tyger, hence the pretentious spelling.

Introductory Remarks

Just some brief points here for now – more to follow:

1. Time passes slowly #1 & 2 are definitely keepers.
2. The new piano version of Spanish Is The Loving Tongue is nice too, but nowhere near the circulating solo piano version. It's a step in the direction of its consummate cousin, but it comes nowhere near it on any scale.
3. Another Self Portrait does not redeem Self Portrait ("What's this shit?") as an album, but the new tracks do add to a more nuanced picture of the project (or less pompously: the development) that Self Portrait is a witness of.
4. The Isle of Wight concert is the first and probably the most radical re-invention Dylan has made in his entire career. Going electric was nothing in comparison.
5. Who will be the first to find the source from which Dylan has stolen the cover image? A flickr account? An underrated b/w photographer from the 30s? A Barnes & Nobles commercial delivered to the tour bus in Stirling Castle during the 2001 tour?

Bring Me A Little Water

Written by Bob Dylan

Recorded 4 June 1970 during the New Morning sessions, and released on Bootleg Series 10: Another Self Portrait (2013)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Piano song, so unpleasant guitar key, as usual. I suggest a capo on the third fret to be able to play it with C shape chords, but first or sixth fret are equally good alternatives (with D or A shapes, respectively).

To pass some time away.

Now, won't you bring me a little water, Sylvie?
 Bring me a little water now
 Bring me a little water, Sylvie
 For my tired brow

Sylvie came here Wednesday
 She came this morning by the light of the dawn
 She comes up here now nearly all of the time to see if she can carry on

Sylvie says she loves me
 she says it all of the time she always gets behind me
 when the hill is too high to climb

She brings me milk and honey
 Brings me slop and beans brings me coconuts and candy brings me turnip greens

Tattle O'Day

Written by Bob Dylan

Recorded , and released on Bootleg Series 10: Another Self Portrait (2013)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

The intro figure is played wherever there is a G chord.

In the first verse, Dylan gets the chords wrong (all two of them...!) The second verse sets it right.

Thirsty Boots

Written by Eric Andersen

Recorded 4 March 1970 during the Self Portrait sessions, and released on Bootleg Series 10: Another Self Portrait (2013)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

This is one of the songs where Dylan seems not to have rehearsed the song too well before going into the studio: In the first verse and chorus, he maintains the slight distinction between the two, chord-wise, but as the verses progress, this distinction fades, and what remains at the end is the constant repetition of the same falling bass figure.

It's a wonderful song, though, beautifully performed.

The G variants are suggestions.

This traditional is usually played in a different arrangement (see e.g. versions by the Kingston Trio, Dave Van Ronk, or Eric Bibb).

Most of the song is just a circling around C-Dm-Em-Dm-C-etc. The second Dm chord is frequently replaced by an F, a G, or some other transitional chord shape. In most of the verses, the double-tempo F-G figure occurs, as shown in the second verse below.

Ok – lots of chords here. And it isn't made any easier by the presence of the brass, who most of the time provide the juicy extra tones that give the real character to the arrangement.

It isn't necessarily that hard to play though, even though the chord names look scary. The sequence at the beginning of the bridge, for example, lends itself very comfortably to a single guitar.

As always in "thick" arrangements, the chords could be written in many ways. This is a suggestion only. If you want a simpler arrangement, just chop off everything after the base chord and play plain major or minor chords, or add a maj7 (for E) or a 7 (for all the other chords). Or go in the other direction and add new tones. Whichever tone you add, it's likely there already, in the mix.

A celebration of the 13th chord! This beast that, in strict theory contains every note of the entire scale, but in practice is "just" a seventh chord with an added sixth. Using the two standard shapes based on E and A, any 13th chord can be made, such as E13=020120, F13=131231, etc., and A13=x02022, B13=x24244, etc.

The second refrain has a wonderful modulation from E major to F major, shamelessly exploiting the ambiguity of these fat chords. The key to the modulation is the descending bass line, so it's helpful if this is brought out and emphasised. This could be done with the chords:

Am /g#
I go right to the edge, I go right to the end
C/g D7/f#
I go right where all things lost are made good again.

I sing the songs of experience like William Blake.
I have no apologies to make.
Everything's flowing all at the same time.
I live on a boulevard of crime.
I drive fast cars, and I eat fast foods.
I contain multitudes.

Pink pedal-pushers, red blue jeans
All the pretty maids, and all the old queens
All the old queens from all my past lives
I carry four pistols and two large knives
I'm a man of contradictions, I'm a man of many moods
I contain multitudes

You greedy old wolf, I'll show you my heart
But not all of it, only the hateful part
I'll sell you down the river, I'll put a price on your head
What more can I tell you? I sleep with life and death in the same bed

Get lost, madame, get up off my knee,
Keep your mouth away from me.
I'll keep the path open, the path in my mind.
I'll see to it that there's no love left behind.
I'll play Beethoven's sonatas, and Chopin's preludes,
I contain multitudes

Below is a tab of what Blake Mills himself plays on the track (or at least in the video that he released on Instagram).

Hello Mary Lou, hello Miss Pearl
 My fleet-footed guides from the underworld
 No stars in the sky shine brighter than you
 You girls mean business and I do too

Well I'm the enemy of treason, a enemy of strife
 I'm the enemy of the unlived meaningless life
 I ain't no false prophet, I just know what I know
 I go where only the lonely can go

I'm first among equals, second to none
 The last of the best, you can bury the rest
 Bury 'em naked with their silver and gold
 Put 'em six feet under and pray for their souls

What are you lookin' at, there's nothing to see?
 Just a cool breeze that's encircling me
 Let's go for a walk in the garden, so far and so wide
 We can sit in the shade by the fountain-side

I search the world over for the Holy Grail
 I sing songs of love, I sing songs of betrayal
 Don't care what I drink, I don't care what I eat

I climbed a mountain of swords on my bare feet

You don't know me darlin', you never would guess
I'm nothing like my ghostly appearance would suggest
I ain't no false prophet, I just said what I said
I'm just here to bring vengeance on somebody's head

Put out your hand, there's nothing to hold
Open your mouth, I'll stuff it with gold
Oh, you poor devil look up if you will
The city of God is there on the hill

Hello stranger, hello and goodbye
You rule the land but so do I
You lusty old mule, you got a poisoned brain
I'll marry you to a ball and chain

You know darlin', the kind of life that I live
When your smile meets my smile, something's got to give
I ain't no false prophet, no I'm nobody's bride
Can't remember when I was born and I forgot when I died

I'll bring someone to life, is what I wanna do
Am
I'm gonna create my own version of you

Well, it must be the winter of my discontent.
I wish you'd have taken me with you wherever you went.
They talk all night and they talk all day,
But not for a minute do I believe anything they say.
I'm gon' make someone a life, someone I've never seen
You know what I mean, you know exactly what I mean

I'll take the Scarface Pacino and The Godfather Brando
Mix 'em up in a tank, and get a robot commando
If I do it upright and put the head on straight
I'll be saved by the creature that I create

I'll get blood from a cactus, gunpowder from ice
I don't gamble with cards and I don't shoot no dice
Can you look in my face with your sightless eyes?
Can you cross your heart and hope to die?
I'll bring someone to life, someone for real
Someone who feels the way that I feel

I study Sanskrit and Arabic to improve my mind
I wanna do things for the benefit of all mankind
I say to the willow tree, "Don't weep for me"
I'm saying to hell with all things that used to be

Well, I get into trouble, then I hit the wall
No place to turn, no place at all
I'll pick a number between a-one and two
And I ask myself, "What would Julius Caesar do?"
I will bring someone to life in more ways than one
Don't matter how long it takes, it'll be done when it's done

I'm gon' make you play the piano like a Leon Russell
Like Liberace, like St. John the Apostle
I'll play every number that I can play
I'll see you maybe on Judgment Day

After midnight, if you still wanna meet
I'll be at the Black Horse Tavern on Armageddon Street
Two doors down, not that far a walk
I'll hear your footsteps, you won't have to knock
 I'll bring someone to life, balance the scales
 I'm not gonna get involved in any insignificant details

You can bring it to St. Peter, You can bring it to Jerome
You can bring it all the way over, Bring it all the way home
Bring it to the corner where the children play
You can bring it to me on a silver tray
 I'll bring someone to life, spare no expense
 Do it with decency and common sense

Can you tell me what it means, to be or not to be?
You won't get away with fooling me
Can you help me walk that good land mile?
Can you give me the blessings of your smile?
 I'll bring someone to life, use all of my powers
 Do it in the dark in the wee, small hours

I can see the history of the whole human race
It's all right there, it's carved into your face
Should I break it all down? Should I fall on my knees?
Is there light at the end of the tunnel, can you tell me please?

Stand over there by the cypress tree
Where the Trojan women and children were sold into slavery
Long before the first Crusade
Way back before England or America were made

Step right into the burning hell
Where some of the best-known enemies of mankind dwell
Mr. Freud with his dreams, Mr. Marx with his ax
See the raw hide lash rip the skin from their backs

Got the right spirit, you can feel it, you can hear it
You've got what they call the immortal spirit
You can feel it all night, you can feel it in the morn'
It creeps in your body, the day you were born

One strike of lightning is all that I need
And a blast of electricity that runs at top speed
Shimmy your ribs, I'll stick in the knife
Gonna jump-start my creation to life
 I wanna bring someone to life, turn back the years
 Do it with laughter and do it with tears.

  Been thinking it all over and I've thought it all through.
      D          A          D
  I've made up my mind to give myself to you.

Isaw the first fall of snow.
I saw the flowers come and go.
I don't think that anyone ever, else, ever knew.
I've made up my mind to give myself to you.

      D          G
  I don't think I can bear to live my life alone

My eye's like a shooting star,
It looks at nothin' here or there, looks at nothin' near of far.
No one ever told me... - it's just something I knew.
I've made up my mind to give myself to you.

If I had the wings of a snow white dove,
I'd preach the gospel, the gospel of love,
A love so real, a love so true.
I've made up my mind to give myself to you.

Take me on traveling, you're a traveling man,
Show me something I don't understand.
I'm not what I was, things aren't what they were,
I'll go far away from home with her.

I've traveled a long road of despair,
I've met no other traveler there.
Lot of people gone, lot of people I knew.
I've made up my mind to give myself to you.

[Instrumental bridge]

Well, my heart's like a river, a river that sings,
Just takes me a while to realize things.
I'll see you at sunrise, I'll see you at dawn,
I'll lay down beside you when everyone's gone.

I've traveled from the mountains to the sea.
I hope that the gods go easy with me.
I knew you'd say yes, I'm saying it too.
I've made up my mind to give myself to you.

old time religion, it's just what I need.

For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory

Go tell it down the mountain, go tell the real story

Tell it in that straightforward puritanical tone

In the mystic hours when a person's alone

Goodbye Jimmy Reed, godspeed

Thump on the bible, proclaim a creed

"You won't amount to much," the people all said

'Cause I didn't play guitar behind my head

Never pandered, never acted proud

Never took off my shoes, throw 'em in the crowd

Goodbye Jimmy Reed, goodbye, goodnight

Put a jewel in your crown and put out the lights

They threw everything at me, everything in the book
I had nothing to fight with but a butcher's hook
They had no pity, they never lend a hand
I can't sing a song that I don't understand
Goodbye Jimmy Reed, goodbye, good luck
I can't play the record 'cause my needle got stuck

Transparent woman in a transparent dress
Suits you well, I must confess
I'll break open your grapes, I'll suck out the juice
I need you like my head needs a noose
Goodbye Jimmy Reed, goodbye and so long
I thought I could resist her, but I was so wrong

God be with you, brother, dear
If you don't mind me asking, what brings you here?
Oh, nothing much, I'm just looking for the man
Need to see where he's lying in this lost land
Goodbye Jimmy Reed, and everything within ya
Can't you hear me calling from down in Virginia?

The tab for the intro is a combination of what the main guitar plays throughout the verses, but numerous variations occur. The E6-E7 figure in the second line is sometimes played Em or Em7. (This figure is quite useful for songs in A major. Dylan used it for Aznavour's The Times We've Known in New York, 1998.)

The C-shape barre versions of D and E can of course be replaced with simpler shapes.

The rather awkward twist to the F#m towards the end can be played as a straightforward F#m.

Crossing the Rubicon

Written by Bob Dylan
 Released on Rough and Rowdy Ways (2020)
 Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

C

G7

I crossed the Rubicon on the fourteenth day

Of the most dangerous month of the year.

At the worst time, at the worst place,

That's all I seem to hear.

C

I got up early so I could greet the Goddess of the dawn.

D7

C

I've painted my wagon, abandoned all hope,

G7

And I've crossed the Rubicon

Well, the Rubicon is a red river,
 Going gently as she flows.
 Redder than your ruby lips
 And the blood that flows from the rose.
 Three miles north of purgatory,
 One step from the great beyond
 I prayed to the cross, I kissed the girls,
 And I crossed the Rubicon.

One of these dark days I'll see
 In this world so badly bent
 How can I redeem the time
 The time so idly spent?
 How much longer can it last,
 How long can it go on?
 I embraced my love, put on my hat
 And I crossed the Rubicon

I can feel the bones beneath my skin
 And they're trembling with rage
 I'll make your wife a widow
 You'll never see old age
 Show me one good man in sight
 That the sun shines down upon
 I pawned my watch, I payed my debts
 And I crossed the Rubicon

I put my hide upon the hill,
 Where some happiness I learned.
 If I survive, then let me love,
 Let the hour be mine
 Take the high road, take the low,
 Take any one you're on.

I poured the cup, I passed it along
And I crossed the Rubicon

Well you defiled the most lovely flower
In all of womanhood
Others can be tolerant
Others can be good
I'll cut you up with a crooked knife
Lord, and I'll miss you when you're gone
I stood between heaven and earth
And I crossed the Rubicon

You won't find any happiness here
No happiness or joy
Go back to the gutter, try your luck
Find you some nice pretty boy
Tell me how many men I need
And who can I count upon
I strapped my belt, I buttoned my coat
And I crossed the Rubicon

I feel the Holy Spirit inside
See the light that freedom gives
I believe it's in the reach of Every man who lives
Keep as far away as possible
It's darkest 'fore the dawn (O Lord)
I turned the key and broke it off
And I crossed the Rubicon

Mona, baby, are you still in my mind?
I truly believe that you are!
Could it be anybody else but you
Who's come with me this far?
The killing frost is on the ground
And the autumn leaves are gone
I lit a torch, I looked to the east,
And I crossed the Rubicon.

C Am C Am

C Am
 McKinley hollered, McKinley squalled
 C Am
 Doctor said: "McKinley, death is on the wall
 F Am
 Say it to me, if you got something to confess"
 C Am
 I heard all about it, he was goin' down slow
 C Am
 I heard it on the wireless radio
 Fmaj7 Am
 From down in the boondocks, way down in Key West

I'm searching for love, for inspiration
 On that pirate radio station
 Coming out of Luxembourg and Budapest
 Radio signal's clear as can be
 I'm so deep in love that I can hardly see
 Down in the flatlands, way down in Key West

F
 Key West is the place to be
 C Am
 If you're looking for immortality
 C Am
 Stay on the road, follow the highway sign
 F
 Key West is fine and fair
 C Am
 If you lost your mind, you'll find it there
 Fmaj7 Am
 Key West is on the horizon line

I was born on the wrong side of the railroad track,
 Like Ginsberg, Corso and Kerouac,
 Like Louis, and Jimmy and Buddy and all the rest.
 Well, it might not be the thing to do
 But I'm sticking with you through and through
 Down in the flatlands, way down in Key West

I got both my feet planted square on the ground
 Got my right hand high, with the thumb down.
 Such is life, such is happiness
 Hibiscus flowers, they grow everywhere here
 If you wear one, put it behind your ear
 Down on the bottom, way down in Key West

Key West is the place to go
Down by the Gulf of Mexico
Beyond the sea, beyond the shifting sands
Key West is the gateway key
To innocence and purity
Key West, Key West is the enchanted land

I've never lived in the land of Oz
Or wasted my time with an unworthy cause
It's hot down here, and you can't be overdressed
Tiny blossoms of a toxic plant
They can make you dizzy, I'd like to help you but I can't
Down in the flatlands, way down in Key West

Well the fishtail ponds, and the orchid trees
They can give you that bleeding heart disease
People tell me I ought to try a little tenderness
On Newton Street, Bayview Park
Walking in the shadow after dark
Down under, way down in Key West

I play gumbo limbo spirituals
I know all the Hindu rituals
People tell me that I'm truly blessed
Bougainvillea blooming in the summer, in the spring
Winter here is an unknown thing
Down in the flatlands, way down in Key West

Key West is under the sun
Under the radar, under the gun
You stay to the left, and then you lean to the right
Feel the sunlight on your skin
And the healing virtues of the wind
Key West, Key West is the land of light

Wherever I travel, wherever I roam
I'm not that far from the convent home
I do what I think is right, what I think is best
History Street off of Mallory Square
Truman had his White House there
Eastbound, Westbound, way down in Key West

Twelve years old, they put me in a suit
Forced me to marry a prostitute
There were gold fringes on her wedding dress
That's my story, but not where it ends
She's still cute, and we're still friends
Down on the bottom, way down in Key West

I play both sides against the middle
Trying to pick up that pirate radio signal
I heard the news, I heard your last request
Fly around my pretty little Miss
I don't love nobody, give me a kiss
Down on the bottom, way down in Key West

Key West is the place to be
If you're looking for immortality
Key West is paradise divine
Key West is fine and fair
If you lost your mind, you'll find it there
Key West is on the horizon line

Murder Most Foul

Written by Bob Dylan

Recorded "A while back" (according to the twitter announcement)

Released 27 March 2020 and later on Rough and Rowdy Ways

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

The harmonic rhythm (i.e. the regularity with which the chords change) is very loose, and the placement of the chord symbols in the tab below is approximate, tentative. On several points in the recordings it is evident that the accompaniment is more or less improvised.

Here's an attempt at an analysis of the song, musically and contentswise.

[Verse 1]

C F
 It was a dark day in Dallas, November '63
 C F
 A day that will live on in infamy
 C
 President Kennedy was a-ridin' high
 F
 Good day to be livin' and a good day to die
 Being led to the slaughter like a sacrificial lamb
 F
 He said, "Wait a minute, boys, you know who I am?"
 G
 "Of course we do, we know who you are"
 Fmaj7
 Then they blew off his head while he was still in the car

 C
 Shot down like a dog in broad daylight
 F
 Was a matter of timing and the timing was right
 C F
 You got unpaid debts, we've come to collect
 C F
 We're gonna kill you with hatred, without any respect
 G
 We'll mock you and shock you and we'll put it in your face
 F
 We've already got someone here to take your place

 C
 The day they blew out the brains of the king
 F
 Thousands were watching, no one saw a thing
 C F
 It happened so quickly, so quick, by surprise
 F
 Right there in front of everyone's eyes
 G
 Greatest magic trick ever under the sun
 F
 Perfectly executed, skillfully done

Rough And Rowdy Ways

C
Wolfman, oh Wolfman, oh Wolfman, howl
F C
Rub-a-dub-dub, it's a murder most foul

[Verse 2]

C
Hush, little children, you'll understand
F
The Beatles are comin', they're gonna hold your hand
C F
Slide down the banister, go get your coat
Ferry 'cross the Mersey and go for the throat
G
There's three bums comin' all dressed in rags
F
Pick up the pieces and lower the flags
G
I'm goin' to Woodstock, it's the Aquarian Age
F
Then I'll go over to Altamont and sit near the stage

C
Put your head out the window, let the good times roll
F C
There's a party going on behind the Grassy Knoll
F
Stack up the bricks, pour the cement
C F
Don't say Dallas don't love you, Mr. President
G
Put your foot in the tank and then step on the gas
F
Try to make it to the triple underpass
G
Blackface singer, whiteface clown
F
Better not show your faces after the sun goes down

[At this point, the string players lose track of the harmonic rhythm and play a C chord against the piano's change to F]

C F
Up in the red light district, they've got cop on the beat
C F
Living in a nightmare on Elm Street
C F
When you're down on Deep Ellum, put your money in your shoe
C F
Don't ask what your country can do for you

G S
 Cash on the barrelhead, money to burn
 G F
 Dealey Plaza, make a left-hand turn

C F
 I'm going down to the crossroads, gonna flag a ride
 C F
 The place where faith, hope, and charity died
 G F
 Shoot him while he runs, boy, shoot him while you can
 G F
 See if you can shoot the invisible man

C F
 Goodbye, Charlie, goodbye, Uncle Sam
 C F
 Frankly, Miss Scarlett, I don't give a damn
 G F
 What is the truth, and where did it go?
 G F
 Ask Oswald and Ruby, they oughta know
 C F
 "Shut your mouth," said a wise old owl
 C F C
 Business is business, and it's a murder most foul

[Verse 3]

C F
 Tommy, can you hear me? I'm the Acid Queen
 C F
 I'm riding in a long, black Lincoln limousine
 C F
 Ridin' in the back seat next to my wife
 C F
 Headed straight on in to the afterlife
 G F
 I'm leaning to the left, I got my head in her lap
 G F
 Hold on, I've been led into some kind of a trap

C F
 Where we ask no quarter, and no quarter do we give
 C F
 We're right down the street, from the street where you live

C F
They mutilated his body and they took out his brain
C F
What more could they do? They piled on the pain
C F
But his soul was not there where it was supposed to be at
C F
For the last fifty years they've been searchin' for that
G F
Freedom, oh freedom, freedom over me
G F
I hate to tell you, mister, but only dead men are free

C F
Send me some lovin', then tell me no lie
C F
Throw the gun in the gutter and walk on by
C F
Wake up, little Susie, let's go for a drive
C F
Cross the Trinity River, let's keep hope alive
C F
Turn the radio on, don't touch the dials
C F
Parkland Hospital, only six more miles
C
You got me dizzy, Miss Lizzy, you filled me with lead
F C
That magic bullet of yours has gone to my head
G F
I'm just a patsy like Patsy Cline
G F
Never shot anyone from in front or behind
G F
I've blood in my eye, got blood in my ear
G F
I'm never gonna make it to the new frontier

C F
Zapruder's film I seen night before
C F
Seen it thirty-three times, maybe more
C F
It's vile and deceitful, it's cruel and it's mean
C F
Ugliest thing that you ever have seen
C F
They killed him once and they killed him twice
C F
Killed him like a human sacrifice
G F
The day that they killed him, someone said to me, "Son

G F
The age of the Antichrist has just only begun"

C F
Air Force One comin' in through the gate
C F
Johnson sworn in at 2:38
C F
Let me know when you decide to throw in the towel
C F C
It is what it is, and it's murder most foul

[Verse 4]

C F
What's new, pussycat? What'd I say?
C F
I said the soul of a nation been torn away
C F
And it's beginning to go into a slow decay
C F
And that it's thirty-six hours past Judgment Day
G F
Wolfman Jack, he's speaking in tongues
G F
He's going on and on at the top of his lungs

C F
Play me a song, Mr. Wolfman Jack
C
Play it for me in my long Cadillac
F
Play me that "Only the Good Die Young"
C F
Take me to the place Tom Dooley was hung
C F
Play "St. James Infirmary" and the Court of King James
C F
If you want to remember, you better write down the names
C F
Play Etta James, too, play "I'd Rather Go Blind"
C F
Play it for the man with the telepathic mind
G F
Play John Lee Hooker, play "Scratch My Back"

G F
Play it for that strip club owner named Jack
G F
Guitar Slim going down slow
C
Play it for me and for Marilyn Monroe

[Verse 5]

C
Play "Please Don't Let Me Be Misunderstood"
F
Play it for the First Lady, she ain't feeling any good
C
Play Don Henley, play Glenn Frey
F
Take it to the limit and let it go by
Play it for Carl Wilson, too
F
Looking far, far away down Gower Avenue
Play "Tragedy", play "Twilight Time"
F
Take me back to Tulsa to the scene of the crime
G
Play another one and "Another One Bites the Dust"
F
Play "The Old Rugged Cross" and "In God We Trust"
G
Ride the pink horse down that long, lonesome road
F
Stand there and wait for his head to explode

Play "Mystery Train" for Mr. Mystery
F C
The man who fell down dead like a rootless tree
F
Play it for the reverend, play it for the pastor
C F
Play it for the dog that got no master
C F
Play Oscar Peterson, play Stan Getz

C F
 Play "Blue Sky," play Dickey Betts
 G
 Play Art Pepper, Thelonious Monk
 F G
 Charlie Parker and all that junk
 F
 All that junk and "All That Jazz"

C F
 Play something for the Birdman of Alcatraz
 C F
 Play Buster Keaton, play Harold Lloyd
 C F
 Play Bugsy Siegel, play Pretty Boy Floyd
 G F
 Play the numbers, play the odds
 G F
 Play "Cry Me a River" for the Lord of the gods

C F
 Play Number nine, play Number six
 C F
 Play it for Lindsey and Stevie Nicks
 C F
 Play Nat King Cole, play "Nature Boy"
 C F
 Play "Down in the Boondocks" for Terry Malloy
 G F
 Play "It Happened One Night" and "One Night of Sin"
 G F
 There's twelve million souls that are listening in
 G F
 Play "Merchant of Venice", play "Merchants of Death"
 G F
 Play "Stella by Starlight" for Lady Macbeth

C F
 Don't worry, Mr. President, help's on the way
 C F
 Your brothers are comin', there'll be hell to pay
 C F
 Brothers? What brothers? What's this about hell?
 Tell them, "We're waiting, keep coming," we'll get them as well
 G F
 Love Field is where his plane touched down
 G F
 But it never did get back up off the ground
 G F
 Was a hard act to follow, second to none
 G F
 They killed him on the altar of the rising sun

[Finally, a fixed rhythm is established, sortof but then Dylan decides to mess it up again;
 the chords no longer follow
 the established pattern]

Rough And Rowdy Ways

C F
Play "Misty" for me and "That Old Devil Moon"
C F
Play "Anything Goes" and "Memphis in June"
C F
Play "Lonely at the Top" and "Lonely Are the Brave"
C F
Play it for Houdini spinning around in his grave
C F
Play Jelly Roll Morton, play "Lucille"
C F
Play "Deep in a Dream", and play "Driving Wheel"
G F
Play "Moonlight Sonata" in F-sharp
G F
And "A Key to the Highway" for the king on the harp
C F
Play "Marching Through Georgia" and "Dumbarton's Drums"
C F
Play "Darkness" and death will come when it comes
C F
Play "Love Me or Leave Me" by the great Bud Powell
C F

O miller, O miller here's five gold rings to push the maiden in again

The miller recieved those five gold rings and pushed the maiden in again

The miller was hung as his mill gate
for drowning little sister Kate

Yet another possible continuation, from the Mudcat Cafe:

He gave the youngest a gay gold ring
The older, not a single thing.

But when they reached the water's brim
The oldest pushed the yougest in.

O sister, O sister, O give me your hand
And you may have my house and land.

I will not give you my hand nor my glove
But I will have your own true-love.

Down she sank and away she swam
And down to the miller's mill-pond she swam.

O miller, O miller, there swims a swan
A-swimming about in your mill-pond.

The miller ran out with his fish-hook
And fished that fair maid out of the brook.

He's robbed her of her gay gold rings
And into the pond he's pushed her again.

The miller was hung at his mill gate
For drowning of his sister, Kate.

Mary Ann

Trad.

As performed by Bob Dylan on the "Karen Wallace tape" (home of Karen Wallace, May 1960)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

"Syrupy", was it? Apparently the Wallace tape has been authenticated (and it does sound quite a bit like the other early tapes, to my ears anyway). Although it's a decent recording, there are words here that I can't quite make out. The below is a suggestion, and as always I welcome corrections.

Chords:

Fmaj7 133210

G6 320000

The rhythm that goes through the whole song, is a slow:

      C          Fmaj7

||-3-----3---3-3-----3---3-||
||-----1-----1---1--||

      C          Fmaj7      C          Fmaj7
Ah, I don't know the word to find
      C          Fmaj7      C          Fmaj7

      C          Fmaj7      C          Fmaj7

Jesus Met The Woman At The Well

Trad.

As played by Bob Dylan on the Gleason Tape (Feb or March 1961)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Dylan ends his performance by saying, apologetically, "I don't know this song". He knows it well enough to play two different versions of it, though: first one verse in G, then the whole song in A.

The G version is played in a rather square rhythm with constant alternation between G and C:

      G      C
      :      .      .      .
|-----0-----0---|
|----0-----1---|
|----0-----0---|
|----0-----2---|
|----2---3-----|
|-3-----|

The version in A is more lively, with the following figure or some variant of it played where there is an A:

      :      .      .      .      :      .      .

|----2-2---2-2---|----2-----2---|
|----2-2---2-2---|----2-----2---|
|-0-----| -3---0-----0---|

See the tab of the intro for more details.

As sung by Bob Dylan on the "Minnesota Party Tape" (May 1961), and during the recording sessions for Self Portrait (1970), released on Bootleg Series 10: Another Self Portrait (2013)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Minnesota Party Tape version

The accompaniment here is fingerpicking, but not in its more common, steady-thumbed version. The alternating thumb is there, but played quite irregularly: lots of thumbstrokes are left out, and the accent pattern is reversed, so that the accented strokes are placed on usually unaccented beats, which gives the syncopated feel to the piece. The ground pattern is what is found in the second and third C-major chords in the first line. It's a very neat way of combining a melody in the upper voice, with a syncopated rhythm in the lower (including the index-finger stroke on the 3rd string in the bass line).

Another unusual feature is the mixture of fingerpicking and strumming, especially in the F chord parts. The tab here is just an approximation.

Expecting some money or some other fine things

No money, no money to flatter the case
We'll have to get married so there'll be no disgrace

So jump you up Omie, and away we will ride
To yonder fair country and I'll make you my bride

She jumped up behind him and away they did go to yonder far country where the deep waters flow

Now jump you down Omie and I'll telly my mind
My mind is to drowned you and to leave you behind

Oh no, oh no, please don't take my life
Oh I will deny you and I'll not be your wife

But he kicked and he cuffed her to the worst understand
And he threw her in deep water that flows through the land

They found the poor body the following day
Run up on the river on the banks full of clay *)

And up spoke her mother with a voice such a-sting
No one but John Lewis could have done such a thing

They traced him up the river to Dutch Charlie's bend
Where they found him in jail for killing a man

Go hang him, go hang him was the mother's command
Through him in deep water that flows through the land

Go hang him, go hang him was the judge's command
Through him in deep water that flows through the land

I said goodbye; I can take a cry, I wanna lay down and die

I ain't got a nickle and I ain't got a lousy dime

She don't come back, think I'm gonna lose my mind

If she ever get back to stay it's gonna be another brand new day

Walkin' with my baby down by San Francisco Bay

Sittin' down lookin' from the back door wondrin' which way to go

Woman I'm so crazy 'bout she don't love me no more

Think I'll catch me a freight train cause I'm feelin' blue

Ride all the way to the end of the line thinkin' only you

Meanwhile livin' in the city just about to go insane

All I heard my baby Lord the way she used to call my name

If she ever get back to stay it's gonna be another brand new day

Am E Am

I asked her if she'd be willing

To let me cross over the plains.

She said it would be alright with her

Just so I'd return again.

She said that she'd be true to me

Till death would be unkind.

We kissed, shook hands, and parted.

I left my girl behind.

Out in a western city, boys,

A town you all know well,

Where everyone was friendly,

They'd show me all around.

The work an' money was plentiful,

And the girls to me were kind.

But the only girl I thought about

Was the girl I'd left behind.

One day when I was ramblin' 'round

Down by the public square,

The mail coach it came in,

And I met the mail boy there.

He handed me a letter, gave me to understand

That the girl I left in old Texas

She married another man.

I turned myself all around and around

Not knowing what else to do.
I rid down a little pace further,
Just to see if these words were true.
It's drinkin' I throw over,
Card playin' I'll resign,
For the only girl I ever did love
Was the girl I left behind.

Come around, you ramblin' gamblin' men,
And listen while I tell.
If it does to you no good, kind friends,
I'm a-sure it will do you no harm.
If you ever find you a fair young maid,
Just marry her while you can.
For if you ever cross over the plain,
she'll marry another man.

"It's just the scabs and the thugs foolin' you."
A man grabbed his daughter and he carried her down,
But the thugs held the door and he could not get out.

And then others followed, a hundred or more,
But most everybody remained on the floor.
The scabs and the thugs they still laughed at their joke,
And the children were smothered on the stairs by the door.

Such a terrible sight I never did see,
We carried our children back up to their tree.
The scabs and the thugs they still laughed at their spree,
And the children that died there were seventy-three.

The piano played a slow funeral tune,
But the town was lit up by a cold Christmas moon,
The parents they weep and the miners they moan,
"See what your greed for money has done."

Brownie McGhee

Recorded by Bob Dylan on the "Minnesota Hotel Tape" (Dec 22, 1961)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Standard tuning, but the guitar is tuned a little low.

Standard blues accompaniment (see tab below). The B7 is fingered and strummed in a variety of ways, sometimes with an open e string either on bottom or top, or both (021200/ 221200, or 021202), sometimes with a hammer-on on the fifth string, or even on the third (in the intro), but mostly it sounds like both the third and the sixth strings are open, which would give 021000 as the "standard" chord formation for B7.

The last A in each verse, after the B7, is in many cases reduced to an open E string in the bass, giving it an undefined character somewhere between A and E.

The final harp solo uses the same kind of licks as the middle solo, with variations, of course.

Poor Lazarus

(trad.)

Recorded by Bob Dylan on the "Minnesota Hotel Tape" (Dec 22, 1961)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

 G G7
Well they found poor Lazarus
C A
in between two mountains.

 G D/f#
Blowed him down, great God,
 G D/f#
they blowed him down.

Well they killed poor Lazarus with a mighty number, number .45.

Poor Lazarus, they took his body
to the commissary office.
Walked away,
great God, they walked away.

Poor Lazarus, Lazarus's father,
when he heard his son was a-dying,
he said: let that fool go down.
Let the fool go down.

And Lazarus, Lazarus's little sister,
she could not come to the funeral.
Didn't have no shoes,
lord, on her feet.

And Lazarus, Lazarus's old mother walking down the road,
crying: my only son,
he killed my only son.

Hey captain, did you hear the news?
Your men are gonna leave you next pay day,
oh lord, next pay day.

Well the high sheriff told the deputy go out and get me Lazarus.
Dead or alive,
dead or alive.

Years ago we hung around,
 Watchin' trains roll through the town.
 Now that train is a-graveyard bound.

Where we go up in that North Country,
 Lakes and streams and mines so free,
 I had no better friend than he.

Something happened to him that day,
 I thought I heard a stranger say,
 I hung my head and stole away.

A diesel truck was rollin' slow,
 Pullin' down a heavy load.
 It left him on a Utah road.

They carried him back to his home town,
 His mother cried, his sister moaned,
 Listin' to them church bells tone.

Standing On The Highway

Words and music Bob Dylan

Recorded Jan 1962 as a Leed Music demo

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Open D tuning (D-A-d-f#-a-d'), capo 6th fret

The tab simply consists of the following little figure (which is also featured, in a slightly more refined fashion, in Ballad For A Friend, which was recorded on the same occasion), repeated over and over again.

      : . . .
|-----0-----|
|-----3-----|
|---3---1-----|
|-----3---0---|
|-----|
|-0---0---0---0---|

Well, I'm standin' on the highway
Tryin' to bum a ride, tryin' to bum a ride,
Tryin' to bum a ride.

Well, I'm standin' on the highway
Tryin' to bum a ride, tryin' to bum a ride,
Tryin' to bum a ride.

Nobody seem to know me,
Everybody pass me by.

Well, I'm standin' on the highway
Tryin' to hold up, tryin' to hold up,
Tryin to hold up and be brave.
Well, I'm standin' on the highway
Tryin' to hold up, tryin to hold up and be brave.
One roads goin' to the bright lights,
The others goin' down to my grave.

Well, I'm lookin' down at two card,
They seem to be handmade.
Well, I'm lookin' down at two card,
They seem to be handmade.
One looks like it's the ace of diamonds,
The other looks like it is the ace of spades.

Well, I'm standin' on the highway
Watchin' my life roll by.
Well, I'm standin' on the highway
Watchin' my life roll by.
Well, I'm standin' on the highway
Tryin' to bum a ride.

Well, I'm standin' on the highway
Wonderin' where everybody went, wonderin' where everybody went,
Wonderin' where everybody went.

Well, I'm standin' on the highway
Wonderin' where everybody went, wonderin' where everybody went,
Wonderin' where everybody went.
Please mister, pick me up,
I swear I ain't gonna kill nobody's kids.

I wonder if my good gal,
I wonder if she knows I'm here,
Nobody else seems to know I'm here.
I wonder if my good gal,
I wonder if she knows I'm here,
Nobody else seems to know I'm here.
If she knows I'm here, Lawd,
I wonder if she said a prayer.

Smokestack Lightning

Howlin' Wolf

Played by Bob Dylan on Cynthia Gooding's Folksinger's Choice radio show, March 11, 1962

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

The entire song is really nothing more than a fooling around with a finger-picked E major chord, toying with the third (g#) in either direction, either towards Em or towards Esus4. It would be senseless to tab the entire thing: just finger an E chord, let the thumb start working (either just alternating between strings 6 and 4, or, as Dylan does, in a more irregular pattern, involving even the 5th string), and add flourishes like the following sample (heard for quite some time at the beginning of the second verse), or those found in the intro (see below).

Hard days...

Hard days, Smokestack Lightning shining down like ghost
Can't you hear me crying?

Tell me, tell me baby
Just where you stayed last night.
Can't you hear me crying?

Please stop your train, and let a poor boy ride.
Can't you hear me crying?

Tell me, tell me baby
Just what's the matter here.
Can't you hear me crying?

Hey you been fooling
Who's been here since I been gone? Little Billy Boy?
Can't you hear me crying?

Dylan: "Did you like that?"
Cynthia: "Yeah, I sure do!"

I asked that girl, won't you be my wife?
She fell on her knees, she began to cry.

The more she cried, the worse I felt
Till I thought my heart would melt.

I looked at the sun was a-sinking low.
I looked at my baby, she was a-walkin' down the road.

I looked at the sun was a-turning red.
I looked at my baby, but she bowed her head.

Don't the sun look lonesome, oh lord lord lord, on the graveyard fence?
Don't my baby look lonesome when her head is bent?

Roll on John, don't you roll so slow.
How can I roll when the wheels won't roll.

Roll on John, don't you roll so slow.
How can I roll when the wheels won't roll.

Hard Travelin'

Written by Woody Guthrie (Dylan's lyrics differ slightly from Guthrie's)

An' I've been havin' some hard travelin', Lawd.

Oh, I've been ridin' them blind passengers, I thought you knowed.
I've been ridin' in fast wheelers, way down the road.
Blind passengers, flat wheelers, dead enders, kicking up cinders
An' I've been havin' some hard travelin', Lawd.

Ooh, I've been workin' in a hard rock tunnel, I thought you knowed.
I've been pourin' red hot slag way down the road.
I've been a-blastin' an' I've been firin' an' I've been pourin' the red hot iron
An' I've been havin' some hard travelin', Lawd.

Oh, I've been walkin' that Lincoln Highway, I thought you knowed.
I've been hitchin' on the '66, way down the road.
Heavy load, a worried man, I'm a-lookin' for a woman that's a-hard to find
I've been havin' some hard travelin', Lawd.

Oh, I've been hittin' some hard harvestin', I thought you knowed.
North Dakota to Kansas City way down the road.
Bunchin' that wheat an' stacking that hay, trying to make about a dollar a day
An' I've been havin' some hard travelin', Lawd.

Oh, I've been locked in a hard rock jail, I thought you knowed.
I've been layin' out ninety days, way down the road.
The mean old judge he says to me, "That's a-ninety days for vagrancy."
An' I've been hittin' some hard travelin', Lawd.

Oh, I've been havin' some hard travelin', I thought you knowed.
I've been hittin' some hard travelin', way down the road.
I've been hittin' some hard travelin', hard ramblin', hard gamblin'
An' I've been havin' some hard travelin', Lawd.

Long Time Man

Trad. arr Alan Lomax

Played by Bob Dylan on Cynthia Gooding's Folksinger's Choice show (Jan/March 1962)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

The chord I've called Bb' is played in two different ways: x03301 and x03330, possibly even x03331. It is cheating of course: a technical problem (the full barre Bb is hard to finger especially in quick succession with other chords) is solved in an unsuccessful way (lots of discords whichever way you play it) in a way which parades as a conscious choice ("Sounds wicked, eh?"). It's not. But hey, it's Dylan so we all love it, right? Right!

Ballad Of Donald White

Words and music Bob Dylan (I suppose it's based on something else)

Played occasionally in 1962

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Quite similar to another song, I Pity the Poor Immigrant.

Capo 1st fret (sounding key C# major)

C F
My name is Donald White, you see,
G7 C

I stand before you all.

C F C
I was judged by you a murderer
G7

And the hangman's knot must fall.

C F C
I will die upon the gallows pole
F

When the moon is shining clear,
C F

And these are my final words
G7 C

That you will ever hear.

I left my home in Kansas
When I was very young,
I landed in the old Northwest,
Seattle, Washington
Although I'd a-traveled many miles,
I never made a friend,
For I could never get along in life
With people that I met.

If I had some education
To give me a decent start,
I might have been a doctor or
A master in the arts.
But I used my hands for stealing
When I was very young,
And they locked me down in jailhouse cells,
That's how my life begun.

Oh, the inmates and the prisoners,
I found they were my kind,
And it was there inside the bars
I found my peace of mind.
But the jails they were too crowded,
Institutions overflowed,
So they turned me loose to walk upon
Life's hurried tangled road.

And there's danger on the ocean
Where the salt sea waves split high,

And there's danger on the battlefield
Where the shells of bullets fly,
And there's danger in this open world
Where men strive to be free,
And for me the greatest danger
Was in society.

So I asked them to send me back
To the institution home.
But they said they were too crowded,
For me they had no room.
I got down on my knees and begged,
"Oh, please put me away,"
But they would not listen to my plea
Or nothing I would say.

And so it was on Christmas eve
In the year of '59,
It was on that night I killed a man,
I did not try to hide,
The jury found me guilty
And I won't disagree,
For I knew that it would happen
If I wasn't put away.

And I'm glad I've had no parents
To care for me or cry,
For now they will never know
The horrible death I die.
And I'm also glad I've had no friends
To see me in disgrace,
For they'll never see that hangman's hood
Wrap around my face.

Farewell unto the old north woods
Of which I used to roam,
Farewell unto the crowded bars
Of which've been my home,
Farewell to all you people
Who think the worst of me,
I guess you'll feel much better when
I'm on that hanging tree.

But there's just one question
Before they kill me dead,
I'm wondering just how much
To you I really said
Concerning all the boys that come
Down a road like me,
Are they enemies or victims
Of your society?

 C/g . . . D7/f# . . . C/g G | C/g G | C/g G | G
 I'd lie in my bed once again.

I can't see my reflection in the waters,
 I can't speak the sounds that show no pain,
 I can't hear the echo of my footsteps,
 Or can't remember the sound of my own name.

Yes, and only if my own true love was waitin',
 Yes, and if I could hear her heart a-softly poundin',
 Only if she was lyin' by me,
 Then I'd lie in my bed once again.

There's beauty in the silver, singin' river,
 There's beauty in the sunrise in the sky,
 But none of these and nothing else can touch the beauty
 That I remember in my true love's eyes.

Yes, and only if my own true love was waitin',
 Yes, and if I could hear her heart a-softly poundin',
 Only if she was lyin' by me,
 Then I'd lie in my bed once again.

Deep Ellem Blues

Written by Joe & Bob Attlesay (but credited to Big Joe Williams by Dylan)
Performed live by Bob Dylan on April 16, 1962 at Gerde's Folk City
Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

The track begins with a lot of tuning; the guitar has been in open E tuning before the song begins...
In the first verse, Dylan reverses the basic strumming pattern (G6 – G - G6 – G etc.)

The basic strumming pattern:

      G      G6      G      G6
      :      .      .      .

Well, I went down to Deep Ellem

Rocks and Gravel

According to bobydylan.com this was written by Bob Dylan (I don't know about that...). Other sources have attributions to Mance Lipscombe or Alan Lomax and W. B. Richardson (thanks to van Kampen for notifying me).

Recorded twice during the Freewheelin' sessions (Apr 25 and Nov 1, 1962), and made it to the promo edition of the album, but was withdrawn in the last moment.

The following is the version from the second of the three concerts at the Gaslight Cafe, late October 1962.

Double dropped D tuning (D-A-D-g-b-d; tune the highest and lowest string down one whole step)

Chords:

D 000230 (for some verse he uses 000233 = Dm)
 G xx0000 alternate with xx0003
 A/e 202222 (thumb + barre on the four lowest strings)

The rhythm of the fingerpicking can be quite tricky to get right, but once you get it, it's quite easy... (I know - that's a drag to hear when you're sweating over it...). The following little thing is all that departs from the standard fingerpicking pattern. It is the basic pattern, used here and there in the long held notes. Let the thumb take care of the bass strings.

The second string stopped on the third fret sounds like the open first string, which you don't really need, but it's easier to get the right feel in the syncopations if that tone is played on the first string, so that the c (—1-) on the first string can ring as long as possible. I'm pretty sure that's how Dylan plays it too.

Milk Cow's Calf Blues

Written by Robert Johnson (who based his version on Kokomo Arnold's Milk Cow Blues)

Recorded by Bob Dylan Apr 25, 1962 (Freewheelin' sessions)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Open D/E tuning Capo 8th or 10th fret

(I recommend the E tuning here, otherwise it may be difficult to get the capo in place)

The thumb basically has a 9-to-5 job on the 6th string. I've indicated some of the deviations from the strict rhythm, but these might as well be disregarded: do what your fingers tell you to do (this is nothing a guitar teacher would tell you, but then again: I'm not a guitar teacher). The thumb job even includes the 5th string once in a while, especially towards the end of the verse, before and after the A7. This is probably intentional.

The slide up on the 2nd and 3rd strings should, I believe, be done with the first finger (or the first and second), in order to come in the correct position for the pull-off on the 4th string.

The tab reflects the first verse. The following verses are almost identical.

Wichita Blues

Robert Johnson

Recorded by Bob Dylan during the Freewheelin' sessions

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem, from the version played in Cynthia Gooding's apartment, Feb/Mar 1962

Tuning: E-A-c#-e-a-e'. Capo 4th fret (sounding key: C#major).

This is the basic lick that dominates the song. It is played between most of the text lines. The variations are ample, especially in the last part of the lick, where an extra beat is often inserted (see the variants below).

      : . . . : . . . : . . .
|-----5-5-3-3-0-0-|-0-0-----|-----0-----|-----
|-----0-0-0-0-5-5-|-3-3-0-0-----|-----0-----|-----

|-----|-----0-0-1-1-0-0-|-0-----|-----
|-0-----|-----3-3-|-0-----3---|-0---
|-0-----|-----|-----0-----3---|-0---

There are two possible ways of playing the second beat of the second measure. Either as written (000500), which is what Dylan plays, or with all the strings open (000000). That would ensure a smoother transition to the next shape (x01200).

The last chord in the second line of the tab (x02100) sound like a mistake. It only occurs at the very beginning of the song, so it's likely that he misplaced the fingers, playing the more common shape instead of the "correct" x01200).

Lonesome Whistle Blues

Williams/Davies

Recorded by Bob Dylan Apr 24, 1962 during the Freewheelin' sessions

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Capo 2nd fret (sounding key D major)

C
 I was riding number 9,
 F C
 heading south from Carolina.
 G C
 I heard that lo-onesome whistle blow.

Got in trouble, had to roam,
 left my girl, left my home.
 G C
 I heard that lo-onesome whistle blow.

F
 Just a kid, acting smart,
 C
 I went and broke my baby's heart.
 D G
 I guess I was too young to know.
 C
 They took me off that Georgia Main
 F C
 and locked me to a ball and chain.
 G C
 I heard that lo-onesome whistle blow.

All I do is sit and cry
 as the evening train goes by.
 I heard that lonesome whistle blow.
 I'll be locked here in this cell
 till my body's just a shell
 and my head turns whiter than snow.
 I'll never see that girl of mine
 'cos I'm in Georgia doing time.
 I heard that lonesome whistle blow.

I'll be locked here in this cell
 till my body's just a shell
 and my head turns whiter than snow.
 I'll never see that girl of mine
 'cos I'm in Georgia doing time.
 I heard that lonesome whistle blow.

Am C/g D/f# F
"Twas down in Mississippi no so long ago,
Am C/g D/f# E
When a young boy from Chicago town walked in a Southern door.
Am C/g D/f# F
This boy's frightful tragedy you should all remember well,
Am C/g E Am
The color of his skin was black and his name was Emmett Till.

Some men they dragged him to a barn and there they beat him up.
They said they had a reason, but I disremember what.
They tortured him and did some things too evil to repeat.
There was screaming sounds inside the barn, there was laughing sounds out on the street.

Then they rolled his body down a gulf amidst the blood-red rain
And they threw him in the waters wide to cease his screaming pain.
The reason that they killed him there, and I'm sure it ain't no lie,
He was a black-skinned boy, so he was born to die.

And then to stop the United States of yelling for a trial,
Two brothers they confessed that they had killed poor Emmett Till.
But on the jury there were men who helped the brothers commit this awful crime,
And so this trial was a mockery, but nobody seemed to mind.

I saw the morning papers but I could not bear
To see the smiling brothers walkin' down the courthouse stairs.
For the jury found them innocent and the brothers they went free,
While Emmett's body floats the foam of a Jim Crow southern sea.

If you can't speak out against this kind of thing, a crime that's so unjust,
Your eyes are filled with dead men's dirt, your mind is filled with dust.
Your arms and legs they must be in shackles and chains, and your blood it must cease to flow,
For you let this human race fall down so God-awful low!

This song is just a reminder to remind your fellow man
That this kind of thing still lives today in that ghost-robed Ku Klux Klan.
But if all us folks that thinks alike, if we'd give all we could give,
We could make this great land of ours a greater place to live.

Whatcha Gonna Do?

Words and music Bob Dylan

Recorded Nov 14 and Dec 6 1962 during the Freewheelin' sessions

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Open D tuning, capo 5th fret (sounding key G major)

Chords:

D 000000
 G/d 020100
 D(3) 054300 or 004300 or 004350
 D/f# 404300
 A7 x02100 or x02140
 A 777777

The playing on this one is really very simple, but he's playing around with the basic elements (both the chord shapes, the rhythms and the chord sequences) in a way that makes it look complicated on paper.

Concerning the D(3) chord (i.e. D in the third position, i.e. beginning in the 3rd fret), the first fingering (054300) is to be preferred when it replaces the D-G/d-D figure, as in the second verse, and the second or third (004350) when it is played in the succession D-A7-D. The fingering D(3)=004300 goes with A7=002100, and D(3)=004350 with A7=002140.

I've written out the chords to the first three verses, which I think cover most of the variants in the handling of this song.

The rhythm in the D-G/d-d-D parts varies between straight beats and syncopated hammer-ons:

Basically the —230 shape is held throughout, except where noted. Basically the strumming – rather square – goes on throughout too. The figure found among other places at the end of the first interlude (/c – D), is played between each line in the verses.

I've written out the first and the beginning of the second interlude. The following ones are in the same style.

The length of the Csus2-G-Asus4 after the second line varies between the verses.

While sailing 'round the ocean,
While sailing 'round the sea,
I'd think of handsome Molly
Wherever she might be.

Don't you remember, Molly,
You gave me your right hand?
You said if ever you'd marry
I'd be your man

But you broke your promise,
Go with whom you please,
My poor heart is aching
You are at your ease.

I went to church last Sunday,
Molly came ridin' by;
I could tell her mind was changing
By the rovin' of her eye.

I'll go down to the river,

When everyone's asleep.
I'll think of handsome Molly
An' I'll begin ta weep.

So I wish I was in London,
Or some other seaport town;
I'd put my foot on a steamboat,
I'd sail the ocean 'round.

Performed by Bob Dylan on the second Gaslight show (late Oct 1962)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Dropped D tuning (D-A-d-g-b-e')

Capo 4th fret

The tab only indicates the deviations from the D chord in the beginning. Meanwhile the strumming goes on, more or less as indicated in the first measure. The tab gives the pattern for the verses and for the interlude (last two lines)

Kindhearted Woman Blues

Written by Robert Johnson

Played by Bob Dylan on the second Gaslight tape (late October 1962)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Capo 2nd fret (sounding key F# major)

A single "h" means a hammer-on from an open string.

Use the basic chord shapes E7=0xx430, A7=x02223 and B=22xxxx, and the licks that you'll find in the tab, and play around with those, rather than trying to follow the tab slavishly. The second and third verses follow more or less the same pattern as the first.

Black Cross (Hezekiah Jones)

Written by Joseph S. Newman, popularized by Lord Buckley (see their versions below)

Dylan's version has the story from these, but the delivery is his own.

Recorded on the third Gaslight Tape

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

The verses that Dylan divides this into, are marked by two figures: first a short turn from G to C and back again, then a shift to D, where he stays for a shorter or longer time, "talkin' blues" fashion.

The turns from G to C are played:

| G . . C | G . . etc

The shift from G to D is played like this:

This is the story of Hezekiah Jones...

Hezekiah Jones lived in a place... in Arkansas.

G C G

He never had too much,

G-D

except he had some land,

An' he had a couple of hogs and things like that.

G

He never had much money

C G

But he spent what he did make as fast as he made it,

G-D

So it never really mattered that he had much money.

G C G

But in a cupboard there,

G-D

He kept in the cupboard...

he kept in the cupboard books,

G C G

He called the books his "rainy season."

C G

The white folks around the county there talked about Hezekiah...

G-D

They... said, "Well... old Hezekiah, he's harmless enough, but the way I see it he better put down them goddam books,

G C G

Readin' ain't no good, for an ignorant nigger."

G-D

One day the white man's preacher came around

G

Knockin' on doors, knockin' on all the doors in the county,

C G

He knocked on Hezekiah's door.

He says, "Hezekiah, you believe in the Lord?"

Hezekiah says, "Well, I don't know, I never really SEEN the Lord,

I can't say, yes, I do..."

G

He says, "Hezekiah, you believe in the Church?"

C

G

Hezekiah says, "Well, the Church is divided, ain't they,

C

G

And... they can't make up their minds.

I'm just like them, I can't make up mine either."

G

He says, "Hezekiah, you believe that if a man is good Heaven is his last reward?"

G-D

Hezekiah says, "I'm good... good as my neighbor."

G

C-G

"You don't believe in nothin'," said the white man's preacher,

C /b D

You don't believe in nothin'!"

"Oh yes, I do," says Hezekiah,

"I believe that a man should be indebted to his neighbor

Not for the reward of Heaven or fear of hellfire."

Black Cross

Joseph S. Newman

Hezekiah Jones of Hogback County
Lived on a hill in a weather-beaten hovel
And all that he owned was a two-acre plot
And a bed and some books and a hoe and a shovel.

Hezekiah, black as the soil he was hoeing,
Worked pretty hard to make ends meet;
Raised what he ate, with a few cents over
To buy corn likker that he drank down neat,

And a few cents more that he put in the cupboard
Against what he called "de rainy season,"
But he never got to save more'n two or three dollars
Till he gave it away for this or that reason.

The white folks around knew old Hezekiah...
"Harmless enough, but the way I figger
He better lay off'n them goddam books,
'Cause readin' ain't good fer an ignorant nigger."

Reverend Green, of the white man's church,
Finally got around to "comin' ovah
To talk with you-all about the Pearly Kingdom
An' to save yo' soul fer the Lawd Jehovah!"

"D'ya b'lieve in the Lawd?" asked the white man's preacher.
Hezekiah puckered his frosty brow,
"Well I can't say 'yes,' so I ain't gonna say it,
Caze I ain't SEEN de Lawd... nowhere... no-how."

"D'ya b'lieve in Heaven?" asked the white man's preacher,
"Where you go, if you're good, fer yer last rewa'hd?"
"Ah'm good," said Hezekiah, "good as Ah'm able,
But Ah don't expect nothin' from Heaven OR the Lawd."

"D'ya b'lieve in the Church?" asked the white man's preacher.
Hezekiah said, "Well de Church is divided;
Ef they can't agree, than Ah cain't neither...
Ah'm like them... Ah ain't decided."

"You don't b'lieve nothin'," roared the white man's preacher.
"Oh yes Ah does," said old Hezekiah,
"Ah b'lieve that a man's beholden to his heighbash
Widout de hope of Heaven or de fear o' hell's fiah."

There's a lot of good ways for a man to be wicked...
They hung Hezekiah as high as a pidgeon,

And the nice folks around said, "He had it comin'
'Cause the son-of-a-bitch didn't have no religion!"

Lord Buckley's version

It's a beautiful thing.

It was written by Paul Newman's beloved grandfather, in Cleveland, a Cleveland poet. It's "Black Cross."

There was Old Hezekiah Jones, of Hogback County.
He lived on a hill in a weatherbeaten hovel.
And all that he owned was a two-acre plot
with a bed and some books and a hoe and a shovel.

Old Hezekiah, black as the soil he was hoeing,
Worked pretty hard to make both ends meet.
Raised what he ate, with a few cents over
To buy corn likker that he drank down neat,

And a few cents more that he put in the cupboard
Against what he called "de rainy season,"
But he never got to save more'n two or three dollars
Till he gave it away for this or that reason.

The white folks around knew old Hezekiah. . .
"Harmless enough, but the way I figger
He better lay off'n them goddam books,
'Cause readin' ain't good fer an ignorant nigger."

Reverend Green, of the white man's church,
Finally got around to "comin' ovah
To talk with you-all about the Pearly Kingdom
An' to save yo' soul fer the Lawd Jehovah!"

"D'ya b'lieve in the Lawd?" asked the white man's preacher.
Hezekiah puckered his frosty brow,
"Well I can't say 'yes,' so I ain't gonna say it,
Caze I ain't SEEN de Lawd. . . nowhere. . . no-how."

"D'ya b'lieve in Heaven?" asked the whiteman's preacher,
"Where you go, if you're good, fer yer last rewa'hd?"
"Ah'm good," said Hezekiah, "good as Ah'm able,
But Ah don't expect nothin' from Heaven OR the Lawd."

"D'ya b'lieve in the Church?" asked the white man's preacher.
Hezekiah said, "Well de Church is divided;
Ef they can't agree, than Ah cain't neither. . .
Ah'm like them. . . Ah ain't decided."

"You don't b'lieve nothin'," roared the white man's preacher.
"Oh yes Ah does," said old Hezekiah,
"Ah b'lieve that a man's beholden to his neighbahs
Widout de hope of Heaven or de fear o' hell's fiah."

There's a lot of good ways for a man to be wicked. . .
They hung Hezekiah as high as a pidgeon,
And the nice folks around said, "He had it comin'

'Cause the son-of-a-bitch didn't have no religion!"

Liverpool Gal

Written by Bob Dylan, during his stay in London in December 1962.

The song has been taped once by Dylan (July 17 1963 in the home of David Whitaker, Minneapolis, Minn.), but the tape is not in circulation (thanks to Miguel Angel for notifying me). The following tab is therefore based upon the version by Lennon & Hyam, formerly found at the Shelter From The Storm website.

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

I've prepared a sheet-music version: http://www.dylanchords.com/oo_misc/liverpool_gal.pdf

Lennon & Hyam use a kind of arrangement that Dylan would never have played in 1962. The following is a reversal, back to simple chords. I've indicated the rhythm in the first verse. They use a capo on the 6th fret (sounding key F# major)

The melody is clearly based upon The Lakes of Pontchartrain or a related tune (apparently Dylan learned "Lakes..." from Paul Brady in 1984).

C . . /b . . Am . . F . .
 When first I came to London town
 C/g . . G . . F . G C . .
 A stranger I did come
 C /b Am F
 I'd walk the streets so silently
 C/g G F G C
 I did not know no-one
 Am . . Em . . F . G C . .
 I was thinking thoughts and dreaming dreams
 C . . Em . F . . G . .
 The kind when you roll along
 . C /b Am F
 But most of all I was thinking about
 C/g G Am . . Em . . F . . G . .
 the land I'd left back home

I'd stand by the river Themes with the wind blowing through my hair.
 And who should come and stand by me
 but a London gal so fair.
 Her eyes were blue, her hair was brown
 Her face was gentle and kind
 For a second, well, I clear forgot
 The land I left behind

As we began walking and talkin'
 All through the English air
 I did not know where we'd end up
 'til we came to the top of a stair
 As we lay round on a worn-out rug
 the room it was so cold
 And we talked for hours by the inside fire
 'bout the outside world so old.

All through our sweet conversation
 She thought my ways were so strange

But I know there was one thing about me
That she would try to change
And the night passed on with the drizzeling rain
There's one thing I found out
[A pair of sweet curls] I know too well,
Her love I know not much about *)

And I awoke the next morning
And the rain had turned to snow
I looked out of her window
And I knew that I must go
I did not know how to tell her
I didn't know if I could
But she smiled a smile I'd never seen
To say she understood.

And thinking of her as I stood in the snow
How strange she appeared to be,
On the reason I was leaving,
she seemed no better than me.
I gazed all up at her window where the snowy snow-flakes blowed
I put my hands in my pockets
And I walked 'long down the road.

So it's now I'm leaving London, boys
Well, the town I'll soon forget,
Likewise its winds and weather
Likewise some people I met
But there's one thing that's for certain
Sure as the sunshine down
I'll never forget that Liverpool Gal
Who lived in London Town.

*) Lennon & Hyam sing "Of her...", and have to make a strange manoeuvre at the end to make it fit, but the "Of..." isn't necessary, lyrically, and the line is easier to sing without it.

Long Ago, Far Away

Written by Bob Dylan
 Recorded Nov 1962 as a Witmark demo
 Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Drop D tuning (D-a-d-g-b-e')

Chords:

D 000232 (but mostly played 000230)
 A 20222x (w/thumb; actually A/f#)
 G 5x000x or 5x0003

Most of the accompaniment consists of a steady alternation of two tones on the 6th string (open and fingered/bent on the 3rd fret), with chords strummed in between (see tab). A D major chord is held throughout, but with the 1st string open for most of the song (it is mostly not played on, but it can be heard at the end of the second verse) and the 3rd string alternating between open and fingered. The chord is probably fingered with the third finger constantly on the second string, and the second finger alternating between the 3rd and the 6th strings.

The rhythm is rather square with the same pattern throughout, with a little extra on the "Long ago, far away" refrain line.

 To preach of peace and brotherhood,

Oh what might be the cost!

a man he did it long ago,

and they hung him on a cross.

A D
 Long ago, far away

G A D
 Those things don't happen nowadays

The chains of slaves they dragged the ground with heads and hearts hung low
 But that was during Lincoln's time, and that was long ago.

Long ago, far away
 Those things like that don't happen no more nowadays, do they?

The war guns they bombed and blazed

the whole world bled its blood.
Men's bodies rotted on the ground
as their graves were made in mud.
Long ago, far away
Those kind of things don't happen no more nowadays

*) The official lyrics have:
"Men's bodies floated on the edge
Of oceans made of mud."

One man had much money,
One man had not enough to eat,
One man he lived just like a king,
The other man begged on the street.
Long ago, far away,
things like that don't happen no more nowadays.

One man died of a knife so sharp,
One man died from the bullet of a gun,
One man died of a broken heart
 A D
To see the lynchin' of his son.
Long ago, far away
Things like that don't happen no more nowadays.

Gladiators killed themselves,
It was during the Roman times.
People cheered with bloodshot grins
As eye and minds went blind.
Long ago, far away
Things like that don't happen no more nowadays.

And to talk of peace and brotherhood,
Oh, what might be the cost!
A man he did it long ago
And they hung him on a cross.
Long ago, far away
Things like that don't happen no more nowadays,
do they?

Talkin' Devil

Babe, I'd run circles all around.
I'd jump up in the wind, do a somersault and spin,
I'd even dance a jig on the ground.
Well, everybody gets their hour,
Everybody gets their time,
Little David when he picked up his pebbles,
Even Sampson after he went blind.
Well, everybody gets the chance
To do what they want to do.
When my time arrives you better run for your life
'Cause babe, I'll do it all over you.

Well, I don't need no money, I just need a day that's sunny,
Baby, and my days are gonna come.
And I grab me a pint, you know that I'm a giant
When you hear me yellin', "Fee-fi-fo-fum."
Well, you cut me like a jigsaw puzzle,
You made me to a walkin' wreck,
Then you pushed my heart through my backbone,
Then you knocked off my head from my neck.
Well, if I'm ever standin' steady
A-doin' what I want to do,

Well, I tell you little lover that you better run for cover
'Cause babe, I'll do it all over you.

I'm just restin' at your gate so that I won't be late
And, momma, I'm a-just sittin' on the shelf.
Look out your window fair and you'll see me squattin' there
Just a-fumblin' and a-mumblin' to myself.
Well, after my cigarette's been smoked up,
After all my liquor's been drunk,
After my dreams are dreamed out,
After all my thoughts have been thunk,
Well, after I do some of these things,
I'm gonna do what I have to do.
And I tell you on the side, that you better run and hide
'Cause babe, I'll do it all over you.

I'd Hate To Be You On That Dreadful Day

Back Door Blues

Trad.

From the "Banjo Tape", recorded in the Basement of Gerde's Folk City, Feb 8, 1963

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Twelve-string guitar tuned down one half step (sounding key F# major).

This song has just about every distinctive feature of a great Dylan instrumental: a little figure which sounds intricate, but is really simple; a clear proof of his ability to use the flatpick style to pick out melodic finesses; a full sound with many open strings, and, hence, tones foreign to the chords; a consistent use of the high and low strings to emphasise rhythm and melodies; and a rock steady singing rhythm, to which the meter of the song just has to adapt.

The little figure is really simple: index finger on the first string, fifth fret, and ring finger alternating between the three highest strings on the seventh fret.

Because this is played on a twelve-string, there are figures and tones you will not get on an ordinary acoustic guitar; especially what is played on the third string pair, which has the highest tuned string on the guitar.

Lonesome River Edge

Trad.

Performed by Bob Dylan on the so-called Banjo tape, recorded in the basement of Gerde's folk city Feb 8, 1963, with Happy Traum

The guitar is slightly low on this one, perhaps as much as a semitone.

It's hard to tell if the Em on "good-bye" is a mistake or just an intentional short Em like the at "lips".

Oh the weather is against me and the wind blows hard
And the rain she's a-turnin' into hail.
I still might strike it lucky on a highway goin' west,
Though I'm travelin' on a path beaten trail.
So it's fare thee well my own true love,
We'll meet another day, another time.
It ain't the leavin'
That's a-grievin' me
But my true love who's bound to stay behind.

I will write you a letter from time to time,
As I'm ramblin' you can travel with me too.
With my head, my heart and my hands, my love,

I will send what I learn back home to you.
So it's fare thee well my own true love,
We'll meet another day, another time.
It ain't the leavin'
That's a-grievin' me
But my true love who's bound to stay behind.

I will tell you of the laughter and of troubles,
Be them somebody else's or my own.
With my hands in my pockets and my coat collar high,
I will travel unnoticed and unknown.
So it's fare thee well my own true love,
We'll meet another day, another time.
It ain't the leavin'
That's a-grievin' me
But my true love who's bound to stay behind.

I've heard tell of a town where I might as well be bound,
It's down around the old Mexican plains.
They say that the people are all friendly there
And all they ask of you is your name.
So it's fare thee well my own true love,
We'll meet another day, another time.
It ain't the leavin'
That's a-grievin' me
But my true love who's bound to stay behind.

 I got too much to get done.
 Well, I'm a long time a-comin'
 An' I'll be a long time gone.

If I can't help somebody
 With a word or song
 If I can't show somebody
 They are travelin' wrong.
 But I know I ain't no prophet
 An' I ain't no prophet's son.
 I'm just a long time a-comin'
 An' I'll be a long time gone.

So you can have your beauty
 It's skin deep an' it only lies
 An' you can have your youth
 It'll rot before your eyes.
 Just give to me my gravestone
 With it clearly carved upon.
 "I's a long time a-comin'
 An' I'll be a long time gone."

Come gather 'round me people, and a story I will tell
	F	Am
About a night not long ago, you all remember well.
	F	Am
I tell it to you straight and true, I tell it like friend
F	Am
All about the fearful night, we thought the world would end.
I was walkin' down the sidewalk not causin' any harm
The radio reported, it sounded with alarm
The Russian ships were sailin' all out across the sea
We all feared by daybreak it would be World War Number Three.
I was worried about an argument I had the day before
Over some small matter, I'm sure it was nothin' more.
But just a day ago, how it wrinkled up my brow
The same thing today seems so unimportant now.

I Rode Out One Morning

Words and music Bob Dylan (I suppose, although the tune is surely based on something)

Recorded Apr 12, 1963 ("Fourth McKenzie Tape")

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

The melody is certainly the model to Farewell Angelina. For those who haven't heard the song: the melody is in the top line, beginning on the last "3" in the first measure.

The tab is mostly based on the version played between the verses, as that is played most clearly. The fingering pattern should not be broken, hence the successive tones on the same string e.g. in bar 3 should be played with different fingers.

Dropped D tuning (D-A-d-g-b-e'), capo 2nd fret

Hiding Too Long

Written by Bob Dylan

Performed once, in the Town Hall, NY, 12 April 1963

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Capo 2nd fret (sounding key A major)

The tune is a close relative to the tune of Oxford Town. The guitar part differs widely: it is rather a slow, triple-time, quite bluesy thing.

Both in the guitar and in the singing, the tone B \flat is prominent, which of course clashes with the B in the G major chord of the guitar – which of course is how it's intended. In the guitar this is accomplished either with the high B \flat (as in the second measure of the intro) or the low B \flat on the fifth string (I've indicated this in the tab by using "bb" for the high and "Bb" for the low B \flat), which is frequently hammered-on from the open string, as in the third verse:

The same figure recurs in later verses (in verse 4 with one measure less, in verse 5 with hammer-ons on all the Bbs). The chords of verse 3 are used in the subsequent verses.

Bob Dylan's New Orleans Rag

Written by Bob Dylan

Recorded during the The Times They Are A-changin' sessions, and performed at the Town Hall (NY) Apr 12, 1963.

The tab is based on the latter version.

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Capo 3rd fret (sounding key G major)

The entire song is built over the same four-measure pattern, which really isn't more than a succession B7 – E, where the E part is embellished by a descending figure (see tab).

The A could also be played xx0220 – it is in at least one verse.

There are some textual differences from the copyrighted version. These are noted at the end.

B7

I was sittin' on a stump down in New Orleans,

E (A) E

I was feelin' kinda low down, dirty and mean.

Along came a fella and he didn't even ask.

He says, "I know of a woman who can fix you up fast."

Well, I didn't think twice, I just said like I should,

"Let's go find this lady that can do me some good."

We walked across rampard on a sailin' spree

And we came to a door called one-oh-three.

I was just about ready to give my little knock

When out comes a fella who couldn't even walk.

He's linkin' and a-slinkin', couldn't stand on his feet,

And he moaned and he groaned and he shuffled down the street.

Well, out of the door there come another man.

He couldn't even talk and he couldn't even stand.

He moaned and he groaned and he shuffled his feet

And he slid slidin' backwards down Rampart Street. *)

Well, I peeked through the key hole, and comin' down the hall

Was a long-legged man who could hardly crawl.

He had a terrible mean look in his eye,

like he just fought a bear and he was ready to die.

Well, somebody yells with his hair all messed

Fell out of the window, and he failed the test

well, he slid and he slunk in broken French,

And he looked like he'd been through a monkey wrench.

Well, by this time I was a-scared to knock,
I was a-scared to move, I's in a state of shock.
I hummed a little tune and I shuffled my feet
And I started walkin' backwards down that Rampart street.
Well, I got to the corner, I tried my best to smile.
I turned around the corner and I ran a bloody mile.
Man, I wasn't runnin' for to meet my wife
I's a just a-runnin' for to save my life. **)

Well, I's coughing in my ears and wheezin' in my chest ***)
I musta run a mile in a minute or less.
I tripped on a log and I flumped on a stump,
I caught a fast freight with a one-arm jump.

So, if you're travelin' down the Louisiana way,
And you're feelin' kinda lonesome and you need a place to stay,
Man, you're better off in your misery
Than to tackle that lady at one-oh-three.

*) Three previous lines:

*He wiggled and he wobbled, he couldn't hardly stand.
He had this frightened look in his eyes,
Like he just fought a bear, He was ready to die.*

) Two previous lines:

*Man, I wasn't running 'cause I was sick,
I was just a-runnin' to get out of there quick.*

) I tripped right along and I'm a-wheezin' in my chest.

Dusty Old Fairgrounds

Written by Bob Dylan

Recorded in Town Hall, NY, 12 Apr. 1963 and intended for inclusion on the never-released live album

In Concert

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

G C G
 Well, it's all up from Florida at the start of the spring
 D(sus4)
 The trucks and the trailers will be winding
 G C G
 Like a bullet we'll shoot for the carnival route.
 G D G C/g G
 We're following them dusty old fairgrounds a-calling.

From the Michigan mud past the Wisconsin sun
 'Cross that Minnesota border, keep 'em strambling
 Through the clear county lakes and lumberjack lands,
 We're following them dusty old fairgrounds a-calling.

Hit Fargo on the jump and down to Aberdeen
 'Cross them old Black Hills, keep 'em rolling
 Through the cow country towns and the sands of old Montana.
 We're following them fairgrounds a-calling.

As the white line on the highway sails under your wheels,
 I've gazed from the trailer window laughing.
 Oh, our clothes they was torn but the colors they was bright.
 Following them dusty old fairgrounds a-calling.

It's a-many a friend that follows the bend,
 The jugglers, the hustlers, the gamblers.
 Well, I've spent my time with the fortune-telling kind
 Following them fairgrounds a-calling.

Oh, it's pound down the rails and it's tie down the tents,
 Get that canvas flag a-flying.
 Well, let the caterpillars spin, let the ferris wheel wind
 Following them fairgrounds a-calling.

Well, it's roll into town straight to the fairgrounds
 Just behind the posters that are hanging
 And it's fill up every space with a different kind of face
 Following them fairgrounds a-calling.

Get the dancing girls in front, get the gambling show behind
 Hear that old music box a-banging.
 Hear them kids, faces, smiles, up and down the midway aisles
 Following them fairgrounds a-calling.

It's a-drag it down by the deadline in the town,
 Hit the old highway by the morning
 And it's ride yourself blind for the next town on time
 Following them fairgrounds a-calling.

As the harmonicas whined in the lonesome nighttime
Drinking red wine as we're rolling,
Many a turnin' I turn, many a lesson I learn
From following them fairgrounds a-calling.

And it's roll back down to St Petersburg
Tie down the trailers and camp 'em
And the money that we made will pay for the space
From following them dusty old fairgrounds a-calling

Ain't A-Gonna Grieve

Written by Bob Dylan

Recorded Aug 1963 as a Witmark Demo

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Capo 1st fret (sounding key C#/D \flat major)

G /e /d
 Well, I ain't a-gonna grieve no more, no more
 D /f# G
 Ain't a-gonna grieve no more, no more

Ain't a-gonna grieve no more, no more
 D /f# G
 And ain't a-gonna grieve no more.

Come on brother, join the band,
 Come on sisters, clap your hands,
 Tell everybody in every land,
 I ain't a-gonna grieve no more.

You know, I ain't a-gonna grieve no more, no more
 Ain't a-gonna grieve no more, no more
 Ain't a-gonna grieve no more, no more
 Ain't a-gonna grieve no more.

Brown and blue and white and black,
 We're one color on the one-way track,
 We got this far and ain't a-goin' back
 And ain't a-gonna grieve no more.

And I ain't a-gonna grieve no more, no more
 Ain't a-gonna grieve no more, no more
 Ain't a-gonna grieve no more, no more
 I ain't a-gonna grieve no more.

We're gonna notify your next of kin,
 You're gonna raise the roof 'til the house falls in.
 You can knock us down, we'll get up again,
 We ain't a-gonna grieve no more.

We ain't a-gonna grieve no more, no more
 We ain't a-gonna grieve no more, no more
 We ain't a-gonna grieve no more, no more
 We ain't a-gonna grieve no more.

We'll sing this song all night long,
 Sing it to my baby from midnight on.
 She'll sing it to you when I'm dead and gone,
 Ain't a-gonna grieve no more.

Well, I ain't a-gonna grieve no more, no more
Ain't a-gonna grieve no more, no more
Ain't a-gonna grieve, I ain't a-gonna grieve,
I ain't a-gonna grieve no more.

Gypsy Lou

Written by Bob Dylan
 Recorded Aug 1963 as a Witmark Demo
 Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Open E tuning (or open D with capo 2nd fret)

Chords:

E 000000
 A 020100 (actually A/e)
 A/c# x20100
 B7 x02100 (or 202100)

Although this can't exactly be called a complicated song, the last line is treated differently in almost all the verses. Three common alternatives to the version chosen below, are to make it identical to the penultimate line, to let the A fall on "Lou", or to drop the B7.

E A E
 If you getcha one girl, better get two
 A E B7 E
 Case you run into Gypsy Lou
 E A E
 She's a ramblin' woman with a ramblin' mind
 A E B7 E
 Leavin' some poor boy behind.
 A/c# E A E
 Hey, 'round the bend
 A E B7 E
 Gypsy Lou's gone again
 A (B7) E
 Gypsy Lou's gone again.

Well, I seen this whole country through
 Just to followin' Gypsy Lou
 Seen it up, seen it down
 Followin' Gypsy Lou around.
 Hey, 'round the bend
 Gypsy Lou's gone again
 Gypsy Lou's gone again.

Well, I gotta stop and take some rest
 My poor feet are second best
 My poor feet are wearin' thin
 Gypsy Lou's gone again.
 Hey, gone again
 Gypsy Lou's 'round the bend
 Gypsy Lou's 'round the bend.

Well, seen her up in old Cheyenne Turned my head and away she ran
 From Denver Town to Wichita
 Last I heard she's in Arkansas.

Hey, 'round the bend
Gypsy Lou's gone again
Gypsy Lou's gone again

Well, I tell you what if you want to do
Tell you if you'll wear out your shoes
If you want to wear out your shoes
Try and follow Gypsy Lou.
Hey, gone again
Gypsy Lou's 'round the bend
Gypsy Lou's 'round the bend.

Well, Gypsy Lou, I been told
Livin' down on Gallus Road
Gallus Road, Arlington
Moved away to Washington.
Hey, 'round the bend
Gypsy Lou's gone again
Gypsy Lou's gone again

Well, I went down to Washington
Then she went to Oregon
I skipped the ground and hopped a train
She's back in Gallus Road again.
Hey, I can't win
Gypsy Lou's gone again
Gypsy Lou's gone again

Well, the last I heard of Gypsy Lou
She's in a Memphis calaboose
She left one too many a boy behind
He committed suicide.
Hey, you can't win
Gypsy Lou's gone again
Gypsy Lou's gone again

the trouble on my mind is driving me blind
F G C
I'm troubled and I don't know why

Oh, what did the morning say?
Oh, what did the morning say?
Well, it rolled from the night with a dark dreary light
Sayin' another old weary day

What did the newspaper tell?
What did the newspaper tell?
Well, it rolled in the door and it layed on the floor
Sayin' things ain't goin' so well

What did the television squall?
What did the television squall?
Well, it roared and it boomed and it bounced around the room and it never said nothing at all

What did the moviescreen lecture?
What did the moviescreen lecture?
Well, it heated and it froze and it took off all its clothes and I left in the middle of the picture

Cats meowed to the break of day

Me, I kept my mouth shut, too

To you I had no words to say

My experience was limited and underfed

You were talking while I hid

To the one who was the father of your kid

You probably didn't think I did, but I heard

You say that love is just a four-letter word

I said goodbye unnoticed

Pushed towards things in my own games

Drifting in and out of lifetimes

Unmentionable by name

Searching for my double, looking for

Complete evaporation to the core

Though I tried and failed at finding any door

I must have thought that there was nothing more

Absurd than that love is just a four-letter word

Though I never knew just what you meant

When you were speaking to your man

I can only think in terms of me

And now I understand

After waking enough times to think I see

The Holy Kiss that's supposed to last eternity

Blow up in smoke, its destiny

Falls on strangers, travels free

Yes, I know now, traps are only set by me
And I do not really need to be Assured that love is just a four-letter word

Now, boys, don't start to ramble round,
On this road of sin or you're sorrow bound.

For a life of sin, I have paid the cost.
When I pass by, you'll curse the day
You started rollin' down that lost highway.

On A Rainy Afternoon/Does She Need Me?/I Can't Leave Her Behind

Written by Bob Dylan (and Robbie Robertson, I assume)

Filmed in an unknown hotel room during the 1966 tour, and saved for posterity on Eat The Document

Lyrics transcribed by Tobias Levander and Arild Langseth ("I Can't Leave Her Behind").

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

This is one of the most charming tunes that Dylan has never written – too bad he didn't finish it. It is also a fascinating study in the development of song, and in Dylan's composing technique. I assume that the version called "On a rainy afternoon" or "Does she need me?" comes first – the "twice as slow" version with the duple time rhythm that grows out of this, is what appears in "I can't leave her behind".

Dylan's guitar is tuned in drop C (C-A-d-g-b-e'), capoed on the fifth fret, Robbie's is in standard tuning.

The main transcription uses Robbie's guitar. Bbmaj7 = xx8765

What Kind of Friend Is This?

Written by Bob Dylan (with input from Robbie Robertson, I assume)

Recorded in a Glasgow hotel room May 19, 1966, included in the film Eat the Document

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Dropped C tuning (C-A-d-g-b-e')

Dylan's guitar: Capo 7th fret (sounding key G major)

C
Tell me what kind of friend is this

What kind of friend is this?
Who loves me behind my back
What kind of friend is this Shows up every place I've been
She act kind of 'lone but she don't
She making a loan
But you know she won't
She got a language [in] the morning
And she's making it on my bed
Aw, what kind of friend is this.

What kind of friend is this

if she could only see
I'd give her everything
If she comes back along to this [/hiss?].
Tell me what kind of friend is this?

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt

Written by Woody Guthrie (See Manfred Helfert's site for details about the song: <http://www.geocities.com/Nashville/3448/iain>)

Performed by Bob Dylan and The Band at the Woody Guthrie tribute concert, Carnegie Hall, NY, Jan 20, 1968.

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

The audible guitar part seems to play with the following set of barre chords throughout, raised a semitone (one fret) for the verses marked with an indent. If you don't feel like using the suggested chords, I indicate the chords for the raised verses:

E	x76454	F	F#	G
A	577655	Bb	B	C
G#m	466444	Am	A#m	Bm
B	799877	C	C#	D

The last verse reverts to the original position.

Verses not sung by Dylan and the Band are written in italics.

Now he went up to the grade school and he wrote back to his folks.
He drew such funny pictures and was always pulling jokes.
This world was lucky to see him born.

He went on up towards Harvard, to read his books of law.
He loved his trees and horses, he loved everything he saw.
This world was lucky to see him born.

He got struck down by the fever and it settled in his leg.
He loved the folks that wished him well, and everybody did.
This world was lucky to see him born.

He took office on a crippled leg, he said to one and all:
"You money changin' racket boys sure 'nuff got to fall."
This world was lucky to see him born.

 That King Columbia river and the great Grand Coulee Dam.

She come up the Canadian Rockies where the crystal waters glide,
 Comes a-roaring down the canyon to meet that salty tide
 From the great Pacific Ocean to where the sun sets in the west,
 That big Grand Coulee country in that land I love the best.

In the misty glitter of that wild and windward spray,
 Men have fought the pounding waters and met a watery grave.
 Once she tore men's boats to splinters but she gave men dreams to dream,
 That day that Coulee dam went across that wild and restless stream.

[instrumental verse]

Oh Uncle Sam took up the notion in the year of thirty three,
 For the factory and the farmer and for all of you and me.
 He said: roll it on Columbia, you can roll out to the sea
 But river, while you're rolling you can do some work for me.

Now from Washington and Oregon you can hear them factories a-hum,
 Making chrome and making manganese and light aluminum.
 Always a flying fortress to blast for Uncle Sam,
 That King Columbia river and the great Grand Coulee dam.

[instrumental verse]

Well the world owns seven wonders as the travellers always tell.
 Some gardens and some towers, I guess you know them well.
 But now the greatest wonder is in Uncle Sam's fair land.

Sent him off to prison
For a seventy-dollar robbery.
Closed the door behind him
And they threw away the key.
Lord, Lord, They cut George Jackson down.
Lord, Lord,
They laid him in the ground.

He wouldn't take shit from no one
He wouldn't bow down or kneel.
Authorities, they hated him
Because he was just too real.
Lord, Lord,
They cut George Jackson down.
Lord, Lord,
They laid him in the ground.

Prison guards, they cursed him
As they watched him from above
But they were frightened of his power
They were scared of his love.
Lord, Lord,
So they cut George Jackson down.
Lord, Lord,
They laid him in the ground.

Sometimes I think this whole world
Is one big prison yard.
Some of us are prisoners
The rest of us are guards.
Lord, Lord,
They cut George Jackson down.
Lord, Lord,
They laid him in the ground.

Vomit Express

Words and music Allen Ginsberg/Bob Dylan-Allen Ginsberg

Recorded Nov 17, 1971, and released (i.a.) on Allen Ginsberg: First Blues (1983) and recently on the four-CD boxed set of Ginsberg's recorded work: Holy Soul Jelly Roll – ongs and Poems (1949-1993) on Rhino Records.

Tabbed and transcribed by Eyolf Østrem (who will be happy to receive corrections to the transcription)

Here's the story, in Allen Ginsberg's own words:

Vomit Express: These 1971 sessions came about because Dylan had come to hear a poetry reading at NYU's Loeb Auditorium, standing in the back of the crowded hall with David Amram. We were on stage with a gang of musician friends, and Peter improvised, singing, "You shouldn't write poetry down but carol it in the air, because to use paper you have to cut down trees." I picked up on that, and we spent a half an hour making up tuneful words on the spot. I didn't know 12-bar blues, it was just a free-form rhyming extravaganza. We packed up, said goodbye to the musicians, thanked them and gave them a little money, went home, and then the phone rang.

It was Dylan asking, "Do you always improvise like that?" And I said, "Not always, but I can. I used to do that with Kerouac under the Brooklyn Bridge all the time." He came to our apartment with Amram and a guitar, we began inventing something about "Vomit Express," jamming for quite awhile, but didn't finish it. He said, "Oh, we ought to get together in a studio and do it," then showed me the three-chord blues pattern on my pump organ. A week later in the studio Dylan actually did the arrangement, told people when to do choruses and when to take breaks, and suggested the musicians cut a few endings on their own to be spliced in.

"Vomit Express" was a phrase I got from my friend Lucien Carr, who talked about going to Puerto Rico, went often, and we were planning to take an overnight plane a couple of weeks later, my first trip there. He spoke of it as the "vomit express" – poor people flying at night for cheap fares, not used to airplanes, throwing up airsick.

C . F . G . F .

C . F . G . F . (same chords throughout)

C F G F

I'm going down to Puerto Rico
I'm going down on the midnight plane
I'm going down on the Vomit Express
I'm going down with my suitcase pain.

You can take an ancient vacation fly over Florida's deep-blue end rise up out of this mad-house nation
I'm going down with my oldest tender friend

I'm going down to Puerto Rico
I'm going down on the midnight plane
I'm going down on the Vomit Express
I'm going down with my suitcase pain.

We know each other now twenty years,
seen murders, and we wept tears

Now we're gonna take ourselves a little bit of free time
Wandering round the southern poverty clime

I'm going down to Puerto Rico
I'm going down on the midnight plane
I'm going down on the Vomit Express
I'm going down with my suitcase pain.

Start flyin' with all the poor, old, sick ladies
Everybody [in the plane] [drowded] and drunk, and they're crazy
Flyin' home to die in the wobbly air
All night long, they wanted the cheapest fare.

I'm going down to Puerto Rico
I'm going down on the old midnight plane
I'm going down on the Vomit Express
I'm going down with my suitcase pain.

When we're down on the air field, I've never been there,
Except once walkin' around the air field in the great, wet heat,
Walk out, smell that old mother-load of shit from the tropics
Stomach growl [love], oh friends, beware.

I'm going down to Puerto Rico
I'm going down on the midnight plane
I'm going down on the Vomit Express
I'm going down with my suitcase pain.

Me and my friend, no we won't even drink,
And I won't eat meat, I won't fuck around
Gonna walk the streets alone, [cars] will blink and wink
Taxi's, buses and US gas all around.

I'm going down to Puerto Rico
I'm going down on the midnight plane
I'm going down on the Vomit Express
I'm going down with my suitcase pain.

Start [read] poetry at the university, meet kids,
look at their breasts, touch their hands, kiss their heads seen from the heart, maybe the four buddhist normal truths
"Existence is suffering", it ends when you're dead --

I'm going down to Puerto Rico
I'm going down on the midnight plane
I'm going down on the Vomit Express
I'm going down with my suitcase pain.

Go out, walk up on the mountain, see the green rain
imagine that forest, finds, get lost, sit cross-legged and meditate on old love pain,
watch every old love turn to gold.

I'm going down to Puerto Rico
I'm going down on the midnight plane
I'm going down on the Vomit Express
I'm going down with my suitcase pain.

See raindrops and the jungle rainbow, dancin' men;
brown legs walk around on the mud road
far from US smog, war, again
Sit down, empty mind, vomit my holy load

I'm going down to Puerto Rico
I'm going down on the midnight plane
I'm going down on the Vomit Express
I'm going down with my suitcase pain.

Come back to earth, walk the streets in shock
Smoke some grass and eat me some cock kiss the mouth of the sweetest boy I can see who shows me his white teeth and brown skin joy

I'm going down to Puerto Rico
I'm going down on the midnight plane
I'm going down on the Vomit Express
I'm going down with my suitcase pain.

*[this chorus is completely out of rhythm.
Luckily they decided to take an instrumental verse, followed by:]*

Go find my old friend, we'll go to the museum,
talk 'bout politics with the cats, and ask for revolution, get back on the plane and chant high in the sky
Back to earth, to New York garbage streets and fly

I'm going down to Puerto Rico
I'm going down on the midnight plane
I'm going down on the Vomit Express
I'm going down with my suitcase pain.

I'm gonna come back with frighteneds in the hot at New York's electrical eternity here pull the air-conditioner plug from the wall sit down with my straight spine and pray

I'm going down to Puerto Rico
I'm going down on the midnight plane
I'm going down on the Vomit Express
I'm going down with my suitcase pain.

Rock Me Mama

Recorded during the sessions for Pat Garret & Billy The Kid (Feb 1973)

Tabbed and transcribed by Eyolf Østrem

The words are absolutely not clear. Brackets mean that I can't hear what he's singing, and whatever is within them is only an approximation to the sounds I hear, just to have something there to sing. Words outside the brackets are slightly more certain, but only slightly.

At least the chords are clear.

Rita May, Rita May,

You got your body in the way.

G

You're so damn nonchalant

D

But it's your mind that I want.

A

You got me huffin' and a-puffin',

G

Next to you I feel like nothin',

D

Rita May.

Rita May, Rita May,

How'd you ever get that way?

When do you ever see the light?

Don't you ever feel a fright?

You got me burnin' and I'm turnin'

But I know I must be learnin',

Rita May.

G

All my friends have told me

If I hang around with you

D

That I'll go blind

G

But I know that when you hold me

That there really must be somethin'

A

On your mind.

Rita May, Rita May,

Laying in a stack of hay,

Do you remember where you been?

What's that crazy place you're in?

I'm gonna have to go to college

'Cause you are the book of knowledge,

Rita May.

C Em F C Csus4 C
Lord, it's dark as a dungeon way down in the mine.

It's many a man I have seen in my day,
Who lived just to labor his whole life away.
Like a fiend with his dope or a drunkard his wine,
A man must have lust for the lure of the mines.

I hope when I'm gone and the ages do roll,
My body will blacken and turn into coal.
Then I'll look from the door of my heavenly home,
And pity the miner a-diggin' my bones.

Railroad Boy

Trad.

Performed by Bob Dylan and Joan Baez during the second Rolling Thunder Revue (1976), incl. the Hard Rain TV special

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Dylan plays uncapoed, with the chords Am and F, whereas Baez plays finger-picking style with a capo on the 5th fret, where she produces the little interlude, that is what makes this song something special (aside from their singing, of course). The rhythms vary a bit, but this is in essence what she plays:

Her mother she went upstairs too,
 C Em
Saying "Daughter oh daughter, what's troubling you?"

Oh mother oh mother I cannot tell.
It's that railroad boy that looks so well.
He's courted me my life away.
And now at home I long to stay.

There is a place in yonder town where my love goes and he sits there down.
And he takes a strange girl on his knee,
And he tells to her what he won't tell me.

Her father he came home from work,
Saying', "Where's my daughter, she seems so hurt"
He went upstairs to give her hope,
And he found her hanging by the rope.

He took a knife and he cut her down.
And on her boossom these words he found:
"Go dig my grave both wide and deep.
Put a marble stone at my head and feet.

And on my grave put a snowwhite dove
To tell the world that I died of love."

Dylan's guitar:

She went upstairs to make her bed.
F Am
And not one word to her mother said.
Her mother she went upstairs too,
F Am
Saying "Daughter oh daughter, what's troubling you?"

Goodbye to my Juan, goodbye Rosalita,

You won't have a name when you ride the big airplane,
All they will call you will be "deportees."

The skyplane caught fire over Los Gatos Canyon,
A fireball of lightnin' an' it shook all the hills.
Who are these comrades, they're dying like the dry leaves?
The radio tells me, "They're just deportees."

We died in your hills and we died in your deserts,
We died in your valleys, we died in your plains.
We died 'neath your trees and we died 'neath your bushes,
Both sides of the river we died just the same.

Goodbye to my Juan, goodbye Rosalita,
Adios mis amigos, Jesus y Maria.
You won't have a name when you ride the big airplane,
All they will call you will be "deportees"

Is this the best way we can grow our big orchards?
Is this the best way we can grow our good fruit?
To die like the dry leaves and rot on my topsoil
And be known by no name except "deportee."

I'd like to tell you a story
 D G D
of a man that you might know.
 D G D
His parents all called him Vincent,
 D A D
his last name was Van Gogh.

He started drinking and painting and living a life of sin.
He fell in with evil companions,
a man named Paul Gaugin.

They went to the city of Auvers, pursuing their carnal delights.
They painted all during the afternoon and they played music all night.

Now the people of that small city thought he was a little bit queer,
to prove his love for mankind, he chopped off his outside ear.

So they put him in an institution
but they could not keep him there.
He picked up his paints and his easel
and he went out to take some air.

He picked up his paints and his easel
and he went out to paint some crows.
They found him face down in a cornfield,
shot right between two rows.

Now where did Vincent van Go?

- 1481 LEGIONNAIRE'S DISEASE

Am I Your Stepchild?

Words and music Bob Dylan

Played during the fall 1978 tour, with constantly changing lyrics.

The "A" is rather a bluesy simultaneous A and Am, with lots of G and C in the bass (not at the same time, I guess...).

An ascent A-B-C-C#-D in the bass starts at the *).

Corrections or emendations to the lyrics (and other versions) are most welcome.

Oakland, CA Nov 13 1978

but oh, I just can't leave you babe

I get nervous in your company, my knees get weak

both my eyes get misty and my tongue can't speak

You treat me like a stepchild

Oh, Lordy, like a stepchild

I wanna turn my back and run away from you

But you know I can't leave you babe.

Ah, you know that I <gotta> love you honey, like a nervous wreck

this way its gonna be like you hold me like a ... around your neck

You treat me like a stepchild

Oh, Lord, like a stepchild

I wanna turn my back and run away from you

But you know I can't let you be

Stepchild

(stepchild)

You treat me like a stepchild

Oh lordy, like a stepchild

I wanna turn and run away from you,

but you know I just can't let you be

Charlotte Coliseum, Dec 10 1978

You treat me mean, baby <let me> turn around and you treat me rough

I give you all my loving but it doesn't seem to be quite enough

You treat me like a stepchild

Oh, Lord, like a stepchild

I wanna turn and walk all over you

but my heart says: "No, you better let her be".

Well, I've had the worst and I've had the best you sure is different, baby, you ain't like all the rest,
but you treat me like a stepchild,
Oh, Lord, like a stepchild
I wanna turn and walk all over you
but my heart says: "No, you better let her be".

<Was a man there with you baby, had to have no point of view (??)>
I pulled you out of <dope> scenes, orgies and jam sessions too
but you treat me like a stepchild,
Oh, Lord, like a stepchild
I wanna turn and walk all over you but my heart says: "Wait a minute now, just let her be".

Vancouver, Nov 11 1978

You treat me mean girl, and you treat me rough
I give you all my loving, and it's never quite enough
You treat me like a stepchild
Oh, Lordy, like a stepchild
I wanna turn and run all over you
but my heart says: "No, just let it be!"

What's ... what you want me to do
I pull you out of dope scenes, orgies and jam sessions too
You treat me like a stepchild
Oh, Lordy, like a stepchild
I wanna turn and run all over you
but my heart says: "No, just let it be!"

I'll crawl across the desert for you, girl, and the sea so wide
I'll bring you the diamonds from the mine and I'll find you ...
You treat me like a stepchild
Oh, Lord, like a stepchild
I wanna turn and run all over you
but my heart says: "No, just let it be!"

No doubt about it, that woman's possessed

but I wouldn't have it no other way. *)

Well, I met that woman 1961

Told me to do things I never could have done)

You know she's love crazy

Well, she's love crazy

You know, she's love crazy,

but I wouldn't have it no other way.

Well, she needed lovin' and she needs it bad

If she don't get it, well it makes her mad

she's love crazy

Ah, may be love crazy

Well, she's love crazy,

but I wouldn't want it no other way.

Well, she needs it badly like she needs her food

If she don't get it, well, it just makes her rude

she's love crazy

Well, she's love crazy

She's love crazy,

but I wouldn't have it no other way.

Well, she's love crazy

Well, maybe love crazy

Well, she's love crazy

Well, she's love crazy

Well, she's love crazy

but I wouldn't want it no other way.

Legionnaire's disease

Written by Bob Dylan

Recorded by Billy Cross and the Delta Cross Band and released on their 1981 album Up Front

The riff between the verses is suspiciously similar to the thing in the refrain of "Like a Rolling Stone".

The lyrics differ slightly from the official lyrics at bobdylan.com

Granddad fought in a revolutionary war, father in the War of 1812
Uncle fought down in Vietnam and then he fought a war all by himself
But whatever it was, it hit him like a tree
Oh, that Legionnaire's disease
It was Legionnaire's disease
It was Legionnaire's disease
It was Legionnaire's disease

Trouble In Mind

Words and music Bob Dylan

Recorded April 30, 1979 during the Slow Train Coming sessions, released as a B-side, with one verse left out, on the Gotta serve somebody single (and Precious Angel in some countries)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

All the guitar chords are power chords (i.e. chords without the third), but I've indicated the full chords that can be implied from the other instruments.

The bass plays the first three notes in the tab below over and over again, against the chords in the rest of the band.

Intro and recurring riff:

Trouble in mind, Lord, trouble in mind,
Lord, take away this trouble in mind.

When the deeds that you do don't add up to zero,
It's what's inside that counts, ask any war hero.
You think you can hide but you're never alone,
Ask Lot what he thought when his wife turned to stone.

Trouble in mind, Lord, trouble in mind,
Lord, take away this trouble in mind.

Here comes Satan, prince of the power of the air,
He's gonna make you a law unto yourself, build a bird's nest in your hair.
He's gonna deaden your conscience 'til you worship the work of your own hands,
You'll be serving strangers in a strange, forsaken land.

Trouble in mind, Lord, trouble in mind,
Lord, take away this trouble in mind.

Well, your true love has caught you where you don't belong,
You say, "Baby, everybody's doing it so I guess it can't be wrong."
The truth is far from you, so you know you got to lie,
Then you're all the time defending what you can never justify.

Trouble in mind, Lord, trouble in mind,
Lord, take away this trouble in mind.

So many of my brothers, they still want to be the boss,
They can't relate to the Lord's kingdom, they can't relate to the cross.
They self-inflict punishment on their own broken lives,
Put their faith in their possessions, in their jobs or their wives.

Trouble in mind, Lord, trouble in mind,
Lord, take away this trouble in mind.

When my life is over, it'll be like a puff of smoke,
How long must I suffer, how long, Lord, must I be provoked?
Satan will give you a little taste, then he'll move in with rapid speed,
Lord keep my blind side covered and see that I don't bleed.

Trouble in mind, Lord, trouble in mind,
Lord, take away this trouble in mind.

Blessed is the Name

Written by Bob Dylan

Performed during the 1979-80 gospel tours.

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem (but see alternate lyric transcriptions below)

Ironically, this is probably the song with which Dylan has made the most energetic attempts at a sing-along kind of rapport with the audience, but – it doesn't really work, does it...?

The lyrics for the verses – well, I made an attempt. The transcriptions below are a mixture of phonetic and semantic. I welcome corrections, as always.

Alternate lyrics

The following lyrics have been submitted by Jeff Moore. They are probably taken from Nov 2 and 9 1979, and from Feb 5, 1980.

Blessed is the name of the Lord forever
Wisdom and might are His

Well He moved His face on the water

He sits up high on the throne
Like Him there is no other
He is God all by Himself alone

...

...

... singing the blues
And He can renew your mind

Well He ... upon the peoples
... He's got His own time clock
He will not share His glory
And He will not be mocked

Way back in the days of Noah
They found Him faithful at the dock
Remember not one drop of water fell
Til Noah was safely in the ark

Well He always will forewarn you
Before He rains fire and brimstone down
He did not destroy Sodom and Gomorrah
Until Lot was safely out of town

He made the mountains
He made the sea
He made the way of salvation for you and me

I Will Love Him

Written by Bob Dylan

Performed live by Dylan in Toronto, April 19, 1980

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem. Lyric transcription leans heavily on discussions at pool.dylantree.com

Capo 1st fret (sounding key D \flat major)

It varies somewhat what is the first bass tone in each bar in the refrain, C or D. In the introduction, it leans more towards C, but after the verses, where it is prepared by the A chord, it is more unequivocally a D, as the root in a Dm7 chord. The second measure of the tab below is a suggestion of how to get both, without losing too much of any of them.

I welcome corrections additions and suggestions to the lyrics.

Ain't Gonna Go To Hell For Anybody

Written by Bob Dylan

As performed in Toronto Apr 20, 1980

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

This is an early incarnation of this tremendous song. A lot of the lyrics found a fixer shape later on (then again, some of them didn't). See "It's not a house it's a home" page for lyric variants.

In the version from Toronto, Apr 20 1980, the song begins with the backing singers singing the first line a number of times, while the band gradually enters. In later versions, it all begins with this guitar riff:

  G          D    C
  : . . . : . . .
|-3-----2---0-|-----|
|-0-----3---1-|-----|
|-0-----2---0-|-----0-20--| repeat
|-0-----0---2-|-----0-2---2-|
|-2-----0---3-|-----|
|-3-----2---3-|-----|

Also in the Toronto version there's a continuous bass G in the bridge, which is not there in later renditions.

  G          D          C
I ain't gonna go to hell for anybody (repeat)

          G          (D)          C
I can manipulate people as well as anybody
G          C          G          C
Hold 'em and control 'em, please 'em an' squeeze 'em
          G          (D)          C
I can make believe I'm in love with almost anybody
G          C          G          C
Burst 'em an' burn 'em, [cram]'em and leave 'em [or "jam"?]
          Am          Bm          C          Bm
But they're not my purpose as I make the deeds
          Am          Bm          D
I been down that road, I know where it leads.

I can deceive people as well as anybody
I know all the angles, know how to make the jangles
I can twist the truth as well as anybody
Find 'em an' blind 'em, wine 'em an' dine 'em

But it don't suit my purposes, it ain't my goal
To gain the whole world and give up my soul.

I ain't gonna go to hell for anybody
Ain't gonna go to hell for anybody
Ain't gonna go to hell for anybody
Not for father, not for mother, not for sister, not for brother, no way!

I ain't gonna go to hell for anybody
Ain't gonna go to hell for anybody
Ain't gonna go to hell for anybody
Not for father, not for mother, not for sister, not for brother, no way!

[instr. break]

I can manipulate people as well as anybody
Burst 'em an' burn 'em, twist 'em an' turn 'em
I can make believe I almost love anybody
Haul 'em an' control them, squeeze 'em and tease 'em
But it don't suit my purposes, it ain't my goal
To gain the whole world and give up my soul.

I ain't gonna go to hell for anybody
Ain't gonna go to hell for anybody
Ain't gonna go to hell for anybody
Not for sister, not for father, not for mother, not for brother, no way!

The following lyrics, from the fall 1980 tour, are a whole lot clearer (borrowed from "It's not a house it's a home" page):

I can manipulate people as well as anybody
Force 'em and burn 'em, twist 'em and turn 'em
I can make believe I'm in love with almost anybody
Hold 'em and control 'em, squeeze 'em and tease 'em
All that satisfies the fleshy needs
I've been down that road, i know what it needs.

But I ain't gonna go to hell for anybody
I ain't gonna go to hell for anybody
I ain't gonna go to hell for anybody
Not today, not tonight, not tomorrow, no never, no way!

I can persuade people as well as anybody
I got the vision but it caused division
I can twist the truth as well as anybody
I know how to do it, i've been all the way through it
But it don't suit my purpose and it ain't my goal
To gain the whole world, but give up my soul.

But I ain't gonna go to hell for anybody
I ain't gonna go to hell for anybody
I ain't gonna go to hell for anybody
Not for father, not for mother, not for sister, not for father, no way!

I can twist the truth around as well as anybody
Wine 'em and dine 'em, fool 'em and rule 'em
I can rob and steal from people as well as anybody
I know how to do it
But it don't suit my purpose and it ain't my goal
To gain the whole world but give up my soul.

But I ain't gonna go to hell for anybody
I ain't gonna go to hell for anybody
I ain't gonna go to hell for anybody
Not for father, not for mother, not for sister, not for father, no way!

Smoke arises for ever, on a one-way ticket to burn
A place reserved for the devil
And for all those that done evil
A place of darkness and shame, you can never return.

I can influence people as well as anybody
I can cause division, can cause division
I can mislead people as well as anybody
Burn 'em and roll 'em, rob 'em and hold 'em
Won't get my story in tricks or cards
I can see through man's delusions, i can see through his facades.

But I ain't gonna go to hell for anybody
I ain't gonna go to hell for anybody
I ain't gonna go to hell for anybody
Not today, not tonight, not tomorrow, no never, no way!

I can write and steal from people as well as anybody
Know all the devices, paid a lot of prices
I can influence people as well as anybody

Go right up to 'em, i know how to do 'em
Don't need to depend on tricks or on cards
I can see through man's delusions, I can see through his facades
But I ain't gonna go to hell for anybody
I ain't gonna go to hell for anybody
I ain't gonna go to hell for anybody
Not today, not tonight, not tomorrow, no never, no way!

Cover Down, Break Through

Written by Bob Dylan

Performed during the spring tour 1980

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

The entire song is built upon the following riff, repeated throughout the song:

      Am                      D
      : . . . . : . . . .
|-----|-----|
|-----|-----|
|-----|-----|
|-----|-----|
|-----3-----0-----|-5-----3-----|
|-3---5-5-----|-----|

The chord indications follow the rhythm guitar, which plays those two chords. The following suggestion indicates a possible way to incorporate more of the full band into one acoustic guitar (for whichever reason):

      Am(7)                  D          D11
      : . . . . : . . . .
|-5-----5-----5-----5-----|-5-----5-----|
|-5-----5-----5-----5-----|-7-----5-----|
|-5-----5-----5-----5-----|-7-----5-----|
|-5--h7-7-----7-----|-7-----5-----|
|-5--h7-7-----|-5-----5-----|
|-5-----5-----|-----|

      Am                      D          (D11)
Well you heard about Pharaoh's army
Trampling through the mud
You heard about the Hebrew children
Redeemed by blood
Same spirit drivin' in ya
That raised Christ from the dead
If you're quick in your mortal body
Then let it under your head.

You got to cover down, cover down, break through
Cover down, cover down, break through.

We need that protection
By the armour of the Lord
The sword of God is sharper than any double sided sword
He's the hammer of salvation blade of righteousness
Genesis to revelation
Repent and confess.

Cover down, cover down, break through
Cover down, cover down, break through.

Well, you wake up early in the morning
Turning from side to side
Something giving you a warning
You can run, but you can't hide
Demands are laid upon you
And burdens you can't bear
Sins you can't even remember
Are waiting to meet you there.

Cover down, cover down, break through
Cover down, cover down, break through.

You got an image of yourself
You've built by yourself alone
But it will come a-tumbling down
Just like the walls made of stone
You will be separated
From everything you seem to be
You think you'll be liberated, yeah
But the grave won't set you free.

You got to cover down, cover down, break through
Cover down, cover down, break through.
(Cover down, cover down, break through Cover down, cover down, break through)

 Allelu, Alleluia, glory to the Lord
 Alleluia, glory to the Lord

We will come, we will come as one before the Lord.
 We will come, we will come as one before the Lord.
 We will come, we will come as one before the Lord.
 We will come as one before the Lord.

In his name, in his name we have the victory.
 In his name, in his name we have the victory.
 In his name, in his name we have the victory.
 In his name we have the victory.

Allelu, Alleluia, glory to the Lord
 Allelu, Alleluia, glory to the Lord
 Allelu, Alleluia, glory to the Lord
 Alleluia, glory to the Lord.

Ev'ry knee shall bow, ev'ry tongue confess.
 Ev'ry knee shall bow, ev'ry tongue confess.
 Ev'ry knee shall bow, ev'ry tongue confess.
 That Jesus Christ is Lord.

Allelu, Alleluia, glory to the Lord
Allelu, Alleluia, glory to the Lord
Allelu, Alleluia, glory to the Lord
Alleluia, glory to the Lord.

Additional verses, not sung by Dylan:

If the Son, if the Son shall make you free
You shall be free indeed.
They that sow in tears shall reap in joy
Alleluia, glory to the Lord.

City of Gold

 Performed during the '80-'81 legs of the gospel tours
 Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

C G C
 There is a city of gold
 C F
 far from this rat-race with the bars that hold
 C F
 far from the confusion, eats at your soul
 C G F C
 There is a city of gold.

There is a country of light
 Raised up in glory, angels wearing white
 Never know sickness, never know night
 There is a country of light.

There is a city of love
 Way from this world, stuff dreams are made of Fear of no darkness, stars high above
 There is a city of love.

There is a city of hope
 There ain't no doctor, don't need no dope
 I'm ready and willing, throw down a rope
 There is a city of hope.

There is a city of gold
 Far from this rat race And these bars that hold Rest for your spirit, peace for your soul
 There is a city of gold

Let's Keep It Between Us

Written by Bob Dylan

Performed during the gospel tours in 1980

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Played (with Bob at the piano) in Eb major, which isn't very nice of him.

Here are two capoed alternatives, with capo on 1st and 3rd fret respectively.

The most distinctive chord here is the one I've called F6; it's a huge chord, with something of F, something of Dm, quite a lot of D7-10 (x5456x) in it, but F6 is a fair approximation.

The same would have to be said about some of the other "grand" chords (at "trust" and the last "keep") – they are approximations. You can't have it all on one single guitar (then again it's amazing how much you can have)

Chords:

A11 x00000

G11 3x3211

F6 133231 (you'll probably have to play 13x231)

A

 D F6
Let's keep it between us.

 A
These people meddlin' in our affairs, they're not our friends.

 D F6
Let's keep it between us

A
Before the last door closes and the whole thing breaks down and ends.

 Bm /a# /a E/g#

 G D/f# Em [or A11]
'til we don't know who to trust.

 D F6 G(11) D
Oh, darlin', can we keep it between us?

Let's keep it between us.

We've been through too much together that they've never shared.

They've had nothing to say to us before,

Now all of a sudden it's as if they've always cared.

All we need is honesty,

just a little humility and trust.

Oh, darlin', can we keep it between us?

 Bm /a#
I know we're not perfect

 /a G

But then again, so what?

 Bm /a#

There ain't no reason to treat me like I was a slave

D/f# Em A(7)
And it's all makin' me angry.

Can we lay back for a moment
'Fore the whole thing breaks down and goes to fire?
If we can't settle it by ourselves,
we must be worse off than they think we are.
Backseat drivers don't know the feel of the wheel,
but they sure know how to make a fuss.
Oh, darlin', can we keep it between us?

Can we lay back for a moment
'fore the whole [...] risin' over your head?
They talked about us both behind our back
so loud I could hear every word they said.
In the company of fools we've falled, honey,
Let's just move to the back of the back of the bus
Oh, darlin', can we keep it between us?

Yonder Comes Sin

Written by Bob Dylan

Recorded in the Rundown studios, October 1980 (Shot of Love sessions)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Great song! "You've been seeking them eternal, spiritual things, / but your fifty-dollar smile confirms / You're still tryin' to buy your way into the dreams of them / Whose bodies will be food for worms." The born-again equivalent of "You might think he loves you for your money, but I know what he really loves you for: It's your brand new leopard-skin pill-box hat" ...

Whereas the full band sound of the second last line of the verses is as indicated below (with a G at "grind") one guitar – possibly Dylan's – plays a D throughout the line.

The only known sounding version of the song ends after verse four. The rest of the verses exist only in copyright documents. The copyrighted version also has different punchlines in each of the verses ("can't you take it on the chin", "Pour me another glass of gin", "Ain't no room tonight at the inn", "Sounding like a sweet violin")

A
 You wanna talk to me,
 C G A
 you got many things to say
 A
 You want the spirit to be speaking through,
 C G A
 but your lust for comfort get in the way
 A
 I can read it in your eyes, oh, what your
 C G A
 Heart will not reveal
 A C
 And that old evil burden has been draggin' you down,
 G D (Dsus4-D)
 bound to grind you 'neath the wheel
 /d /c /a A
 Yonder comes sin.

 (Walkin' like a man, talkin' like an angel)
 D /c /a A
 Yonder comes sin.
 (Proud like a peacock, swift like an eagle)
 D
 Look at your feet, see where they've been to Look at your hands, see what they been into

 E
 Can't you take it on the chin?
 D /c /a A
 Yonder comes sin.

You see this woman standin' next to me
 She's foreign to your sight
 Well, her eyes may be a different colour than mine,

but her blood is red and her bones are white.
You've been seeking them eternal, spiritual things, but your fifty-dollar smile confirms
You're still tryin' to buy your way into the dreams of them
Whose bodies will be food for worms
Yonder comes sin

(Ready and steady, willing and able)
Yonder comes sin
(Standin' on the chair, standin' on the table)
Look at your feet, see where they've been to
Look at your hands, see what they've been into
Can't you take it on the chin?
Yonder comes sin.

I say: See them six wild horses, honey
You say: I don't even see one.
You say: Point them out to me, love,
I say: Honey I got to run
My brother's blood is crying from the grave
but you can't hear the voice
I stand in jeopardy every hour,
Wonderin' what reason you have to rejoice.
Yonder comes sin.

(Down on your knees, down into the ditches)
Yonder comes sin.
(Vomiting up jewels, vomiting up riches)
Look at your feet see where they've been to
Look at your hands, see what they've been into
Enough to put you to tail-spin
Yonder comes sin.

Jeremiah preached repentance
To those that would turn from hell
But the critics all gave him such bad reviews
Put him down at the bottom of a well kept on talking, anyway
As the people were put into chains
Wasn't nobody there to say "Bon voyage" or shatter any bottles of champagne.
Yonder comes sin

(Cracking that whip, just like a feather)
Yonder comes sin
(Put a knife in your back while talking about the weather)
Look at your feet see where they've been to
Look at your hands, see what they've been into
Can you take it on the chin
Yonder comes sin

High cost of survival
Gets a little higher than you expect
When you're trying to get along with your enemies
And still maintain your self-respect
As a child you knew all there was to know
It just couldn't get expressed
Now it scares me to see what you accept as good
At one you wouldn't have settled for less than the best
Yonder comes sin

(Way down deep and dirty, not a day under thirty)
Yonder comes sin
(Tasting like peaches, hanging on like leaches)
Look at your feet see where they've been to
Look at your hands, see what they've been into
So masculine, so feminine
Yonder comes sin

You turn your back on the hard truth
Just to fatten up your purse
Sings of an unrighteous world
Dare the same thing as a curse
No kingdom made of human hands can stand
Too bad about MacBeth
In order to possess that corruptible crown
Gotta make a deal with Mr Death
Yonder comes sin.

(Can you comprehend it, can you understand it)
Yonder comes sin
(It rules the airways, it rules the planet)
Look at your feet see where they've been to
Look at your hands, see what they've been into
Take off that sheepish green
Yonder comes sin

There's a place down in your soul
Where the law can never touch
You do most likely what you please
And not think about too much
I'll be down the line when morning comes
And that I pulled the hood up for you
So that you could see real good your uninvited guest
Yonder comes sin

(It's a pleasure to meet ya, nice to have known ya)
Yonder comes sin
(It wants to kill you, it wants to own you)
Look at your feet see where they've been to
Look at your hands, see what they've been into Being pulled in all directions by the wind
Yonder comes sin

Trad.

Performed by Bob Dylan in duet with Regina McCrary, during the 80/81 part of the gospel tours

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Introductory talk San Diego, Nov 26, 1980:

"People always ask be about old songs and new songs. [crowd cheering]

This is a real old song. I used to sing this before I even wrote any songs.

One of them old southern mountain ballads. I guess everybody used to do them.

Last time we played it – I think it was in Tucson – there was a ... You know how the... There was a review in the newspaper that I'd like to get straight. The man who did the show and reviewed it didn't know where all these songs came from. Anyway, this one here he said was about Jesus being born in the manger, well that's not entirely true about this song, it's just an old southern mountain ballad [little giggle], that's all there is, about someone dying in the snowstorm. But, anyway... it's calle Mary of the wild moor."

 Till she came to her own fathers door.

Why did I leave this fair spot,
 Where once I was happy and free?
 For I'm now left alone in this cold world to roam
 And nobody cares about me

Oh father take pity on me,
 Come down and open the door.
 For the child in my arms he will perish and die
 From the winds that blow across the wild moor.

But the old man was deaf to her cries,
 Not a sound from her voice did he hear.
 And the watchdog did howl, and the village bells tolled,
 And the wind blew across the wild moor.

Oh how the old man must have felt,
 When he came to the door the next morn,
 And he found Mary dead, but the child still alive,
 Still wrapped in her [!] dead mothers arms.

In anguish he tore his grey hair.
 And his tears down his cheeks they did pour.
 When he saw how that nite she had perished and died.
 From the wind that blew across the wild moor.

In grief the old man pined away,
 And the child to its mother went soon.

And no one they say has [... him this day?].
And the cottage to ruin has gone.

But the villagers point out the spot,
Where the willows droop over the door.
Saying there Mary died once a gay village bride,
From the wind that blew across the wild moor.

Let's Begin

Written by Jim Webb

Performed by Bob Dylan during the 1981 tour, tabbed as sung in Drammenshallen, Norway, Jul 10, 1981

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem and Hallvard Østrem (yes, he's my cousin)

Dedicated to flow_r

Capo 3rd fret (sounding key B \flat major)

Chords:

B11 x22222 or x22220 or x22200
 G/b x20003
 D11 xx0010
 G/d x55433 (best; also possible is xx0003)
 A9 x02000

The alternatives for B11 are different: x22220 emphasises its "A" character (it's an A chord which happens to have a B in the bass), x22200 makes it more of a B7sus4 chord.

The G/b in the 4th line ("how") is sometimes mixed with a Bm, which produces the "Bagdad Café" chord Bm-6.

The final solo is from Avignon (Jul 25, 1981)

Written by Bob Dylan

Dylan's last gospel song, performed once, in New Orleans, Nov 10, 1981

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

The riff that runs through the song is basically the same as in Cover Down Break Through, and several other gospel period songs. It can be played something like:

      A              D      C
      : . . . . : . . . .
|-0-----| -2----0-----|
|-2-----| -3----1-----|
|-2-----| -2----0-----|
|-2-----| -0----2-----|
|-0-----| -----3-----|
|-----| -----|

The C can be replaced by a D11 (xx0010 or x55555), and the order of the chords is frequently reversed:

      A              C      D      C
      : . . . . : . . . .
|-0-----| -0----2----0---|
|-2-----| -1----3----1---|
|-2-----| -0----2----0---|
|-2-----| -2----0----2---|
|-0-----| -3-----3---|
|-----| -----|
```

E11 = 022232

      A              C D C A              C D C
(Thief on the cross,      chances are slim)

There's a thief on the cross, his chances are slim
There's thief on the cross, I want to talk to him

      C              D
Well everybody's been diverted,
      C              D
Everybody lookin' the other way
      C              D
Everybody's attention is divided

      C              E11
Well they may not afford to wait, well -

There's a thief on the cross his chances are slim
There's a thief on the cross I wanna talk to him

Wanna ask him 'bout his mother
Wanna ask him 'bout his world
Wanna ask him 'bout to talk to himself
If this time it didn't roll too well, well -

There's a thief on the cross his chances are slim
There's a thief on the cross I wanna talk to him

Well, everybody know too excited [?]
Don't be too surprised
Head for the dawn and you can see it well
And it's rising in his eyes, well -

There's a thief on the cross his chances are slim
There's a thief on the cross I wanna talk to him

There's a thief on the cross, there's a thief on the cross

Now there's winning, ruling and readin'
Everybody goes [...]
[every scene be] too excited
Whether Iran or Mexico, well -

There's a thief on the cross his chances are slim
There's a thief on the cross I wanna talk to him.

There's a thief on the cross,
thief on the cross
There's a thief on the cross,
There's a thief on the cross,
There's a thief on the cross

Coming From The Heart (The Road Is Long)

Written by Bob Dylan and Helena Springs
Recorded during the Street Legal sessions (Apr 1978)
Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Played with Dylan at the piano, hence in C♯ major. I'd suggest a capo on the 1st fret if you play it on the guitar.

There are some changes in the lyrics compared to the copyrighted lyrics.

F G C Am
We have got to come together
F G C
How long can we stay apart?
F G C Am
You may get it maybe never
F G C
But it's coming from the heart.

Your mind is filled with indecision
You can't make up your mind.
We must get it in position
And move it on down the line.

Make me up a bed of roses
hang it down on the vine
Of all my loves you've been the closest
That's ever been on my mind.

C F
And the road is long, it's a long hard climb
G C
I been on that road for too long of a time
C F
Yes the road is long, and it winds and winds
G C
When I think of the love that I left behind.

Don't talk to me about tomorrow
I really don't care
This home is filled with too much sorrow
That nobody's heart should bear.

And the road is long, it's a long hard climb
I been on that road for too long of a time
Yes the road is long, and it winds and winds
When I think of the love that I left behind.

Another man has hurt you honey,
why must I pay for that part?
Our love can't be bought with money
'Cause it's coming from the heart.

And the road is long, it's a long hard climb
I been on that road for too long of a time
Yes the road is long, and it winds and winds
When I think of the love that I left behind.

Additional verse in the copyrighted lyrics:

Please, please give me indication
Stop and talk to me
Like a river that is flowing
My love will never cease to be.

If I Don't Be There By Morning

Written by Bob Dylan for Eric Clapton
Released by Eric Clapton on his album Backless (1978)
Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

To get that high ringing b from the piano, the song has to be played around the 7th fret, with barre chords (or a capo). The guitar that can be heard on the tape probably plays with a capo on the 2nd fret and the chords in the 2nd version below.

Another alternative is to play with a capo on the 4th fret with the chords in the second column below.

Chords:

No capo:	Capo 4th fret:

Julius and Ethel

Words and music Bob Dylan

Recorded during the Infidels sessions (1983)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Who were Julius and Ethel? See <http://www.ncs.pvt.k12.va.us/ryerbury/zros/zros.htm> or http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Ethel_and_Julius

E

Now that they are gone you know the truth it can be told

D

They were sacrificed lambs in the market place sold

A E

Julius and Ethel, Julius and Ethel

Now that they are gone you know the truth it can come out

They were never proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt

Julius and Ethel, Julius and Ethel.

The people thought they were guilty at the time

Some even said there hadn't been any crime

Julius and Ethel, Julius and Ethel.

People look upon this couple with contempt and doubt

But they loved each other right up to the time they checked out

Julius and Ethel, Julius and Ethel.

Eisenhower was president, Senator Joe was King

Long as you didn't say nothing you could say anything

Julius and Ethel, Julius and Ethel.

Now some they blamed the system, some they blamed the man

Now that it is over, no one knows how it began

Julius and Ethel, Julius and Ethel.

Every Kingdom got to fall even the Third Reich

Man can do what he please but not for as long as he like

Julius and Ethel, Julius and Ethel.

Well they say they gave the secrets of the Atom Bomb away

Like no one else could think of it, it wouldn't be here today

Julius and Ethel, Julius and Ethel.

Someone says the fifties was the age of great romance

I say that's just a lie, it was when fear had you in a trance

Julius and Ethel, Julius and Ethel.

Almost Done

Words (?) and music Bob Dylan

Played, more or less improvised, on the Verona and Beverly Theatre rehearsals, May 1984

Tabbed and transcribed (sort of) by Eyolf Østrem

It seemed meaningless to try and transcribe the mumbling on the Beverly Theatre version (May 23).
Verona was a little less meaningless...

Verona rehearsal tape, May 27 1984, #1

To Fall In Love With You

words (!) and music (!) Bob Dylan

Recorded during the Hearts of Fire sessions 27-28 aug 1986

Tabbed and transcribed by Eyolf Østrem

Your words aren't clear. I turned this song down for a long time, thinking that wasn't worth the effort transcribing it, and that it's a shame that such a beautiful tune has such undecipherable lyrics, probably improvised on the spot. But I couldn't resist it, of course. Most of the lines below are just reasonably close approximations to sounds that could have made sense in a better world. I don't even think there is a word like "deverthisse" in English, nor can I think of a context that will make the phrase "How can the doors a trust on a nail" make sense. Oh well ...

At least the music is a delight. The tune is in B major, but for the first eight lines the tune isn't anywhere near a B chord. It would have made a beautiful song had he bothered to finish it—certainly the best song from that soundtrack. It is also quite similar to "Almost done", another discarded gem-to-be.

It just rolls upon the sand
[deverthisse] now
I made the man can make you feel what I can find
I know it in my days
Ah in my dreary mind
Oh will ages roll
Will ages fly
I hear your name
where angel lie.
What do I know?
for to come it's true
To fall in love
To fall in love
To fall in love
with you

How can the doors
a trust on a nail
how can I be surprised of most everything
ah in the distant road
I can['t] be the same
I feel no love
I kill no shame
I can't watch the bay
Out on my an own
we've a destined man
I came atist it all
[I didn't] I could find
Where I could go
To fall in love
To fall in love
To fall in love

A

I'll have the usual

Yeah, I'll have the usual

Fifty silhouettes now tumblin' on the dance floor

Pink elephants fallin' through a trap door

Sixty cigarettes a day because I'm nervous

When will that bitch begin to serve us?

I used to be a good boy, livin' the good life

Fifty thousand kisses later she was a housewife

She was good, I was unkind

I'm not thirsty, but I'm standin' in line

I'll have the usual, yeah

I'll have the usual

Big Jim says that the second comin's comin'

I think he must be seein' double or something

You can hang around here, waiting for the offerings

I can't win, but I've seen enough, man

A fifth of whisky keep the doctor away

A little more and it's judgment day

I had a future, but she just passed out

I'm gonna drink until I see what am I talkin' about

I'll have the usual, yeah

I'll have the usual

I'll have the usual

Yeah, the usual

      F#                                B
And I've picked up a couple more years on you, babe, and that's all.

I've been down more roads than you, babe, and that's all.
I'm tired of runnin' while you're only learning to crawl.
You're headin' somewhere, I've been that somewhere, found it's nowhere at all.
And I've picked up a couple more years on you babe, and that's all.

["I wrote that for you, never finished it."
 "You should"]

And here's the finish, the last verse, which was not played in the film:

Now sayin' goodbye, girl don't ever come easy at all.
But you've got to fly 'cause you're hearin' those young eagles call.
And someday when you're older, you'll smile at a man strong and tall.
And you'll say I've got a couple more years on you, babe, and that's all.

You just don't know it yet.

For all of my brothers from Vietnam
And my uncles from World War II,
I'd like to say that it's countdown time now
And we're gonna do what the law should do.
And for you pretty baby, I know you've seen it all.
I know your story is too painful to share.
One day though you'll be talking in your sleep
And when you do, I wanna be there.

      C      /g      D/f#
About Pretty Boy Floyd, an outlaw,
      G
Oklahoma knew him well.

It was in the town of Shawnee,
 On a Saturday afternoon,
 His wife beside him in a wagon
 And into town they rode.

There a deputy sheriff approached him
 In a manner rather rude,
 Using vulgar words of language,
 An' his wife she overheard.

Pretty Boy grabbed a log chain,
 And the deputy grabbed his gun;
 And in the fight that followed
 He laid that deputy down.

Now he took to the hills and timber
 To live the life of shame;
 Every crime in Oklahoma
 Was added to his name.

He took to the trees and timber
 On the Canadian river shore,
 And Pretty Boy found a welcome
 At every farmer's door.

[Instrumental verse, replacing the verse:
 But a many a starving farmer

The same old story told
How the outlaw paid their mortgage
And saved their little homes.]

Others tell you of a stranger
That come to beg a meal,
And underneath the napkin
Left a thousand dollar bill.

T'was in Oklahoma City,
It was on a Christmas Day,
There come a whole car load of groceries
And a letter that did say:

You say that I'm an outlaw,
You say that I'm a thief.
Well, here's a Christmas dinner
For the families on relief.

Well, as through this world I've rambled
I've seen lots of funny men;
Some will rob you with a six-gun,
And some with a fountain pen.

But as through this world you ramble,
As through this world you roam,
You won't never see an outlaw
Drive a family from their home.

Steel Bars

Written by Bob Dylan (lyrics/music) & Michael Bolton (vocal melody?)

Released on Michael Bolton's Greatest Hits (1995) released Time Love & Tenderness (1991)

Tabbed by Trev Gibb (slightly modified by Eyolf Østrem)

These definitely are classic "Dylan Lyrics" (shows his well hadn't run dry), I knew it when I heard it, that it was Dylan. I wonder though, if the melody and the chords are all his, I sure hope so. Great song. Nice key change too.

How did this unlikely collaboration come about? The following is from a posting to rec.music.dylan by Olof Bjorner on 16 May 1991:

Michael Bolton: "We're planning on writing some more songs together. He's kind of hungry to get back out there and wants to work with a few contemporary hit song writers. Someone who works with Dylan called me up and said 'Bob Dylan would like to write with you'. I was awed. I told him, 'I don't even know how I could write a lyric when working with you ... I'm too intimidated'. But then we started messing around with some chords and wrote Steel Bars, a song about obsession. It took us two sessions to write, and when I left, I was told, 'Bob likes you and he wants you to come back'."

Kaatskill Serenade

Written by David Bromberg

Recorded by Bob Dylan and Bromberg early/mid June 1992 ("The Bromberg Sessions")

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem (thanks to Peter Vincent for lyric corrections)

One of the gems from the Bromberg sessions. The main rhythm guitar plays the chords below, but it sounds as if there is one guitar in there somewhere with a capo on the 4th fret, playing with C-chords. See below for a version like that.

Peter Vincent has suggested the spelling Kaatskill, "because it was the spelling used by Washington Irving in the story of Rip Van Winkle, on which the song is based." It is also the spelling that Bromberg used. Originally, I just couldn't bring myself to writing it that way – but I've changed my mind: Peter wins.

No word of warning, just her usual curse
I hated the house, with all her nagging and shouting
But to be in this strange world was a thousand times worse

Many times quicker, just to put me to sleep
That drinking with strangers can be very risky
My sleep it was long, it was twenty years deep

Sloppy Drunk

Recorded by Bob Dylan during the Bromberg Sessions, early/mid June 1992

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem (thanks to esmith for corrections and details)

The song is frequently ascribed to Jimmy Rogers (the bluesman, not the country artist Jimmie Rodgers), because of his song of the same title (which again has taken some "inspiration" (whatever that means in the blues world) from Sonny Boy Williamson I and his "Sloppy Drunk Blues"), but Bromberg is registered as the copyright holder (thanks to Alan Fraser for notifying me), and apart from the title, the two songs have little in common.

The Eb7 in the turnaround could be played xx1323, x6564x, or, simpler, and perhaps even more correctly, xx1003.

You Belong To Me

Written by Pee Wee King, Redd Stewart & Chilton Price
Recorded by Bob Dylan for Oliver Stone's Natural Born Killers.
Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem
Thanks to John for a great request!

From Olof's files: "Dylan sings a song from 1952 called You Belong To Me, written by Pee Wee King, Redd Stewart and Chilton Price. It's an acoustic solo recording that could very well have been recorded at the same time as Good As I Been To You or World Gone Wrong."

Some comments on the tab and the song:

- The intro is of course a general outline of the melody, which means that it (or a simpler version of it) can be played along with the verses. The interludes follow the same basic pattern as well. Figure out the variations yourself... :-)
- The dots in the tab always indicate the beats of the measure (quarter notes), the commas the subdivisions of the beats (eighth-notes).
- The indicated hammer-ons are quite tricky if one tries to do them right, but the basic idea (of the whole piece) is of course to strum the chords above the tab, and occasionally getting to a chord a little "too early", if you see what I mean.
- The slide up to the Dm' chord actually begins one half-beat earlier, i.e. on the last half-beat in the previous measure.
- All in all the intro is a great sample of Dylan's inimitable acoustic melody-strumming playing style a la Good As I Been To You (just compare with Frankie and Albert, e.g.).
- Just one more thing before I'll let you go on playing: The song – both the tune and the text – reminds quite a lot of Make You Feel My Love.

My Blue Eyed Jane

Words and music Jimmie Rodgers

Performed by Bob Dylan on The Songs of Jimmie Rodgers – A Tribute (1997)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

The key may seem awkward, but he seems to have turned from “C- or G-shape chords with capo” to “E- and A-shape barré chords” these days, and so the key doesn’t matter that much. What may still be an argument for a capo on the 2nd fret, is that the second chord sounds more like a D-shape chord than an E-shape, with the 3rd on the highest string. Just to be sure, I’ve appended such a version at the end.

B E B F# B
 The sweetest girl in the world is my blue eyed Jane
 F# G#m C# F#
 We fell in love like turtle doves while the moon was shining down
 B E B F# B
 I asked her then, I asked her when the wedding bells would ring
 C# F#
 She said, "Oh dear, it seems so queer, that this could happen here."

B
 You are my little pal, and I've never known a sweeter gal
 F# B
 My blue eyed Jane, I love you so
 B
 And when the sun goes down, and the shadows are creeping all over town
 F# B
 Just meet me in the lane, my blue eyed Jane

Janie dear, listen here, I've come to say farewell
 The world is drear without you dear, and now I cannot linger here
 I'm going away this very day, oh please come go with me
 I'll be sad and blue wantin' you, longin' all day through

My little blue eyed Jane, you'll always be the same sweet thing
 I know you'll never change, I love you so
 And when the sun goes down, and the shadows are creeping over town
 Then I'll come back again, my blue eyed Jane.

And when the sun goes down, and a shadows are creeping all over town
 Then I'll come back again, my blue eyed Jane.

Version with capo 2nd fret:

Return To Me

DiMinno/Lombardo

Recorded by Bob Dylan Dec 17 2000 in NYC for the Sopranos 2 soundtrack (2001)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem (thanks to Jamie Lovinger for the complete lyrics)

“Return to me” is played in the same dense, jazzy style as the new arrangements of Tryin’ to get to Heaven and If Dogs Run Free, with a walking bass and several guitars (here even an accordeon) playing snippets of melodies and chord progressions on top of each other, some of which are clear and simple, others doing what they can to blur the simple framework. The chords below should therefore be taken with a pinch of salt.

I present the song in two different versions – first with just the basic chords, then in a fuller tabulature version with the chords of the jazzy guitar (Larry’s). The tab doesn’t really make sense on its own – it should be played against the indicated chords. And – needless to say – the tab is just a suggestion.

I Can't Get You Off Of My Mind

Written by Hank Williams

Recorded by Bob Dylan for Timeless, Lost Highway Record's tribute album to Hank Williams (2001).

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

 C G C
Oh, I can't get you off of my mind
 C G
When I try, I'm just wasting my time
 C C7
Lord, I've tried and I've tried
F D7
All night long I've cried
 C G C
But I can't get you off of my mind.

Didn't think you would leave me behind
But I guess you're the two-timin' kind
Do you think that it's smart to jump from heart to heart
When I can't get you off of my mind.

Oh, I can't get you off of my mind
When I try, I'm just wasting my time
Lord, I've tried and I've tried
All night long I've cried
But I can't get you off of my mind.

You believe that a true love is blind
So you fool ev'ry new love you find
You've got stars in your eyes
but they can't hide the lies
Oh, I can't get you off my mind.

Oh, I can't get you off of my mind
When I try, I'm just wasting my time
Lord, I've tried and I've tried
All night long I've cried
But I can't get you off of my mind.

Red Cadillac and a Black Moustache

(Thompson – May)

Played live by Bob Dylan three times summer 1986

A studio version was recorded for the Sun Records tribute album "Good Rockin' Tonight (The Legacy of Sun Records)", released Oct 30 2001.

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

The intro contains some of the licks and figures that recur in the rest of the song. I've indicated the different guitars with different brackets.

The live version from 1986 is virtually the same as the studio version, except that it's more rocking, less love-and-theft-ishly swingy.

Another deal gone down,
 Another man done gone.
 You put up with it all, and you carry on.
 Something holding you back,
 But you'll come through.
 I'd bet the world and everything in it on you.
 Happiness is but a state of mind.
 Anytime you want, you can cross the state line.

Diamond Joe (M&A)

Trad.

Recorded and filmed by Bob Dylan w/band for Masked and Anonymous (2003)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Diamond Jo was the name of a steamboat that ran on the upper Mississippi in the period 1864-83, owned by "Diamond Jo" Reynolds. (He also built his own railroad from Malvern to Hot Springs (Arkansas, I believe), after a painful carriage trip to cure his rheumatism in the healing waters of Hot Springs). The refrain line "Diamond Jo come and get me" could be a reference to the boat.

Early versions of the song recorded by the Georgia Crackers (1927) and Charlie Butler (1937), then a prisoner at the Parchman prison.

The song is not related to Diamond Joe on Good As I Been To You, neither musically nor thematically.

F
Diamond Joe come and get me
C
My wife done quit me
C G
Diamond Joe, you better come and get me,
C
Diamond Joe

Gonna buy me a jug of rum,
Gonna give my baby some
Diamond Joe, you better come and get me,
Diamond Joe.

Diamond Joe come and get me
My wife done quit me
Diamond Joe, you better come and get me,
Diamond Joe

[Instrumental verse]

Gonna buy me a jug of whiskey
Gonna make my baby frisky
Diamond Joe, you better come and get me,
Diamond Joe.

Diamond Joe come and get me
My wife done quit me
Diamond Joe, you better come and get me,
Diamond Joe

[Instrumental verse]

Gonna buy me a sack of flour

Dixie

Trad.

Played by Bob Dylan and band in Masked and Anonymous (2003)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Someone, probably Dylan, plays the F (or something like it) in the refrain straight through the following D, and embellishes the following G with a C/g-G figure. The second time, the F is played right through the G as well. Economy of means, I think it's called...

The Csus4 in the last line of the refrain could just as well be played as an F (or for that matter, as a G – works just as well).

C
I wish I was in the land of cotton
F
Old times there are not forgotten
C
Look away, look away
G C
Look away, Dixieland

In Dixieland where I was born,
Early on one frosty morning
Look away, Look away,
Look away, Dixieland

C F D G
I wish I was in Dixie, away, away
C F
In Dixieland I'll take my stand
C G
to live and die in Dixie,
C G C Csus4 C
Away, away, away down south in Dixie
C G C Csus4 C
Away, away, away down south in Dixie

[instr. verse]

In Dixieland where I was born,
Early on one frosty morn
Look away, Look away,
Look away, Dixieland

I wish I was in Dixie, away, away
In Dixieland I'll take my stand
to live and die in Dixie,
Away, away, away down south in Dixie
Away, away, away down south in Dixie

Enough is Enough

Written by Bob Dylan

Performed occasionally during the European 1984 tour, always with a different set of lyrics

Tabbed and transcribed by Eyolf Østrem

I present attempts at transcriptions of three different performances. The lyrics changed from night to night, so perhaps one shouldn't expect to be able to make a perfect transcription. Still, if you have additions/corrections to the lyrics below, please send them in.

The prominent descent in the verses can be played like this:

G7  Gdim Cm6/g  G
|--7--|--6--|--5--|--3--|
|--6--|--5--|--4--|--3--|
|--7--|--6--|--5--|--4--|
|--5--|--5--|--5--|--5--|
|-----|-----|-----|-----|

Since the whole sequence is simply a dragged-out turnaround over a sustained bass, any turnaround figure will do.

Barcelona, June 28, 1984

G7
Hands off your feet, baby,
Gdim
listen to this
Cm6/g          G
This is what I can't be
G7
Often it hurt me honey, I'm Gdim
looking at you but
Cm6/g          G
You're looking at me too.

          C
Because a dollar is a dollar
                        G
And the downtown boys play rough

Go all the way back, baby
          C          G          D
Tell 'em enough is enough.

Face on the gutter baby, which is which but I'd rather be lucky than be rich
Off with the money honey that is true, but I'm Satisfied with you.

'cause a dollar is a dollar
And the downtown boys play rough
Go all the way back, baby
Tell 'em enough is enough.

All cities, honey, hard, is soakin' wet, but there's no more gold you can get [...] I'm facin' the wall, but baby you took it all.

Because a dollar is a dollar
And the downtown boys play rough
You tell 'em baby,
That enough is enough.

Got a gold mining fever, baby, but, ah
which is which, but I'd Rather be lucky than be rich
[...]
that is true, but I'm satisfied with you

Because a dollar is a dollar
And the downtown boys play rough
Go all the way back, baby
Tell 'em enough is enough.

Got a gold mining fever baby, which is which but
I'd rather be lucky than be rich
Go off with the money honey, that is true, but I'm Satisfied with you.

Paris, Jul 1 1984

Well, I don't mind eating funny honey, sleep down in the ditch, but I'd rather be lucky than be rich
[well, all the time I'm] soakin' wet, but you got all the gold that you gonna get

Because a dollar is a dollar
And the downtown boys play rough
Go all the way back, baby
Tell 'em enough is enough.

[Fall through the sugar, I
Fall through the glue], but I'm
Satisfied with you
[oh, Moneyppenny, I should let it go, so I just wanna know our show]

Because a dollar is a dollar
And the downtown boys play rough
Go all the way back, baby
Tell 'em enough is enough.

[...
...show]
Go back as far as you can go
I don't mind honey, 'bout
Sleepin' in the ditch, tell 'em you'd rather be lucky than be rich

Because a dollar is a dollar
And the downtown boys play rough
Go all the way back, baby
Tell 'em enough is enough.

Wembley, Jul 7, 1984

Hold your seat, honey, back in the ditch, cause I'd rather be lucky than be rich
Oh, yeah, [...
...]
I love you, and that is all.

Because a dollar is a dollar
And the downtown boys play rough
Go all the way back, baby,
tell 'em enough is enough.

[...] motor, honey,
up and down the line,
you tell them that you are mine
[if they heard of you I must obey,]
you tell them you belong to me

Because a dollar is a dollar
And the downtown boys play rough
Go all the way back, baby,
tell 'em enough is enough.

She's from love, honey, back against the wall, but you all had it done, got it all.
Oh, pretty honey, I tell her you're sick but I wish you'd do it mighty quick

Because a dollar is a dollar
And the downtown boys sure play rough
Go all the way back, baby,
tell 'em enough is enough.

Oh let me see if the face is soaking wet,
you already got what you gonna get
If they ever ask you to sleep in the ditch, you tell 'em you'd rather be lucky than be rich.

Because a dollar is a dollar
And the downtown boys sure play rough
Now, go all the way back, baby,
tell 'em enough is enough.

Why Do I Have To Choose?

Written by Willie Nelson

As performed by Bob Dylan in Gothenburg, June 9, 1984

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

C F C F C

 C F C
 Why do I have to choose
 F C F C
 and see everybody lose?

 G
 Walk around and sing the blues,
 C
 Well, darling, I refuse.

Love is hard to find
 Love of any kind
 And love like yours and mine
 Creates its own design.

Why do I have to choose
 and see everybody lose?
 Walk around and sing the blues,
 Oh, darling, I refuse.

When I think of her,
 then I think of you,
 The love is not the same,
 but either love is true.

Why do I have to choose
 see everybody lose
 Walk around and sing the blues,
 Well, darling, I refuse.

We Had It All

Written by Troy Seals and Donny Fritts

Performed by Bob Dylan (with Tom Petty and the Heartbreakers) during the 1986 tour

Tabbed and transcribed by Eyolf Østrem

Dylan is mostly true to the original lyrics, with two noteworthy exceptions. The most substantial changes are in the bridge, where he keeps playing around with a different set of lyrics. Unfortunately, the words aren't clear on the versions that I have (and I present the transcription well aware that it is wrong), but I get the impression that the original's nostalgic sentiment is upset: the "remember when" has become double-edged, and when he sings "And still I try to go back there as much as I can", it sounds as a curse just as much as a blessing. (This is based not so much on the widely circulating version from Mountain View, Aug 5, 1986, as on the alternate version from another 1986 show that is transcribed below). This shift is enhanced also by the subtle change in the line "you were the best thing in my life, I can recall" to "... as I recall", thereby introducing the notion that the past may be a nice place to stay, but that there may be more important places to be.

C . Am . G(11) . . . repeat

Mister fireman, better listen to me
I got a pretty mama in Tennessee
I'm movin' on, I'm a-rollin' on
I'm through with you, too bad you're blue
I'm movin' on.

Ooh...

See that big eight-wheeler, rollin' down the track
Means your true-lovin' daddy ain't comin' back
'Cause I'm movin' on, I'll soon be gone
I'm through with you, too bad you're blue
I'm movin' on.

Ooh...

That big loud whistle, as it blew and blew
 Said hello to the southland, We're comin' to you
 And we're movin' on, oh, hear my song
 You had the laugh on me, so I set you free
 And I'm movin' on.

Oooh...

Different version, with verses not sung by Dylan

That big eight-wheeler, rollin' down the track
 Means your true-lovin' daddy ain't comin' back
 'Cause I'm movin' on, I'll soon be gone
 You were flyin' too high, for my little old sky
 So I'm movin' on.

That big loud whistle, as it blew and blew
 Said hello to the southland, We're comin' to you
 And we're movin' on, oh, hear my song
 You had the laugh on me, so I set you free
 And I'm movin' on.

Mister fireman, won't you please listen to me
 'Cause I got a pretty mama in Tennessee
 Keep movin' me on, keep rollin' on
 So shovel the coal, let this rattler roll
 And keep movin' me on.

Mister Engineer, take that throttle in hand
 This rattler's the fastest in the southern land
 To deep movin' me on, keep rollin' on
 You gonna ease my mind, put me there on time
 And keep rollin' on.

I've told you baby, from time to time
 But you just wouldn't listen or pay me no mind
 Now I'm movin' on, I'm rollin' on You've broken your vow, and it's all over now
 So I'm movin' on.

You've swtched your engine, now I ain't got time
 For a triflin' woman on my main line
 Cause I'm movin on, you done your daddy wrong
 I warned you twice, now you can settle the price

'Cause I'm movin' on.

But someday baby, when you've had your play
You're gonna want your daddy, but your daddy will say
Keep movin' on, you stayed away too long
I'm through with you, too bad you're blue
Keep movin' on.

That Lucky Old Sun

Lonesome Town

Written by Baker Knight, recorded by Ricky Nelson

Played live by Bob Dylan during the 1986 tour with Tom Petty and the Heartbreakers

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

The "(Dm)" in the third line could be played both as an Fm or as a Dm, or as a combination of the two: both xx3130 and xx0111 are possible alternatives.

G11 3x3211

The lyrics differ somewhat from Ricky Nelson's, on minor points (such as the change of "In the town of broken dreams" to "There's a town ...").

C E
There's a place where lovers go
F G(11) C (/d-e)
To cry their troubles away,
F (Dm) C Am
And they call it lonesome town,
Dm G(11) C G(11)
Where the broken hearts stay.

You can buy a dream or two
To last you all through the years,
And the only price you pay
Is a heart full of tears.

F Em
Goin' down to lonesome town
Dm C (/d-e)
Where the broken hearts stay,
F Em
Maybe down in lonesome town
 D7 G(11)
I'll cry my troubles away.

There's a place of broken dreams
Every street is filled with regret.
Maybe down in lonesome town
I can learn to forget.

You can find it in the temple

With a welcome on the door

But be sure to count your blessings

Before you ask for more.

Thank God for every flower and each tree

Thank God for every mountain and the sea

Thank God for giving life to you and me

Wherever you may be, thank God.

"This is Bob Dylan. I'm in England right now, working, so I can't be there tonight, but I'd like to say that Chabad is a worthy organization helping people in need, helping to set them free from the misconceptions and devastation which is destroying their lives from within.

Of course this is a fierce battle, for those responsible for poisoning the minds and bodies of America's youth are reaping great profits. If you can help Chabad to help others who have fallen victims to the lies and deceptions of those who are much more powerful – do so."

Last verse, not sung by Dylan:

Be forgivin to the wayward
Like the Master told us to
When He said forgive them Father
For they know not what they do
They would change their way of livin'
If they could but understand
So remember they're your brothers
They need a helpin' hand.

Up and down the Rio Grande,
 A thousand footprints in the sand
 Reveal a secret no one can define.
 That river rolls on like a breath
 In between my life and death.
 Tell me, who is next to cross that borderline.

And when you reach that broken-promise land,
 And all your dreams flow through your hand.
 You know it's too late to change your mind.
 'Cause you paid the price to come so far,

Yeah, you're still just just across that borderline,
 Well, you're still just across that borderline,
 Well, yeah, you're still just across that borderline.

Original Lyrics

Soon the lonely nights will be ended,
Soon, two hearts as one will be blended.
I've found the happiness I've waited for.
The only girl that I was fated for.

Oh, soon a little cottage will find us
Safe with all our cares far behind us
The day your mine this world will be in tune
Let's make that day come soon.

 C Em F C C F *)
 I took the train from Jackson, my fortune to renew,

 C Em F C G C
 Which sent my heart a-longing for the lakes of Pontchartrain.

C . . Em . . F . . C . . C . . G . . C . . | . . .

I hopped on board of a railway car, beneath the morning sun,
 I rode the roads till the evening, then I laid me down again,
 All strangers there, no friends to me, till a dark girl towards me came,
 And I fell in love with a Creole girl, on the lakes of Pontchartrain.

I said, "My pretty Creole girl, my money here's no good,
 if it weren't for the alligators, I'd sleep out in the wood".
 "You're welcome here kind stranger, our home is very plain.
 But we never turn a stranger out, on the lakes of Pontchartrain."

She took me into her mammy's house, and treated me quite well,
 The hair upon her shoulders in jet black ringlets fell.
 To try and paint her beauty, I'm sure 'twould be in vain,
 So handsome was my Creole girl, on the lakes of Pontchartrain.

I asked her if she would marry me, she said that never can be,
 For she had got a lover, and he was far at sea.
 She swore that she'd be true to him and true she would remain.
 Till he returned to his Creole girl, on the banks of Pontchartrain.

So fare thee well my pretty young girl, I never will see you no more,
 But I'll ne'er forget your kindness in the cottage by the shore.
 And at each social gathering a flowing glass I'll drain,
 And I'll drink a health to my Creole girl, on the banks of Pontchartrain.

When, like a diadem,
Buds blush around the stem,
Which is the fairest gem?
Eileen aroon!

2. Is it the laughing eye?

Is it the timid sigh?
Eileen aroon!
Is it the tender tone,
Soft as the string'd harp's moan?
Oh, it is the truth alone.
Eileen aroon!

3. When, like the rising [/dawning] day,
Eileen aroon!
Love sends his early ray,

What makes his dawning glow
Changeless through joy or woe?
Only the constant know -

'Twas in the merry month of May,
Green buds they were swellin',
Poor William on his death-bed lay,
For the love of Barb'ry Allen.

He sent his man down to town
To the place that she was dwellin'
Sayin', "Master bids your company,
If your name is Barb'ry Allen."

Oh slowly, slowly she got up
To the place where he was lyin',
And when she pulled the curtain back,
Said, "Young man, I b'lieve you're dying!"

"Oh yes, oh yes, I'm very sick
And I shall never get better

Unless I have the love of one,
The love of Bar'bry Allen."

"Don't you remember not long ago,
The day down in the tavern?
You toasted all the ladies there,
But you slighted Barb'ry Allen."

"Oh yes, oh yes, I remember well
That day down in the tavern.
I toasted all the ladies there,
But I gave my heart to Barb'ry Allen."

She looked to the East, she looked to the West,
She saw his pale corpse a-comin',
Cryin', "Put him down and leave him there
So I might gaze upon him."

The more she gazed, the more she mourned,
Until she burst out cryin';
Sayin', "I beg you come and take him away,
For my heart now too is dyin'!"

"Oh, father, father, come dig my grave,
Dig it wide an' narrow.
Poor William died for me today;
I'll die for him tomorrow."

They buried him in the old churchyard,
They buried her beside him,
And from his heart grew a red, red rose,
And from her heart a briar.

They grew, they grew so awful high
Till they could grow no higher,
An' 'twas there they tied a lover's knot,
The red rose and the briar.

In Charlotte town, not far from here,
There was a maid a-dwellin.'
Had a name was known both far and near,
An' her name was Barb'ry Allen.

1988 Version

This version has a very different feel to it, an emotional drama, as opposed to the tender lyricism of the Gaslight version.

Keep the high g' (1st string, 3rd fret) fingered as much as possible, with the following chords in use:

She is a poor girl, and her fortune is sad always been courted by the wagoner's lad
He courted her truly both night and by day
But now he is a-loaded and a-going away

Your parents don't like me they say I'm too poor
They say I'm not worthy to enter your door
But I work for a living, my money's my own
And them that don't like it can leave me alone

My horses ain't hungry, and they don't need your hay
Come sit down beside me for as long as you stay
I'd go to Montana if the moon showed any light,
But my pony can't travel this dark road tonight.

I once had a sweetheart and her age was sixteen
She's the flower of Belton and the rose of Seline.
But her parents was against me, now she is the same,
If I'd writ on your book, love, you just blot out my name.

Hard is the fortune of all womankind
It's always controlled, and it's always confined
Controlled by her parents until she's a wife
Then slave to her husband for the rest of her life.

Em Am
We've put our hearts together

Now we are one,
G(sus4) G
I'm not afraid!

If there's a cloud above
If it should rain we'll let it
But for tonight, forget it!
I'm in the mood for love.

Performed by Bob Dylan three times, spring/summer 1989

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

 My heart is all broken, I'm sad and I'm blue

 I just lost my darling, her name was La La
 E
 As pretty as a picture and twice as fair.

E B
 Hey! La La, Oh! La La, my true La La
 E
 Oh La La, La La La, my true La La.

A grave on the hillside way up in the snow
 A heart broken lover with head bending low
 With tears in his eyes, he placed a red rose
 On the grave of his darling all covered with snow.

E B
 Hey! La La, Oh! La La, my true La La
 E
 Oh La La, La La La, my true La La.

Oh! God up in heaven, please tell her for me
 My hopes are all shattered, oh! say can't you see
 Just tell her I'm waiting to meet her up there
 I'll look at her picture and send her a prayer.

Peace in the Valley

Written by Thomas A. Dorsey

Performed once by Bob Dylan (Les Arènes, Frejus, France 13 June 1989)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Dylan's performance is a tremendous one, but one where – as often is the case with his one-offs – the words aren't always clear. I've noted some deviations from the "standard" version, but not all of them. The end of the chorus is sung differently, but I can't hear what he's singing there. Thus, the version below is a hybrid: neither exactly what Dylan sings, nor what he should have sung.

Either the tape is a little fast, or he has a capo on the 1st fret.

Oh well, I'm tired and so weary, (Csus4-C)
But I must travel on Till the lord comes and takes me away, C/g G
Well the morning's so bright
And the lamp is alight
And the night, night is as black as the sea *)

There will be peace in the valley
for me, one of these days
There will be peace, peace in the valley
for me, oh Lord I pray
There'll be no sadness, no sorrow
No trouble, trouble I see **)
There will be peace, peace in the valley
for me, one of these days

Well the bear will be gentle
And the wolves will be tame
And the lion shall lie down by the lamb, oh yes ***)
And the beasts from on wild
they will be lit by a child
And I'll be changed from this creature that I am

There will be peace in the valley for me, some day
There will be peace in the valley for me, oh Lord I pray
There'll be no sadness, no sorrow

No trouble, trouble I see
There will be peace in the valley for me, for me

Dylan sings:

*) "But I never [...] night / And the night's so bright / With the night as bright as the day."

) "there'll be no trouble / no trouble [at day?] / up over the [...] / of a harder day"

) "Well the beasts will be gentle / And the lion it'll be tame / And the lion will lie down with the lamb"

Pancho and Lefty

Words and music Townes van Zandt
As performed by Bob Dylan 21 Jun 1989
Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

The transcription is mostly true to what Dylan sings. The words within brackets are either approximations to the sounds that he produces, whether or not they are meaningful, or, where indicated, Townes van Zandt's original lyrics.

If anyone with better ears than mine can make out any more of these brackets, please pass me a note.

You should check out Townes van Zandt's original lyrics too.

They only let him slip away, out of kindness I suppose.
out of kindness I suppose.

All the Federales say, they could'a had him any day
They only let him slip away, out of kindness I suppose.

*) Dylan sings "Say goodbye when you say goodbye". I personally think van Zandt's original is better. . .

) Original: "The day they laid poor Pancho low, Lefty split for O-hio / Where he got the bread to go, ain't nobody knows." Dylan sings that later.

*) van Zandt's hotel is cheap.

) These are the original lyrics; Dylan's new words are too low to hear.

Too bad Dylan left out the final couplet, which is worth inclusion:

Pancho needs your prayers it's true, but save a few for Lefty too
He only did what he had to do but now he's growin' old.

Version from Willie Nelson's 60th birthday party (Bob/Willie duet)

(Thanks to Daniel for the lyrics)

Living on the road my friend, is gonna keep you free and clean.
Now you wear your skin like iron, and your breath is hard as kerosene.
You weren't your mamas only boy, but her favorite one it seems.
She began to cry when you said goodbye, and sank unto your dreams.

Pancho was a bandit boy, his horse was fast as polished steel.
He wore his gun outside his pants for all the honest world to feel.
Pancho met his match you know on the desert down in Mexico.
And noone heard his dying word, ah but that's the way it goes.

Lefty he can sing the blues, all night long like he used to,
The dust that's Pancho's bed down south, ended up in Lefty's mouth
The day they let poor Pancho low, Lefty split for Ohio
And where he got the bread to go, there ain't nobody knows.

The poets tell how Pancho fell, Lefty's livin in a cheap hotel.
The desert's quiet and Cleveland's cold, and so the story ends we're told.
Pancho needs your prayers it's true, save a few for Lefty too.
He only did what he had to do, and now he's growing old.

And all the federales say, They could of had him any day.
They only let him go so long out of kindness I suppose.

Crazy Love

Written by Van Morrison

Performed by Bob Dylan and Van Morrison June 27, 1989 on the Philopappos (The Hill Of The Muses), Athens, broadcast in the programme Arena: One Irish Rover – Van Morrison in Performance

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

The tab for the intro is also the pattern for the chorus. The figure in the first measure is repeated after every line of singing. The third chord (Em in the tab) is played as a C by one of them, probably Dylan.

Don't Pity Me

Performed by Bob Dylan in Joliette, Quebec, July 31 1989 (a one-off).

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem and Jamie Lovinger

On my tape (thanks, Jamie), it sounds as if he actually plays it in F# major. On the other hand, the final chord sounds very much like a G shape chord, which is also much easier to play. I append a version in G major at the end.

The lyrics are full of blanks – the word within brackets are not really meaningful suggestions, just words that sound like what he's singing, mainly to have something to place the chords on...

The Harder They Come

Written by Jimmy Cliff

Played four times by Bob Dylan in 1989

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem, based on the version from Bonner Springs, 22 Aug, 1989

Played with barre chords higher up on the neck, but perfectly playable in C, with a capo on the 1st fret. (Interesting song, btw., it is in C, but this chord is nowhere to be seen until the end of the chorus.)

The F chord could be played as an Fadd9 (103213 or xx3213)

G
[Well they] tell you of a pie in the sky
F
Waiting for me when I die
G
Soon as you're born they put you down
F
Twenty foot down underground

Em
Sure as the sun will shine
Am
I'm gonna get what's mine
G
The harder they come
F
the harder they'll fall,
C
One and all
G harder they come
F
harder they'll fall,
C
One and all

Well the oppressors are trying to keep me down
Trying to drive me underground
Soon as you're born, they'll try to do put your head and foot all over you

Sure as the sun will shine
I'm gonna get myself what's mine
The harder they come
the harder they'll fall,
One and all
harder they come harder they'll fall,
One and all

From [...] they put you there

Trying to get you anywhere
I'd rather be a free man in my grave
Than to live as a puppet or a slave

As sure as the sun will shine
I'm gonna get myself what's mine
The harder they come
the harder they'll fall,
One and all
Yeah, harder they come harder they'll fall,
One and all

The original lyrics

Well, they tell me of a pie up in the sky
Waiting for me when I die
But between the day you're born and when you die
You know, they never seem to hear even your cry

And the oppressors are trying to track me down
They're trying to drive me underground
And they think that they have got the battle won
I say, forgive them Lord, they know not what they've done

And I keep on fighting for the things I want
Though I know that when you're dead you can't
But I'd rather be a free man in my grave
Than living as a puppet or a slave

Key to the Highway

by Charles Segar and Willie Broonzy

As played by Bob Dylan at Toad's Place (New Haven, CT), Jan 12, 1990)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

These three verses (plus a fourth that I couldn't make out) were played over and over again, in no particular order.

 E B
I got the key to the highway,
E A
 I feel bound to go.

I'm gonna leave here running;
B E
Walking is most too slow.

I'm going down to the border
Woman, where I'm better known.
Well you ain't done nothing but drive a good man from his home.

Kiss me one, one time more mama
One time before I go,
When I leave this time I won't be back no more.

*) One guitar plays an F here.

) No specific chord is discernible here; several alternatives are played simultaneously... Am is a good guess, which makes sense musically.

When First Unto This Country

Trad.

As played by Bob Dylan June 12, 1991 (Budapest)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

G D C G
 When first unto this country a stranger I came
 C D C G
 I courted a fair maid, Nancy was her name
 G D C G
 I courted her for love, her love I didn't obtain
 C D C G
 Do you think I've any reason or right to complain

I rode to see my Nancy, I rode both day and night
 I rode to see my Nancy, my own heart's true delight
 I rode to see my Nancy, I rode both night and day
 Till I spied a fine grey horse, belonged to captain Grey

But the sheriff's men they followed there, they overtaken me
 Then they carted me away to the penitentiary
 They beat me and they banged me, and they fed me on dry beans
 'Til I wished to my own soul that I'd never been a thief.

They opened up the door and then they threw me in
 They shaved off my hair and they cleared off my chin.
 With my hands all in my pockets and my cap set on so bold
 My coat of many colors Like Jacob's of old.

When first unto this country a stranger I came
 I courted a fair maid, Nancy was her name

Second verse, not sung by Dylan:

People without love, sometimes build a fence around

The garden up above that makes the whole world go 'round

But all the people that don't fit

Get the only fun they get

From people puttin' people down

People puttin' people down.

She's gone and left, I feel so alone.
 I carry a heart as heavy as stone.
 I knew she was cheatin', I knew all the time
 20/20 vision and walkin' 'round blind.

With my eyes wide open I lay in my bed.
 If it wasn't for dyin' I wish I was dead. *)
 But this is my punishment, death is too kind
 20/20 vision and walkin' 'round blind.

You just didn't know her the way that I do.
 You say that she's wicked, and maybe it's true.
 one thing I know, she's no longer mine
 20/20 vision and walkin' 'round blind.

She's gone, she's gone, oh what shall I do?
 you can't be happy if she's there with you.

Some day the heart will trouble your mind
20/20 vision and walkin' 'round blind.

*) Cf. the end of the story of Dink's Song, as told by John Lomax:

A few months ago I inquired about Dink at Yazoo City, Mississippi, her home, she had told me. "Done planted up there," said a Negro woman, pointing to a nearby tree-clad hill. I could see a few slabs of marble shining through the low green foliage. Dink had sung me a spiritual about a lonesome graveyard, with the refrain: "I wouldn't mind dyin' if dyin' was all!"

Answer Me

The fast chord progression in the third line of the verses is played:

  G C F      G   C

|-2-3-3---3-2-|-3----
|-3-3-1---1-3-|------

The first chord in the last line of the verses is usually played as a Dm7, but occasionally a Fmaj7 (133210) sneaks in, with a G11 (3x3211) or a Dm7 on "sweet-":

Fmaj7      G11 C

Black Muddy River

Words by Robert Hunter; music by Jerry Garcia

As performed by Bob Dylan in Melbourne, Australia, Apr 6 1992

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

A truly remarkable example of Dylan's ability to get through a text that he only has a faint recollection of, and still giving the impression that something meaningful is going on. He gets the refrain fairly right, and a line or two from the original lyrics flash by, but apart from that there is no relation at all between what he sings and what Hunter wrote (or, for that matter between what he sings and what makes sense – in any language), but still, it's a very arresting performance of a very charming tune.

For these reasons I will – for once – completely disregard what Dylan sings, and use Hunter's lyrics for the tab. BTW, this was the last song that Jerry Garcia sang.

A Bm D A

G
She was determined to live a lady
C D G C/g G
No man on earth could she betray

Unless it were a man of honor
A man of honor, and high degree
And down the road came two loved soldiers
This fair lady for to see

The first one being a brave lieutenant
A brave lieutenant and a man of war
The other being a brave sea captain
Captain on the ship that came from far

Then up spoke this fair young lady
Said: "I can't be but one man's bride
If you'll come back tomorrow morning
On this case we will decide"

She ordered her a span of horses
Span of horses at her command
And down the road these three did travel
'til they came to the lions' den

There they stopped and there they halted
These three young soldiers lay gazing round
And for the space of half an hour
This young lady lay speechless on the ground

When at last she did recover
She threw her light fan in the lions' den

Saying "Which of you to gain a lady
Will retrieve that fan again?"

Then up spoke the brave lieutenant
In a voice both loud and clear
Sayin': "Oh, I am a dear lover of women
But I will never give my life for them"

Then up spoke this brave sea captain
In a voice both clear and high
Sayin': "Oh, I am a true lover of women
I will return her fan or die"

Down in the lions' den he boldy entered
The lions being both loud and fierce
He marched around in and among them safely returned her fan again

And when she saw her true lover coming
Seeing no harm had been done to him
She threw herself unto his bosom
Saying "Here's the prize that you have won"

Female Rambling Sailor

Trad.

Played by Bob Dylan six times in 1992

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem, based on the version from April 3, 1992

Lyrics revised from the version given at the mudcat cafe

The first half-verse is slightly irregular, but all subsequent verses follow the pattern of the second half-verse ("Her true love...").

An outline of the melody is picked out on the bass strings, in the very loose rhythm in which the song is played. The third line of the verses, e.g., could be played something like:

 Of the female rambling sailor

Never did her courage fail
 Through stormy seas and wintery gale

Always did this fair maid prevail
This female rambling sailor.
From stem to stern she freely went
Where oft-times she'd been many
Her hand did slip and down she fell
She calmly bade this world farewell.

When her lily-white breast in sight it came
It appeared to be a female's frame

From the river Thames she's known quite well
No sailor there could her excel
Let one tear fall as a last farewell

Lyrics transcribed by Michael Pucci

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

First of all: note the similarity with Under The Red Sky, both in the way the chords go, and the first phrase.

Then there's the little "thing" that occurs here and there, particularly in the verse where marked with a *) and at the beginning of the verses:

There was a little ship
                Csus4      C      Csus4 C
and it sailed along the sea
                C                F      C
and the name of the ship was the golden vanity
                *)      C Csus4 C      Csus4      C      Csus4 C and she sailed in the low      and lonesome ocean
                C      G      C
and she sailed in the lonesome sea.

There was another ship sailing along the sea and the name of that ship was the Turkish Revelry*
and sailing down that low and lonesome ocean
saling in the lonesome sea

There was a cabin boy he said what would you give to me if I swim alongside of the Turkish Revelry*
and sink her in the low and lonesome ocean
if I sink her in the lonesome sea

Well, I will give you gold and I will give you land and my own lovely daughter she'll be at your command
if you sink her in the low and lonesome ocean
if you sink her in the lonesome sea

He bowed his breath, overboard jumped he and he swum 'til he came to the Turkish Revelry sailing in the low and lonesome ocean

sailing in the lonesome sea

He had a little tool, an augur meant to bore and drilled nine holes in that ship's floor then he sunk it the low and lonesome ocean
he sunk it in the lonesome sea

And he bowed his breath, back swam he and he swum 'til he came to the Golden Vanity sailing in the low and lonesome ocean
sailing in the lonesome sea

O' captain will you be as good as your word and throw down a line and take me up on board
I'm sinking in that low and lonesome ocean sinking in that lonesome sea

No, I'll not be as good as my word
I'll not throw down a line or to take you back on board
You'll gonna sink in that low and lonesome ocean
Sink in that lonesome sea

If it wasn't for the love that I have onto your men
I would do onto you like I done onto them
I'd sink you in the low and lonesome ocean
Sink you in that lonesome sea

So he bowed his breath and down went he
He swam til he came to pass down with [...]
and he sunk in that low and lonesome ocean
He sunk in that lonesome sea

* Bob, if you listen to the whole show, is obviously drunk and he stumbles on the name of the other ship. Traditionally the ship is the Turkish Revelry.

 I have no idea what he is saying here. Another version has "...to the bottom of the sea" here, which fits nicely.

My mother she says, "Son, don't go
Don't leave me home alone
Don't leave your mother and a home so dear
Never trust a girl on the green briar shore."

But I was young and reckless too
And I craved a reckless life.
I left my mother and a home so dear
And I took that girl to be my wife.

Her hair was dark and curly too
And her lovin' eyes were blue
Her cheeks were like the red red rose
That girl I loved from the green briar shore.

The years rolled on and the months rolled by
She left me all alone.
Now I remember what my mama said,
"Never trust a girl on the green briar shore."

Farewell To The Gold

Written by the New Zealand folk musician Paul Metzgers

Played live by Dylan in Youngstown, OH Nov 2, 1992

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Chords used:

Em7 xx2033

Cadd9 x32030 most often this seems to be played as a straight C

D Em7 C D
 Shotover River, your gold it is waning
 C(add9) D G D
 And it's years since the color I've seen.
 D Em7 C D
 No use just sitting, Lady Luck blaming
 C(add9) D G C/g G
 I'll pack up and make a break clean.

D Dsus4 D G D
 Farewell to the gold that never I found,
 D Dsus4 D G D
 Goodbye to the nuggets that somewhere abound;
 G C G D
 For it's only when dreaming that I see you gleaming
 C D G
 Down in the dark deep underground.

It's nearly three years since I left my old mother
 For adventure and gold by the pound.
 With Jimmy the prospector, he was another,
 For the hills of Otago we were bound.

Farewell . . .

We worked the Cardrona's dry valley all over
 Old Jimmy Williams and me.
 They were panning good dust on the winding shotover
 So we headed down there just to see.

Farewell . . .

We sluiced and we cradled for day after day
 Barely making enough to get by;
 Then a terrible flood swept poor Jimmy away
 During six stormy days in July.

Farewell . . .

Little Moses

Trad/A. P. Carter

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Lyrics transcribed by Manfred Helfert, who also says:

Covered by Dylan during 5 Mar 1970 "Self Portrait" sessions (credited to Bert A. Williams/Earle C. Jones), during 1975 Rolling Thunder Revue tour (a fragment with Dylan on piano, probably dating from Nov 1975 is part of the "Renaldo and Clara" soundtrack), performed live in 1992 and 1993. Dylan's most likely source is The Carter Family's recording (RCA Studios, Camden, NJ, 14 Feb 1929, included in Harry Smith's Anthology of American Folk Music (track 53) on Folkways. (Roots, Routes and Ramblings)

C G C
Away by the river so clear,
 C G C
The ladies were winding their way,
 G
And Pharaoh's little daughter stepped down in the water
 C F C
To bathe in the cool of the day.
 C F/c C C F/c C
Before it was dark she opened the ark
 G C
And found the sweet infant was there.

And away by the waters so blue,
The infant was lonely and sad.
She took him in pity and thought him so pretty
And it made little Moses so glad.
She called him her own, her beautiful son
And sent for a nurse that was near.

And away by the river so clear,
They carried the beautiful child,
To his own tender mother, his sister and brother,
Little Moses looked happy and smiled.
His mother so good done all that she could
To rear him and teach him with care.

And away by the sea that was red,
Little Moses the servant of God,
While in him confided, the sea was divided,
As upward he lifted his rod.
The Jews safely crossed while Pharaoh's host
Was drowned in the waters and lost.

And away on the mountain so high,
The last one that ever might see,
While in his victorious, his hope was most glorious
He'd soon o'er the Jordan be free.
When his labor did cease, he departed in peace
And rested in the Heavens above.

Weeping Willow

Man, that weeping willow, moaning like a dove
Dm A
Weeping willow moaning like a dove
E7 D#o E7 A D#o E7 |A (A6)
Man, there's a gal up the country I sure do love

If you see my baby tell her to hurry home
You see my baby, tell her hurry home
I ain't had no lovin' since my little girl been gone

Where it ain't no love, ain't no gettin' along, (aaaww, shucks!)
ain't no love, mama, ain't no love and gettin' along.
My baby treats me so mean and dirty, can't tell right from wrong

Gonna buy me a bulldog, watch you while you sleep
Buy me a bulldog, watch you while you sleep
I have to stop them men from makin' early mornin' creep.

You gonna want my love, mama, some old lonesome day,
You gonna want my love, mama, some old lonesome day,
But it'll be too late, I'll be gone too far away.

Oh, that weeping willow, mourning like a dove
Weeping willow mourning like a dove
Well, there's a gal in the country man I sure do love.

The Lady Came From Baltimore

Written by Tim Hardin (1967)

Performed by Bob Dylan in 1992 (once) and 1994 (three times)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem (based on the version from Apr 13 1994)

Capo 1st fret (sounding key C♯ major), or a fast tape.

The G at the beginning of the chorus is tinted with a c, i.e. it could basically be played as a Gsus4 (e.g. 320013), although it may also be the outcome of two different chords (C and G) being played on two different guitars.

C G
 Lady came from Baltimore,
 F C
 All she wore was lace.
 F C
 She never knew that I was poor,
 G(sus4 G)
 never saw my face.

Am G
 I was there to take her money,
 F C
 Steal her rings and run.
 F C
 Then I fell in love
 G C
 with the lady, got away with none.

[1 verse/refrain interlude]

The lady's name was Susan Moore,
 Her daddy read the law.
 She never knew that I was poor,
 And lived outside the law.

Her daddy said, I was a thief
 Never married her for love.
 It was Susan's true belief
 I married her for love.

I was there to take her money,
 Steal her rings and run.
 Then I fell in love
 with the lady, got away with none.

[1 verse/refrain interlude]

Outside her house there was a wall
 To keep the robbers out.
 She'd never stop to think at all
 If that's what I'm about.

I was there to take her money,
Steal her rings and run.
Then I fell in love
with the lady, got away with none.

'Well, a couple shots of whiskey, women round here start looking good

Well, a couple shots of whiskey, women round here start looking good

A couple more shots of whiskey, I'm going down to Minglewood'

) Dylan sings something else – probably intending to sing the same as in the last verse.

Shake Sugaree

Written by Elizabeth Cotten

Performed live by Bob Dylan 7 times in 1996 and 1997

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

E
I got a secret, and I ain't gonna tell
A
I'm going to Heaven in a split pea shell

A
Oh Lordy me, didn't we shake sugaree
E B A E
Everything I have is down in pawn.

I pawned my watch, and I pawned my chain
I even tried to sell myself, but I got down so ashamed

I've got a song to sing, and it's not very long
I'm gonna sing it right, if it takes me all night long.

I got a secret, and I ain't gonna tell
I'm going to Heaven in a split pea shell.

Different version (Cotten's own?) with additional verses not sung by Dylan

I have a little song, won't take long
Sing it right, once or twice
Oh lord oh me, didn't I shake sugaree
Everythin' I got is done in pawn (2x)
I pawned my watch, pawned my chain
Pawned everything that was in my name
I pawned my buggy, house and cot
Pawned everything that was on my lot
I pawned my chair, I pawned my bed
Don't have nowhere to lay my head
I have a little secret I ain't gonna tell
I'm goin' to heaven in a ground pea shell
I pawned my house, I've pawned my home
Pawned everything that I own
I pawned my tobacco, I pawned my pipe
Pawned everything that was in my sight
I know something, I ain't gonna tell
I'm goin' to heaven and I ain't goin' to ...
I pawned my hat, I pawned my shoes
Pawned everything that I could use

I chew my tobacco, spit my juice
I would raise cain but it ain't no use

Not Fade Away

Written by Norman Petty, Charles Hardin and Buddy Holly

Performed by Bob Dylan regularly in 1999-2000 and a few times before and after that

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Buddy Holly played this song with the basic rhythm:

:   .   .   .   .   :   .   .   .
    ba     ba     ba  ba

When The Rolling Stones covered the song, they changed the rhythm into the “Bo Diddley Beat” and moved the chord changes:

E           A  E
v     v     v     v  v
:   .   .   .   :   .   .   .

This has become the standard version of the song, which Dylan follows. Early on he played it rather straightforwardly in the “Stones Tradition” (see 1997 version below), but since 1999 he and the band have worked out their own distinctive version, to which they have remained faithful.

2000 version

The transcription below follows the version from Oslo, May 19, 2000, with a side-glance at Vienna, April 30, 1999.

I'm a three time loser, I'm long gone this time.

D C G
Jealousy has took my young life,
D C G
all for the love of another man's wife.
G G7 C
But I've had it comin', I've known all the time.
G D G
No more stone walls, steel bars or you on my mind.

Stone walls, steel bars, a love on my mind.
I'm a three time loser, I'm long gone this time.

Old, gray warden, dark Frisco Bay.
Guards all around me, leadin' my way.
I've had it comin, I tend o'er the line.
No more stone walls, steel bars nor you on my mind.

Stone walls, steel bars, a love on my mind.
I'm a three time loser, I'm long gone this time.
I'm a three time loser, I'm long gone this time.

I'll Not Be A Stranger

As played by Bob Dylan late 1997

Lyrics borrowed from Manfred Helfert's transcription

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

C F
I'll not be a stranger when I get to that city;
C G
I'm acquainted with folks over there.
C
There'll be friends there to greet me,
F
There'll be loved ones to meet me
C G C
At the gates of that city four square.

G
Through the years, through the tears,
C
They've gone one by one.
G
But they'll wait at the gate

Until my race is run.
C F
I'll not be a stranger when I get to that city
C G C
I'm acquainted with folks over there.

C . . G . . C . . | . . .

I'll not be a stranger when I get to that city;
I've a home on the streets paved with gold.
I'll feel right at home there
In that beautiful somewhere
With the loved ones whose memory I hold.

Through the years, through the tears,
They've gone one by one.
But they'll wait at the gate
Until my race is run.
I'll not be a stranger when I get to that city
I'm acquainted with folks over there.

I'll not be a stranger when I get to that city;
There'll be no lonely days over there.
There'll be no stormy weather
But a great time together
On the streets of that city four square.

Through the years, through the tears,
They've gone one by one.
But they'll wait at the gate
Until my race is run.
I'll not be a stranger when I get to that city
I'm acquainted with folks over there.

Roving Gambler

As performed by Bob Dylan on the Love Sick single (El Rey Theatre, LA, USA, Dec 17 1997)

Recorded and arranged by Hank Thompson

Submitted by Amelia Cruz with corrections by Eyolf Østrem

G

I am a rovin' gambler, I've gambled all around

Wherever I meet with a deck of cards

C G

I lay my money down

(C) G

(I Lay my money down; Lay my money down.)

I gambled up in Washington, gambled over in Spain

I'm on my way to Frisco town

to knock down my last game

(knock down my last game; knock down my last game)

I had not been in 'Frisco, many more days than three

I fell in love with a pretty little girl

And she fell in love with me

(Fell in love with me; Fell in love with me.)

She took me in her parlor, she cooled me with a fan

She whispered low in her mama's ear

"I love this gamblin' man."

("Love this gamelin' man."; "Love this gamblin' man.")

"Daughter, Oh! dear daughter, how could you treat me so?

And leave your dear old mother

And with a gambler go?"

("With a gambler go?"; "With a gambler go?")

"Mother, Oh dear mother, I'll tell you if I can

If you ever see my face again,

I'll be with the gamblin' man"

("be with the gamblin' man"; "be with the gamblin' man")

I left her in 'Frisco, I went up to Maine

then I met with a gamblin' man and then we got into a poker game

(Got into a poker game; We got into a poker game.)

He put some money in the pot, passed the cards around

I saw him deal from the bottom of the deck

So I shot the gambler down

(Shot the gambler down; Shot the gambler down.)

Now I'm down in prison, I got a number for a name

The warden said as he closed the door

You've gambled your last game

(Gambled your last game; Gambled your last game.)

Well, We're all so happy there together
In our little mountain home
But the Saviour needs angels in heaven
To sing by that great white throne

White dove will mourn in sorrow
The willow will hang their head
I'll live my life in sorrow
Now that mother and daddy are dead

As the years go by I often wonder
Will we all be together some day
And I've lost every hour in the graveyard
Darkness finds me on my knees to pray

White dove will mourn in sorrow
The willow will hang their head
I'll live my life in sorrow
Now that mother and daddy are dead

Oh, Babe, It Ain't No Lie

Written by Elizabeth Cotten

As played by Bob Dylan in Durham, NH, April 11 1997

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

G C
Some old lady, in this town.
G D G
Keeps telling all them lies on me.
G G7 C
Wish to my soul that old lady would die.
G D G
Stop telling all them lies on me.

D G
Oh babe, it ain't no lie.
B7 C
Oh babe, it ain't no lie.
G
Oh babe, it ain't no lie.
D G
this life I lead is mighty high.

Been all around this whole wide world
Honey babe I just got back today
I've been saving all of my love for you
Honey baby what more can I do

Oh babe, it ain't no lie (etc.)

I'm Not Supposed To Care

Words and music Gordon Lightfoot
 Performed by Bob Dylan three times in May 1998
 Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

A beautiful tune! Much of the effect lies in the hypnotically ever-descending bass line, with subtly changing chords above it. Also, the ornaments in the band turn a quite simple country(ish) ballad into something quite complex.

You're Too Late

Written by Lefty Frizzell and Herman P. Willis

Played live by Bob Dylan once, Daytona Beach, FL, Jan 29, 1999

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

G C G
 If I had someone that's true
 C G
 It would thrill me through and through
 G D
 I'd be happy, oh so happy, night and day
 G C G
 Seems each one got a perfect mate
 C G
 But for me it's always late
 G D G
 And it kills my soul to hear my sweetheart say:

D
 Too late, to late
 C G
 You're too late
 D
 I've waited oh so long,
 C G
 But you never did come home.
 G C/g G
 Now you just go on alone,
 D G
 You're too late

I'll build my castles high
 Just to watch them fade and die
 Sometimes I wonder if I'll ever find a mate
 But I came looking o'er the hill for someone, and I always will
 But it just might be my fate to be too late

Too late, to late
 You're too late
 I've waited oh so long,
 But you never did come home.
 Now you just go on alone,
 You're too late

Train of Love

Words and music Johnny Cash

Performed by Bob Dylan April 6, 1999 for the All Star Tribute to Johnny Cash

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

[Hey, Johnny, I wanna say "Hi!" and sorry we can't be there, but that's just the way it is. I wanna sing you one of your songs about trains. I used to sing this song before I ever wrote a song, and I also want to thank you for standing up for me, way back when.]

Train of love's a-comin'

Big black wheels a-hummin'

F

People waitin' at the station

Happy hearts are drummin'

Trainman tell me maybe

Ain't you got my baby

G

Every so often everybody's baby gets the urge to roam

C

But everybody's baby but mine's comin' home.

Now stop your whistle blowin'

'Cause I got ways of knowin'

Your bringin' other people's lovers

But my own keeps goin'

Train of love's deceivin'

When she's not gone she's leavin'

Every so often everybody's baby gets the urge to roam

But everybody's baby but mine's comin' home

Train of love's now hastin'

Sweethearts standin' waitin'

Here and there and everywhere

There's going to be embracin'

Trainman tell me maybe

Ain't you got my baby

Every so often everybody's baby gets the urge to roam

But everybody's baby but mine's comin' home

Train of love's a-leavin'

Leavin' my heart grievin'

Bur early or late, I sit and wait

Because I'm still believin'

We'll walk away together

Though I may wait forever

Every so often everybody's baby gets the urge to roam

But everybody's baby but mine's comin' home

G C D
Glory, glory, glory, somebody touched me,
G D G
Must have been the hand of the Lord.

While I was praying, somebody touched me,
While I was praying, somebody touched me,
While I was praying, somebody touched me,
Must have been the hand of the Lord.

Glory, glory, glory, somebody touched me,
Glory, glory, glory, somebody touched me,
Glory, glory, glory, somebody touched me,
Must have been the hand of the Lord.

It was on a Sunday, somebody touched me,
It was on a Sunday, somebody touched me,
It was on a Sunday, somebody touched me,
Must have been the hand of the Lord.

Glory, glory, glory, somebody touched me,
Glory, glory, glory, somebody touched me,
Glory, glory, glory, somebody touched me,
Must have been the hand of the Lord.

"Thank you, ladies and gentlemen!"

Larry plays along (rhythm and fills) by playing in the key of D with a capo on the fifth fret, which of course is the key of G:

I Am The Man, Thomas

Written by Ralph Stanley and Larry Sparks

Performed by Bob Dylan during 1999 (various locations)

Lyrics transcribed by seabreez (based on Ralph Stanley's own version)

The two chords discovered by Eyolf Østrem

Thanks to Michael for supplies.

G

I am the Man, Thomas

I am the Man

Look at these nail scars

D G

Here in my hand

G

They drove me up the hill, Thomas

I am the Man

They made me carry the cross, Thomas

D G

I am the Man

I am the Man, Thomas

I am the Man

Look at these nail scars

Here in my hand

They crowned my head with thorns, Thomas

I am the Man

They nailed me to the cross, Thomas

I am the Man

I am the Man, Thomas

I am the Man

Look at these nail scars

Here in my hand

They pierced me in the side

I am the Man

I died on the cross, Thomas

I am the Man

I am the Man, Thomas

I am the Man

Look at these nails scars

Here in my hand

They buried me in the tomb, Thomas
I am the Man
In three days I rose, Thomas
I am the Man

I am the Man, Thomas
I am the Man
Look at these nails scars
Here in my hand

Dylan seems to have combined verse two and three into the following:

They pierced my side with thorns, Thomas
I am the Man
They made me carry the cross, Thomas
I am the Man

It's hard to work out exactly, though (Bob apparently thought so too). Suggestions for words instead of thorns are: forks, pork and, more plausible, swords. At one show the third line was, I believe, sung:

They drove me off a cliff, Thomas

Pass Me Not, O Gentle Savior

Written by Frances J. Crosby and William H. Doane

Hear my humble cry
While on others Thou art calling,
Do not pass me by

[instr. verse]

Savior, Savior,
Hear my humble cry
While on others Thou art calling,
D C D7 G
Do not pass me by

Additional verses not sung by Dylan:

Trusting only in Thy merit,
Would I seek Thy face;
Heal my wounded, broken spirit,
Save me by Thy grace.

Thou the Spring of all my comfort,
More than life to me,
Whom have I on earth beside Thee?
Whom in heav'n but Thee?

foul, I to the fountain fly;
wash me, Savior, or I die.

While I draw this fleeting breath,
when mine eyelids close in death,
when I soar through tracts unknown
see thee on thy judgment throne,
Rock of ages, cleft for me,
let me hide myself in thee.

This place ain't doin' me any good
I'm in the wrong town, I should've been in Hollywood
Just for a second there I thought I saw something move
Gonna take dancin' lessons, do the jitterbug rag
Ain't no shortcuts, gonna dress in drag
Only a fool in here would think he got anythin' to prove Lotta water under the bridge, lotta other stuff too
Don't get up gentlemen, I'm only passing through

People are crazy and times are strange
 I'm locked in tight, I'm out of range
 I used to care but - things have changed.

I've been walkin' forty miles of bad road
 If the Bible is right the world will explode
 I'm tryin' to get as far away from myself as I can
 Some things are too hot to touch
 The human mind can only stand so much
 You can't win with a losing hand
 Feel like falling in love with the first woman I meet
 Puttin' her in a wheelbarrow and wheelin' her down the street

People are crazy and times are strange
 I'm locked in tight, I'm out of range
 I used to care but - things have changed.

I hurt easy, I just don't show it
 You can hurt someone and not even know it
 The next sixty seconds could be like an eternity
 Gonna get lowdown, gonna fly high
 All the truth in the world adds up to one big lie
 I'm in love with a woman that don't even appeal to me
 Mr. Jinx and miss Lucy they jumped in a lake
 I'm not that eager to make a mistake

People are crazy and times are strange
 I'm locked in tight, I'm out of range
 I used to care but - things have changed.

The song can of course be played without the capo:

This World Can't Stand Long

Written by Jim Anglin (copyrights bought by Roy Acuff)(info from Alan Fraser)

As played by Bob Dylan in Anaheim, CA, March 10 2000, Early Show

Tabbed by Jake Zittlow and Eyolf Østrem

C
This world can't stand that long
F C
Be ready don't wait too late
G
You should know it can't stand long
 C
For it is too full of hate

For a long time this world has stood Gets more wicked every day
the maker who created it
Surely won't let it stand this way

This world can't stand too long
Be ready don't wait too late
You should know it can't stand long
For it is too full of hate

This world's been destroyed before
Cause it is too full of sin
For that very reason
It will be destroyed again

This world it can't stand long
Be ready don't wait too late
You should know it can't stand long
For it is too full of hate

If we only give our hearts to God
Let him lead us by the hand
Nothing in this world to fear
He'll lead you across the golden sand

This world it can't stand long
Be ready don't wait too late
You should know it can't stand long
For it is too full of hate

Roving Blade (Newry Highwayman)

Trad.

As performed by Bob Dylan in Reno, NV on March 17, 2000 (late show)

Tabbed and transcribed by Eyolf Østrem (based on lyrics from the mudcat cafe)

C

 C Csus4 C Csus4 F/c C

 G F C
 In Newry town, where I was bred and born,
 G F G
 Stephen's Green now I lie in scorn.
 C F C
 I served my time there to the saddlers' trade,
 G F C
 And I always was a roving blade.

At seventeen I took a wife,
 And I loved her dearer than I loved my life;
 And for to keep her both neat and gay,
 I went a-robbing on the King's highway.

I never robbed any poor man yet,
 Nor any tradesman did I beset;*)
 But I robbed lords and their ladies fair,
 And brought their jewels to my heart's delight.

To Covent Garden I made my way,
 With my dear wife for to see the play;
 Lord Fielding's men did me pursue,
 And taken was I by the cursed crew.

My father cried, "My darling son."
 My wife she cried, "I am undone."
 My mother tore her white locks and cried that in the cradle I should have died.

When I am dead and in my grave
 A flashy funeral pray let me have;
 Six highwaymen for to carry me.
 Give them broadswords and sweet liberty.

Six pretty fair maids to bear my Pall,
 Give them white garlands and ribbons all.*)
 And when I'm dead they will speak the truth,
 He was a wild and a wicked youth.

*) Dylan sings something else here

Additional fourth verse:

I robbed Lord Golding I do declare,
 And Lady Mansel, in Grosvenor Square;

I shut the shutters and bid them good night.
And home I went then to my heart's delight.

Long Black Veil

Written by M.J.Wilkin and D.Dil

Performed twice by Bob Dylan, in Wheeling, West Virginia, 28 April 1997 (electric) and in George, Washington, June 17, 2000 (acoustic)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Below is the acoustic version from 2000. The electric version is played in E (chords: E, B and A), and it's much slower. Otherwise it's basically the same arrangement.

C . . Csus4 | C . . .

C (Csus4 C)
 Ten years ago on a cold dark night
 G F C
 Someone was shot 'neath the town hall light
 C Csus4 C Csus4 C
 The people who saw, well they all agreed
 G F C Csus4 C
 That the slayer that ran looked a lot like me

The judge said "Son, what is your alibi?
 If you were somewhere else you won't have to die"
 I spoke not a word though it meant my life
 I had been in the arms of my best friend's wife

F C F C
 She walks these hills in a long black veil

C . . . | C . . . |
 G . . . | F . C . |

The scaffold was high, eternity near
 She stood in the crowd and shed not a tear
 But sometimes at night when the cold wind moans
 In a long black veil she shivers over my bones

She walks these hills in a long black veil
 Visits my grave when the night winds wail
 Nobody knows, nobody sees
 Nobody knows but me

Blue Bonnet Girl

The tune was written by Glenn Spencer (copyright 1936), who was the brother of Tim Spencer of the Sons of the Pioneers, who recorded the best known version of the song (info confirmed by Glenn Spencer's daughter-in-law). Other recordings by Roy Rogers and Jimmie Davis.

Performed by Bob Dylan Nov 1, 2000 in Bloomington, Indiana.

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

The chords can be played as indicated in the tab of the intro, but it will only "work" if you have a bass player (the same goes for the a \sharp in the bass at F \sharp 7; that chord is played xx4656). Otherwise, play the full 9th chords somewhere else. These are just suggestions:

F#m6  244242
B9     (2)24222
E      x79997 (in meas. 3 of the intro)
D#     x68886
G#9    xx6876
C#9    x46444
F#9    xx4654

The "B \flat " chord in the bridge is shorthand for some kind of chromatic descent within the overall chord of B, such as

"B $\flat$ "  223332 (the 6th string should be sounding!)

Intro:

      E          C#m          F#m6          B9          E          D#

Humming Bird

John and Jack Anglin

Played by Bob Dylan during the summer tour 2001 (as sung in Anzio, Jul 24)

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

I've indicated the length of the phrases, as they are somewhat irregular.

I've only partly been able to decipher the lyrics of Dylan's version, which differ considerably from Jim & Jack's. His second verse is some of the most unintelligible singing I've ever heard from Dylan. Any clues, anyone?

Additional verses, not sung by Bob Dylan

If your life is empty and you're on your last go-round
Wait for the light to shine
If you hear the chime-knells on the highway you have found
Wait for the light to shine

Wait for the light to shine
Wait for the light to shine

Wait for the light to shine

Don't let trouble fool you and your sins will all be gone
Wait for the light to shine
Don't forget it's darkest just before the break of dawn
Wait for the light to shine

Wait for the light to shine
Wait for the light to shine

Voice From On High/I Hear A Voice Calling

Words and music Bill Monroe and Bessie Lee Mauldin

Performed by Bob Dylan as an opener in Hamburg, NY, Aug 15, 2002

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem (thanks to zepat for supplies)

Dylan's version

Dylan is closer to Bill Monroe's version than to the Stanley Brothers', both in the lyrics and in the turn to A7 (D7 in Monroe's version) in the verse.

If anyone can make out what he is (or should be) singing in the first verse, I'd be happy to receive a note. The only radical difference from the older versions is the end of the lines in the chorus: they hold them and weave a little something between the voices – Dylan & Co cut it short.

G
I hear a voice calling, it must be our Lord
He's calling from heaven on high
I hear a voice calling, I've gained the reward
In the land where we never shall die

[The Saviour has] paid a great price for me
He died on the hill so [my friends?] should go free
Well, I'll follow his footsteps up the narrow way
And be ready to meet him when he calls on that day

[n.c.]
I hear a voice calling, it must be our Lord
He's calling from heaven on high
I hear a voice calling, I've gained the reward
In the land where we never shall die.

He died on the cross, that old rugged cross
So we should be saved in our sins and our loss
So I'll follow his footsteps up the narrow way
And be ready to meet him when he calls on that day

I hear a voice calling, it must be our Lord
He's calling from heaven on high
I hear a voice calling, I've gained the reward
In the land where we never shall die.
In the land where we never shall die.
In the land where we never shall die.

*) More theologically correct would, I suppose, be: "And he'll pay our debts ...", but they clearly sing "we'll ..."

Accidentally Like A Martyr

Written by Warren Zevon

Performed by Bob Dylan during the fall tour 2002

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Dylan is mostly faithful to Zevon's version, with the exception of the first chord in the third line of the verses, which is rather played something like this:

      Bb          C          Dm C Bb F/a
Never thought I'd have to pay so dearly

It sounds as if the most pronounced guitar in Dylan's version plays with D-chords and a capo on the third fret. I've included such a version below, as well as a version capoed on the 5th fret.

The long chord sequence in the middle of the song is virtually impossible to play satisfactorily on one guitar: The chords themselves are simple enough, but you simply can't get both the bass line and the "dut-dut-dut" figure right at the same time. I've tabbed out a suggestion in the version with the 5th fret capo. Perhaps surprisingly, the uncapoed and the 3rd fret capo version sound best, overall, in this respect.

I'm carryin' a torch
C G/b Am F
You don't know, you don't know what it's worth
C G C
To keep carryin' a torch

Flame of love it burns so bright
That is my desire
Keep on liftin' me, liftin' me up
Higher and higher

G7
You're the keeper of the flame
F C
And you burn so bright
G7
why don't we, why don't we re-connect
F G7
And move up into the light

I've been going to and fro on this and that cause I'm still carryin' a torch
You must know, You must know what it's worth
To keep carryin' a torch

Baby you're the keeper of the flame
And you burn so bright
why don't we, why don't we re-connect
And move all up into the light

I've been calling you on the phone
Cause I'm carryin' a torch
I can do it all on my own
Keep carryin' a torch

I'm carryin' a torch for you, baby
I'm carryin' a torch
You don't know, you don't know what it's worth
To keep carryin' a torch

Old Man

Written by Neil Young

Played live by Bob Dylan during the fall tour 2002

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

The Fs are generally embellished by Fmaj7s (133210). the whole think could/should also be played xx0560 – that’s how Young does it.

There are some lyric variations from Neil Young’s version.

The End Of The Innocence

Written by Bruce Hornsby and Don Henley

Performed regularly by Bob Dylan during the fall 2002 tour

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

The intro is playable in G, but the two highest strings that seem to be sounding throughout made me think they might be open strings, hence capo 3rd fret and key of E. I don't think that's what they're playing, but it sounds better that way, so I added a tab like that (see below).

I should also say that my copy of this song isn't the best-sounding ever, so there are probably mistakes.

A Change Is Gonna Come

Written by Sam Cooke

Performed live by Bob Dylan at the 70th anniversary celebration show at the Apollo Theatre, NY

Tabbed by Eyolf Østrem

Capo 1st fret (sounding key C# major)

See tab for chord shapes

The song is played higher up on the neck, and instead of the first-position version below, you can use a capo on the 6th fret and the alternative chords further down on the page. The intro can actually be played fairly comfortably on a single guitar an octave lower than played, as notated:
